power to remove said deputy clerk from office. Any such appointed deputy city clerk shall, while holding office, have the power and authority to perform all of the duties and functions of the city clerk and clerk of council. (1950, c. 536; 1966, cc. 12, 83; 1972, c. 808; 1975, c. 511)

§ 3.06:1. Administrative assistants.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this charter, the mayor and each council member may appoint one administrative assistant. No member of the immediate family of a member of the council shall be eligible for appointment as an administrative assistant. (1974, c. 595; 1976, c. 669; 1995, c. 782; 2015, cc. 201, 294)

§ 3.07. Induction of members.

The first meeting of a newly elected council shall take place at 7:00 P.M. on the second day of January following their election, or if such day shall fall on Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, then on the next business day following the second day of January. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1968, c. 510; 1971, c. 166; 2002, c. 149; 2015, cc. 201, 294)

§ 3.07:1. Adjudication of election and qualifications of council and mayor.

The general laws of the Commonwealth relative to election recounts and election contests shall be applicable to mayor and council election recounts and contests. The council shall be the judge of the election and qualifications of its members, including the mayor, with respect to any matters not covered by the said general laws and the decision of the council shall be final and there shall be no right of appeal or review. (1971, c. 166)

§ 3.08. Rules of procedure.

The council shall be a continuing body and no measure pending before it shall abate or be discontinued by reason of the expiration of the term of office of or removal of the members of the body or any of them. Except as herein provided, the council shall establish its own rules of procedure. They shall provide that the council shall meet in regular session at least twice each month, except during the months of July and August. They shall also provide for the calling of special meetings by the mayor, the city manager or any two members of the council, provided that at least twelve hours' written notice of each special meeting is served personally on each member or left at his usual place of business or residence, which notice shall contain a statement of the specific item or items of business to be transacted, and no other business shall be transacted at such meeting except by the unanimous consent of all members of the council; provided, however, that a special meeting may be held at any time without notice if all members of the council attend said meeting or waive notice thereof. Regular and special meetings may be held at any suitable location in the city. Whenever a regular or special meeting is held at a location other than at city council chambers, notice of the time and location of any such meeting shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city at least five days prior to the meeting. In the event of an emergency no such notice need be published provided the city manager, the mayor, or any two members of the council attempt to give the news media such notice as can reasonably be given under the circumstances. A majority of the members of the council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. No ordinance or resolution appropriating money exceeding the sum of five hundred dollars, imposing taxes, or authorizing the borrowing of money shall be passed except by a recorded affirmative vote of a majority of all members elected to council. On final vote on any ordinance or resolution the name of each member voting and how he voted shall be recorded. No ordinance, resolution, motion or vote shall be adopted by the council except at a meeting open to the public and unless it shall have received the affirmative votes of a majority of the members present. No vote shall be reconsidered or rescinded at any special meeting unless at such special meeting there are present as large a number of members as were present when such vote was taken. No ordinance or resolution appropriating money exceeding the sum of one thousand dollars, imposing taxes, or authorizing the borrowing of money, shall be passed by the council on the same day on which it is introduced, nor shall any such ordinance or resolution be valid unless at least three days intervene between its introduction and its passage. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1971, c. 166; 1972, c. 808; 1988, c. 157)

§ 3.09. Ordinances.

In addition to such acts of the council which are required by the Constitution or general laws of the Commonwealth or by this charter to be by ordinance, every act of the council creating, altering or abolishing any department or creating, assigning, abolishing any bureau, division, office, agency or employment, making an appropriation in excess of five thousand dollars, except as provided by § 5.16, authorizing the borrowing of money, except as provided by §§ 7.04, 7.19, 7.20 and 7.21, levying a tax, establishing any rule or regulation for the violation of which a fine or penalty is imposed shall be by ordinance. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1971, c. 166)

§ 3.10. Form of ordinance.

Every ordinance except the annual appropriation ordinances and an ordinance codifying ordinances shall be confined to a single subject which shall be clearly expressed in its title. All ordinances shall be introduced in typewritten or printed form or a combination of both. All ordinances which repeal or amend existing ordinances shall identify by title the section or subsection to be repealed or amended. The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be: "The City Council of Alexandria hereby ordains." Unless another date is specified therein and except as otherwise provided in this charter, an ordinance shall take effect on the day of its final passage. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1972, c. 808; 1976, c. 669)

§ 3.11. Procedure for passing ordinances.

Any ordinance may be introduced by any members of the council or by the city manager at any regular meeting of the council or at any special meeting when the subject thereof has been included in the notice for such special meeting or been approved by the unanimous consent of all members of the council. Upon introduction, the ordinance shall receive its first reading and, provided it shall receive an affirmative vote of the majority of members present at this meeting; and provided further, it is not a matter that by this charter or some other provision of law requires more than a majority vote, a time, not less than three days after such introduction, and place shall be set at which the council will hold a public hearing concerning it. If all members of the council present at such introduction have received a copy of the proposed ordinance not less than twenty-four hours before said introduction, then only the item as it appears on the docket of matters to be considered by city council need be read for the first reading, otherwise the ordinance shall be read verbatim. The hearing may be held at a regular or special meeting of the council and may be adjourned from time to time. It shall be the duty of the city clerk to cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, not later than the fifth day following the introduction of the ordinance, a notice containing the time and place of the hearing and the title of the proposed ordinance. It shall also be his duty to have the title or the full text of the proposed ordinance printed in sufficient numbers to supply copies to meet requests or to cause it to be published as a paid advertisement in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. It shall also be the duty of the city clerk to place a copy of the ordinance in a file provided for each member of the council for this purpose. A proposed ordinance, unless it be an emergency ordinance, may be finally passed upon its second reading at either a regular or special meeting of the council following the introduction, publication and conclusion of the public hearing thereon.

Amendments or additions to an ordinance may be made at any time after introduction and further publication of an amendment is not necessary, except that if said amendments or additions introduce an entirely new subject matter and radically change the overall purpose of said ordinance, then they shall be handled separately and introduced as a new ordinance. At the second reading only the item as it appears on the docket of matters to be considered by city council need be read, unless amendments or additions have been made subsequent to the introduction, in which case said amendments or additions shall be read in full prior to passage. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1956, c. 262; 1966, cc. 12, 83; 1971, c. 166; 1976, c. 669; 1988, c. 157)

§ 3.12. Emergency ordinances.

Except for ordinances appropriating money exceeding the sum of one thousand dollars, imposing taxes, or authorizing the borrowing of money, if, in the opinion of council, an emergency exists, an ordinance pertinent to the emergency may be read a second time and passed with or without amendment at the same meeting at which it is introduced, and no publication or specific time interval between introduction and passage is necessary. An emergency ordinance must contain a specific statement of the emergency claimed, and must be passed by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of the city council present. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1971, c. 166)

§ 3.13. Submission of ordinances or issues to the qualified voters of the city.

The Council shall have authority to submit by resolution directed to the circuit court of the City of Alexandria or the judge thereof in vacation, any proposed ordinance, question or issue to the qualified voters of the city for an advisory referendum thereon. Upon the receipt of such resolution, the circuit court of the City of Alexandria or the judge thereof in vacation shall order an election to be held thereon not less than thirty nor more than sixty days after the receipt of such resolution. The election shall be conducted and the result thereof ascertained and determined in the manner provided by the general law of the Commonwealth for the conduct of referendum elections, and by the regular election officials of the city. (1950, c. 536; 2015, cc. 201, 294)

§ 3.14. Record and codification of ordinances.

Every ordinance after passage shall be given a serial number and shall be recorded by the clerk in a properly indexed book kept for that purpose. The council may cause to be prepared, under the direction of the city attorney, a codification of all ordinances in force. Such codification shall be passed by the council as a single ordinance and without hearings or prior publication. This codification, to be known and cited officially as the city code, shall be printed and distributed as the council may direct.

In so codifying such ordinances, the council may, without limitation of the foregoing, arrange the various ordinances and assign to them appropriate places and section numbers, create new titles, chapters, articles and sections, correct unmistakable printers' errors or other unmistakable errors, make consequential changes in the titles of officers, agencies and references which are no longer appropriate, and make such other consequential changes, alterations, modifications, additions and substitutions therein as it may deem best to the end that a complete simplified code of ordinances in force shall be presented, but with errors, inconsistencies, repetitions, ambiguities and conflicts eliminated. (1950, c. 536; 1956, c. 262)

§ 3.15. Appointments and removals.

The council in making appointments and removals shall act only by the affirmative votes of at least four members.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this charter or any provision of law, the council in making appointments and removals shall vote openly and publicly and the vote of each council member by name for each person voted upon shall be recorded in the minutes and journal of the council proceedings. The failure of any councilman to vote in the above described manner shall result in his vote not being counted for the particular ballot, poll, vote or roll call under consideration but any such failure shall not prevent his vote from being counted in any subsequent ballot, poll, vote or roll call for the same or another appointment or removal if his vote is cast in the required manner. (1950, c. 536; 1970, c. 492)

§ 3.16. Removal of council members.

Any member of the council may be removed by the council but only for malfeasance in office or neglect of duty; provided that the member of the council sought to be removed shall have been served with a written notice of the intention of the council to remove him, which notice shall contain a clear statement of the grounds for such removal and shall fix the time and place, not less than ten days after the service of such notice, at which he shall be given opportunity to be heard thereon. After the hearing which shall be public at the option of the council member sought to be removed and at which he may be represented by counsel, he may be removed by a vote of six members. It shall be the duty of the council, at the request of the council member sought to be removed, to subpoena witnesses whose testimony would be pertinent to the matter in hand. From the decision of the council removing one of its members, an appeal may be had to the circuit court of the City of Alexandria. Any council member who shall be convicted by a final judgment of any court from which no appeal has been taken or which has been affirmed by a court of last resort on a charge involving moral turpitude shall cease to be a member of the council. (1950, c. 536; 2015, cc. 201, 294)

§ 3.17. Power of investigation.

The council shall have power to investigate any or all of the departments, boards, commissions, offices and agencies of the city government, and any officer or employee of the city. The council, in an investigation or hearing held by it, may order the attendance of any person as a witness and the production by any person of all relevant books and papers. Council shall have the power to apply to the judge of the circuit court for a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum against any person refusing to appear and testify or who refuses to produce books and papers as ordered by the council, and the judge of said court shall, upon good cause shown, cause said subpoena to be issued. Any person refusing to obey the issuance of said subpoena as directed by the judge of the circuit court, upon failure to give satisfactory excuse to said judge may be fined not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days or both, such person to have the right of appeal, as in cases of misdemeanor, to the circuit court of Alexandria. Witnesses may be sworn by the officer presiding at investigations conducted by the council and shall be liable to prosecution for perjury for any false testimony given at such investigations. (1950, c. 536; 2015, cc. 201, 294)

Chapter 4. City Manager.

§ 4.01. The city manager; qualifications.

The city manager shall be chosen by the council solely on the basis of his executive and administrative qualifications with special reference to his actual experience in, or his knowledge of, accepted practice in respect to the duties of his office as hereinafter set forth. At the time of his appointment, he need not be a resident of the city or state, but during his tenure of office he shall reside within the city. (1950, c. 536)

§ 4.02. The city manager; powers and duties.

The city manager shall be the chief executive officer of the city government. He shall be responsible to the council for the proper administration of all affairs of the city, except those responsibilities vested by law in the school board, and to that end he shall have power and shall be required to:

- (e) Present adequate monthly financial and activity reports at a regular meeting of council.
- (f) Give such bonds as the council may require.
- (g) Perform such other duties as may be prescribed by this charter or required of him in accordance therewith by the council or which may be required of the chief executive officer of a city by the general laws of the Commonwealth, other than the duties conferred on the mayor by this charter.
- (h) Prepare and submit to the council, whenever required by the council, a program of capital improvement projects and a budget therefor, covering such a term of years as council may designate. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1956, c. 262; 1976, c. 669)

§ 4.03. Powers of appointment and removal.

The city manager shall appoint for an indefinite term and remove, except as otherwise provided in this charter, the heads of all departments and all other officers and employees of the city; provided, however, that such powers shall not extend to the employees of the school board and provided further that, where the council is given power by this charter to establish an advisory board or advisory commission for any purpose, the council may provide for the appointment of the members of such board or commission by the city manager or by the council, and for the appointment by such board or commission of its employees, and may specify which, if any, of such employees shall not be included under such personnel regulations as may be established by the manager for the service of the city under Chapter 8 of this charter. (1950, c. 536)

§ 4.04. Council and council members not to interfere in appointments or removals or direction of personnel.

Neither the council nor any of its members shall direct the appointment of any person to or his removal from any office or employment by the city manager or by any of his subordinates, except as specifically provided in this charter. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the council and its members shall deal with the administrative services solely through the city manager, and neither the council nor any member thereof shall give orders either publicly or privately to any subordinate of the city manager. Any councilman violating the provisions of this section or voting for a motion, resolution or ordinance in violation of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall cease to be a councilman. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting any councilman from discussing with the city manager any appointment or removal. (1950, c. 536)

§ 4.05. Absence of city manager.

To perform the duties of the city manager in the event of his temporary absence, disability, death or resignation, the council may by resolution appoint an officer of the city or any person other than a member of the council to perform the duties of manager until said manager returns to duty or his successor is duly appointed. (1950, c. 536)

§ 4.06. Directors of departments.

There shall be a single executive head of each department of the city government, who shall be an officer of the city and shall have direction and control of his department, subject to the supervision of the city manager. Two or more departments may be headed by the same individual, the manager may head one or more departments, and the directors of departments may also serve as chiefs of divisions. (1950, c. 536)

§ 4.07. Relations with boards, commissions, and agencies.

The city manager shall have the right to attend and participate in the proceedings of, but except as otherwise provided in this charter or by law not to vote in, the meetings of all boards, commissions or agencies created by this charter or by ordinance. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564)

§ 4.08. Assessment and equalization.

(a) The City Manager shall provide for the annual assessment and equalization of assessments of real estate for local taxation, and to that end may establish a city real estate assessment office and appoint an assessor to assess such real estate for taxation and to equalize such assessment. The budget for the city real estate assessment office shall be approved by the city council.

(b) All duties imposed and all powers conferred by law on the Commissioner of the Revenue with respect to the assessment of real estate shall be transferred to the assessor appointed pursuant hereto. The director of finance shall continue to prepare the land book and make disposition of the copies thereof as required by law. The land book shall be prepared by the director of finance on the basis of the assessments made by the assessor and certified to him. Transfers shall be verified by the director of finance.

(c) All real estate shall be assessed at its fair market value as of January first of each year by such assessor, and shall not be reassessed during such year subject to such modifications as may have been lawfully made, and taxes for each year on such real estate shall be extended by the director of finance on the basis of the last assessment made prior to such year, subject to such changes as may have been lawfully made; provided, however, no notices of assessment shall be mailed or delivered during the month of December of any year and any such notices mailed or delivered during such month shall be void, unenforceable and of no effect.

(d) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of §§ 58.1-3370 and 58.1-3373 to 58.1-3376, inclusive, of the Code of Virginia, as amended, there shall be appointed to three-year staggered terms a board of review of real estate assessments composed of nine members, five of whom shall be appointed by the circuit court of said city or the judge thereof in vacation and four of whom shall be appointed by the council of said city. All members of the board shall be residents of and own real property within the city. Members serving on the board as of July 1, 2010, shall continue in office until the completion of their terms. Beginning July 1, 2010, the circuit court or the judge thereof in vacation shall appoint one additional member for a two-year term and one additional member for a three-year term. Also, beginning July 1, 2010, the Alexandria City Council shall appoint one additional member for a two-year term and one additional member for a three-year term. After these initial appointments, all subsequent appointments shall be for three-year terms.

The terms of all members shall commence on their appointment and shall expire on the thirty-first day of December of the year in which their term ends. The circuit court or the judge thereof in vacation and the council of said city shall fill any vacancy therein for the unexpired term of their respective appointees. The members of the said board shall receive per diem compensation for the time actually engaged in the duties of the board, to be fixed by the council of said city, and to be paid out of the treasury of said city; provided, however, that the council of said city may limit the per diem compensation to such number of days as, in its judgment, is sufficient for the completion of the work of the board.

Such board of review shall have and may exercise the power to revise, correct and amend any assessments of real estate made by said assessor in the year in which such assessments are effective, within such time as the council shall provide in accordance with § 58.1-3378 of the Code of Virginia, as amended, and to that end shall have all the powers conferred upon the boards of equalization by §§ 58.1-3378 to 58.1-3387, inclusive, of the Code of Virginia, as amended. Notwithstanding any provision of said sections, however, the board of review may adopt any regulations providing for the oral presentation, without formal petitions or other pleadings of requests for review, and looking to the further facilitation and simplification of proceedings before the board, except that all matters before the board whether on behalf of the taxpayer or assessor, shall be presented in public session.

The board of review may sit in panels of at least three members each under the following terms and conditions:

1. The presence of all members in the panel shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.
2. The chairman of the board of review shall assign the members to panels and, insofar as practicable, rotate the membership of the panels.
3. The chairman of the board of review shall preside over any panel of which he is a member and shall designate the presiding member of the other panels.
4. Each panel shall perform its duties independently of the others.

The board of review shall sit en banc (i) when there is a dissent in the panel to which the matter was originally assigned and an aggrieved party requests an en banc hearing or (ii) upon its own motion at any time, in any matter in which a majority of the board of equalization determines it is appropriate to do so. The board of review sitting en banc shall consider and decide the matter and may affirm, reverse, overrule or modify any previous decision by any panel.

Any person of said city aggrieved by any assessment made by said assessor or board of review may apply for relief in the manner provided by §§ 58.1-3984 to 58.1-3989, inclusive, of the Code of Virginia, as amended; provided, however, that no person aggrieved by any assessment made by the assessor may apply for or be entitled to relief pursuant to said sections of the Code of Virginia until the assessment complained of has first been reviewed by and acted upon by the board of review.

(e) This law shall not apply to the assessment of any real estate assessable under the law by the State Corporation Commission.

(f) All acts and parts of acts relating to the assessment of real estate in cities not in conflict with the provisions hereof shall apply to the assessments made hereunder.

(g) The Council may require that the owners of income-producing real estate in the city subject to local taxation, except property producing income solely from the rental of no more than four dwelling units, furnish to the said assessor on or before a specified time statements of the income and expenses attributable over a specified period of time to each such parcel of real estate. Each such statement shall be certified as to its accuracy by an owner of the real estate for which the statement is furnished, or a duly authorized agent thereof. Any statement required by this section shall be kept confidential as required by § 58.1-3 of the Code of Virginia, as amended. (1956, c. 262; 1964, cc. 44, 288; 1968, c. 510; 1970, c. 492; 1973, c. 258; 1977, c. 122; 1983, c. 314; 2010, c. 221)

The director of finance shall provide a bond with such surety and in such amount as the council may require. (1950, c. 536)

§ 5.04. Director of finance; powers and duties.

The Director of Finance, under the supervision of the City Manager, shall have charge of the administration of the financial affairs of the city, and to that end he shall have authority and shall be responsible for the Department of Finance in order to discharge the following functions:

- (a) Compile the current expense estimates for the budget for the City Manager.
- (b) Compile the capital estimates for the budget for the City Manager.
- (c) Supervise and authorize the disbursement of all moneys and have control over all expenditures to ensure that budget appropriations are not exceeded. This subsection shall not apply to the administration of school funds.
- (d) Maintain a general accounting system for the city government and each of its offices, departments and agencies; keep books for and exercise financial and budgetary control over each office, department and agency; keep separate accounts for the items of appropriation contained in the city budget, each of which accounts shall show the amount of the appropriation, the amounts paid therefrom, the unpaid obligations against it and the unencumbered balance; and require reports of receipts and disbursements from each receiving and spending agency of the city government to be made daily or at such intervals as he may deem expedient. This subsection shall not apply to the administration of school funds.
- (e) Submit to the council through the City Manager a monthly statement of all receipts, disbursements, and encumbrances of funds in sufficient detail to show the exact financial condition of the city.

- (f) Prepare for the City Manager, as of the end of each fiscal year, a complete financial statement and report.
- (g) Supervise and be responsible for the purchase, storage and distribution of all supplies, materials, equipment and other articles used by any office, department or agency of the city government.
- (h) Approve all proposed expenditures. No appropriation shall be encumbered and no expenditure shall be made unless the Director of Finance shall certify that there is an unencumbered balance of appropriated and available funds.
- (i) Exercise all the powers conferred and perform all the duties imposed by law upon commissioners of the revenue.
- (j) Exercise all the powers conferred and perform all the duties imposed by law upon city treasurers.

§ 5.04:1. Signatures on city checks.

All city checks shall be signed by the Director of Finance. When the city manager so directs, designated city checks shall also be countersigned by such other officials as the city manager may select. Any such signature or countersignature may be a facsimile one which is made by means of such mechanical or electrical devices as the Director of Finance may select. Before any facsimile is used the city manager shall establish a security method for storing and using such facsimile. (1974, c. 595)

§ 5.05. Work programs; allotments.

The director of finance shall authorize all expenditures for the offices, departments and agencies to be made from the appropriations on the basis of approved allotments and not otherwise. An approved

If, at any time during the budget year, the city manager shall ascertain that the available income, plus balances, for the year will be less than the total appropriations, he shall reconsider the work programs and allotments of the several offices, departments and agencies and revise the allotments so as to prevent the making of expenditures in excess of the said income. - (a) Prescribe the forms of receipts, vouchers, bills or claims to be used by all the offices, departments and agencies of the city government.
- (b) Examine and approve all contracts, orders and other documents by which the city government incurs financial obligations, having previously ascertained that funds have been appropriated and allotted and will be available when the obligation shall become due and payable.
- (c) Audit and approve before payment all bills, invoices, payrolls and other evidences of claims, demands or charges against the city government and with the advice of the city attorney determine the regularity, legality and correctness of such claims, demands or charges.
- (d) Inspect and audit any accounts or records of financial transactions which may be maintained in any office, department or agency of the city government apart from or subsidiary to the accounts kept in his office. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564)

§ 5.09. When contracts and expenditures prohibited.

No officer, department, or agency shall, during any budget year, expend or contract to expend any money or incur any liability, or enter into any contract which by its terms involves the expenditure of money, for any purpose, in excess of the amounts appropriated for that general classification of expenditure pursuant to this charter. Any contract, verbal or written, made in violation of this charter shall be null and void. Any officer or employee of the city who shall violate this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall cease to hold his office or employment. Nothing in this section contained, however, shall prevent the making of contracts of the spending of money for capital improvements to be financed in whole or in part by the issuance of bonds, nor the making of contracts of lease or for services for a period exceeding the budget year in which such contract is made, when such contract is permitted by law. (1950, c. 536)

§ 5.10. Appropriations lapse at end of year.

All appropriations shall lapse at the end of the budget year to the extent that they shall not have been expended or lawfully encumbered. (1950, c. 536)

§ 5.11. Fees shall be paid to city government.

All fees payable to the city received by any officer or employee shall belong to the city government and shall be paid to the department of finance as and when directed by the director of finance. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564)

§ 5.12. Division of purchases.

There shall be established in the department of finance a division of purchases, the head of which shall be the city purchasing agent. The purchasing agent, pursuant to rules and regulations established by ordinance, shall contract for, purchase, store and distribute all supplies, materials and equipment required by any office, department, or agency of the city government. (1950, c. 536; 1981, c. 512)

§ 5.13. Competitive bidding.

Before the city purchasing agent makes any contract, he shall give ample opportunity for competitive bidding or competitive negotiation, under such rules and regulations, and with such exceptions, as the council may prescribe; provided, however, that the council shall not except individual contracts, purchases or sales from the requirement of competitive bidding or competitive negotiation. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1981, c. 512; 1983, c. 314)

§ 5.14. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1968, c. 510; 1976, c. 669; repealed 1981, c. 512)

§ 5.14.1. (1968, c. 510; repealed 1981, c. 512)

§ 5.15. No contract executed until bond ordinance effective.

No contract shall be executed for the acquisition of any property or the construction of any improvement or betterment to be financed by the issuance of bonds until the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds shall have taken effect and any contract executed before such day shall be unenforceable in any court of law. (1950, c. 536)

§ 5.16. Emergency appropriations.

At any time in any budget year, the council may make emergency appropriations to meet a pressing need for public expenditure, for other than a regular or recurring requirement, to protect the public health, safety or welfare. Such appropriations shall be by resolution adopted by the favorable votes of two-thirds of all members of the council. The total amount of all emergency appropriations made in any budget year shall not exceed three per centum of the total operating appropriations made in the budget for that year. (1950, c. 536; 1971, c. 166; 1981, c. 512)

§ 5.17. Auditor of municipal accounts.

There may be an auditor of municipal accounts to be appointed by the council for an indefinite term. He shall be qualified by training and experience for the duties of his office. It shall be his duty to examine and audit all accounts, books, records and financial transactions of the city, and of any department, court, board, commission, office or agency thereof, excluding such accounts as are audited by the auditor of public accounts of the Commonwealth but including all trust and special funds. It shall be his duty to make annually to the council, as soon after the end of the fiscal year as possible but in any event not later than ninety days, a complete audit report covering the transactions of the preceding fiscal year as they appear in the accounts, books and records kept in the department of finance, with such comments and recommendations as he may deem advisable. He shall make examinations and audits of the accounts, books and records of other departments, courts, boards, commissions, offices and agencies subject to examination and audit by him at such times as he or the council shall deem necessary and upon completion of each such examination or audit shall file with the council a report thereof in writing. He shall also transmit a copy of each such report to the city manager and to the department, court, board, commission, office or agency covered thereby. If he shall at any time discover any unauthorized, illegal, irregular or unsound practice he shall forthwith lay such facts before the city manager and council. In performing his duties he shall have access at any and all times to all books, records and accounts of each department, court, board, commission, office or agency of the city subject to examination and audit by him. A copy of each audit report made to the council by the auditor of municipal accounts shall always be available for public inspection in the office of the city clerk during regular business hours. (1950, c. 536)

§ 5.18. Independent audit.

The council shall cause to be made at least every year from the date of the adoption of this charter an independent audit of all accounts, books, records and financial transactions of the city by the auditor of public accounts of the Commonwealth or by a firm of independent certified public accountants to be selected by the council. The report of such audit shall be filed within such time as the council shall specify and one copy thereof shall be always available for public inspection in the office of the city manager during regular business hours. (1950, c. 536)

§ 5.19. Power to sell property for taxes.

The Director of Finance shall have any or all of the powers which are now or which may be hereafter vested in any office of the State charged with the collection of State taxes and any powers granted by State law for the collection of local taxes, and may collect the same in the same manner in which State taxes are collected by any officer of this State, unless and except as otherwise provided by law. No deed of trust or mortgage upon goods and chattels shall prevent the same from being distrained or sold for taxes assessed thereon, no matter in whose possession such goods and chattels may be found. A tenant from whom payment of taxes on his landlord's property shall be obtained by distress or otherwise shall have credit for the same against such person on account of his rent, unless by contract the tenant is to pay such taxes. The council may require a list of all real estate in the city of Alexandria delinquent for nonpayment of taxes thereon for the preceding year to be recorded in a book of delinquent taxes to be kept in the office of the Director of Finance. (1950, c. 536; 1973, c. 258; 1975, c. 511)

§ 5.20. Penalties for nonpayment of taxes; interest.

The council may impose penalties for the nonpayment of city taxes and levies by the day fixed by ordinance for payment thereof, and for the failure to make any return required by law for the assessment of taxes, and may cause such penalties to be added to the amount of taxes and levies due from taxpayers, as it may by ordinance or resolution from time to time prescribe; and the council may charge interest at a rate fixed by ordinance, not to exceed fifteen per centum per annum, on such unpaid taxes and levies and penalties for nonpayment thereof. The Director of Finance shall have the power of distress, garnishment or action and any powers granted by State law for the collection of delinquent local taxes and any other power now possessed or that may hereafter be given to any person charged with the collection of delinquent State taxes. Should it come to the knowledge of the Director of Finance that any person, firm or corporation owing taxes or levies to the city is moving or contemplating moving therefrom prior to the day fixed by ordinance for payment thereof, he shall have the right to collect taxes by distress, garnishment, suit or action or otherwise at any time after such bills for taxes have come into his hands unless and except as otherwise provided by law. (1950, c. 536; 1973, c. 258; 1975, c. 511; 1980, c. 591; 1981, c. 512)

§ 5.21. Foreclosure of tax liens by city.

There shall be a lien on all real estate within the corporate limits and on each and every interest therein for all taxes, levies, or charges assessed thereon or against the same, or upon or against the owner or owners thereof, under the provisions of this charter, or by ordinance, which lien shall have priority over all other liens except the lien for State taxes. When any such taxes or levies or charges have not been paid by the third anniversary of the original due date thereof, the council may require such real estate to be sold for said taxes, levies, or charges in accordance with the provisions of Article 8 of Chapter 21 of Title 58 of the Code of Virginia. (1950, c. 536; 1972, c. 808; 1973, c. 258; 1975, c. 511; 1980, c. 591)

§ 5.22. (1950, c. 536; 1971, c. 166; 1973, c. 258; repealed 1975, c. 511)

§§ 5.23 through 5.27. (1950, c. 536; 1973, c. 258; repealed 1975, c. 511)

§ 5.28. Deputy director of finance.

The Director of Finance shall have the power to appoint and remove a Deputy Director of Finance. The Deputy Director of Finance shall have such powers and duties as the Director of Finance may lawfully authorize him to perform. The Deputy Director of Finance shall also have the power to authenticate city bonds by manual signature when the city council by resolution shall so determine. (1964, cc. 44, 288; 1973, c. 258; 1981, c. 512)

Chapter 6. Budget.

§ 6.01. Fiscal year.

The fiscal year of the city government shall be established by ordinance. Such fiscal year shall constitute the budget and accounting year. As used in this charter, the term "budget year" shall mean the fiscal year for which any particular budget is adopted and in which it is administered. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564)

§ 6.02. Submission of budgets.

The City Manager shall submit to the council a general budget, a capital budget and an explanatory budget message in the form and with the contents provided by this chapter at such time as the council may by ordinance require. (1950, c. 536; 1970, c. 492; 1981, c. 512)

§ 6.03. Preparation of budgets.

It shall be the duty of the head of each department, the judges of all courts, each board or commission, including the school board, and each other office or agency supported in whole or in part by the city, including the Sheriff, the Attorney for the Commonwealth, and clerks of courts to file with the City Manager or with another employee of the city designated by him, at such time as the City Manager may prescribe, estimates of revenue and expenditure for that department, court, board, commission, office or agency for the ensuing fiscal year. Such estimates shall be submitted on the forms furnished by the City Manager or his designee and it shall be the duty of the head of each such department, judge, board, commission, office or agency to supply all the information which the City Manager may require to be submitted thereon. The employee designated by the City Manager shall assemble and compile these estimates and supply such additional information relating to the financial transactions of the city as may be necessary or valuable to the City Manager in the preparation of the budgets. The City Manager shall hold such hearings as he may deem advisable, and with the assistance of city staff shall review the estimates and other data pertinent to the preparation of the budgets and make such revisions in such estimates as he may deem proper, subject to the laws of the Commonwealth relating to obligatory expenditures for any purpose, except that in the case of the school board he may recommend a revision only in its total estimated expenditure. (1950, c. 536; 1973, c. 258; 1981, c. 512; 2015, cc. 201, 294)

§ 6.04. Scope of the general budget.

The general budget shall contain:

- (a) An estimate of such portion of the general fund cash surplus, if any, at the end of the current fiscal year as it is proposed to use for meeting expenditures in the general budget.
- (b) An estimate of the receipts for current ad valorem taxes on real estate and personal property during the ensuing fiscal year, assuming that the proportion of the levy collected be no greater than the average proportion of the levy collected in the last three completed tax years.

(c) An estimate of receipts from all other sources of revenue provided that the estimated receipts from no such source shall exceed the amount estimated to be received from such source in the current fiscal year by more than the average rate of increased collections from that source during the preceding two fiscal years, unless the reasons for an increase greater than the average rate are contained in a written statement furnished by the city manager.

(d) A statement to be furnished by the director of finance of the debt service requirements for the ensuing year.

(e) An estimate of the city's cash deficit, if any, at the end of the current fiscal year and of any other obligations required by this charter to be budgeted for the ensuing fiscal year.

(f) An estimate of expenditures for all other purposes to be met in the ensuing fiscal year.

All the estimates shall be in detail, showing receipts by sources and expenditures by operating units, functions, character and object, so arranged as to show receipts and expenditures as estimated for the current fiscal year and actual receipts and expenditures for the last preceding fiscal year in comparison with estimated receipts and recommended expenditures for the ensuing year. At the head of the budget there shall appear a summary of the budget, which need not be itemized further than by principal sources of anticipated revenue, stating separately the amount to be raised by property tax, and by departments and kinds of expenditures, in such a manner as to present a simple and clear summary of the detailed estimates of the budget. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1968, c. 510)

§ 6.05. A balanced budget.

In no event shall the expenditures recommended by the City Manager in the general budget exceed the receipts estimated, taking into account the estimated cash surplus or deficit at the end of the current fiscal year unless property assessments have been raised or unless the City Manager shall recommend an increase in the rate of ad valorem taxes on real estate and tangible personal property or other new or increased taxes, licenses or other sources. Receipts from increased taxes, licenses or other sources shall be estimated on the basis of the average rate of increased collections during the preceding two fiscal years except in instances in which the city manager submits as a part of the budget a written statement explaining any estimate that is made on some other basis. Receipts from new taxes, licenses or other sources shall be estimated on information available from other cities, the State of Virginia or other states, the federal government or other appropriate sources. If estimated receipts exceed estimated expenditures, the City Manager may recommend revisions in the tax, license or other ordinances of the city in order to bring the general fund budget into balance. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1968, c. 510; 1981, c. 512)

§ 6.06. (1950, c. 536; repealed 1981, c. 512)

§ 6.07. Appropriation and additional tax ordinances.

At the same time that he submits the general fund budget the city manager may introduce in the council a general appropriation ordinance. The appropriation ordinance shall be based on the general fund budget but need not be itemized further than by departments and the major operating units thereof, and by courts, bureaus, boards, commissions, offices and agencies submitting separate budget estimates, and by the principal object of the expenditure. At the same time the city manager shall also introduce any proposals for altering the tax rate on real estate and personal property or other proposals for levying a new tax or altering the rate of any other tax necessary to balance the general fund budget as hereinbefore provided. New ordinances altering the tax rate or levying a new tax may, however, be introduced and passed at any other time of the year, except that the rate of the tax that is levied on real estate shall be fixed as set forth in § 2.02 (a) (1). (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1964, cc. 44, 288; 1970, c. 492)

§ 6.08. Budget a public record.

The budget and budget message and all supporting schedules shall be a public record in the office of the city manager open to public inspection after the budget has been submitted to the council and made public by it; provided, however, except as stated in section 6.08.1, no department or agency, head or judge or board or commission, manager, or director of finance shall divulge details of the proposed budget nor make public statements regarding budget estimates until the budget has been submitted to the council and made public by it. The city manager on authorization from the council shall cause sufficient copies of the budget message to be prepared for distribution to interested persons. (1950, c. 536; 1968, c. 510)

§ 6.08.1. School budget hearings.

The school board shall, prior to the time work has begun on the school budget, hold a public informational hearing to receive suggestions from the public concerning the school budget. The school board shall also hold a public hearing on its proposed budget prior to submitting it to the City Manager. The school board shall cause a notice of the time and place of each public hearing to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city at least seven days prior to the hearing. The school board shall also cause copies of the proposed budget to be available to the public at least seven days prior to the public hearing on the proposed budget. The school board may submit to the City Manager as its proposed budget the same proposed budget considered at the public hearing or it may, subsequent to said public hearing, submit a revised proposed budget. (1968, c. 510; 1981, c. 512)

§ 6.09. Publication of notice of public hearing.

At the meeting of the council at which the budget and budget message are submitted, the council shall determine the place and time of the public hearing on the budget, which time shall be at least sixty days prior to the beginning of each budget year, and shall cause to be published a notice of the place and time, not less than seven days after date of publication, at which the council will hold a public hearing. (1950, c. 536; 1970, c. 492)

§ 6.10. Public hearing on budget.

The council shall hold a public hearing on the budget as submitted, at which all interested persons shall be given an opportunity to be heard, for or against the estimates or any item thereof. (1950, c. 536; 1981, c. 512)

§ 6.11. Action by the council on the general budget.

After the conclusion of the public hearing on the general budget, the council may insert new items of expenditure or may increase, decrease or strike out items of expenditure in the general fund budget, except that no item of expenditure for debt service or other provision of law shall be reduced or stricken out. The council shall in no event adopt a general budget in which the total of expenditures exceeds the receipts, unless at the same time it adopts measures for providing additional revenue in the ensuing fiscal year, estimated as hereinbefore provided, sufficient to make up the difference. (1950, c. 536; 1981, c. 512)

§ 6.12. Adoption of budget.

The budget shall be adopted by the votes of at least a majority of all the members of the council. The budget shall be finally adopted not later than the twenty-seventh day of the last month of the fiscal year. Should the council take no final action on or prior to such day, the budget, as submitted, shall be deemed to have been finally adopted by the council. (1950, c. 536)

§ 6.13. Additional appropriations.

An appropriation in addition to those contained in the general appropriation ordinance, except for the purpose of meeting a public emergency as provided for elsewhere in this charter, may be made by the council, by not less than a majority affirmative vote of all members of council, only if there is available in the general fund a sum unencumbered and unappropriated sufficient to meet such appropriation. (1950, c. 536; 1972, c. 808; 1981, c. 512)

§ 6.14. Capital budget.

At the same time that he submits the general budget the city manager shall submit to the council a budget of the proposed capital improvement projects for the ensuing fiscal year and for the five fiscal years thereafter, with his recommendations as to the means of financing the improvements proposed for the ensuing fiscal year. The city manager shall obtain and transmit to the council the advisory recommendations of the planning commission with regard to the consistency of proposed capital improvement projects with the master plan and the priority and timing of those projects in comparison to other elements in the master plan. The council shall have power to accept with or without amendments or reject the proposed program and proposed means of financing for the ensuing fiscal year but, except in the case of emergency as provided in subsection (d) of § 2.02 of this charter, the council shall not authorize any capital improvement project or make any appropriation therefor unless such project is included in the capital budget as adopted by it. The council shall hold at least one public hearing on said budget and shall take final action on the budget not later than twenty calendar days after the date prescribed for the adoption of the general budget. A capital project in the budget may lapse at the end of one year but once an appropriation has been made for such project it shall not lapse until approved by the city council at a meeting open to the public at which meeting the matter of lapse of the specified project involved is a duly docketed item. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1968, c. 510; 1982, c. 480)

§ 6.15. Reserve for permanent public improvements.

The council may by ordinance establish a reserve fund or account or both for permanent public improvements and may appropriate thereto any portion of the general fund cash surplus not otherwise appropriated at the close of any fiscal year. It may likewise assign to the said fund or account or both a specified portion of the ad valorem tax on real estate and tangible personal property not to exceed ten cents on the hundred dollars of the assessed valuation thereof or the whole or part of the proceeds of any other tax. Appropriations from the said fund or account or both shall be made only to finance improvements included in the capital budget. (1950, c. 536; 1968, c. 510)

Chapter 7. Borrowing.

§ 7.01. Borrowing power.

The City Council may, in the name and for the use of the city, incur indebtedness by issuing its negotiable bonds or notes for the purposes, in the manner and to the extent provided in this chapter. (1950, c. 536)

§ 7.02. Purposes for which bonds may be issued.

Bonds may be issued for the purpose of financing the whole or any part of the cost of any capital improvement project, paying all costs incurred in any extension of the city's boundaries and to refund outstanding bonds. A capital improvement is hereby defined to include any public improvement or utility which the city is authorized to undertake, including the acquisition of any property, real or personal, incident thereto, the construction or reconstruction in whole or in part of any building, plant, structure, or facility necessary or useful in carrying out the powers of the city, and in the equipment or re-equipment of the same. (1950, c. 536; 1968, c. 510)

§ 7.03. Limitations on indebtedness.

The city shall not issue any bonds or other interest bearing obligations which, including existing indebtedness, shall, at any time, exceed eighteen per centum of the assessed valuation of real estate in said city subject to taxation, as shown by the last preceding assessment for taxes. In determining the limitation for the city there shall not be included the classes of indebtedness enumerated in paragraphs (1), (2), (3) and (4) of subsection (a) of Section 10, Article VII of the Constitution of Virginia.

All contract obligations, heretofore or hereafter incurred, by the city to provide payments to the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority on account of transit facilities in the Washington Metropolitan Area shall not be included as a class of indebtedness in determining the debt limitation of the city pursuant to Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia. (1950, c. 536; 1972, c. 808)

§ 7.04. Notes in anticipation of bonds.

Whenever an issue of bonds has been authorized as provided in this charter, the Director of Finance, when authorized by resolution, shall have power to issue notes of the city in anticipation of such bonds, for the purpose of defraying the whole or any part of the cost of such project. Such notes shall be authenticated by the signature of the Mayor and the Director of Finance and shall mature not later than two years after the date of issue. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1973, c. 258; 1981, c. 512)

§ 7.05. Form of bonds.

All bonds issued pursuant to this charter shall be paid in consecutive annual installments, no one of which shall be more than three times the smallest prior installment. The first annual installment of any issue or of any block or series of bonds shall be payable not later than two years from the date of sale of such issue or block or series thereof. Bonds shall be authenticated by the manual signature of the Director of Finance, or the Deputy Director of Finance, as the city council by resolution shall determine, and shall bear the facsimile signature of the Mayor and a facsimile of the seal of the city attested by the facsimile signature of the City Clerk. Should interest payments on such bonds be evidenced by coupons attached thereto, such coupons shall be authenticated by the facsimile signature of the Mayor. (1950, c. 536; 1964, cc. 44, 288; 1971, c. 166; 1973, c. 258; 1981, c. 512)

§ 7.06. Ordinance for bond issue.

(a) Ordinance Required: All bonds shall be authorized by ordinance, the procedure for the passage of which shall be the same as for the passage of any ordinance, except that such ordinance shall not be passed as an emergency ordinance, and that two-thirds affirmative votes of all members of the council shall be necessary for its adoption.

(b) What Ordinance Must Show: The ordinance shall state:

1. In brief and general terms the purpose or purposes for which the bonds are to be issued, including, in the case of funding or refunding bonds, a brief description of the indebtedness to be funded or refunded sufficient to identify such indebtedness;
2. If the purpose of the bonds is to finance one or more capital improvement projects, a general description of each such project and an estimate of the maximum cost of each thereof;
3. The maximum aggregate principal amount of the bonds;
4. That the debt limit as prescribed herein and by the Constitution of the Commonwealth is not exceeded.

(c) When the Ordinance Takes Effect: A bond ordinance shall take effect at the time and upon the condition stated therein. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1968, c. 510)

§ 7.07. Period of limitation.

When thirty days shall have elapsed from the date of publication of the bond ordinance, or in case of submission to a referendum, from the date of approval by the voters, any recitals or statements of fact contained in said ordinance shall be deemed to be true for the purpose of determining the validity of the bonds, and the city and all other parties interested shall thereafter be estopped from denying them; the ordinance shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly and regularly passed by the city and to comply with the provisions of this charter and all laws; and the validity of such bond ordinance shall not thereafter be questioned in court action except in action commenced prior to the expiration of such thirty days. The city manager within five days after the enactment of a bond ordinance shall cause to be published a notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the city to the effect that the thirty days provided for in this subsection within which action questioning the validity of the ordinance can be commenced has begun to run. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1971, c. 166; 1988, c. 157)

§ 7.08. Consolidated bond issue.

Bonds for two or more unrelated purposes may be authorized by the same ordinance or by separate ordinances in the discretion of the council. After two or more ordinances have been passed, the council may, in its discretion, direct by resolution that all or any of the bonds authorized by the ordinances shall be issued as one consolidated bond issue. Separate issues of funding and/or refunding bonds may be made under authority of the same bond ordinance for the retirement of two or more different debts or classes of debts. (1950, c. 536; 1968, c. 510)

§ 7.09. Within what time bonds issued.

After a bond ordinance takes effect, bonds may be issued in conformity with its provisions at any time within three years after the ordinance takes effect, unless the ordinance is repealed, which repeal is permitted unless notes shall have been issued in anticipation of such bond issue and are outstanding. (1950, c. 536)

§ 7.10. Amount and nature of bonds determined.

The aggregate amount of bonds to be issued under a bond ordinance, the maximum rate or rates of interest they shall bear and the times and places of payment of the principal and interest of the bonds shall be fixed by resolution or resolutions of the council. The bonds may be issued either all at one time or from time to time in blocks, and different provisions may be made for different blocks. (1950, c. 536)

§ 7.11. Determining periods for which bonds to run.

(a) How periods estimated. Either in the bond ordinance or in a resolution passed after the bond ordinance, but before any bonds are issued thereunder, the council shall, within the limits of subsection (d) of this section, determine and declare:

1. The probable period of usefulness of the improvements, undertakings or properties for which the bonds are to be issued; or
2. If the bonds are to be funding or refunding bonds, either the shortest period in which the debt to be funded or refunded can be finally paid without undue burden upon the taxpayers, or, at the option of the council, the probable unexpired period of usefulness of the improvements, undertaking or property for which the debt was incurred.

(b) Average of Periods Determined. In the case of a bond issue authorized by different ordinances and consolidated by resolution, and in the case of a bond issue authorized by one ordinance for two or more unrelated purposes in respect of which several different periods are determined as aforesaid, the council shall also determine the average of the different periods so determined, taking into consideration the amount of bonds to be issued on account of each purpose or item in respect of which a period is determined.

The period required to be determined as aforesaid shall be computed from a date not more than one year after the time of passage of any bond ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds. The determination of any such period by the council shall be conclusive.

(c) Maturity of Bonds. The bonds must mature within the period determined as aforesaid, or, if several different periods are to be determined, then within such average period.

(d) Periods of Usefulness. All bonds issued under this charter shall be sold by the city council at public sale upon sealed proposals after at least ten days' notice published at least once in a publication carrying municipal bond notices and devoted primarily to financial news or to the subject of state and municipal bonds, published in the City of New York, New York, and at least ten days' notice published in the City of Alexandria and such other places as the council may designate. (1950, c. 536)

§ 7.13. Payment of bonds and notes.

The faith and credit of the city and all taxes and revenues paid thereto are hereby pledged for the payment of the principal of and interest on all bonds and notes of the city issued pursuant to this charter, except bonds for revenue producing utilities issued pursuant to this charter and which bonds are by their terms payable solely from the revenues derived from such utilities, whether or not such pledge be stated in the bonds or notes or in the bond ordinance authorizing their issue. (1950, c. 536)

§ 7.14. Sinking fund.

There shall be a sinking fund for the amortization of the outstanding term bonds of the city. There shall be paid into the sinking fund annually the sum determined by the Director of Finance, and by him certified to the City Manager for inclusion in the budget, to be necessary on actuarial principles to amortize such term bonds at maturity. § 7.15. Bond issues for revenue producing utilities.

The city is hereby empowered to issue from time to time in the manner prescribed by paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of Section 10, Article VII of the constitution of Virginia bonds of the City of Alexandria for the purpose of acquiring, establishing, constructing, improving or enlarging any sewage disposal system, water work, gas plant, electric plant, garbage and trash disposal system, incinerator, toll bridge, motor vehicle parking area or building, airport, hospital, or other public utility from which the city may derive a revenue; for the purpose of reimbursing the general fund or other fund of the city for monies paid from said fund or funds for such purposes; and/or for the purpose of funding or refunding any existing indebtedness incurred for such purposes. Such bonds shall not be included in determining the power of the city to incur indebtedness within the limitation prescribed by Article VII, Section

10 of the Constitution of Virginia or § 7.03 hereof; but, from and after a period to be determined by the council, not exceeding five years from the date of the election authorizing such bonds, whenever and for so long as any such revenue producing utility fails to produce sufficient revenue to pay for cost of operation and administration, including the interest and amortization of such bonds, and the cost of insurance against loss by injury to persons or property, all such bonds outstanding shall be included in determining the limitation of the power of the city to incur indebtedness under any provision of this charter or under the provisions of Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia. The city may, however, issue bonds from time to time for any or all of such purposes, including reimbursement of funds and the funding or refunding of existing indebtedness, in the manner prescribed by paragraph (3) of subsection (a) of Section 10, Article VII of the Constitution of Virginia, the principal and interest of which bonds shall be payable exclusively from the revenue of such revenue producing utilities and for which payment of principal and interest the full faith and credit of the city shall not be deemed to be pledged notwithstanding any other provision of this charter, and such bonds shall never be included in determining the limitation of the power of the city to incur indebtedness under the provisions of this charter or under the provisions of Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia. (a) That the bonds shall be payable from the ad valorem taxes without limitation of rate or amount; the full faith and credit of the city is deemed to be pledged for the payment of principal and interest thereof; and the bonds are to be issued pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution of Virginia and are not to be included in determining the power of the city to incur indebtedness within the limitation prescribed by the Constitution of Virginia; provided, however, that from and after a period specified in such ordinance not exceeding five years from the date of the election authorizing the bonds, whenever and for so long as such revenue producing utility fails to produce sufficient revenue to pay for the cost of operation and administration, including the interest on such bonds, and the cost of insurance against loss by injury to persons or property, and an annual amount to be covered into a sinking fund sufficient to pay all such bonds outstanding shall be included in determining the limitation of the power of the city to incur indebtedness; or

(b) That the principal and interest of such bonds shall be payable exclusively from the revenue of such revenue producing utility, the faith and credit of the City of Alexandria shall not be deemed to be pledged for the payment of such principal and interest; and the bonds are to be issued pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution of Virginia and are never to be included in determining the power of the city to incur indebtedness within the limitation prescribed by the Constitution of Virginia. (1950, c. 536; 2015, cc. 201, 294)

§ 7.18. Borrowing to meet emergency appropriations.

In the absence of unappropriated available revenues to meet emergency appropriations under the provisions of § 5.16 of this charter, the council may by resolution authorize the issuance of notes, each of which shall be designated "emergency note" and may be renewed from time to time, but all such notes of any fiscal year and any renewals thereof shall be paid not later than the last day of the fiscal year next succeeding the budget year in which the emergency appropriation was made. (1950, c. 536)

§ 7.19. Borrowing to pay judgment.

In the absence of unappropriated available revenues to pay a final judgment for money which may be recovered against the city, the council may by resolution authorize the issuance of a note or notes, the proceeds of which shall be used to pay such judgment, which note or notes may be renewed from time to time, but such note or all such notes of any fiscal year and any renewals thereof, shall be paid not later than the last day of the fiscal year next succeeding the budget year in which such judgment was paid. (1950, c. 536)

§ 7.20. Borrowing in anticipation of property taxes.

In any budget year, in anticipation of the collection of the property tax for such year, whether levied or to be levied in such year, the council may by resolution authorize the borrowing of money by the issuance of negotiable notes of the city, each of which shall be designated "tax anticipation note for the year 20__" (stating the budget year). Such notes may be issued for periods not exceeding one year and may be renewed from time to time for periods not exceeding one year, but together with renewals shall mature and be paid not later than the end of the third fiscal year after the budget year in which the original notes have been issued. The amount of the tax anticipation notes originally issued in any budget year shall not exceed fifty per centum of the amount of the property tax levied in that year for city purposes. On renewal of tax anticipation notes of any given fiscal year, the amount renewed in the next succeeding fiscal year shall not exceed twenty per centum of the amount originally issued, and the amount renewed in the second fiscal year succeeding the year of levy shall not exceed four per centum of the amount originally issued. (1950, c. 536; 2015, cc. 201, 294)

§ 7.21. Borrowing in anticipation of other revenues.

In any budget year, in anticipation of the collection or receipt of other revenues of that year, the council may by resolution authorize the borrowing of money by the issuance of negotiable notes of the city, each of which shall be designated "special revenue note for the year 19 " (stating the budget year). Such notes may be renewed from time to time, but all such notes, together with the renewals, shall mature and be paid not later than the end of the fiscal year after the budget year in which the original notes shall have been issued. (1950, c. 536)

§ 7.22. Notes redeemable prior to maturity.

No notes shall be made payable on demand, but any note may be made subject to redemption prior to maturity on such notice and at such time as may be stated in the note. (1950, c. 536)

§ 7.23. Sale of notes.

All notes issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter when authorized by the council, may be sold at private sale without previous advertisement by the director of finance, with the approval of the city manager. (1950, c. 536; 1970, c. 492)

§ 7.24. Payment of notes.

The power and obligation of the city to pay any and all notes hereafter issued by it pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be unlimited and the city shall levy ad valorem taxes on all the taxable property within the city for the payment of such notes and interest thereon without limitation of rate or amount; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to notes issued in anticipation of the issuance of bonds for revenue producing utilities except within the terms of §§ 7.15 and 7.16 of this chapter. (1950, c. 536)

§ 7.25. Interest rate and interest cost of bonds and notes.

Notwithstanding any limitations contained in any other laws, the city shall be empowered to issue the bonds and notes authorized by this chapter at such rate or rates not exceeding eight per centum (8%) per annum or such higher rate or rates as may be permitted by general law, and to sell such bonds and notes for such price as the city council may determine to be for the best interests of the city, but no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the moneys received therefor at more than eight per centum (8%) per annum, or such higher rate or rates as may be permitted by general law, computed with relation to the absolute maturity of such bonds or notes in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding, however, from such computation the amount of any premium to be paid on the redemption of any bonds or notes prior to maturity. (1970, c. 492)

Chapter 8. Personnel.

§ 8.01. Merit basis of appointment.

Appointments and promotions in the administrative service of the city shall be made according to merit and fitness. The council shall have all necessary powers to carry out this purpose. The following powers are vested in the city manager, who may delegate them to any officer or department of the city government as he may decide; provided, however, that, such powers do not extend to employees of the school board.

- (a) To prepare and submit to the council from time to time rules designed to give effect to the provisions of this chapter.
- (b) To prepare and submit to the council classification plans covering all positions in the city service.

§ 8.02. (1950, c. 536; repealed 1981, c. 512)

§ 8.03. Classification.

The City Manager shall allocate each position in the city service to the appropriate class therein on the basis of its authority, duties, and responsibilities. (1950, c. 536; 1981, c. 512)

§ 8.04. Pay plan.

Amendments in the pay plan may be adopted by the council from time to time; provided, however, that in increasing or decreasing items in the city budget, the council shall not increase or decrease any individual salary items in the city budget, but shall act solely with respect to classes of positions as established in the classification and pay plan. In no event shall the council reduce the salary of a class below the minimum or raise it above the maximum salary established by the pay plan except by amendment of the pay plan. (1950, c. 536; 1981, c. 512)

§ 8.05. Removals.

No employee in the service of the city appointed by the City Manager shall be removed from the service except for due cause shown in a written statement to such employee made by the City Manager. § 8.06. Pension and retirement system.

The council shall have authority to establish a pension and retirement system for any and all officers and employees in the service of the city including the following elective officers and their employees: sheriff and Commonwealth attorney, but excluding the mayor and members of city council. Any such pension and retirement system shall not include any provisions that would entitle the elective officers or their employees to any benefit or a greater benefit than the benefits granted to other officers and employees of the city. Any such pension and retirement system shall be established on a jointly contributory basis, except as to prior service charges for which may be borne entirely by the city. The cost of the system shall be determined actuarially on the basis of such mortality and service tables as the council shall approve. Any officer or employee of the city at the time of the establishment of such system shall have a reasonable time thereafter to elect the privilege of becoming a member of the system so established. Officers and employees thereafter appointed to any position which has been included in a retirement system by the council shall be required to join the system as a condition of employment. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the council from making appropriations for pensions for or relief of persons retired from the service of the city prior to the establishment of the retirement system authorized herein. If the council shall deem it inadvisable to establish an independent retirement system for the City of Alexandria, it may make arrangements for group insurance for employees or it may affiliate its retirement system with that of the Commonwealth, if permissible under general law, or with that of any other local government in the Commonwealth or any combination thereof. Any pension and retirement system established under this section shall be administered as provided by ordinance. The benefits accrued or accruing to any person under such system shall not be subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment or any other process whatsoever nor shall any assignment of such benefits be enforceable in any court. (1950, c. 536; 1968, c. 510; 1983, c. 314)

§ 8.07. Prohibited practices.

No person shall wilfully or corruptly make any false statement, certificate, mark, rating or report in regard to any test held or certification or appointment made under the personnel provisions of this charter or any ordinance adopted hereunder or in any manner commit or attempt to commit any fraud preventing the impartial execution of such personnel provisions or of the rules made thereunder. No person seeking appointment to or promotion in the service of the city shall either directly or indirectly give, render or pay any money, service or other valuable thing to any person for or on account of or in connection with his test, appointment, proposed appointment, promotion or proposed promotion. The soliciting of campaign contributions in any city office, building or premises during regular working hours is hereby prohibited. Any person who by himself or with others wilfully or corruptly violates any of the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding sixty days or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any person who is convicted under this section shall for a period of five years be ineligible for appointment to or employment in a position in the city service and shall, if he be an officer or employee of this city, immediately forfeit the office or position he holds. (1950, c. 536)

§ 8.08.1. Supplemental salaries for Department of Public Health employees.

The council shall have authority to enter into agreements with the State Department of Health to supplement the salaries of the Department of Public Health of the City. Such supplement shall be in accord with the pay plan adopted pursuant to this Chapter. (1968, c. 510)

Chapter 9. Planning, Zoning, and Subdivision Control.

§ 9.01. Power to adopt master plan.

In addition to the powers granted elsewhere in this charter, the city council shall have the power to adopt by ordinance a master plan for the physical development of the city to promote health, safety, morals, comfort, prosperity and general welfare. The master plan may include but shall not be limited to the following:

(d) A general plan for the control and routing of railways, street car lines, bus lines and all other vehicular traffic.

(e) The general character, location and extent of all roads, streets, highways, super-highways, free-ways, boulevards, parks, parkways and public buildings and public facilities and of such other general features as may affect the health, welfare, safety and prosperity of the city.

Before the council considers an ordinance proposing the adoption of a new master plan or an amendment of an existing master plan, it shall first conduct a public hearing proceeded by notice as provided in subsection G of § 9.12. (1950, c. 536; 1968, c. 510; 1970, c. 492; 1971, c. 166; 1982, c. 480; 1988, c. 157; 1995, c. 782)

§ 9.02. The city planning commission; composition.

There shall be a city planning commission which shall consist of seven members, who shall be qualified resident voters of the city who hold no office of profit under the city government, appointed by the council for terms of four years.

The city manager shall designate an officer or employee to sit with the commission with the right to discuss and advise but without the right to vote. Vacancies shall be filled by the council for the unexpired portion of the term. Members of the city planning commission shall serve as such without compensation, but may receive reimbursement for travel and expenses incurred by attendance at conventions, meetings, and such other travel as they may perform in the interest of the City of Alexandria in the performance of the duties and activities of the planning commission. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1958, cc. 105, 132; 1982, c. 480; 1992, c. 512)

§ 9.03. City planning commission; organization and expenditures (in 1950 act).

The commission shall elect a chairman and vice chairman from among the citizen members appointed by the council, for a term of one year, who shall be eligible for reelection, and appoint a secretary. The commission shall hold at least one regular meeting in each month, shall adopt rules for the transaction of its business, and shall keep a record of its resolutions, transactions, findings, and determinations, which record shall be a public record. The city manager may appoint such employees as he may deem necessary for the work of the commission and may enter into contracts for and on behalf of the commission or permit it to contract directly with city planners, engineers, architects and other consultants for service it may require. All expenditures, exclusive of gifts to the commission, shall not exceed the sums appropriated by the city council therefor. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1956, c. 262; 1982, c. 480)

§ 9.04. Duty to adopt master plan.

It shall be the duty of the commission to make and adopt a master plan which with accompanying maps, plats, charts, and descriptive matter shall show the commission's recommendations for the development of the territory covered by the plan. (1950, c. 536)

§ 9.05. Adoption of master plan by commission.

The commission may adopt the plan as a whole by a single resolution or may by successive resolutions adopt successive parts of the plan, said parts corresponding to major geographical sections or geographical or topographical division of the city or with functional subdivisions of the subject matter of the plan, and may adopt any amendment or extension thereof or addition thereto, and from time to time at intervals not exceeding five years prepare and submit to the council such changes in or revisions of said plan as changing conditions may make necessary. The adoption of the plan or any such part, amendment, extension or addition shall be by resolution of the commission carried by the affirmative vote of not less than a majority of the entire membership of the commission. The resolution shall refer expressly to the maps and descriptive matter and other matter intended by the commission to form the whole or part of the plan adopted, which resolution shall be signed by the chairman of the commission and attested by its secretary. An attested copy of the resolution, accompanied by a copy of so much of the plan in whole or in part as was adopted thereby, and each amendment, alteration, extension or addition thereto adopted thereby, shall be certified to the council. (1950, c. 536)

§ 9.06. Effect of adoption of master plan.

Whenever the commission shall have adopted a master plan for the city or one or more parts thereof, geographical, topographical or functional, and the master plan of such part or parts thereof shall have been approved by the council and it has been certified by the council to the clerk of the corporation court and filed by him with the court records, then and thereafter no street, square, park or other public way, ground, open space, public building or structure, shall be construed or authorized in the city or in the planned section or division thereof until and unless the general location, character and extent thereof has been submitted to and approved by the commission. No widening, extension, narrowing, enlargement, vacation or change in the use of streets and other public ways, grounds and places within the city, nor the sale of any land held by the city, shall be authorized to take place unless such transactions shall have been first submitted to and approved by the commission; and no public utility, whether publicly or privately owned, shall be construed or authorized in the city or in the planned section or division thereof until and unless its general location, but not its character and extent, has been submitted to and approved by the commission; and no ordinance giving effect to, or amending the comprehensive zoning plan as provided in § 9.09 of this chapter shall be adopted until such application on motion for such change has been submitted to and approved by the commission. In case of disapproval in any of the instances enumerated above the commission shall communicate its reasons to the council which shall not have the power to overrule such action except by a recorded affirmative vote of three-fourths of the members of the council, except as otherwise provided in § 9.12 of this chapter. The failure of the commission to act within sixty days from the date of the official submission to it shall be deemed approval. The foregoing provisions of this section shall not be deemed to apply to the pavement, repavement, reconstruction, improvement, underground pipes and conduits, drainage, or other work in or upon any existing street or other existing public way. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1956, c. 262; 1962, c. 61)

§ 9.07. (1950, c. 536; repealed 1956, c. 262)

§ 9.07:1. Amendment of master plan initiated by council.

Amendment of the master plan may be initiated by a majority vote of the city council to submit a proposed amendment to the planning commission. Notwithstanding any provision in this charter or the general law to the contrary, if the planning commission disapproves the proposed amendment, the council shall have the power to overrule such action and adopt the amendment by an affirmative vote of not less than six members. The failure of the planning commission to act within sixty days from the date of the official submission to it shall be deemed approval; however, the council may extend such sixty-day period for an additional period not to exceed sixty days upon a recorded vote of the majority of all the members of council that good cause exists for such extension. The authority of the council under this section shall be concurrent with the authority of the planning commission to initiate a master plan amendment on its own motion. (1994, c. 131)

§ 9.08. Further powers and duties of the commission.

The commission shall have the power to promote public interest in and understanding of the plan and to that end may publish and distribute copies of the plan or any report relating thereto, and may employ such other means of publicity and education as it may determine. All public officials shall upon request furnish to the commission within a reasonable time such available information as it may require for its work. The commission, its members, officers and employees in the performance of their duties may enter upon any land in the city and make examinations and surveys and place and maintain necessary monuments and markers thereon. In general the commission shall have such powers as may be necessary to enable it to fulfill its function, promote planning and carry out the purposes of this charter. The commission shall make an annual report to the council concerning its activities. (1950, c. 536)

§ 9.09. Zoning powers.

In addition to the powers granted elsewhere in this charter, the council shall have the power to adopt by ordinance a comprehensive zoning plan designed to lessen congestion in streets, secure safety from fire, panic and other danger, promote health, sanitation and general welfare, provide adequate light and air, prevent the overcrowding of land, avoid undue concentration of population, facilitate public and private transportation and the supplying of public utility services and sewage disposal, preserve existing and facilitate the provision of new housing that is affordable to all segments of the community, and facilitate provision for schools, parks, playgrounds and other public improvements and requirements. The comprehensive zoning plan shall include the division of the city into zones with such boundaries as the council deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this charter and shall provide for the regulation and restriction of the use of land, buildings and structures in the respective zones and may include but shall not be limited to the following:

- (a) It may permit specified uses of land, buildings and structures in the zones and prohibit all other uses.
- (b) It may restrict the height, area and bulk of buildings and structures in the zones.
- (c) It may establish setback building lines and prescribe the area of land that may be used as front, rear and side yards and courts and open spaces.
- (d) It may restrict the portion of the area of lots that may be occupied by buildings and structures.
- (e) It may prescribe the area of lots and the space in buildings that may be occupied by families.
- (f) It may require that spaces and facilities deemed adequate by the council shall be provided on lots for parking vehicles in conjunction with permitted uses of land and that spaces and facilities deemed adequate by the council shall be provided on lots for off-street loading or unloading of vehicles.
- (g) It may provide that land, buildings and structures and the uses thereof which do not conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the zone in which they are situated may be continued so long as the then existing or more restricted use continues and so long as the buildings or structures are maintained in their then structural condition; and may require that such buildings or structures and the use thereof shall conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the zone or zones in which they are situated whenever they are enlarged, extended, reconstructed or structurally altered; and may require that such buildings or structures and the use thereof shall conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the zone or zones in which they are situated, in any event within a reasonable period of time to be specified in the ordinance.
- (h) It may require that permits be granted for special uses of property within a zone.
- (i) It may, in order to promote the general welfare through the preservation and protection of historic places and any other buildings or structures within the city having an important historic, architectural or cultural interest and other areas of historic interest in the city and through the preservation of the memorial character of the George Washington Memorial Highway, provide for old and historic districts or designated preservation districts in which no building or structure shall be erected, reconstructed, altered, restored, moved, removed, capsulated or razed until approved by a board of architectural review and in which, notwithstanding any contrary provision of general law, no building or structure shall be allowed to deteriorate so that the building or structure or any exterior architectural feature thereof shall be lost or threatened with loss.
- (j) It may create boards of architectural review which shall have the power to pass upon the appropriateness of exterior architectural features, including signs, of buildings and structures to be erected, reconstructed, altered or restored in any old and historic districts or in designated preservation districts established in the city and prohibit the moving, removing, capsulation, demolition or razing of any building in such a district without a permit if any such building is of such historic, architectural or cultural interest that its removal would be to the detriment of the public interest.

In addition to the provisions of § 2.06 of this charter, the council may adopt an ordinance which establishes a civil penalty for the moving, removing, capsulation, demolition or razing of a building or structure which is located in an old and historic or a designated preservation district without the prior approval from either the board of architectural review or the council. The civil penalty established for a violation of any such ordinance shall not exceed the market value of the property as determined by the assessed value of the property at the time of the violation, and that market value shall include the value of any improvements together with the value of the land upon which any such improvements are located. Such ordinances may be enforced by the city attorney by bringing an action in the name of the city in the circuit court. Such actions shall be brought against the party or parties deemed responsible for the violation. It shall be the burden of the city in any such action to show the liability of the violator by a preponderance of the evidence.

The council shall establish standards, rules, regulations and procedures for the operation of any such boards of architectural review, and, to carry out the purposes and provisions of subsection (i) above and of this subsection (j), it shall provide for appeals to the city council from any final decision of a board, which appeal shall stay a board's decision pending the outcome of the appeal before the council. The council, on appeal, shall apply the same standards as those established for such boards and may affirm, reverse or modify the decision of such boards, in whole or in part. The city council shall determine, by ordinance, the parties entitled to appeal decisions of the city council; such parties shall have the right to appeal to the circuit court of the city for review by filing a petition, at law, setting forth the alleged illegality of the city council's action, provided such petition is filed within thirty days after the final decision is rendered by the city council. The filing of the said petition shall stay the council's decision pending the outcome of the appeal to the court. Findings of fact by the council shall be conclusive on the court in any such appeal. The court may reverse or modify the decision of the council, in whole or in part, if it finds upon review that the decision of the council is contrary to law or that its decision is arbitrary and constitutes an abuse of discretion, or it may affirm the decision of council.

In addition to the right of appeal hereinabove set forth, the owner of a building or structure, the moving, removal, capsulation, the razing or demolition of which is subject to the provisions of subsection (i) above and of this subsection (j), shall, as a matter of right, be entitled to move, remove, capulate, raze or demolish such building or structure provided that: (1) he has applied to the board for such right and has also been a party to an appeal from the board's decision to the council, (2) that the owner has for the period of time set forth in the time schedule hereinafter contained and at a price reasonably related to its fair market value, made a bona fide offer to sell such building or structure, and the land pertaining thereto, to any person, firm, corporation, government or agency thereof, or political subdivision or agency thereof, which gives reasonable assurance that it is willing to preserve and restore the building or structure and the land pertaining thereto, and (3) that no bona fide contract, binding upon all parties thereto, shall have been executed for the sale of any such building or structure, and the land pertaining thereto, prior to the expiration of the applicable time period set forth in the time schedule hereinafter contained. Any appeal which may be taken to the court from the decision of the council, whether instituted by the owner or by any other proper party, notwithstanding the provisions heretofore stated relating to a stay of decision appealed from shall not affect the right of the owner to make the bona fide offer to sell referred to in this paragraph. No offer to sell shall begin more than one year after a final decision by the city council. The time schedule for offers to sell shall be as follows: three months when the offering price is less than $25,000; four months when the offering price is $25,000 or more but less than $40,000; five months when the offering price is $40,000 or more but less than $55,000; six months when the offering price is $55,000 or more but less than $75,000; seven months when the offering price is $75,000 or more but less than $90,000; and twelve months when the offering price is $90,000 or more.

(j-01) It may, in order to promote the general welfare through the preservation and protection of properties in the city which are located outside of any old and historic or designated preservation district but which are over 100 years old and are of historic, architectural or cultural interest, provide by ordinance for the listing of such buildings and structures for preservation which shall not be moved, removed, demolished, razed, capsulated, reconstructed, altered or restored until approved by the board of architectural review except as hereinafter indicated and which, notwithstanding any contrary provision of general law, shall not be allowed to deteriorate so that the building or structure or any exterior architectural feature thereof shall be lost or threatened with loss.

Boards of architectural review shall have the power to prohibit moving, removal, capsulation, razing, reconstruction, alteration or restoration of any building or structure so listed that is over 100 years old and is of such historical, architectural or cultural interest that its removal would be to the detriment of the public interest.

In addition to the provisions of § 2.06 of this charter, the council may adopt an ordinance which establishes a civil penalty for the moving, removing, capsulation, demolition or razing of a building or structure which has been designated by the council as an historic building or structure or landmark without the prior approval from either the board of architectural review or the council. The civil penalty imposed for a violation of any such ordinance shall not exceed the market value of the property as determined by the assessed value of the property at the time of the violation, and that market value shall include the value of any improvements together with the value of the land upon which any such improvements are located. Such ordinances may be enforced by the city attorney by bringing an action in the name of the city in the circuit court. Such actions shall be brought against the party or parties deemed responsible for the violation. It shall be the burden of the city in any such action to show the liability of the violator by a preponderance of the evidence.

The council shall establish standards, rules, regulations and procedures for the operation of such board to carry out the purposes and provisions of this subsection (j-01); it shall provide for appeals to the city council from any final decision of any board, which appeal shall stay the board's decision pending the outcome of the appeal before the council. The council, on appeal, shall apply the same standards as those established for the board and may affirm, reverse or modify the decision of a board, in whole or in part. The city council shall determine, by ordinance, the parties entitled to appeal decisions of the city council; such parties shall have the right to appeal to the circuit court of the city for review by filing a petition, at law, setting forth the alleged illegality of the city council's action, provided such petition is filed within thirty days after the final decision is rendered by the city council. The filing of the said petition shall stay the council's decision pending the outcome of the appeal to the court. Findings of fact by the council shall be conclusive on the court in any such appeal. The court may reverse or modify the decision of the council, in whole or in part, if it finds upon review that the decision of the council is contrary to law or that its decision is arbitrary and constitutes an abuse of discretion, or it may affirm the decision of council. In addition to the right of appeal hereinabove set forth, the owner of a building or structure, the moving, removal, capsulation, razing or demolition of which is subject to the provisions of this subsection (j-01), shall, as a matter of right, be entitled to move, remove, capsulate, raze or demolish such building or structure provided that: (1) he has applied to a board for such right and has also been a party to an appeal from a board's decision to the council, (2) that the owner has for the period of time set forth in the time schedule hereinafter contained and at a price reasonably related to its fair market value, made a bona fide offer to sell such building or structure, and the land pertaining thereto, to any person, firm, corporation, government or agency thereof, or political subdivision or agency thereof, which gives reasonable assurance that it is willing to preserve and restore the building or structure, and the land pertaining thereto, prior to the expiration of the applicable time period set forth in the time schedule hereinafter contained. Any appeal which may be taken to the court from the decision of the council, whether instituted by the owner or by any other proper party, notwithstanding the provisions heretofore stated relating to a stay of the decision appealed from shall not affect the right of the owner to make the bona fide offer to sell referred to in this paragraph. No offer to sell shall begin more than one year after a final decision by the city council. The time schedule for offers to sell shall be as follows: three months when the offering price is less than $25,000; four months when the offering price is $25,000 or more but less than $40,000; five months when the offering price is $40,000 or more but less than $55,000; six months when the offering price is $55,000 or more but less than $75,000; seven months when the offering price is $75,000 or more but less than $90,000; and twelve months when the offering price is $90,000 or more.

(j-1) To acquire, in the manner provided in Chapter 13 of this charter, areas, properties, lands or any estate or interest therein, of old and historic interest which, in the opinion of the council, should be acquired, preserved and maintained for the use, observation, education, pleasure and welfare of the people; provide for their renovation, preservation, maintenance, management and control as places of old and historic interest by a department of the city government or by a board, commission or agency specially established by ordinance for the purpose; charge or authorize the charging of compensation for the use thereof or admission thereto; lease, subject to such regulations as may be established by ordinance, any such area, property, lands or estate or interest therein so acquired upon the condition that the old and historic character of the area, property or lands shall be preserved and maintained; or to enter into contracts with any person, firm or corporation for the management, preservation, maintenance or operation of any such area, property, lands or estate or interest therein so acquired as a place of old and historic interest, provided, the city shall not use the right of condemnation under this paragraph unless the historic value of such area, property, lands or estate or interest therein is about to be destroyed.

(k) To restrict, and regulate the erection of buildings and structures in areas subject to floods. (1950, c. 536; 1964, c. 288; 1966, cc. 12, 83; 1975, c. 511; 1976, c. 669; 1982, c. 480; 1983, c. 314; 1986, c. 459; 1989, c. 118; 1992, c. 512)

§ 9.10. Consideration to be observed in adoption and alteration of regulations.

The regulations and restrictions shall be enacted with reasonable consideration, among other things, of the character of each zone and its peculiar suitability for particular uses, and with a view of conserving the value of land, buildings, and structures and encouraging the most appropriate use thereof throughout the city. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1960, c. 8; 1966, cc. 12, 83; 1992, c. 512)

§ 9.11. Duties of the city planning commission with relation to zoning.

It shall be the duty of the city planning commission to prepare and submit to the council a comprehensive zoning plan, as referred to in § 9.09 of this chapter, and from time to time, at intervals not exceeding two years, prepare and submit such changes in or revisions of the said plan as changing conditions may make necessary. The provisions of §§ 9.06 and 9.13 shall apply to zone boundary changes adopted under § 9.10; provided, however, that said §§ 9.06 and 9.13 shall not apply to city-owned property. (1950, c. 536; 1960, c. 8; 1962, c. 61; 1964, cc. 44, 288; 1982, c. 480)

§ 9.12. Adoption and amendment of regulations and restrictions and determination of zone boundaries; notice of public hearings.

A. Subject to the other provisions of this chapter, the council shall have power by ordinance to adopt the regulations and restrictions herein before described and determine the boundaries of the zones in which they shall apply, provide for their enforcement, and from time to time amend, supplement or repeal the same. The council shall also have authority to provide for the collection of fees to cover costs involved in the consideration of any application for amendment of any such determination of boundaries, to be paid to the Director of Finance by the applicant upon filing such request. No ordinance to adopt the regulations and restrictions herein before described or to determine the boundaries of zones or to provide for their enforcement, and no ordinance to amend, supplement or repeal the same shall be enacted until the application or motion for such change has been considered by the city planning commission and until after a public hearing in relation thereto has been held by the commission. The commission may recommend approval or disapproval of the matter by the city council, or the commission may request that the council refer the matter back to the commission for further study. The commission shall vote on the application or motion at the public hearing; provided, that the commission may defer a vote for a period not to exceed 90 days upon a recorded vote of a majority of the members of the commission that good cause exists for such deferral.

B. A public hearing on the application or motion shall be held by the council, at which time the parties in interest shall have an opportunity to be heard. Council may, by ordinance, provide for the consideration of applications or motions or both by the commission or council only at specified intervals of time, not exceeding 90 days. The council may approve or disapprove recommendations of the planning commission on the matter, subject to the provisions of § 9.06 of this charter. It may also refer back the matter to the commission for further study.

C. The commission shall act on any matter referred back from the council for further study within 25 calendar days of the date of the council referral and shall resubmit its reviewed recommendations to council. Such commission action shall follow a public hearing on the matter which shall be preceded by at least 10 days' notice thereof published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. If two-thirds of the entire membership of the commission votes to recommend disapproval of any matter referred back to the commission by the council for further study, such recommendation may be overruled only by a recorded affirmative vote of three-fourths of all the members of the council. If the commission fails to act on such a referral back within 25 days of the date of the council referral or fails to recommend disapproval of the matter referred back or by a two-thirds vote of its entire membership, the council may adopt said application or motion for change by a simple majority. An additional public hearing shall be held by the council, preceded by at least 10 days' notice thereof published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, on any matter referred by council to the planning commission for further study 45 days from the date on which the matter was referred back to the planning commission by the council; provided, that the council may extend such 45-day period for an additional period not to exceed 45 days upon a recorded vote of the majority of all the members of council that good cause exists for such extension.

D. Should the council approve the application or motion, 75 days may be taken to follow the proper procedure for the passage of an ordinance implementing the approval.

E. The time constraints and limitations listed and described above in this section shall not apply to any motion, or to any ordinance, to adopt, amend, supplement or repeal the regulations and restrictions herein before described, or to provide for their enforcement. In addition, notwithstanding any of the procedural requirements set forth in this chapter or by other law, ordinances adopting or amending zoning regulations and restrictions or determining zone boundaries may be enacted under the emergency ordinance provisions of this charter without compliance with such requirements.

F. The council, in determining the boundaries of zones, may approve an application or motion for, and may adopt an ordinance for, a zone change to a more restrictive zone than that originally applied for or moved; provided, in cases where the zone change procedure is initiated by other than the planning commission or the council on its own motion: (1) that the planning commission recommends in favor of such more restrictive zone change at a public hearing held to consider the application for a zone change amendment; (2) that the applicant agrees to the more restrictive zone change at or before the said planning commission hearing; and (3) that at least 10 days' notice of the more restrictive zone change and of the time and place of the public hearing before council required by this section shall be given by publication thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. A protest under § 9.13 of this charter against a less restrictive zone change shall not be effective against a more restrictive change. This shall not, however, preclude the filing of an effective new protest against a more restrictive zone change under § 9.13, nor shall it preclude the effectiveness of a protest filed against both a less restrictive and a more restrictive zone change.

G. Whenever a public hearing is required or provided under the provisions of this chapter or any related provision of general law, or under any local ordinance adopted pursuant to this chapter or such general law, at least 10 days' notice of the time and place of such hearing, together with a general description of the matter being heard, shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The council may, by ordinance, prescribe additional newspaper notice requirements for particular hearings or classes of hearings. This subsection shall preempt all other newspaper notice requirements of general or special law.

H. Any ordinance adopted, or other action taken, under the authority of this chapter or any related provision of general law prior to April 1, 2004, shall not be declared to be invalid by reason of a failure to advertise or give notice as required by general law, so long as advertisement and notice of such adoption or action was given in compliance with the then applicable local law; however, this subsection shall not affect any litigation concluded before, or pending on, April 1, 2004.

I. Whenever written notice of a public hearing is required to be given to an owner of property affected by the adoption or amendment of regulations or restrictions or zone boundaries under the provisions of this chapter or any related provision of general law, such notice shall be given for the public hearing on the application or motion for such adoption or amendment, as provided in subsection A or subsection B of this section, and not for the public hearing on the ordinance implementing the approval, as provided in subsection D of this section. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1956, c. 262; 1964, cc. 44, 288; 1968, c. 510; 1971, c. 166; 1973, c. 258; 1974, c. 595; 1982, c. 480; 1988, c. 157; 1989, c. 118; 1990, c. 652; 1992, c. 131; 1995, c. 782; 2004, c. 511)

§ 9.12.1. Parties to applications and motions for amendments, supplements or repeal of regulations and restrictions and determination of boundaries.

Applications for changes in zone boundaries shall be accepted only from parties having a legal interest in the property, from the duly authorized representative of any such party or from persons exhibiting the consent of parties having a legal interest in the property. The planning commission may initiate on its own motion the adoption, amendment, supplement or repeal of any regulation, restriction or determination of boundaries of zones. The council may initiate on its own motion the adoption, amendment, supplement or repeal of any regulation, restriction or determination of boundaries of zones. All such applications and motions shall be subject to the procedures set forth in this chapter. This section shall preempt all provisions of general law applicable to the initiation by the planning commission or city council of the adoption, amendment, supplement or repeal of any regulation, restriction or determination of boundaries of zones. (1968, c. 510; 1989, c. 118; 2004, c. 511)

§ 9.12.2. Disclosure by applicants.

(a) The zoning ordinance may provide that each applicant for a land use or land development approval pursuant to such ordinance make full public disclosure of parties having an ownership interest in the real estate that is the subject of the application and of parties having any other financial interest in such application or approval.

(b) The zoning ordinance may further provide that a party having an ownership interest in such real estate or any other financial interest in such application or approval make full public disclosure of any business or financial relationship that such party presently has, or has had within the 12-month period prior to the public hearing on the application, to each member of the planning commission, board of zoning appeals, boards of architectural review, or city council, as the case may be.

(c) The zoning ordinance may further provide that a member of the planning commission, board of zoning appeals, board of architectural review, and city council, as the case may be, who has or has had a business or financial relationship subject to disclosure under subsection B shall be ineligible to vote or participate in any way in consideration of the application; provided, however, that for purposes of this subsection, a business or financial relationship arising out of a campaign contribution, which has been disclosed as required by law, shall not render a member ineligible to vote or participate.

(d) The ordinance may establish reasonable classifications and definitions of the nature and extent of the ownership and other financial interests subject to the disclosures provided under subsections (a) and (b), provided that such classifications and definitions shall not be more inclusive or stringent than the classifications and definitions established by § 15.2-852 of the Code of Virginia.

(e) The ordinance may establish reasonable classifications and standards for the disclosures provided under subsection (a) and (b), and for the recusal provided under subsection (c), provided that such classifications and standards shall not be more inclusive or stringent than the classifications and standards established by § 15.2-852 of the Code of Virginia, and may establish reasonable procedures for the administration of the ordinance.

(f) Any person who knowingly and willfully violates the provisions of the zoning ordinance adopted pursuant to this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

(g) The provisions of this section preempt any conflicting provisions of law, general or special, except that any provision of the State and Local Government Conflict of Interests Act, (§ 2.2-3100 et seq) of the Code of Virginia that is more stringent than the provisions of any ordinance adopted pursuant to this section shall not be preempted. (2009, c. 539)

§ 9.13. Effect of protest by twenty percent of the owners of property.

If a protest is filed with the city clerk against an application or motion to amend the boundaries of a zone or to amend the terms of an adopted conditional zoning proffer or zoning condition, signed by the owners of twenty percent or more either of the area of land within the boundaries of such proposed change or of the area of land within 300 feet of the boundaries of the land affected by such proposed change, the council shall not approve the application or motion, or adopt the ordinance making such amendment, by less than three-fourths affirmative votes of the members of council. Streets, alleys and lands dedicated to public use or lands owned by the city, Commonwealth, or federal government shall not be included in computing the above mentioned areas.

Any such protest shall be filed not later than 12 o'clock noon on the last working day on which a public hearing on the application or motion is first conducted by the city council. Once any such protest has been filed no changes thereto by way of addition, substitution, amendment or withdrawal, may be made after said 12 o'clock noon deadline. (1950, c. 536; 1960, c. 8; 1966, cc. 12, 83; 1971, c. 166; 1974, c. 595; 1988, c. 157; 1990, c. 652)

§ 9.14. Board of zoning appeals; composition.

There shall be a board of zoning appeals which shall consist of seven members. They shall be qualified resident voters of the city, shall hold no office of profit under the city government and shall be appointed by the city council for terms of four years. Vacancies shall be filled by the city council for the unexpired portion of the term. A member may be removed by the council for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, upon written charges and after a public hearing. Members of the board of zoning appeals shall serve without compensation, but may receive reimbursement for travel and expenses incurred by attendance at conventions, meetings and such other travel as may be in the interest of the city and the performance of the duties and activities of the Board of Zoning Appeals. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1982, c. 480; 1992, c. 512)

§ 9.15. Board of zoning appeals; organization.

The board shall elect one of its members as chairman. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the board and in his absence a member designated by the board shall act as chairman and shall preside. The board shall appoint a secretary and the city manager shall appoint such other employees as may be needed for the conduct of the work of the board. (1950, c. 536; 1982, c. 480)

§ 9.16. Board of zoning appeals; procedure.

The meeting of the board shall be held at the call of the chairman and such other time as the board may determine. The board shall keep minutes of its proceedings showing the vote of each member on each question or if absent or failing to vote indicating such fact, and shall keep records of its examinations and other official actions, all of which shall be filed in the office of the board and shall be a public record. (1950, c. 536)

§ 9.17. Appeals to board of zoning appeals.

Appeals to the board may be taken by any person aggrieved, or by any officer, department, board, commission or agency of the city affected, by any decision of the director of planning, who shall enforce the ordinance establishing zones and regulating and restricting the use of land, buildings and structures therein. Appeals shall be taken within such reasonable time as shall be prescribed by the board by general rule by filing with the said director of planning and with the board a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The director of planning shall forthwith transmit to the board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken. An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from unless the director of planning from whose decision the appeal is taken certifies to the board that by reason of the facts stated in the certificate a stay would in his opinion cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the board or by a court of record on application and on notice to the director of planning and on due cause shown.

The board shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof as well as due notice to the parties in interest, and decide the issue within a reasonable time. At the hearing any party may appear in person, by agent or by attorney and shall be given opportunity to be heard. The board may prescribe a fee to be paid whenever an appeal is taken which fee shall be paid into the city treasury. (1950, c. 536)

§ 9.18. Powers of board of zoning appeals.

The board shall have the following powers and it shall be its duty:

- (a) To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order, requirement, decision or determination by the director of planning in the administration and enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance.

(b) To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest, when, owing to special conditions a literal enforcement of the provisions will result in unnecessary hardship; provided that the spirit of the ordinance shall be observed and substantial justice done, as follows:

When a property owner can show that his property was acquired in good faith and where by reason of the exceptional narrowness, shallowness, size or shape of a specific piece of property at the time of the effective date of the ordinance, or where by reason of the exceptional topographical condition or other extraordinary situation, or condition of such piece of property, or of the use or development of property immediately adjacent thereto, the strict application of the terms of the ordinance would effectively prohibit or unreasonably restrict the use of property or where the board is satisfied, upon the evidence heard by it, that the granting of such variance will alleviate a clearly demonstrable hardship, as distinguished from a special privilege or convenience sought by the applicant, provided that all variances shall be in harmony with the intended spirit and purpose of the ordinance.

No such variance shall be authorized by the board unless it finds:

- (1) That the strict application of the ordinance would produce undue hardship.
- (2) That such hardship is not shared generally by other properties in the same zone and the same vicinity and is not created by the owner of such property.
- (3) That the authorization of such variance will not be of substantial detriment to adjacent property and that the character of the zone will not be changed by the granting of the variance.

No variance shall be authorized unless the board finds that the condition or situation of the property concerned or the intended use of the property is not of so general or recurring a nature as to make reasonably practicable the formulation of a general regulation to be adopted as an amendment to the ordinance.

In authorizing a variance the board may impose such reasonable conditions regarding the location, character and other features of the proposed structure or use as it may deem necessary in the interest of public health, safety or welfare and to assure that the variance authorized shall be in harmony with the intended spirit and purpose of this chapter and the ordinance.

(c) To permit, when reasonably necessary in the public interest, the use of land, or the construction or use of buildings or structures, in any zone in which they are prohibited by the ordinance, by any agency of the city, state, or the United States, provided such construction or use shall adequately safeguard the health, safety and welfare of the occupants of the adjoining and surrounding property, shall not unreasonably impair an adequate supply of light and air to adjacent property, shall not increase congestion in streets and shall not increase public danger from fire or otherwise affect public safety.

(d) To permit the following exceptions to the zone regulations and restrictions, provided such exceptions shall by their design, construction and operation adequately safeguard the health, safety and welfare of the occupants of the adjoining and surrounding property, shall not unreasonably impair an adequate supply of light and air to adjacent property, shall not increase public danger from fire or otherwise unreasonably affect public safety, and shall not diminish or impair the established property values in surrounding areas:

(2) Extension of a zone where the boundary line of a zone divides a lot in single ownership as shown of record at the time of the effective date of the ordinance.

(3) Reconstruction of buildings or structures that do not conform to the comprehensive zoning plan and regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district in which they are located, which have been damaged by explosion, fire, act of God or the public enemy, to the extent of more than sixty per cent of their fair market value as established by the opinion of three disinterested appraisers to be appointed by the city council, when the board finds some compelling public necessity for a continuance of the use and such continuance is not primarily to continue a monopoly, provided that nothing herein shall relieve the owner of any such building or structure from obtaining the approval of such reconstruction by the council or any department or officer of the city when such approval is required by any law or ordinance. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1958, cc. 105, 132; 1968, c. 510; 2010, c. 221)

§ 9.19. In exercising the powers conferred upon it the board may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from, and make such order, requirement, decision, or determination as should be made, and to that end shall have all the power of the director of planning. The concurring affirmative vote of four members of the board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from, and make such order, requirement, decision or determination as should be made, and to that end shall have all the powers of the director of planning. The concurring affirmative vote of four members of the board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, and decision or determination of the director of planning or to decide in favor of the applicant in any matter of which it has jurisdiction. The board shall render a written decision which shall set forth the reason for its decision and the vote of each member participating therein shall be spread upon its records and shall be open to public inspection. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1956, c. 262; 1992, c. 512)

§ 9.20. Appeals from board of zoning appeals.

Any person, firm or corporation, jointly or severally aggrieved or in fact affected by a decision of the board of zoning appeals, or any officer, department, board or agency of the city government charged with the enforcement of any order, requirement or decision of said board, may appeal from such decision by filing a petition in the circuit court of the city, verified by affidavit, setting forth the alleged illegality of the action of the board and the grounds thereof. The petition shall be filed within thirty calendar days from the date of the decision of the board. (1950, c. 536; 1982, c. 480)

§ 9.21. Powers and duties of the court.

The circuit court shall review the record, documents and actions taken by the board and may receive evidence. The court may reverse or modify the decision reviewed, in whole or in part, when it is satisfied that the decision of the board is contrary to law or that its decision is arbitrary and constitutes an abuse of discretion. (1950, c. 536; 1983, c. 314)

§ 9.22. Proceedings against violators of zoning ordinance.

Whenever any building or structure is erected, constructed, reconstructed, altered, repaired or converted, or whenever any land, building or structure is used in violation of any ordinance adopted in accordance with § 9.12 of this chapter, the city may institute and prosecute appropriate action or proceedings to prevent such unlawful act and to restrain, correct or abate such violation or to prevent any unlawful act, conduct or use of such property. (1950, c. 536)

§ 9.23. Penalties for violation of zoning ordinance.

From and after the date on which such regulations and restrictions become effective in the city the owners of tracts of land within the city to which such regulations and restrictions are applicable who subdivide them into two or more lots, shall cause plats of such subdivisions, in the form prescribed by the applicable regulations and restrictions, to be made and submitted to the city planning commission. It shall be the duty of such commission to consider such plat in the light of regulations and restrictions applicable to the same and approve or disapprove the plat in accordance therewith. Before taking any action thereon the city planning commission shall afford the owner and other interested parties an opportunity to be heard after such reasonable notice as may be provided in such regulations and restrictions. Failure to act on any plat for a period of forty-five days shall be deemed to constitute approval. The council may by ordinance provide for appeals to the city council in cases in which the city planning commission approves or disapproves a plat of subdivision, provided that in the instance of an appeal from an approval the appeal must be made by the owners of at least twenty percent of the area of the land within three hundred feet of the boundaries of the proposed subdivision. § 9.28. Recording of plats of subdivisions.

From and after the date on which such regulations and restrictions become effective in the city no plat of any subdivision to which such regulations and restriction are applicable shall be received or recorded by the clerk of any court unless the plat has been approved as provided in the preceding section. No owner of land in the city who has subdivided the same into two or more lots, shall sell or offer for sale any such lot by reference to or exhibition of or by the use of a plat of such subdivision or otherwise before the plat of such subdivision has been approved as provided in the preceding section and has been recorded in the office of the clerk of the court in which a deed conveying such lot would be required to be recorded. (1950, c. 536)

§ 9.29. Penalty for transfer of lots in unapproved subdivisions.

Whoever being the owner or agent of the owner of any land subject to such regulations and restrictions, the plat of which has not been approved and recorded as above provided, shall transfer, sell or offer for sale or agree to sell a portion of any such land by reference to or exhibition of an unapproved and unrecorded plat or otherwise, shall be punishable by fine not exceeding three hundred dollars or imprisonment in the city jail for not more than ninety days or both, for each lot or similar parcel of land transferred or agreed or negotiated to be sold; and the description of such lot or parcel by metes and bounds in the instrument of transfer or other document used in the process of selling or transferring shall not exempt the transaction from such penalty or from the remedies herein provided. The city may enjoin such transfer or sale or agreement in a court having jurisdiction of the land to which the injunction applies. (1950, c. 536; 1968, c. 510)

The procedures may include but shall not be limited to authorizing the city planning commission to consider the site plans and plats in light of the regulations and restrictions applicable thereto and approve or disapprove site plans and plats in accordance therewith. (1962, c. 61)

§ 9.34. Incorporation by reference of plans, maps, etc.

Plans, maps, plats, charts, descriptive matter, regulations, restrictions, zone boundaries, and amendments, recommended or adopted under the powers conferred by this chapter may be incorporated by reference. Whenever there is incorporation by reference the matter incorporated shall be reasonably identified. When advertisement is required, the matter incorporated by reference need not be advertised in full but may be advertised by reference. In such cases, the advertisement shall designate a place where the matter incorporated may be examined. (1972, c. 808; 1982, c. 480)

A candidate for mayor shall file his petition therefor specifically; and a candidate for city council shall file his petition therefor specifically, provided, however, that a candidate who files his petition for mayor shall not have his name printed on the ballot for city council. Vacancies in the council occurring within one hundred eighty days of the next ensuing regular council election shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the chief judge of the Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1964, cc. 44, 288; 1971, c. 166; 1983, c. 314) manager shall review the applications of all applicants for the office and forward his recommendations to the city council.

(1968, c. 510; 2015, cc. 201, 294)

The council shall appoint the city attorney, and the terms and conditions of such appointment shall be set forth in an employment agreement consistent with the provisions of this Charter.

The entire compensation of the city attorney shall be fixed by the council on a salary basis. (1950, c. 536; 1952, c. 564; 1968, c. 510; 1972, c. 808; 1980, c. 591; 2015, cc. 201, 294)

(1950, c. 536; 1970, c. 492; 1972, c. 808; 2014, cc. 400, 698)

§ 11.03. Restrictions on actions for damages against city and notice to be given of claims.

(a) Whenever in any action, suit or proceeding against the city any person, firm or corporation may be liable or responsible with the city, such person, firm or corporation shall, upon motion of the city, be joined as defendant with the city, and whenever there is a judgment, order or decree rendered against or affecting the city and any person, firm, or corporation is so joined, the court shall determine which of the defendants is primarily liable or responsible. If it shall be ascertained by the judgment of the court that some person, firm, or corporation other than the city is primarily liable, there shall be a stay of execution against the city until execution against such person, firm or corporation shall have been returned without realizing the full amount of said judgment. If the city, where not primarily liable, shall pay the said judgment in whole or in part, the plaintiff shall, to the extent that said judgment is paid by the city, assign the said judgment to the city without recourse on the plaintiff, and the city shall be entitled to have execution issued for its benefit against the other defendant or defendants who have been ascertained to be primarily liable, or may institute any suit in equity to enforce the said judgment, or an action at law, or scire facias to revive or enforce said judgment.

Chapter 13. Acquisition of Property for Public Purposes.

§ 13.01. Acquisition, ownership and use of property.

The city shall have, for the purpose of carrying out any of its powers and duties, power to acquire by gift, bequest, purchase or lease, and to own and make use of within and without the city and State, lands, buildings, other structures and personal property, including any interest, right, easement or estate therein and in acquiring such property to exercise, within and without the city but not without the State, the right of eminent domain, as hereinafter provided in this chapter. In any acquisition by eminent domain or purchase the city may provide relocation assistance in city projects in which federal or State funds are not used. (1950, c. 536; 1971, c. 166; 1974, c. 595)

§ 13.02. Eminent domain.

The city is hereby authorized to acquire by condemnation proceedings lands, buildings, structures and personal property or any interest, right, easement or estate therein of any person or corporation, whenever in the opinion of the council a public necessity exists therefor, which shall be expressed in the resolution or ordinance directing such acquisition, and whenever the city cannot agree on terms of purchase or settlement with the owners of the subject of such acquisition because of the incapacity of such owner, or because of the inability to agree on the compensation to be paid or other terms of settlement or purchase, or because the owner or some one of the owners is a nonresident of the State or cannot with reasonable diligence be found in the State or is unknown.

Such proceedings may be instituted in the circuit court of the city, if the subject to be acquired is located within the city, or, if it is not located within the city, in the circuit court of the county in which it is located. If the subject is situated partly within the city and partly within any county the circuit court of such county shall have concurrent jurisdiction in such condemnation proceedings with the courts of the city hereinbefore enumerated. The judge or the court exercising such concurrent jurisdiction shall appoint five disinterested freeholders, any or all of whom reside either in the county or city, any three of whom may act as commissioners, as provided by law, provided, however, that the provisions of §

25.1-102 of the Code of Virginia, 1950, shall apply as to any property owned by a corporation possessing the power of eminent domain that may be sought to be taken by condemnation under the provisions of this act. (1950, c. 536; 1983, c. 314; 2015, cc. 201, 294)

§ 13.03. Alternative procedures in condemnation.

The city may, in exercising the right of eminent domain conferred by the preceding section, make use of the procedure prescribed by the general law as modified by said section or may elect to proceed as hereinafter provided. In either event the date of valuation shall be the time of the lawful taking by the petitioner, or the date of the filing of the petition in condemnation, whichever occurs first. The resolution or ordinance directing the acquisition of any property as set forth in the preceding section, shall provide therein in a lump sum the total funds necessary to compensate the owners thereof for such property to be acquired or damaged. Upon the adoption of such resolution or ordinance the city may file a petition in the clerk's office of a court enumerated in the preceding section, having jurisdiction of the subject, which shall be signed by the city manager and set forth the interest or estate to be taken in the property and the uses and purposes for which the property or the interest or estate therein is wanted, or when property is not to be taken but is likely to be damaged, the necessity for the work or improvement which will cause or is likely to cause such damage. There shall also be filed with the petition a plat of a survey of the property with a profile showing cuts and fills, trestles and bridges, or other contemplated structures if any, and a description of the property which, or an interest or estate in which, is sought to be taken or likely to be damaged and a memorandum showing names and residences of the owners of the property, if known, and showing also the quantity or property which, or an interest or estate in which, is sought to be taken or which will be or is likely to be damaged. There shall be filed also with said petition a notice directed to the owners of the property, if known, copies of which shall be served on such owners or tenants of the freehold of such property, if known. If the owner or tenant of the freehold be unknown or a nonresident of the State or cannot with reasonable diligence be found in the State, or if the residence of the owner or tenant be unknown, he may be proceeded against by order of publication which order, however, need not be published more than once a week for two successive weeks and shall be posted at a main entrance to the courthouse. The publication shall in all other respects conform to §§ 8.01-316, 8.01-317, and 8.01-319 of the Code of Virginia.

Upon the filing of said petition and the deposit of the funds provided by the council for the purpose in a bank to the credit of the court in such proceedings and the filing of a certificate of deposit therefor the interest or estate of the owner of such property shall terminate and the title to such property or the interest or estate to be taken in such property shall be vested absolutely in the city and such owner shall have such interest or estate in the funds so deposited as he had in the property taken or damaged and all liens by deed of trust, judgment or otherwise upon said property or estate shall be transferred to such funds and the city shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of such property for its uses and purposes and to construct its works or improvements. The clerk of the court in which such proceedings are instituted shall make and certify a copy of the petition, exhibits filed therewith, and orders, and deliver or transmit the same to the clerk of the court in which deeds are admitted to record, who shall record the same in his deed book and index them in the name of the person or persons who had the property before and in the name of the city, for which he shall receive the same fees prescribed for recording a deed, which shall be paid by the city.

If the city and the owner of the property so taken or damaged agreed upon compensation therefor, upon filing such agreement in writing in the clerk's office of such court the court or judge thereof in vacation shall make such distribution of such funds as to it may seem right, having due regard to the interest of all persons therein whether such interest be vested, contingent or otherwise, and to enable the court or judge to make a proper distribution of such money it may in its discretion direct inquiries to be taken by a special commissioner in order to ascertain what persons are entitled to such funds and in what proportions and may direct what notice shall be given of the making of such inquiries by such special commissioner.

If the city and the owner cannot agree upon the compensation for the property taken or damaged, if any, upon the filing of a memorandum in the clerk's office of said court to that effect, signed by either the city or the owner, the court shall appoint commissioners provided for in § 25.1-227.2 of the Code of Virginia, as amended, or as provided for in § 13.02, and all proceedings thereafter shall be had as provided in Article 6 (§ 25.1-230 et seq.) of Chapter 2 of Title 25.1 of the Code of Virginia, as amended insofar as they are then applicable and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this and the preceding section, and the court shall order the deposit in bank to the credit of the court of such additional funds as appear to be necessary to cover the award of the commissioners or shall order the return to the city of such funds deposited that are not necessary to compensate such owners for property taken or damaged. The commissioners so appointed shall not consider improvements placed upon the property by the city subsequent to its taking nor the value thereof nor the enhancement of the value of said property by said improvements in making their award. (1950, c. 536; 1964, cc. 44, 288; 1970, c. 492; 1976, c. 669; 2015, cc. 201, 294)

§ 13.04. Enhancement in value when considered.

In all cases under the provisions of §§ 13.02 and 13.03, the enhancement, if any, in value of the remaining property of the owner by reason of the construction or improvement contemplated or made by the city, shall be offset against the damage, if any, resulting to such remaining property of such owner by reason of such construction or improvement, provided such enhancement in value shall not be offset against the value of the property taken, and provided further, that if such enhancement in value shall exceed the damage there shall be no recovery over against the owner for such excess. (1950, c. 536)

§ 13.05. Unclaimed funds in condemnation cases.

Whenever any money shall have remained for five years in the custody or under the control of any of the courts enumerated in § 13.02, in any condemnation proceeding instituted therein by the city, without any claim having been asserted thereto such court shall, where the amount is one hundred dollars or more, cause a publication to be made once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, setting forth the amount of such money, the source from which it was derived and the proceeding in which it is held, and requiring all persons having any claim to said money to appear before said court within such time after the completion of the publication as the court may prescribe, and establish their claim. If the sum be less than one hundred dollars, the court shall direct the same to be paid into the treasury of the city, and a proper receipt for the payment taken and filed among the records of the proceeding. If no person shall appear and show title in himself the court shall order the money, after deducting therefrom the costs of such publication if such publication is made, and any other proper charges, to be paid into the treasury of the city and a proper receipt for the payment to be taken and filed among the records of the proceeding. The director of finance shall, in a book provided for the purpose, keep an account of all money thus paid into the city treasury, showing the amount thereof, when, by whom, and under what order it was paid, and the name of the court and as far as practicable, a description of the suit or proceeding in which the order was made and, as far as known, the names of the parties entitled to said funds. Money thus paid into the treasury of the city shall be paid out on the order of the court having jurisdiction of the proceeding, to any person entitled thereto who had not asserted a claim therefor in the proceeding in which it was held, upon satisfactory proof that he is entitled to such money. If such claim be established the net amount thereof, after deducting costs and other proper charges, shall be paid to the claimant out of the treasury of the city on the warrant of the director of finance. No claim to such money shall be asserted after ten years from the time when such court obtained control thereof; provided, however, if the person having such claim was an infant, insane, or imprisoned at the time the claim might have been presented or asserted by such person, claim to such money may be asserted within five years after the removal of such disability. (1950, c. 536; 1971, c. 166; 1988, c. 157)

(2) If the vacancy occurs more than two years before the expiration of the term, the vacancy shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining members of council only until the next council member election, at which election the voters of the town shall elect a person to serve as council member for the remaining two years of the term. Any such election shall be subject to the requirements of § 24.2-226 of the Code of Virginia. When such an election is conducted, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes will be entitled to full terms and the candidate receiving the next highest number shall be entitled to the unexpired term caused by the vacancy.

Notwithstanding the requirement in § 3.15 (c) hereof that a quorum of the council consists of four members, if at any time the membership of the council is reduced to less than four, the remaining members shall call for a special election to fill the vacancies for the unexpired terms. The council shall provide for an independent annual audit of all town accounts and may provide for such more frequent audits as it deems necessary. Such audits shall be made by a certified public accountant or firm of such accountants who have no personal interest, direct or indirect, in the fiscal affairs of the town government or any of its officers. The council may, without requiring competitive bids, designate such accountant or firm annually. If the State makes such an audit, the council may accept it as satisfying the requirements of this section. (1975, c. 619)

§ 3.14. Procedure.

(a) Meetings. The council shall meet regularly at least once in every month at such times and places as the council may prescribe by ordinance. Special meetings may be held on the call of the mayor or of any two members upon no less than twenty-four hours' notice to each member, except in case of extreme emergency when the time limit may be waived. No business shall be transacted by the council in such special meeting which has not been stated in the notice unless all members of the council are present and give their unanimous consent to the consideration of such business, and such business is an emergency or of an unusual nature.

No vote shall be reconsidered or rescinded at any special meeting unless at such special meeting there are present as large a number of members as were present when such vote was taken.

(b) Rules and journal. The Council shall determine its own rules and order of business and shall provide for keeping a journal of its proceedings. This journal shall be a public record.

(c) Voting and quorum. Voting, except on procedural motions, shall be by roll call and the ayes and nays shall be recorded in the journal. Four members of the council shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time. No action of the council, except as otherwise provided in the preceding sentence, in § 3.10(c) and § 3.11, shall be valid or binding unless adopted by the affirmative vote of four or more members of the council.

An affirmative recorded vote of five of the members is required for the adoption of any ordinance or resolution having for its object the levying of taxes or contracting a debt. (1975, c. 619)

§ 3.15. Ordinances.

(a) Action requiring an ordinance. In addition to other acts required by law or by specific provision of this charter to be done by ordinance, those acts of the town council shall be by ordinance which:

- (3) Levy taxes, except as otherwise provided in Article VI with respect to the property tax levied by adoption of the budget;
- (4) Grant, renew or extend a franchise;
- (5) Regulate the rate charged for its services by the town; provided, however, that the council may by resolution authorize the rates or fees charged by the Department of Parks and Recreation for use of its facilities or participation in its programs and authorize the rates and fees charged by other departments of the town for sale of maps, reports or other publications or making of copies of printed or recorded matter;
- (6) Authorize the borrowing of money;
- (7) Convey or lease or authorize the conveyance or lease of any lands of the town.

Acts other than those referred to in the preceding sentence may be done either by ordinance or by resolution if not in conflict with law.

(b) Form. Every proposed ordinance shall be introduced in writing and in the form required for adoption. No ordinance shall contain more than one subject which shall be clearly expressed in its title. The enacting clause shall be "Be it ordained by the Council of the Town of Blacksburg . . . ."

(c) Procedure. An ordinance may be introduced by any member at any regular or special meeting of the council. Upon introduction of any ordinance, the town clerk shall distribute a copy to each council member and to the manager, shall file a reasonable number of copies in the office of the town clerk and such other public places as the council may designate, and shall publish the ordinance together with a notice setting out the time and place for a public hearing thereon and for its consideration by the council. The public hearing shall follow the publication by at least five days, may be held separately or in connection with a regular or special council meeting and may be adjourned from time to time; all persons interested shall have an opportunity to be heard. If the council plans to conduct the public hearing but to delay action on the ordinance, the date for the delayed vote shall be stated on the agenda. After the hearing the council may adopt the ordinance with or without amendment or reject it but, if it is amended so as to materially change the purpose and character of the proposed ordinance, the council may not adopt it until the ordinance or its amended sections have been subjected to all the procedures hereinbefore required for a newly introduced ordinance. After conducting and closing the public hearing, the council may vote to delay action until its next regular meeting.

To pass an ordinance, the council shall vote on the proposed ordinance two times. If at any stage in this procedure the proposed ordinance fails to receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the council, the ordinance shall be declared defeated and removed from the calendar of ordinances.

(d) Effective date. Except as otherwise provided in this charter, every adopted ordinance shall become effective from its passage or at any later date specified therein.

(f) Penalties. The town council may prescribe either civil or criminal penalties for violations of ordinances. Any civil penalty shall be paid into the general fund of the town. No civil penalty prescribed for an ordinance violation shall be inconsistent with the penalty established for a violation of a substantially similar state law. No such civil penalty shall exceed $1,000 for any individual violation.

(1975, c. 619; 1981, c. 79; 1982, c. 58; 2009, cc. 147, 658; 2018, c. 317; 2020, cc. 128, 825)

To meet a public emergency affecting life, health, property or the public peace, the council may adopt one or more emergency ordinances, but such ordinances may not levy taxes, grant, renew or extend a franchise, or authorize the borrowing of money except as provided in subsection 6.09 (b). An emergency ordinance shall be introduced in the form and manner prescribed for ordinances generally, except that it shall be plainly designated as an emergency ordinance and shall contain, after the enacting clause, a declaration stating that an emergency exists and describing it in clear and specific terms. An emergency ordinance may be adopted with or without amendment or rejected at the meeting at which it is introduced. After its adoption the ordinance shall be published and printed as prescribed for other adopted ordinances. It shall become effective upon adoption or at such later time as it may specify. Every emergency ordinance except one made pursuant to subsection 6.09 (b) shall automatically stand repealed as of the ninety-first day following the date on which it was adopted, but this shall not prevent reenactment of the ordinance in the manner specified in this section if the emergency still exists. An emergency ordinance may also be repealed by adoption of a repealing ordinance in the same manner specified in this section for adoption of emergency ordinances. (1975, c. 619)

§ 3.17. Codes of technical regulations.

The council may adopt any standard code of technical regulations, such as building, electrical and sanitary codes, by reference thereto in an adopting ordinance, if such codes are not in conflict with State law. ### § 3.18. Authentication and recording; codification; printing.

(a) Authentication and recording. Every ordinance or resolution upon its final passage shall be recorded by the town clerk in a properly indexed book designated for the purpose and shall be authenticated by the signature of the presiding officer and the town clerk.

(b) Codification. Within three years after adoption of this charter and at least every ten years thereafter, the council shall provide for the preparation of a general codification of all town ordinances and resolutions having the force and effect of law. The general codification shall be adopted by the council by ordinance and shall be published promptly in loose-leaf form, together with this charter and any amendments thereto, pertinent provisions of the Constitution and other laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and such codes of technical regulations and other rules and regulations as the council may specify. The compilation shall be known and cited officially as the Blacksburg Town Code. Copies of the Code shall be furnished to town officers and officials, placed in libraries and public offices for free public reference and made available for purchase by the public at a reasonable price fixed by the council.

(c) Printing of ordinances and resolutions. The council shall cause each ordinance and resolution having the force and effect of law and each amendment to this charter to be printed or otherwise reproduced promptly following its adoption, and the printed ordinances, resolutions and charter amendments shall be distributed or sold to the public at reasonable prices to be fixed by the council. Following publication of the first Blacksburg Town Code and at all times thereafter, the ordinances, resolutions and charter amendments shall be printed in substantially the same style as the code currently in effect and shall be suitable in form for integration therein. The council shall make such further arrangements as it deems desirable with respect to reproduction and distribution of any current changes in or additions to the provisions of the Constitution and other laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, or the codes of technical regulations and other rules and regulations included in the town code. (1975, c. 619)

§ 3.19. Town attorney.

An attorney shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the council. He shall be qualified to practice law in the Commonwealth of Virginia. He shall serve as chief legal advisor to the council, and may also serve as legal advisor to the town administration. (1975, c. 619)

§ 3.20. Committees, boards and commissions.

- (8) He shall keep the council fully advised as to the financial condition and future needs of the town and make such recommendations to the council concerning the affairs of the town as he deems desirable.

(9) He shall ensure that adequate and accurate personnel records are maintained on all employees of the town.

(10) He shall provide a system for handling complaints from citizens.

(11) He shall perform such other duties as are specified in this charter or may be required by the council. (1975, c. 619)

The council shall keep written minutes of its proceedings but does not have to keep minutes of its executive session. Citizens may have access to the minutes and records of all public meetings at any reasonable time. (1990, c. 542; 1996, cc. 665, 678; 2015, cc. 345, 403; 2022, c. 143)

§ 4.04. Rules of the council.

The council shall, subject to the provisions of this charter, adopt its own rules of procedure by ordinance.

A majority of all members of the council elected shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time, and compel the attendance of absentees by summons or warrant.

All votes by council shall be by oral roll call, and the ayes and nays recorded in the minutes of council. No ordinance, resolution, or motion, except motions to adjourn, fix a time and place of meeting, or other motions of a purely procedural nature, shall be adopted or passed unless it shall have received a second and an affirmative vote of at least three members of council, unless two or more of the members of council shall be disabled to vote pursuant to the provisions of the Virginia Conflict of Interests Act or its successors, as the same may be amended from time to time, in which case an affirmative vote of those members of council not so disabled shall be sufficient to adopt an ordinance, resolution or motion.

No member of the council shall participate in the vote on any ordinance, resolution, motion or vote upon which he is forbidden to vote by the Virginia Conflict of Interests Act or any successor act to the Virginia Conflict of Interests Act. (1990, c. 542)

§ 4.05. Mayor and vice mayor.

At each inaugural and each organizational meeting of council, council shall elect one of its members as chairman, who shall be entitled mayor and one of its members as vice chairman, who shall be entitled vice mayor, each of whom shall serve for a term of one year, or until his successor is elected.

The mayor shall preside over all meetings of the council and shall have the same right to vote and speak therein as other members. He shall be recognized as the head of city government for all ceremonial purposes, the purposes of military law and the service of civil process. In times of public danger, or emergency, he may take command of the police and maintain order and enforce the laws, and for this purpose, may deputize such assistant policemen as may be necessary. The mayor shall have no veto power. He shall authenticate by his signature such instruments as the council, this charter or the laws of the Commonwealth shall require.

The vice mayor shall, in the absence or disability of the mayor, perform the duties of the mayor. If a vacancy shall occur in the office of mayor, the vice mayor shall become mayor for the unexpired portion of the mayor's term. A replacement for the vice mayor may then be elected by a majority vote of the remaining council.

In the absence or disability of both the mayor and vice mayor, the council may, by majority vote of those present, choose one of their number to perform the duties of mayor and one to perform the duties of vice mayor. (1990, c. 542)

§ 4.06. Councilmanic powers.

All power vested in the city shall be exercised by the council, except those to be exercised by the city manager or other as provided for in this charter, including without limitation, the power:

1. To provide for the organization, conduct and operation of all departments, bureaus, divisions, boards, commissions, offices and agencies of the city;
2. To create, alter or abolish departments, bureaus, divisions, boards, commissions, offices and agencies including and in addition to those specifically established by this charter;

7. To consent by affirmative vote of at least three members of council, or in the event two or more members of council are disabled to vote pursuant to the provisions of the Virginia Conflict of Interests Act or its successors, as amended from time to time, then by a majority of those members of council who are not so disabled, to the recommended appointment or removal by the city manager of any director or head of a department. No such director or head of a department will be appointed or removed without said consent, but council shall not participate in the hiring, supervision or firing of any other employee, and the city manager shall continue to have sole responsibility for the supervision of department directors or heads. (1990, c. 542)

§ 4.07. Appointments and removals.

The council in making appointments and removals shall act only by affirmative vote of at least three members. It may remove any person appointed by it for an indefinite term, provided that the person to be removed shall have been served with written notice of the intention of the council to remove him at least ten days prior to the action becoming final. If two or more members of council shall be disabled to vote pursuant to the provisions of the Virginia State and Local Government Conflict of Interests Act (§ 2.1-639.1 et seq.) or its successors, as the same may be amended from time to time, council may act by an affirmative vote of those members of city council not so disabled to vote. No hearing shall be required.

Any member of the council or any member of a board or commission, and any other person appointed by the council for a specified term may be removed during that term by the council but only for malfeasance or neglect of duty. The person to be removed shall be entitled to notice of the intention of the council to remove him, containing a clear statement of the grounds for such removal, and fixing the time and place, not less than ten days after the service of such notice, at which he shall be given an opportunity to be heard thereon. After the hearing, which shall be public at the option of the person sought to be removed, and at which he may be represented by counsel, the decision of the council shall be final. It shall be the duty of the council, at the request of the person sought to be removed, to subpoena witnesses whose testimony would be pertinent to the matter in hand. Any officer, elective or appointed, including councilmembers, or an employee of the city who shall be convicted by a final judgment of any court from which no appeal has been taken, or which has been affirmed by a court of last resort, on a charge involving moral turpitude, whether felony or misdemeanor, shall forfeit his office or employment. Council shall also have the power to otherwise punish its own members and to compel their attendance. (1990, c. 542; 1996, cc. 665, 678; 2022, c. 143)

§ 4.08. Ordinances; when required.

In addition to acts required by the Constitution or general laws of the Commonwealth to be by ordinance, every act of the council creating, altering or abolishing any department; creating, altering, assigning or abolishing any bureau, division, office, agency or employment; fixing the compensation or employment policies for any officer or employee of the city; making an appropriation; authorizing the borrowing of money; levying a tax; establishing any rule or regulation for the violation of which a fine or penalty is imposed; or placing any burden upon or limiting the use of private property shall be by ordinance. The council may otherwise act by resolution or motion, second and vote, as it deems proper. (1990, c. 542)

§ 4.09. Ordinances; form and procedure.

Every ordinance, except an ordinance making appropriations or authorizing the contracting of an indebtedness, shall be confined to one subject. Each proposed ordinance or resolution shall be introduced in written or printed form and the enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the council shall substantially be "Be it ordained by the council of the City of Bristol, Virginia."

No ordinance or resolution having the effect of an ordinance, or resolution permitting the violation of an ordinance, unless it be an emergency measure, shall be passed until it has been read at two meetings not less than one week apart, one of which shall be a regular meeting of council. The requirement of a first reading of an ordinance which is determined to be overly lengthy by the city manager or the city council may be by caption only, as long as sufficient copies are made available for members of the public that wish to examine the ordinance and time is provided to them to do so prior to action by city council. The requirement of a second reading may be confined to the reading of the title only, called "by caption only." Any ordinance or resolution read at one meeting may be amended and passed as amended and read at the next meeting at which it is considered, provided the amendment does not materially change the ordinance. Adoption of an ordinance can be at the same meeting as that at which the second reading takes place, at a later meeting, or at the meeting at which it is first read in the case of an emergency ordinance as hereinafter set out.

No adopted ordinance shall be amended unless such section or sections as are intended to be amended shall be repealed and reenacted as amended.

No ordinance adopted by the council shall take effect until thirty days from the date of its adoption, unless council shall specify an effective date more than thirty days from the date of adoption or unless council, by affirmative vote of three of its members, shall pass the ordinance as an emergency measure to take effect less than thirty days after passage as specified in the ordinance.

An emergency measure is an ordinance for the immediate preservation of the public peace, property, health or safety or for providing for the operation of a municipal department. The specific emergency and the effective date of the ordinance shall be expressly stated in the ordinance.

A copy of every ordinance and written minutes of every act of council having the effect of an ordinance shall be kept in the office of the city clerk open to inspection at reasonable times by the public. A record or entry made by the city clerk or a copy of such record or entry duly certified by him shall be prima facie evidence of the terms of the ordinance and its due publication. All ordinances and resolutions of the council may be read into evidence in all courts and in all other proceedings in which it may be necessary to refer thereto, either from the original record thereof, from a copy thereof certified by the city clerk, or from any volume of ordinances printed by authority of the council. The adopted ordinances of the city shall be published annually with a suitable index, and copies shall be kept by the city in all of its libraries. Copies shall be made available to the public at a reasonable cost. (1990, c. 542; 1996, cc. 665, 678)

§ 4.10. Resolutions and motions.

A statement of the official position of the council shall be by written resolution, which shall require only one reading prior to adoption. The requirement for a reading at the meeting shall be waived, and the resolution may be adopted after reading by caption only if, in the opinion of the city manager or city council, the resolution is overly lengthy and provided that sufficient copies of the resolution are made available to the public at the meeting, with time to examine the same before adoption. It may be adopted at the same meeting at which it is read.

All other acts of the council not required to be by ordinance or written resolution may be by oral motion, second and vote in accordance with this charter, the motion, second and vote all being at the same meeting, unless tabled by council to a subsequent meeting. (1990, c. 542; 1996, cc. 665, 678)

§ 5.08. Relations with boards, commissions and agencies.

3. Cooperate with the city manager in compiling estimates for the current expense and capital budgets;

The chief financial officer shall also audit the accounts of any office or department of the city upon the request of the council, under the supervision of the city manager. Any such audit, at the direction of the council, may be made by an independent certified public accountant rather than by the chief financial officer if they so direct.

There shall be elected, pursuant to Chapter 3 of this charter and the general law of the Commonwealth, a commissioner of revenue as provided for in the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Virginia who shall perform such duties as are not inconsistent with the laws of the Commonwealth in relation to the assessment of property and license taxes as may be required by the council for the purpose of levying city property and license taxes. § 6-22. Effecting and Changing of Regulations. The council shall provide for the manner in which such regulations and restrictions and the boundaries of such districts shall be determined, established and enforced, and from time to time amended, supplemented or changed. (1971, c. 113)

§ 6-23. Board of Zoning Appeals. (1971, c. 113)

§ 6-231. The board of zoning appeals shall consist of five members, each of whom shall be appointed for a term of two years. Such appeal shall be taken within a reasonable time as provided by the rules of the board by filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken and with the board of zoning appeals a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The officer from whom the appeal is taken shall forthwith transmit to the board all papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken. An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the board of zoning appeals after the notice of appeal shall have been filed with him that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by a court of record on application, and notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown. (1971, c. 113)

§ 6-234. The board of zoning appeals shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof, as well as due notice to the parties in interest, and decide the same within a reasonable time. Upon the hearing any party may appear in person or by agent or attorney. (1971, c. 113)

§ 6-24. Power of Board of Zoning Appeals. The board shall have the following powers: (1971, c. 113)

§ 6-242. To hear and decide uses permissible on appeals and other special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance upon which such board is required to pass under such ordinance. (1971, c. 113)

§ 6-243. To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest where owing to special conditions a literal enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance will result in exceptional and peculiar hardship, and so that the spirit of the ordinance shall be observed and substantial justice done. (1971, c. 113)

§ 6-25. Decisions by the Board of Zoning Appeals. In exercising the powers conferred upon it the board may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify, the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from, and may make such order, requirement, decision or determination as should be made and to that end shall have all the powers of the administrative officer charged by the ordinance with enforcement. The concurring affirmative vote of three members of the board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of the administrative officer or to decide in favor of the applicant in any matter of which it has jurisdiction. The board shall act by formal resolution which shall set forth the reason for its decision and the vote of each member participating therein which shall be spread upon its records and shall be open to public inspection. The board may, upon the affirmative vote of three members, reconsider any decision made and, upon such reconsideration, render a decision by formal resolution. Every decision of the board shall be based upon a finding of fact which may be based on sworn testimony which finding of fact shall be reduced in writing and preserved among its records. (1971, c. 113)

§ 6-26. Appeals from Decisions of Board of Zoning Appeals. Any person or persons, jointly or severally, aggrieved by any decision of the board of zoning appeals, or any taxpayer, or any officer, department, board or bureau of the municipality, may present to a court of record a petition, duly verified, setting forth that such decision is illegal in whole or in part, specifying the grounds of the illegality. Such petition shall be presented to the court within thirty days after the filing of the decision in the office of the board. (1971, c. 113)

§ 6-261. Upon filing of the petition the court may cause a writ of certiorari to issue directed to the board, ordering it to produce within the time prescribed by the court, not less than ten days, the record of its action and documents considered by it in making the decision appealed from which writ shall be served upon any member of the board. The issuance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from but the court may, on application, give notice to the board and, upon due cause shown, issue a restraining order. The board shall not be required to produce the original record and documents but it shall be sufficient to produce certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be required by the writ. With the record and documents the board may concisely set forth in writing such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from, certified by affidavit. (1971, c. 113)

§ 6-262. The court shall review the record, documents and other matters produced by the board pursuant to the issuance of the writ and may reverse or modify the decision reviewed, in whole or in part, when it is satisfied that the decision of the board is contrary to law or that its decision is arbitrary and constitutes an abuse of discretion. Unless it is made to appear that the decision is contrary to law or is arbitrary and constitutes an abuse of discretion the court shall affirm the decision. If the court finds that the testimony of witnesses is necessary for a proper disposition of the matter it may hear evidence.

§ 50.2. (a) Search warrants. In addition to the means and conditions under which search warrants may be issued pursuant to provisions of general law, a magistrate, or a judge of any court having jurisdiction of the trial of cases to whom complaint is made, if satisfied that there is a probable cause therefor, shall issue a warrant to search specified places for the following conditions: violations of ordinances of the City of Charlottesville related to health and safety, of persons and property including violations of ordinances concerning minimum housing standards, health and sanitation regulations, and plumbing, building, and fire prevention codes.

A search warrant issued pursuant to the authority granted in this charter section shall be directed to persons charged with the responsibility of enforcing State statutes and local ordinances relating to health and safety of persons and property and shall command such person to search the place or places described therein for violations of State statutes and local ordinances relating to health and safety of persons and property.

(b) Affidavit preliminary to issuance of search warrants. No search warrant shall be issued until there is filed with the officer authorized to issue the same an affidavit of some person reasonably describing the area, house, place, vehicle or baggage to be searched, the things or conditions to be searched for thereunder, alleging briefly material facts, constituting the probable cause for the issuance of such warrant and alleging substantially the offense or group of potential offenses in relation to which such search is to be made. Facts which may be pertinent are (1) department or board experience showing the need of periodic area inspections, (2) the pattern of the last inspections made, and (3) department or board judgment that an inspection is now needed, particularly in light of the time elapsed since the last inspection.

Such affidavit shall be certified by the clerk of the circuit court of the City of Charlottesville and shall by said clerk be preserved as a record and shall at all times be subject to inspection by the public. For the purposes of this section, probable cause shall be satisfied upon the showing of the reasonableness of a need to conduct periodic area-wide inspections with respect to health and safety of persons and property. (1970, c. 93; 2020, cc. 813, 814)

§ 50.3. Qualifications of members of advisory boards and commission.

General provisions of law notwithstanding, the planning commission and members of boards or agencies appointed by city council, the mayor, or by the city manager, who serve without pay and who serve only for the purpose of making studies or recommendations, or advising or consulting with city council, shall not be prohibited from such service merely because they contract directly or indirectly with the city. Any such member of an advisory board or agency who knows, or may reasonably be expected to know, that they have a material financial interest in any transaction in which the agency of which they are an officer or employee is or may be in any way concerned, shall disclose such interest and disqualify themselves from voting or participating in any official action thereon in behalf of such agency. If disqualifications in accordance with this section leave less than the number required by law to act, the remaining member or members shall have authority to act for the agency by majority vote, unless a unanimous vote of all members is required by law, in which case authority to act shall require a unanimous vote of remaining members. (1970, c. 93; 2020, cc. 813, 814)

§ 50.4. Terms of Charlottesville Redevelopment and Housing Authority commissioners; authority of council.

There shall be not less than five nor more than seven members of the Charlottesville Redevelopment and Housing Authority Board of Commissioners.

Commissioners shall hold their offices at the pleasure of council for terms not to exceed four years; provided, that the city council may at any time, and from time to time, adopt an ordinance terminating the terms of all the commissioners and designating one or more council members as commissioners of the Charlottesville Redevelopment and Housing Authority. The remaining members of the Board, if any, shall be appointed by council from the public at large. The Board shall possess all powers and duties granted to or imposed upon redevelopment and housing authorities by the general laws of the Commonwealth; provided that notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a city council member shall receive no compensation for serving as a commissioner of such Authority, nor shall they continue to serve as a commissioner after they cease to be a member of city council. (1978, c. 709; 1990, c. 28; 2020, cc. 813, 814)

§ 50.5. Authority of city council to adopt and enforce a noise ordinance.

A. The city council by ordinance may prohibit or regulate loud, disturbing or excessive noises originating within its jurisdiction. Such ordinance may prescribe the decibel levels, degrees or types of sound which are unacceptable within the city limits, but the ordinance must exempt from its prohibitions during the daytime (6:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.) the following:

1. Band performances or practices, athletic contests or practices and other school-sponsored activities on the grounds of public or private schools or the University of Virginia.
  2. Athletic contests and other officially sanctioned activities in city parks.
  3. Activities related to the construction, repair, maintenance, remodeling or demolition, grading or other improvement of real property.
  4. Gardening, lawn care, tree maintenance or removal and other landscaping activities.
  5. Church bells or carillons.
  6. Religious or political gatherings and other activities protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution.
  7. Activities for which the regulation of noise has been preempted by federal law.
  8. Public and private transportation, refuse collection and sanitation services.
- B. The decibel level of any such noise may be measured by the use of a sound level meter which measures sound pressure levels. Such measurements shall be accepted as prima facie evidence of the level of noise at issue in any court or legal proceeding. The accuracy of the sound level meter may be tested by a calibrator. In any court or legal proceedings in which the accuracy of the calibrator is in issue, the court shall receive as evidence a sworn report of the results of any test of the calibrator for accuracy. Such report shall be considered by the court or jury in determining guilt or innocence.
- C. Any individual operating a sound level meter pursuant to the provisions of this section and the local noise ordinance shall issue a certificate which will indicate:
1. that the sound level meter used to take the decibel level reading was operated in accordance with the manufacturer's specifications;
  2. that the city has on file a sworn report which states that the sound level meter has been tested within the past twelve months and has been found to be accurate;
  3. the name of the accused;
  4. the location of the noise;
  5. the date and the time the reading was made; and
  6. the decibel level reading.

The certificate, as provided for in this section, when duly attested by the operator taking the decibel level reading, shall be admissible in any court in any criminal or civil proceeding as evidence of the facts therein stated and of the decibel level reading. A copy of such certificate shall be delivered to the accused upon the request of the accused or the accused's attorney. (1989, c. 122; 2020, cc. 813, 814)

§ 50.6. Authority of city council to impose civil penalties for wrongful demolition of historic buildings.

A. Notwithstanding the provisions of any state law which authorize civil penalties for the violation of a local zoning ordinance, city council may adopt an ordinance which establishes a civil penalty for the demolition, razing or moving of a building or structure without approval by the board of architectural review or city council, when such building or structure is subject to the city's historic preservation zoning ordinance. The penalty established by the ordinance shall be imposed on the party deemed by the court to be responsible for the violation and shall not exceed twice the fair market value of the building or structure, as determined by the city real estate tax assessment at the time of the demolition.

B. An action seeking the imposition of such a penalty shall be instituted by petition filed by the city in circuit court, which shall be tried in the same manner as any action at law. It shall be the burden of the city to show the liability of the violator by a preponderance of the evidence. An admission of liability or finding of liability shall not be a criminal conviction for any purpose. The filing of any action pursuant to this section shall preclude a criminal prosecution for the same offense, except where the demolition, razing or moving has resulted in personal injury.

C. The defendant may, within twenty-one days after the filing of the petition, file an answer and without admitting liability, agree to restore the building or structure as it existed prior to demolition. If the restoration is completed within the time agreed upon by the parties, or as established by the court, the petition shall be dismissed from the court's docket.

D. Nothing in this section shall preclude action by the zoning administrator pursuant to the general laws of the Commonwealth either by separate action or as a part of the petition seeking a civil penalty. (1990, c. 302; 2020, cc. 813, 814)

§ 50.7. Powers relating to housing and community development.

In addition to the powers granted by other sections of this charter and any other provision of the general laws of the Commonwealth, the city shall have the power:

(a) To make grants and loans of funds to low- or moderate-income persons to aid in the purchase of any land, building, dwelling, or dwelling unit in the city; and to offer real estate tax deferral to low- or moderate-income persons who own any land, building, dwelling, or dwelling unit within the city. The city shall offer private lending institutions the opportunity to participate in local loan programs established pursuant to this subsection; and

(b) To make grants of funds to owners of dwellings or dwelling units in the city for the purpose of subsidizing, in part, the rental payments due and owing to any such owner by a low- or moderate-income person.

For purposes of this section, the phrase "low- or moderate-income persons" shall have the same meaning as the phrase "persons and families of low and moderate income" as that phrase is used in the Virginia Housing Development Authority Act, and shall be applied using the income guidelines issued by the Virginia Housing Development Authority for use in its single family mortgage loan program.

In addition to being able to exercise the above-mentioned powers with city funds, the city is authorized to participate in any state or federal program related thereto and to use state, federal, or private funds in the exercise of such powers.

The expenditure of any public funds as authorized in this section is hereby declared to be in furtherance of a public purpose. (2006, cc. 268, 311; 2020, cc. 813, 814)

§ 51. Severability.

If any portion of this Charter is declared unconstitutional, invalid, or illegal by a court of last resort of this State in proper case such invalidity shall not affect or invalidate any other clause, sentence, paragraph or part of this Charter but shall be confined exclusively to the portion so held invalid. All portions of this Charter not expressly held to be unconstitutional, invalid, or illegal shall remain in full force and effect. (1946, c. 384; 2020, cc. 813, 814)

- (8) The assessment of real and personal property in the town, for the purpose of municipal taxation, shall be the same as the assessment of such property for the purpose of county or State taxation, where there is a county or State assessment of such property.
- (9) The council, in the name of and for the use of the town, may contract loans, incur indebtedness and cause certificates of debt or bonds to be issued, whenever two-thirds of its members by a recorded vote decide that is to the interest of the town so to do, but such council may only borrow money to the extent prescribed by the Constitution and laws of this State. (2) When taxes on real and personal property are collected for the year, the town treasurer shall take therefrom the necessary amount of any additional sum, if any, so set apart, and deposit the same in a separate account to the credit of the sinking fund in such bank or banks as the council may designate; and the council may if it so elect, cause its sinking fund to be loaned on improved real estate, situated in the Town of Chatham, not to be loaned to a greater amount than fifty percent of the fair market value of the property, and fire insurance shall be carried on the property during the loan in an amount at least equal to the face value of the amount of the loan, which money shall be loaned at not exceeding six percent per annum, payable semi-annually, and for no longer than for two years at any one time.

(3) All sinking funds shall be used exclusively in the payment or purchase and redemption of the outstanding bonds of the town, and when such sinking funds are not required or may not within a reasonable time be required for payment of any bond of the town, or cannot be used to advantage in purchase and redemption of any bond of the town, which may be outstanding, the same shall be securely invested in interest bearing municipal State or government bonds or loaned upon otherwise unencumbered real estate within the Town of Chatham, upon the basis hereinbefore provided, or invested in any security approved by the general laws of the State of Virginia for investment of such funds, or deposited in bank on a reasonable rate of interest. Such sinking funds may be used in the payment or purchase and redemption of all bonds of the town at the discretion of the council.

(4) The town council shall act as the sinking fund commission or committee and shall provide for the investment, deposit and application of the funds in conformity to the provisions of this charter; and may require any bank or banks receiving on deposit its revenues or any of its sinking fund a fidelity bond or other security. (1942, c. 480)

§ 11. Actions against town for damages, etc.

(1) No action shall be maintained against the town for damages for any injury to any person or property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence of the town, or any officer, agent or employee thereof, unless a written statement, verified by oath of the claimant, his agent or attorney, or the personal representative of any decedent whose death is a result of the alleged negligence of the town, its officers, agents, or employees, of the nature of the claim and the time and place at which the injury is alleged to have occurred, or to have been received, shall have been filed with the mayor or an attorney appointed by the council for this purpose, and the town is hereby authorized to appoint such an attorney, within sixty days after such cause of action shall have accrued, except where the claimant is an infant or non compos mentis, or the injured party dies within such sixty days, such statement may be filed within one hundred and twenty days. No officers, agents, or employees of the town shall have authority to waive such conditions precedent or any of them.

(2) In any action against the town to recover damages against it for any negligence in the construction or maintenance of its streets, alleys, lanes, parks, public places, sewers, reservoirs, or water mains, where any person or corporation is liable with the town for such negligence, every such person or corporation shall be joined as defendant with the town in such action brought to recover damages for such negligence, and where there is a judgment or verdict against the town, as well as the other defendant, it shall be ascertained by the court or jury which of the defendants is primarily liable for the damages assessed.

(3) If it be ascertained by the judgment of the court that some person or corporation other than the town is primarily liable, there shall be a stay of execution against the town until execution against such person or persons or corporation or corporations shall have been returned without realizing the full amount of such judgment.

(4) If the town, when not primarily liable, shall pay the said judgment in whole or in part, the plaintiff shall, to the extent that the said judgment is paid by the town, assign the judgment to the town, without recourse on the plaintiff, and the town shall be entitled to have execution issued for its benefit against the other defendant or defendants who have been ascertained to be primarily liable, or may institute any suit to enforce the said judgment, or an action at law, or scire facias to revive the said judgment.

(5) No order shall be entered or made, and no injunction shall be awarded by any court or judge, to stay proceedings of the town in the prosecution of their works, unless it be manifest that they, their officers, agents, or servants are transcending the authority given them in this charter, and that the interposition of the court is necessary to prevent injury that cannot be adequately compensated in damages.

(6) The council of said town is authorized and empowered to compromise any claim for damages or any suit or action brought against said town. (1942, c. 480)

§ 12. Dedication of streets and plats thereof.

(1) No plat showing a new street or highway within the town shall be filed or recorded in the office of the clerk or of any county until such plat shall have been approved by the council. The council shall not approve any such plat unless the streets and highways provided for therein are of sufficient width, or proper grades and suitably located to meet the probable traffic needs, to afford adequate light, air, and access of the fire apparatus to such buildings as may be erected along the proposed streets and highways; and to insure healthful conditions on the land adjacent to such streets or highways. The council may, in appropriate cases, require that a plat before being approved shall provide adequate open space for parks, playgrounds, or other recreational uses; but the inclusion of such open spaces upon a plat does not require their dedication to public use.

(2) Before approving any plat, and thereby accepting the dedication of the streets, alleys and highways thereon, the council shall require the owner thereof to execute and deliver to the Town of Chatham a release and waiver of any claim or claims for damages which such owner, his heirs, successors or assigns may have or acquire against the said town by reason of establishing proper grades and grade lines along such streets, alleys, or highways, and by reason of doing necessary grading and filling for the purpose of placing such streets and alleys and highways upon the proper grade, and releasing the said town from building any retaining walls along the streets, alleys, or highways, and property lines or for any damage to property abutting by reason of the construction of any drain or pipe line for removal of surface water, whereby water is emptied on or drained from such adjacent or abutting property. Such release or waiver may be required to be in writing and executed on the plat or on a written instrument accompanying the same, and all of which shall be filed of record in the clerk's office of the County of Pittsylvania.

(3) Before approving any such plot the town council may, at its discretion, require the owner of such land to grade the streets and alleys thereon, according to grade or grade lines approved by the council. By the acceptance of any such plat, street, alley or highway as above set out, there shall be no liability upon the town to surface such street, or to install any sewage, water, gas, lights or other improvements, until in the judgment of the council the same is required. (1942, c. 480)

The election shall be ordered by the judges of the circuit court at least sixty days prior to the date for which it is called. No election to fill the vacancy shall be ordered if the general election at which it is to be called is scheduled in the year in which the term expires.

When the vacancy is in the office of mayor, the vice-mayor shall assume all of the duties and powers of the mayor until such time that a mayoral successor has been elected and qualified in the manner set forth above for a council member. That portion of any meeting, as defined in the Virginia Freedom of Information Act, during which there is any discussion or deliberation pertaining to an appointment of a council member shall be open to the public. (1991, c. 72)

Such rules shall provide for the time and place of holding regular meetings of the council which shall be not less frequent than once each month. They shall also provide for the calling of special meeting by the mayor or any three members of the council and shall prescribe the methods of giving notice thereof. A majority of the council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. amended as stated in the petition, such ordinance shall not become effective until the steps provided for herein shall have been taken. Such petition shall state the names and addresses of at least five electors who shall constitute a committee to represent the petitioners. If the council shall not have amended or repealed the ordinance as requested within thirty days after the filing of such petition, the city clerk shall upon request of a majority of the committee present such petition to the judge of the circuit court who shall order a referendum for the purpose of submitting the ordinance to the qualified voters of the city in the manner provided by law for special elections. If the ordinance is approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting in such referendum, it shall become effective upon the certification of the result. Ordinances passed as emergency measures providing for any work certified by the city manager to be immediately necessary to protect public property or health from imminent danger or to protect the city from imminent loss or liability, shall not be subject to referendum, and the certificate of the city manager in any such case shall be conclusive. All other ordinances passed as emergency measures shall be subject to the referendum as other ordinances. No appropriation ordinance shall be subject to the referendum. (1980, c. 717)

The proposed question shall pertain to the affairs of city government. The question shall not pertain to taxation or the incurrence of debt. The referendum shall be initiated and conducted in accordance with the provisions of §§ 24.2-684 and 24.2-684.1 of the Code of Virginia, 1950, as amended, except that the petition shall be circulated, completed and filed within four months of the date the clerk of the circuit court certifies receipt and acceptance of the unsigned petition copy, and shall further be circulated, completed and filed at least eighty days prior to the next succeeding general election. Failure to submit the required number of valid signatures within these time periods shall invalidate the petition in its entirety.

Following certification of the election results by the electoral board to the chief judge, the court shall enter an order proclaiming the results of such election and a duly certified copy of such order shall be transmitted to the governing body. (1997, c. 312; 1999, cc. 265, 271)

Chapter 5. Budget.

§ 5.01. Fiscal year.

The fiscal year of the city shall begin on the first day of July and shall end on the last day of June of each calendar year. Such fiscal year shall also constitute the budget and accounting year. (1980, c. 717)

§ 5.02. Submission of operating budget.

The city manager shall submit to the council an operating budget and a budget message at least ninety days prior to the beginning of each fiscal year. (1980, c. 717)

§ 5.03. Operating budget message.

The manager's message shall explain the budget in fiscal terms. It shall contain the recommendations of the city manager concerning the fiscal policy of the city for the ensuing fiscal year, describe the important features of the budget, indicate any mayor changes from the current year in financial policies, expenditures, and revenues together with the reasons for such changes, and include such other material as the manager deems desirable. (1980, c. 717)

§ 5.04. Operating budget preparation.

The budget shall provide a financial plan for the ensuing fiscal year, and shall be in such form as the manager deems advisable or the council may require. In organizing the budget, the manager shall utilize the most feasible combination of expenditures classification by fund, organization unit, program, purpose or activity and object. It shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted principles of municipal accounting and budgeting procedures and techniques. It shall be the duty of the head of each department, the judges of the courts not of record or commission, including the school board, and each other office or agency supported in whole or in part by the city, to file at such time as the city manager may prescribe estimates of revenue and expenditures for that department, court, board, commission, office or agency for the ensuing fiscal year. The city manager shall hold such hearings as deemed advisable and shall review the estimates and other data pertinent to the preparation of the budget and make such revisions in such estimates as deemed proper, subject to the laws of the Commonwealth relating to the obligatory expenditures for any purpose, except that in the case of the school board may recommend a revision only in its total estimated resources and requirements. In no event shall the requirements recommended by the city manager in the budget exceed the resources estimated, taking into account the estimated cash surplus or deficit at the end of the current fiscal year, unless the city manager shall recommend an increase in the rate of ad valorem taxes on real estate and tangible personal property or other new or increased fees, charges, or taxes or licenses within the power of the city to levy and collect in the ensuing year, the revenue from which, estimated on the average experience with the same or similar taxes during the three tax years last past will make up the difference. If estimated resources exceed estimated requirements, the city manager may recommend revisions in the tax and license ordinances of the city in order to bring the budget into balance.

At the same time that the city manager submits the operating budget, the city manager shall introduce and recommend to the council an appropriation ordinance which shall be based on the budget. The city manager shall also introduce at the same time any ordinances levying a new tax or altering the rate on any existing tax necessary to balance the budget as provided in this section. (1980, c. 717; 1988, c. 288)

2. The time and place, not less than twenty-one days after such publication, for a public hearing on the budget.

B. Amendment before adoption. After the public hearing, the council may adopt the budget with or without amendment. In amending the budget, it may add or increase programs or amounts, except requirements required by law or for debt service, and except further that in the case of the school board, the council may only revise the total estimated resources or requirements. In no case shall the council increase the authorized requirements to an amount greater than the total of estimated resources.

C. Adoption. The council shall adopt the budget by the vote of at least a majority of all members of the council not later than forty-seven days prior to the end of the current fiscal year. Should the council take no action prior to such day, the budget shall be deemed to have been finally adopted as submitted by the city manager. In no event shall the council adopt a budget in which the estimated total of requirements exceeds resources, unless at the same time it adopts measures to provide additional resources estimated to be sufficient to make up the difference. Adoption of the budget shall include adoption of an ordinance appropriating the amounts specified therein from the funds indicated and an ordinance levying the property tax therein proposed. (1980, c. 717)

§ 5.06. Amendments after adoption of operating budget.

A. Supplemental appropriations. If during the fiscal year the manager certifies that there are funds available in excess of those estimated in the budget, the council by ordinance may make supplemental appropriations for the year up to the amount of such excess.

B. Reduction of appropriations. If at any time during the fiscal year it appears probable to the manager that the resources available will be insufficient to meet the amount appropriated, the city manager shall report to the council without delay, indicating the estimated amount of the shortfall, any remedial action taken by the city manager and recommendations as to any other steps to be taken. The council shall then take such further action as it deems necessary to prevent or minimize any shortfall and for the purpose it may by ordinance reduce one or more appropriations. (1980, c. 717)

§ 5.07. Lapse of appropriations.

Every appropriation, except an appropriation for a project in the capital improvement program, shall lapse at the close of the fiscal year to the extent that it has not been expended or encumbered. An appropriation for a project in the capital improvement program shall continue in force until the purpose for which it was made has been accomplished or abandoned; the purpose of any such appropriation shall be deemed abandoned if three years pass without any disbursement from or encumbrance of the appropriation. (1980, c. 717)

§ 5.08. Capital improvement program.

A. Submission to council. The manager shall prepare and submit to the council a five-year capital improvement program at least ninety days prior to the beginning of each fiscal year.

B. Contents. The capital improvement program shall include:

2. A list of all capital improvements which are proposed to be undertaken during the five fiscal years next ensuing, with appropriate supporting information as to the necessity for such improvements;
3. Cost estimates, method of financing, and recommended time schedules for each such improvement; and
4. The estimated annual cost of operating and maintaining the facilities to be constructed or acquired.

The above information shall be revised and extended each year with regard to capital projects still pending. (1980, c. 717; 1998, cc. 561, 626)

§ 5.09. Council action on capital improvement program.

A. Notice and hearing. The council shall publish in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the city the general summary of the capital improvement program and a notice stating:

B. Adoption. The council shall adopt a capital improvement program with or without amendment after the public hearing not later than forty-seven days prior to the end of the current fiscal year. Should the council take no action prior to such day, the program shall be deemed to have been finally adopted as submitted by the city manager. The capital improvement program, after adoption, shall be deemed a plan only, with the right being reserved to the council to change the same at any time. (1980, c. 717; 1998, cc. 561, 626)

G. Authorized bonds or other obligations which could have been issued without an election on the last day of the calendar year in which they were authorized may be issued in a subsequent calendar year without affecting the annual limitation for such subsequent year.

For the purpose of this section, the terms "bonds," "notes," "other obligations" and "indebtedness" shall not include contractual obligations of the city other than bonds and notes. (1980, c. 717; 1982, c. 131; 1988, c. 288; 1993, cc. 256, 277; 1994, cc. 133, 137, 877)

Chapter 1. Charter and Boundaries.

§ 1.1. Charter.

The General Assembly hereby charters the County of Chesterfield, a political subdivision of the Commonwealth of Virginia, as a county within the Commonwealth of Virginia and as such shall have perpetual succession and all other powers and responsibilities granted by this charter or general law. (1987, c. 12)

§ 1.2. Transition to charter form of government.

Upon granting of this charter, the County of Chesterfield shall be liable for the bonded indebtedness and current debts and obligations of the County of Chesterfield as such obligations exist immediately preceding existence of the charter. The County of Chesterfield shall succeed in right and title to all assets, properties, contracts and rights of every nature then possessed by the county, including all money belonging to the county and its books, records, papers and all other things of value. All ordinances, rules, regulations, policies and orders made by the County of Chesterfield, all Special Acts of the General Assembly conferring any authority, powers and privileges upon the County of Chesterfield, in force at the effective date of this charter insofar as they, or any portion thereof are not inconsistent herewith, shall remain in full force and effect until amended or repealed in accordance with the provisions of this charter or general law.

The County of Chesterfield shall succeed to all the rights and privileges of the former county with respect to laws under which its water supply system and its sewerage and sewage disposal system have been and are being installed, maintained and operated. All the county levies and taxes, both current and delinquent, and all school and other funds held by the Commonwealth to the credit of the County of Chesterfield shall be turned over to the chartered County of Chesterfield. The tax levy and assessments made for the current and ensuing year or years shall stand as the levy and assessment of the county. All contracts entered into by the county for materials or supplies or construction work in force on the date of chartering shall thereby become the contracts of the chartered county. (1987, c. 12)

§ 1.3. Transition of office holders.

Upon granting of the charter the persons holding office as members of the board of supervisors of the county at the moment of the granting of a charter shall become members of and shall constitute the Board of Supervisors of the County of Chesterfield and shall continue to constitute such board until the election and qualification of their successors subject to the following specific requirements and qualifications:

As members of the new board of supervisors they shall continue to have and exercise all of the rights, powers, and privileges conferred on such board, and shall be subject to all of the duties, liabilities and restrictions now imposed by law on the government of counties using the nonoptional form of government and as vested in members of the board by the provisions of this charter.

Those persons who shall hold office as Commonwealth's attorney, clerk of the circuit court, sheriff, treasurer and commissioner of revenue, immediately preceding granting of a charter, shall by virtue of such chartering become respectively the Commonwealth's attorney, clerk of the circuit court, sheriff, treasurer and commissioner of revenue of the County of Chesterfield, and shall continue to hold office until the expiration of the respective terms for which they were elected or appointed and until their successors have been elected and have qualified. Such officers and their successors shall have and exercise all of the rights, powers and privileges conferred upon them and shall be subject to all of the duties, liabilities and restrictions imposed by law upon such officers of counties of the Commonwealth. (1987, c. 12)

§ 1.4. Effective date.

This charter shall be in effect from January 1, 1988, and thereafter until repealed or amended as provided by law. (1987, c. 12)

Chapter 2. Powers of County.

§ 2.1. General grant of powers.

The powers set forth in Title 15.2 of the Code of Virginia, and all other powers which are now or may be conferred upon or delegated to counties under the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth and all other powers pertinent to the conduct of a county are hereby specifically conferred upon the County of Chesterfield, and no enumeration of particular powers in this charter shall be held to be exclusive but shall be held to be in addition to this general grant of powers. The scope of all powers conferred by this charter shall be liberally interpreted so as to best effectuate the responsibility of the board of supervisors to perform its duty to govern the county. (1987, c. 12; 2001, c. 250)

§ 2.2. Additional powers.

In addition to the powers granted by other sections of this charter and general law, the county shall have the power to raise annually by taxes and assessments, as permitted by general law, such sums of money as the board shall deem necessary to pay the debts and defray the expenses of the county, in such manner as the board shall deem expedient. In addition to, but not as a limitation upon this general grant of power, the county shall have power to levy and collect ad valorem taxes on real estate and tangible personal property and machinery and tools; to levy and collect taxes on hotel and motel rooms; to levy and collect business taxes, local general retail sales and use tax as provided by law; unless prohibited by general law to require licenses, prohibit the conduct of any business, profession, vocation or calling without such a license, require taxes to be paid on such licenses in respect of all businesses, professions, vocations and callings which cannot, in the opinion of the board be reached by the ad valorem system; to franchise any business or calling so as to protect the public interest; and to require licenses of all owners of vehicles of all kinds.

In addition to the other powers conferred by law, the County of Chesterfield shall have the power to impose, levy and collect, in such manner as its board may deem expedient, a consumer tax upon the amount paid for the use of water, gas, electricity, communications services, and any other public utility service within the county or upon the amount paid for any one or more of such public utility services, subject to provisions of general law and may provide that such tax shall be added to and collected with bills rendered consumers and subscribers for such services. The county may establish and collect such fees as the board of supervisors may deem reasonable for the rendering of special services. (1987, c. 12; 2017, c. 382)

§ 2.3. Acquisition of real estate.

In addition to the powers granted by other sections of this charter, the county may acquire property within or without its boundaries for any of its facilities or functions, in fee simple or lesser interest or estate, by purchase, gift, devise, lease, or eminent domain for property within the county, and may sell, lease, hold, manage, and control such property as the county's interest may require. No judicial process need precede the exercise of these powers except for acquisition of property by eminent domain. (1987, c. 12)

§ 2.4. Special districts.

The county, in addition to any other authority provided by law, may by ordinance create special districts or areas within the county if those areas desire additional or more complete governmental services than are desired in the county as a whole. The board of supervisors shall have the power to levy a higher tax in such areas, and the proceeds therefrom shall be so segregated as to enable the same to be expended in the areas in which raised. (1987, c. 12)

§ 2.5. Abandonment of road.

The governing body of the county on its own motion may cause any section of the secondary system of highways deemed by it to be no longer necessary for the uses of the secondary system of highways to be abandoned altogether as a public road by complying substantially with the procedure provided for in § 33.2-909 of the Code of Virginia, including notice of intention to abandon any such road by publication in two or more issues of some newspaper having general circulation in the county. Such notice shall specify the time and place of the hearing at which persons affected may appear and present their view, which shall not be less than six days nor more than twenty-one days after the second newspaper advertisement.

A finding by the governing body, after a public hearing, that a section of the secondary system of highways is no longer necessary for the uses of the secondary system may be made if the following conditions exist:

1. The road is located within a residence district as the latter is defined in § 46.2-100 of the Code of Virginia;
2. Continued operation of the section of road in question constitutes a threat to the public safety and welfare; and
3. Alternate routes for use after abandonment of the road are readily available. Any order of abandonment issued in compliance with this section shall give rise in subsequent proceedings, if any, to a presumption of adequate justification for the abandonment.

Appeals from any order of abandonment may be made as provided for in § 33.2-910 of the Code of Virginia. (1991, c. 398; 2017, c. 382)

Chapter 3. Board of Supervisors.

§ 3.1. Composition and election.

The County of Chesterfield shall be divided into five magisterial districts, which shall comprise the five magisterial districts of the County of Chesterfield as existing immediately preceding the effective date of this charter, and shall be known as the Districts of Bermuda, Clover Hill, Dale, Matoaca and Midlothian. The county board shall consist of five members and shall be elected one from each district. Such board members shall qualify and be elected as provided by general law for members of county boards of supervisors. The board may redistrict or change the number, form of the membership or manner of electing board members in accordance with general law without the necessity of amending the charter.

Vacancies in the office of supervisor, from whatever cause, shall be filled within sixty days by an interim appointment by a majority vote of the remaining members of the board; provided that, so long as any supervisor is elected from a magisterial district, such vacancy shall be filled by a qualified voter residing in the same magisterial district. If a vacancy is not filled by the board within sixty days as provided herein, the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with general law. In either event the person so appointed shall serve until the vacancy is filled by an elected member in accordance with general law.

Members of the board of supervisors shall act in accordance with the Virginia State and Local Government Comprehensive Conflict of Interests Act, as now written or as amended. (1987, c. 12; 1995, cc. 541, 559)

§ 3.2. Compensation.

The board members shall receive as compensation for their services such amounts as the board may determine, provided that no salary increase approved by the board shall be effective during the term of such board. The salary in effect upon chartering shall remain in effect until changed by the board. No member of the board shall be appointed to any paid office under the county government during the term for which elected and for one year thereafter. In addition to a salary, members of the board may receive reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred in the conduct of county business. (1987, c. 12)

§ 3.3. Presiding officer.

The board at its first meeting and annually thereafter, unless otherwise provided by the board, shall elect one of its members, who shall have the title of chairman and shall preside at meetings of the board and shall be recognized as head of the county government for all official ceremonial purposes. The chairman shall be selected as the person best able to lead the board in its responsibility to act collectively on behalf of the county as a whole. The board shall elect a new chairman when a vacancy occurs in that office. The board shall also elect a vice-chairman who shall act as chairman during the absence or disability of the chairman. The chairman shall have the same powers and duties as other members of the board and shall have a vote but no power of veto. (1987, c. 12)

§ 3.4. Procedural powers.

The board shall have the power, subject to the provisions of this charter, to adopt its own rules of procedure and other guidelines controlling the actions of its members. Such rules shall provide for the time and place of holding regular meetings of the board which shall be not less frequently than once a month. The procedure for calling special meetings shall be as provided by general law in the Code of Virginia. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The board collectively has the power to censure or otherwise discipline its members, excluding removal from office, for failure to comply with its rules of procedure or guidelines. No member shall be excused from voting except on matters involving the consideration of his own official conduct or where his financial or personal interests are involved. (1987, c. 12)

§ 3.5. Powers.

The board of supervisors shall be the policy determining body of the county and shall be vested with all rights and powers conferred on governing bodies by general law not inconsistent with this chapter. All powers vested in the county by this charter, and to counties generally by the Code of Virginia, shall be exercised by the board collectively except as otherwise provided in this charter, or in the Constitution of Virginia. In addition to the foregoing, the board shall have the following powers:

- a. To control and manage the fiscal affairs of the county and all property, real and personal, belonging to the county.

b. To provide revenue for the county and appropriate the revenue for expenses, also to provide the annual assessments of taxable persons and property in the county, and it may adopt such ordinances, orders and bylaws relating to the powers of this charter as it shall deem proper and necessary.

c. To adopt such ordinances, bylaws, orders and regulations as it may deem desirable to carry out the following powers which are hereby vested in them:

(1) To provide for the preservation of the general health of the inhabitants of the county.

(2) To provide and regulate county-owned or county-operated hospitals or nursing homes within the county limits.

(3) To require and compel the abatement and removal of all nuisances within the county, at the expense of the person or persons causing the nuisance, or the occupant or owner of the ground where the nuisance may be.

(4) To preserve public peace and good order; to prevent and quell riots, disturbances, disorderly assemblages, environmental hazards and shortages; and the board shall also have the power to adopt such additional ordinances as it may deem necessary for the general welfare of the county.

d. To create, alter or abolish departments, bureaus, divisions, offices or agencies except where such bureaus, divisions, offices or agencies are specifically defined by this charter or general law.

e. To create, alter and abolish commissions and advisory boards to assist the county in accomplishing its statutory responsibilities except where such commissions and advisory boards are specifically defined by this charter or general law.

f. To provide for the number, title, qualifications, powers, duties, classification and compensation for all officers and employees of the county.

g. To provide for the form of oaths who shall administer oaths and the amount and condition of surety bonds to be required of certain officers and employees of the county.

h. To make such investigation relating to the financial affairs and internal operations of the county government as they may deem necessary.

i. As a collective body, to make appointments to boards, commissions and other bodies as provided by law or board action provided that all such appointments shall serve as county-wide appointments and make decisions reflective of general county needs rather than magisterial district needs.

j. To create or modify assessment districts for local improvements in accordance with Article 2 (§ 15.2-2404 et seq.) of Chapter 24 of Title 15.2 of the Code of Virginia. For any such assessment district created after January 1, 2003, the Board may provide for the payment of an assessment of costs for improvements, or of any installment due pursuant to § 15.2-2413 of the Code of Virginia, to be suspended when any owner who owned property on the day the ordinance creating the assessment district was adopted and who occupies a residential building located on the property is 65 years of age or older. However, when the property is no longer occupied by a person who is 65 years of age or older or is conveyed to another person or persons, irrespective of the age of the person or persons to whom the property is conveyed, the suspension of payments shall cease and the entire assessment, including accrued interest, shall be immediately due and payable.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed to deprive the board of supervisors or county of any of the powers conferred upon them, either by general or special laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions of this charter. (1987, c. 12; 2004, c. 617)

§ 3.6. County clerk.

The board may appoint a county clerk who shall serve at the pleasure of the board. He shall be clerk of the board and custodian of the corporate seal of the county and he shall have such other public duties as prescribed by general law or as the board may prescribe. The clerk shall in addition:

- (1) Record in a book to be provided for that purpose all of the proceedings of the board.
- (2) Make regular entries of all the board's resolutions and decisions on all questions concerning the raising of money.
- (3) Record the vote of each board member on any question submitted to the board if required by any member present.
- (4) Preserve and file all accounts and papers acted upon by the board with its action thereon.

He shall serve at the pleasure of the board and shall enforce the laws of the county and, where applicable, the Commonwealth and shall ensure the faithful performance of all administrative duties required by the board. The board may enter into an employment agreement with the county administrator defining terms of employment. (1987, c. 12; 2017, c. 382)

In the case of the absence or disability of the county administrator, the board shall designate a county official to perform the duties of his office.

In addition to such responsibilities, it shall be the duty of the county administrator:

- (1) To execute and enforce all lawful resolutions and orders of the board concerning any department in the county government, and to see that all laws of the Commonwealth required to be enforced through the board are faithfully executed.
- (2) To make reports to the board in regard to matters of administration, and keep it fully advised as to the financial condition of the county.

- (4) To designate himself or some other officer or employee to perform the duties of any office or position of the administrative service under his control which is vacant or which lacks administration due to the absence or disability of the incumbent.

(1987, c. 12; 1994, c. 323; 1995, cc. 541, 559; 2001, c. 250)

At the same time that he submits the budget, the county administrator shall recommend to the board an appropriation resolution and any ordinances recommending new taxes or altering the rate of any existing tax necessary to balance the budget. (1987, c. 12; 1989, c. 750)

§ 5.4. Adoption of budget.

After the public hearing as required by law the board may make such changes in the budget as it may determine, except that no item of expenditure for debt service shall be reduced or omitted below what the county is obligated to pay. The operating budget and capital improvements budget shall be adopted by resolution by the vote of at least a majority of all members of the board not later than May 1st of each year. Appropriations in addition to those contained in the general appropriation ordinance may be made by the board only if there is available in the general fund an unencumbered and unappropriated sum sufficient to meet such appropriations. 69. The town of Chincoteague may levy a tax on all subjects of taxation not prohibited to it by, nor exempted in, the Constitution and general laws of Virginia.

70. The council hereinafter created shall have full power and authority, except as herein otherwise specifically provided, to exercise herein all of the powers conferred upon the town, and pass all laws and ordinances relating to its municipal affairs, subject to the Constitution and general laws of the State and of this charter, and shall have full and complete control of all fiscal and municipal affairs of said town and all of its real and personal properties, and may from time to time, amend, re-amend and/or repeal any or all of the said ordinances, for the proper regulation, management, and government of the said town and may impose fines and penalties for the violation or non-observance thereof.

71. The enumeration of specific powers, privileges, and authority in this charter shall not be deemed exclusive, but in addition to the powers and privileges herein mentioned, implied or appropriated, the said town shall have and may exercise, all other powers, which are or may hereafter be, possessed, or enjoyed, by any towns under the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, or not denied by the same, as fully and completely as if herein set out at length. (1942, c. 210)

§ 2. The council may by resolution require, provide for and enforce daylight saving time in the town. Such time when so prescribed shall govern the conduct of all businesses and town elections within the corporate limits of the town. (1958, c. 135)

Chapter III.

§ 1. The council may adopt a town plan, showing the streets, highways, and parks heretofore laid out, adopted, and established, and such town plan shall be final with respect to the location, length, and width of such streets and highways, and the location and dimensions of such parks. Such town plan is hereby declared to be established for the promotion of the health, safety, and general welfare. Upon the adoption of the town plan, or any amendment thereto, a certificate to that effect, together with a plat, shall be filed immediately with the clerk of every county affected by such town plan and amendment. (1942, c. 210)

§ 2. The council is hereby authorized to appoint a town planning commission, fix the number and terms of members, remove any member for cause, fill any vacancies, which may occur, and provide for the powers and duties of such commission, not in conflict with the provisions of this act. (1942, c. 210)

§ 3. The council may at any time, after a public hearing, amend the town plan, by widening, relocating, or closing existing streets and highways, and by altering any existing part or by laying out new streets and highways and establishing new parks. Before amending the town plan, the council shall refer the proposed amendment to the town planning commission for a report thereon, and shall not act on such amendment until a report has been received from said commission, unless a period of thirty days has elapsed after the date of reference to the commission. Any amendment of the town plan, upon its adoption by the council, shall be final unless changed as herein provided as to the location, length, and width of any street and highway, and the location and dimensions of any park. Any widening, relocating, closing or laying out of streets and highways proposed under the provisions of law other than those contained in this article shall be deemed an amendment of the town plan, and shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of this chapter. (1942, c. 210)

§ 4. No plat showing a new street or highway within the town, shall be filed or recorded in the office of the clerk of the town or of any county until such plat has been approved by the council. Before giving any approval, the council shall refer every such plat to the town planning commission for a report, and shall not act on any plat so referred until a report has been received from the commission, unless a period of forty-five days has elapsed after the date of reference to the commission. Before reporting to the council on any plat, the commission shall hold a public hearing thereof. If any plat is disapproved by the commission, it shall report the reasons for such disapproval to the council. The council shall not approve any plan unless the streets and highways provided in such plats are of sufficient width, of proper grades, and suitably located to meet the probable traffic needs; to afford adequate light, air, and access of fire apparatus to such buildings as may be erected along the proposed streets and highways; and to insure healthful conditions on the land adjacent to such streets and highways. The council may, in appropriate cases, require that a plat, before being approved, shall provide adequate open spaces for parks, playgrounds, or other recreational uses; but the inclusion of such open spaces upon a plat does not require their dedication to public use. After a plat has been approved by the council, the streets, highways, parks, and other open spaces shall be a part of the town plan. The council, after a public hearing, may adopt general regulations in regard to the filing of plats. (1942, c. 210)

§ 5. (a) Before approving such plat, and thereby accepting the dedication of the streets, alleys, parks and public places thereon, the council shall require that the streets and alleys thereon shall be properly laid out and located with reference to the topography of the land so platted and the adjoining lands, both as to connections and widths, which widths of such streets and alleys shall be plainly marked in figures or written on such plat, and which streets and alleys shall be laid out in harmony with the general plan of the town.

(b) And, before approving such plat, and thereby accepting the dedication of the streets and alleys thereon, the council shall require the owner thereof to execute and deliver to the town of Chincoteague a release and waiver of any claim or claims for damages which such owner, his heirs, successors or assigns may have or acquire against the town of Chincoteague by reason of establishing proper grade lines on and along such streets and alleys and by reason of doing necessary grading or filling for the purpose of placing such streets and alleys upon the proper grade and releasing the town of Chincoteague from building any retaining wall or walls along the streets and alleys and property lines; and the council may require such release and waiver to be written and executed on said plat and recorded therewith or by an instrument of writing to be executed and recorded in the clerk's office of the Circuit Court of Accomack County.

And the council may, in its discretion, require the owner of such platted lands to submit profiles of such streets and alleys, showing the contour thereof, together with proper grade lines laid thereon, and if and when the council is satisfied that the proper grade lines are laid on such profiles, the profiles shall be approved by the council and recorded by the owner or at his expense in the record of the profiles of the streets and alleys of the town, and the council may, in its discretion, require such release and waiver to be made with reference thereto.

(c) Before approving any such plat of any sub-division of lots or lands the town council may, at its discretion, require the owner of such lot or lands to grade the streets and alleys therein, according to grade lines approved and established by the council. (1942, c. 210)

§ 6. For the purpose of preserving the integrity of the plan, no permit shall hereafter be issued for the construction of any building within the street lines of any mapped street or highway, as laid down in the town plan, within the town. Provided, however, if the land within any mapped street or highway is not yielding a fair return to the owner, the board of appeals, provided for herein, by a majority vote of all its members, may issue a permit for a building within the street line of such street or highway, upon such conditions as will increase as little as possible the cost of opening such street or highway, and will protect as far as possible the rights of the public and the integrity of the town plan. The board of appeals, hereinafter authorized, before taking any action under the provisions of this section, shall hold a public hearing, of which adequate notice shall be given to all persons deemed to be affected. Any decision by the board of appeals, rendered under the provisions of this section, shall be subject to the same court review as provided for zoning decisions of the board. (1942, c. 210)

§ 7. If such town plan is adopted, no public sewer, water pipe, or other public utility shall be laid and no grading or paving shall be done by the town in any street or highway in the town, unless such street or highway has been placed upon the town plan by the council. No permit shall be issued for any building in the town unless such building is located adjacent to a street or highway, which has been placed upon the town plan by the council. Provided, however, where the literal enforcement of the provisions of this section would result in practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship, or where the nature or use of the proposed building does not require its location to be adjacent to a street or highway, the board of appeals, by a majority vote of all its members, may issue a permit for a building, upon such condition as the board may deem necessary to preserve the integrity of the town plan and to insure the proper location of future streets and highways in the town and the surrounding area. Any decisions of the board of appeals, rendered under the provisions of this section, shall be subject to the same court review as provided for zoning decisions of the board. (1942, c. 210)

Chapter IV.

§ 1. The town council is hereby empowered to pass zoning ordinances subject, however, to the following modifications:

(a) The council shall not adopt any zoning ordinance or map until it shall have appointed a town planning commission, as provided for in this act and shall have received from such commission its recommendations as to a zoning ordinance and map, and shall have held a public hearing thereon.

(b) Any zoning ordinance, regulations, restrictions, and boundaries of districts may be changed from time to time by the council, either upon its own motion or upon petition, under such conditions as the council may prescribe, after a public hearing and adequate notice to all owners and parties affected. If a protest or protests be filed with the council, signed by the owners of twenty percent or more of the area of the land included in the proposed change, or by the owners of twenty percent or more of the area of the land immediately adjacent to the land included in the proposed change, within a distance of one hundred feet therefrom, or by the owners of twenty percent or more of the area of the land directly opposite across any street or streets from the land included in the proposed change, within a distance of one hundred feet from the street lines directly opposite, then no such change shall be made except by the majority vote of all of the members of the council. No change shall be made by the council in any zoning ordinance or map until such change has been referred to the town planning commission for a report thereon, and no action shall be taken by the council until a report has been received from the commission, unless a period of thirty days has elapsed after the date of reference to the commission.

(c) Within thirty days after the adoption of any zoning ordinance and map, the council shall appoint a board of zoning appeals, consisting of seven members, none of whom shall hold any other positions with the town.

The council may remove any member of the board for cause, after a public hearing. If a vacancy occurs otherwise than by the expiration of the term of the different members, it shall be filled by the council for the unexpired term.

Unless the council designates some member of the board as a chairman, the board shall select a chairman from among its own members, and may create and fill such other offices as it may choose. The board may employ such persons as the council may approve, and may expend such sums as are appropriated by the council for its work. (1942, c. 210; 1994, c. 97)

(a) The present mayor and council of the Town of Chincoteague shall continue in office until the expiration of the terms for which they were respectively elected.

(b) The administration and government of the Town of Chincoteague shall be vested in one body to be called the council of the Town of Chincoteague, which shall consist of seven members, six of whom shall be known as councilmen and one to be known as mayor, all of whom shall be residents and qualified voters of the said town. No person shall be a candidate simultaneously for the office of mayor and council member. No council member shall be eligible for qualification or election to the office of mayor unless (i) the council member's term of office will expire on June 30 of the year of the election for mayor (ii) the council member's term of office will expire after June 30 of the year of the election for mayor, the council member submits his written resignation to the council at least 120 days before the day of the election for mayor, and such resignation shall become effective on June 30 of the year of the election for mayor. The council may create, appoint, or elect such departments, bodies, boards, and other officers, or assessors or attorneys, as are hereinafter provided for, or as are permitted or required by law to be appointed by the council, or as may be deemed necessary or proper, and may fix their compensation and define their duties. (1942, c. 210; 1993, c. 578)

§ 2. Mayor and vice-mayor.

(a) The mayor shall preside at the meetings of the council and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by this charter and by general law, and such as may be imposed by the council, consistent with his office. He shall be recognized as the official head of the town for all ceremonial purposes, by the courts for the purpose of serving civil process, and by the Governor for military purposes. In time of public danger or emergency, he may take command of the police, maintain order and enforce the law. Such course of action shall be subject to review by the council.

The mayor shall have no right to vote in the council except that in every case of a tie vote of the council, the mayor shall be entitled to vote and his vote in case of a tie only shall have the same weight and effect as the vote of a councilman.

The mayor shall have no power to suspend, remove or discharge any officer, agent or employee of the town nor shall he have any power or authority to appoint or employ any officer, agent or employee of the town nor to fix the term of office or employment, or the compensation, or to increase or decrease the power and authority of any officer, agent, or employee of the town, unless such power shall have been given him by the council, but the mayor shall have such powers with respect to the chief of police, the police, the policemen and employees of the police force when and if the mayor is given the control and supervision of the chief of police.

The council shall thereupon proceed to re-consider such ordinance or resolution. If, after such consideration, two-thirds of all the members elected to the council shall agree to pass the ordinance or resolution, it shall become operative notwithstanding the objection of the mayor. In all such cases the votes of the members of the council upon such reconsideration shall be determined by "yeas" and "nays," and the names of the members voting for and against the ordinance or resolution shall be entered on the minute book by the council. If any ordinance or resolution shall not be returned by the mayor within five days (Sunday excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, it shall become operative in like manner as if he had signed it, unless his term of office or that of the council, shall expire within said five days.

(c) The council shall at its first meeting in July following every regular municipal election choose one of its members as vice-mayor. The vice-mayor shall perform the duties of the mayor during his absence or disability.

The member of the council who shall be chosen vice-mayor, shall continue to have all of the rights, privileges, powers, duties and obligations of councilmen even when performing the duties of mayor during the absence or disability of the mayor of the town. (1942, c. 210; 1981, c. 84)

Special meetings shall be called by the clerk of the council upon the request of the mayor, or any three members of the council; no business shall be transacted at a special meeting but that for which it shall be called, unless the council be unanimous. The meetings of the council shall be open to the public, except when the public welfare shall require executive sessions.

If any member of the said council shall be voluntarily absent from three regular meetings of the council consecutively, his seat may be deemed vacant by resolution of the council and thereupon his unexpired term shall be filled according to the provisions of this act. The signatures to such petition shall be witnessed by a person whose affidavit to that effect is attached thereto. Upon the certification of such petition the council shall order an election to be held not less than thirty nor more than sixty days after such certification, in which such proposed amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the city for their approval or disapproval. Such election shall be conducted and the results thereof ascertained and determined in the manner provided by law for the conduct of general elections and by the regular election officials of the city. If a majority of those voting thereon at such election approve the proposed amendment, such result shall be communicated by the city clerk to the two houses of the General Assembly and to the representatives of the city therein with the same effect as if the council had adopted a resolution requesting the General Assembly to adopt the amendment. (1960, c. 213)

§ 4.13. Record and publication of ordinances.

Every ordinance after passage shall be given a serial number and shall be kept in a safe place by the clerk in his office in the municipal building. Within one year after the first day in January, 1966, there shall be prepared under the direction of the city attorney, who is hereby authorized to employ such assistance as he deems necessary for the purpose, a codification or revision of all ordinances in force. Such codification shall be passed by the council as a single ordinance and without prior publication. Upon its passage, it shall be published in bound or loose-leaf form. This codification, to be known and cited officially as the city code, shall be furnished to city officers and shall be sold to the public at a price to be fixed by the council. A similar codification shall be prepared, passed, without prior publication, and distributed, as above provided, at least every five years. It shall be the duty of the city clerk to cause all ordinances adopted to be printed or reproduced as promptly as possible after their adoption in substantially the same style and format as the codification or revision of ordinances and sold at such prices as the council may establish. (1960, c. 213; 1966, c. 232)

§ 4.14. Appointments.

The council in making appointments shall act only by the affirmative votes of a majority of the members elected to the council. (1960, c. 213)

§ 4.15. Removal of councilmen and members of boards and commissions appointed by the council for specified terms.

Any member of the council or any member of a board or commission appointed by the council for a specified term may be removed for cause in accordance with the general law. (1960, c. 213)

§ 4.16. Power of investigation.

The council shall have power to investigate any or all of the departments, boards, commissions, offices and agencies of the city government, including the school board, and any officer or employee of the city. The council, or any of its committees, when authorized by the council, the city manager, the heads of all departments, all boards and commissions appointed by the council, collector of city taxes, license inspector, and auditor of municipal accounts, in any investigation or hearing held by them, within their respective powers and duties, may order the attendance of any person as a witness and the production by any person of all relevant books and papers. Any person refusing or failing to obey such order may be summoned by the municipal court judge to appear before him and upon failure to give a satisfactory excuse to said judge may be fined not exceeding the sum of $100 or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days or both. Witnesses may be sworn by the officer presiding at such investigation and shall be liable to prosecution for perjury for any false testimony given at such investigation. (1960, c. 213)

Chapter 5. City Manager.

§ 5.1. Appointment and qualifications.

There shall be a city manager who shall be the executive officer of the city and shall be responsible to the council for the proper administration of the city government. He shall be appointed by the council for an indefinite term and may be removed by the council at any time by a majority vote of all its members. At least sixty days before such removal shall become effective the council shall advise the manager in writing of the reason for his removal. The council may suspend the manager from duty (with pay) during the sixty day period. The manager shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the council, by resolution, and shall devote his entire time to the business of the city. He shall be chosen solely on the basis of his executive administrative qualifications, with special reference to his actual experience in or knowledge of accepted practice in respect to the duties of his office. At the time of his appointment, he need not be a resident of the city or the Commonwealth, but during his tenure of office he shall reside within the city. (1960, c. 213)

§ 5.2. Power of appointment and removal.

The city manager shall appoint for an indefinite term and remove, subject to the provisions of Chapter 9 of this charter and except as otherwise provided in this charter, the heads of all departments and all other officers and employees of the city, except the school board and constitutional officers, provided that where the council is given power by this charter to establish a board or commission for any purpose, the council may provide for the appointment of the members of such board or commission by the city manager or by the council, and for the appointment by such board or commission of its employees, and may specify which, if any, of such employees shall not be included in the classified service. The city manager shall have power to remove any officer or employee appointed by him or his subordinates, provided that the officer or employee shall have been served with a written notice of the intention of the city manager to remove him, containing a clear statement of the grounds for such removal and of the time and place, not less than ten days after the service of such notice, at which he shall be given an opportunity to be heard. After such hearing, which shall be public at the option of such officer or employee, the action of the city manager shall be final. Pending final action, the city manager may suspend from duty for not more than sixty days any such officer or employee. (1960, c. 213; 1962, c. 467)

§ 5.3. Council not to interfere in appointment or removals.

Neither the council nor any of its members shall direct the appointment of any person to or his removal from any office or employment by the city manager or by any of his subordinates except as specifically provided in this charter. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the council and its members shall deal with the administrative services solely through the city manager, and neither the council nor any member thereof shall give orders either publicly or privately to any subordinate of the city manager. (1960, c. 213)

§ 5.4. Temporary transfer of personnel between departments.

The city manager shall have power, whenever the interests of the city require, irrespective of any other provisions of this charter, to assign employees of any department, bureau, office or agency, the head of which is appointed by the city manager, to the temporary performance of duties in another department, bureau, office or agency. (1960, c. 213)

§ 5.5. Duties.

It shall be the duty of the city manager to: (a) attend all meetings of the council with the right to speak but not to vote; (b) keep the council advised of the financial condition and the future needs of the city and of all matters pertaining to its proper administration, and make such recommendations as may seem to him desirable; (c) prepare and submit the annual budget to the council as provided in Chapter 6 of this charter and be responsible for its administration after its adoption; (d) prepare in suitable form for publication and submit to the council not later than sixty days after the end of each fiscal year of the city a concise, comprehensive report of the financial transactions and administrative activities of the city government during the preceding fiscal year and cause to be printed such number of copies thereof as the council shall direct; (e) present adequate financial and activity reports at each regular meeting of the council; and (f) perform such other duties as may be prescribed by this charter or required of him in accordance therewith by the council or which may be required of the chief executive officer of a city by the general laws of the Commonwealth other than the duties conferred on the mayor by this charter. (1960, c. 213)

§ 5.6. Relations with boards, commissions and agencies.

The city manager shall have the right to attend and participate in the proceedings of, but not to vote in, the meetings of all boards, commissions or agencies created by this charter or by ordinance, except the school board, the personnel board, the board of zoning appeals, and any other board or commission the council may designate. (1960, c. 213)

§ 5.7. Acting city manager.

The council shall designate by ordinance one or more department heads to act, in succession, as city manager in case of the absence, incapacity, death or resignation of the city manager, until his return to duty or the appointment of his successor. (1960, c. 213; 1981, c. 513)

Chapter 6. Budgets.

§ 6.1. Fiscal and tax years.

The fiscal year of the City of Colonial Heights shall begin on the first day of July and shall end on the thirtieth day of June of the succeeding year. Unless and until otherwise provided by council by ordinance, the tax year for taxes levied on real estate, tangible personal property, machinery and tools shall begin on the first day of January and end on the thirty-first day of December following, and the tax year for all other taxes shall be fixed by the council by ordinance. Unless and until otherwise provided by council by ordinance, the rates of all taxes and levies, except on new sources of tax revenue, shall be fixed before the beginning of the tax year. The council shall have the power and may by ordinance provide for the tax year for taxes levied on real estate, or tangible personal property, or machinery and tools, or all other taxes to begin on the first day of July and end on the thirtieth day of June of the succeeding year. The council shall also have the power to fix the rates or levies on real estate, or tangible personal property, or machinery and tools, or all other taxes at the time of adoption of the general fund budget. (1960, c. 213; 1966, c. 232)

§ 6.2. Budget and levy for the fiscal year 1966-1967.

a. Upon the passage of this act, the City Manager shall prepare and submit to the council, for its information, a general fund budget for the ensuing fiscal year beginning July 1, 1966, and ending June 30, 1967, based upon detailed estimates furnished by the several departments and other divisions of the city government.

b. A brief synopsis of the general fund budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1966, and ending June 30, 1967, shall be published in a newspaper having a general circulation within the city and notice given of a public hearing at least seven days prior to the date set for hearing, at which any citizen of the city shall have the right to attend and state his views thereon.

c. Upon the passage of this act and after due notice has been given as provided in § 6.2 b, council shall adopt a general fund budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1966, and ending June 30, 1967, and council shall at the time of the adoption of said budget lay its levy, if any, at such rates fixed by council at the time of such levy and adoption of said budget, on all real estate, tangible personal property, machinery and tools, and all other sources of tax revenue subject to taxation for city purposes. Upon final adoption, the general fund budget shall be in effect for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1966, and ending June 30, 1967. (1960, c. 213; 1966, c. 232)

§ 6.3. Submission of budgets.

The city manager, at least sixty (60) days prior to the beginning of each budget year, shall submit to the council a general budget. As used in this charter, the term "budget year" shall mean the fiscal year for which any particular budget is adopted and in which it is administered. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.4. Preparation of budgets.

It shall be the duty of the head of each department, each board or commission and each other office or agency supported in whole or in part by the city, including the commissioner of revenue, city attorney, commonwealth attorney, and the city sergeant, to file with the city manager or with the director of finance designated by him, at such time as the city manager may prescribe, estimates of revenue and expenditure for that department, board, commission, office or agency for the ensuing fiscal year. Such estimates shall be submitted on the forms furnished by the director of finance and it shall be the duty of the head of each such department, judge, board, commission, office or agency to supply all the information which the city manager may require to be submitted thereon. The director of finance shall assemble and compile these estimates and supply such additional information relating to the financial transaction of the city as may be necessary or valuable to the city manager in the preparation of the budgets. The city manager shall hold such hearings as he may deem advisable and with the assistance of the director of finance shall review the estimates and other data pertinent to the preparation of the budgets and make such revisions in such estimates as he may deem proper, subject to the laws of the Commonwealth relating to obligatory expenditures for any purpose. The school board shall furnish a copy of its budget to the city manager. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.5. Scope of the general budget.

In respect to the public schools there shall be included only the total amount to be appropriated by the city for their support. The general fund budget shall be prepared in accordance with accepted principles of municipal accounting and budgetary procedures and techniques and shall contain:

- (a) An estimate of such portion of the general fund cash surplus, if any, at the end of the current fiscal year as it is proposed to use for meeting expenditures in the general budget.

- (b) An estimate of the receipts from current ad valorem taxes on real estate and personal property during the ensuing fiscal year.
- (c) An estimate of receipts from all other sources of revenue.
- (d) A statement to be furnished by the director of finance of the debt service requirements for the ensuing year.
- (e) An estimate of the city's cash deficit, if any, at the end of the current fiscal year and of any other obligations required by this charter to be budgeted for the ensuing fiscal year.
- (f) An estimate of expenditures for all other purposes to be met in the ensuing fiscal year.

All the estimates shall be in detail, showing receipts by sources and expenditures by operating units, functions, character and object, so arranged as to show receipts and expenditures as estimated for the current fiscal year and actual receipts and expenditures for the last preceding fiscal year in comparison with estimated receipts and recommended expenditures for the ensuing year. At the head of the budget there shall appear a summary of the budget, which need not be itemized further than by principal sources of anticipated revenue, stating separately the amount to be raised by property tax, and by departments and kinds of expenditures, in such a manner as to present a simple and clear summary of the detailed estimates of the budget. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.6. A balanced budget.

In no event shall the expenditures recommended by the city manager in the general budget exceed the receipts estimated, taking into account the estimated cash surplus or deficit at the end of the current fiscal year, as provided in the preceding section, unless property assessments have been raised or unless the city manager shall recommend an increase in the rate of ad valorem taxes on real estate and tangible personal property or other new or increased taxes or licenses within the power of the city to levy and collect in the ensuing fiscal year the receipts from which, estimated on the basis of the average experience with the same or similar taxes during the three tax years last past, will make up the difference. If estimated receipts exceed estimated expenditures the city manager may recommend revisions in the tax and license ordinances of the city, in order to bring the general fund budget into balance. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.7. Budget message.

The budget message submitted by the city manager to the council shall be explanatory of the budget, shall contain an outline of the proposed financial policies of the city for the budget year and shall describe in connection therewith the important features of the budget plan. It shall set forth the reasons for salient changes from the previous year in cost and revenue items and shall explain any major changes in financial policy. As a part of the budget message, with relation to the proposed expenditures for down payments and other proposed expenditures for capital projects stated in the budget, the city manager shall include a statement of pending capital projects and proposed new capital projects, relating the respective amounts proposed to be raised therefor by appropriations in the budget and the respective amounts, if any, proposed to be raised therefor by the issuance of bonds during the budget year. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.8. Appropriation and additional tax ordinances.

At the same time that he submits the general fund budget the city manager shall present to the council a general appropriation ordinance. The appropriation ordinance shall be based on the general fund budget but need not be itemized further than by departments and the major operating units thereof, and by courts, bureaus, boards, commissions, offices and agencies submitting separate budget estimates, and by the principal object of expenditures. At the same time the city manager shall also present any ordinance or ordinances altering the tax rate on real estate and personal property or levying a new tax or altering the rate of any other tax necessary to balance the general fund budget as hereinbefore provided. The hearing on the budget plan as a whole, as provided in this chapter shall constitute the hearing on all ordinances referred to in this subsection. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.9. Budget a public record.

The budget and budget message and all supporting schedules shall be a public record in the office of the city manager open to public inspection after the budget has been submitted to the council and made public by it; provided, however, that no department or agency, head or judge or board or commission, manager, or director of finance shall divulge details of the proposed budget or make public statements regarding budget estimates until the budget has been submitted to the council and made public by it. The city manager on authorization from the council shall cause sufficient copies of the budget and budget message to be prepared for distribution to interested persons. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.10. Publication of notice of public hearing.

At the meeting of the council at which the budget and budget messages are submitted, the council shall determine the place and time of the public hearing on the budget, which time shall be at least thirty days prior to the beginning of each budget year, and shall cause to be published a notice of the place and time, not less than seven days prior to the date of the public hearing. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.11. Public hearing on budget.

At the time and place so advertised, or at any time and place to which such public hearing shall from time to time be adjourned, the council shall hold a public hearing on the budget as submitted, at which all interested persons shall be given an opportunity to be heard, for or against the estimates or any item thereof. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.12. Action by the council on the general budget.

After the conclusion of the public hearing on the general budget the council may insert new items of expenditures or may increase, decrease or strike out items of expenditure in the general fund budget, except that no item of expenditure for debt service as required by law shall be reduced or stricken out.

The council shall in no event adopt a general budget in which the total of expenditures exceeds the receipts, estimated as hereinbefore provided, unless at the same time it adopts measures for providing additional revenue in the ensuing fiscal year, estimated as hereinbefore provided, sufficient to make up the difference. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.13. Adoption of budget.

The budget shall be adopted by the votes of at least a majority of all the members of the council. The budget shall be finally adopted not later than the last day of the last month of the fiscal year. Should the council take no final action on or prior to such day, the budget, as submitted, shall be deemed to have been finally adopted by the council. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.14. Effective date of general fund budget; certification; copies made available.

Upon final adoption, the general fund budget shall be in effect for the ensuing fiscal year. A copy of such budget as finally adopted shall be certified by the city manager and city clerk and filed in the office of the director of finance. The general fund budget so certified shall be printed, mimeographed or otherwise reproduced and sufficient copies thereof shall be made available for the use of all departments, courts, boards, commissions, offices and agencies and for the use of interested persons and organizations. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.15. Transfer of appropriations.

At the request of the city manager, the council may during the fiscal year, by resolution, order the transfer of any unencumbered balance, or portion thereof, in any general fund appropriation from one department, board, commission, office or agency to another. (1960, c. 213; 1962, c. 467)

§ 6.16. School budget.

It shall be the duty of the school board to file its budget estimates with the city manager at the same time as other departments and in the form prescribed by the city manager. The action of the city manager and council on the school budget shall relate to its total only and the school board shall have authority to expend in its discretion the sum appropriated for its use, provided that if it receives an appropriation greater or less than its original request, it shall forthwith revise its estimates of expenditure and adopt appropriations in accordance therewith. The school board shall before the beginning of the fiscal year file with the city manager its budget as finally revised and its appropriations based on said revised budget, which need not be itemized further than by operating units and principal objects of expenditure. They shall have power to order during the course of the fiscal year transfers from one item of appropriation to another, notice of which shall be immediately transmitted to the city manager. The school board, notwithstanding the provisions contained in § 6.9 of this charter, may hold a public hearing on the school board budget at any time after the school board has filed its budget estimates with the city manager and prior to the adoption of the general fund budget of the city by council. (1960, c. 213; 1962, c. 467; 1968, c. 474)

§ 6.17. Additional appropriations.

An appropriation in addition to those contained in the general appropriation ordinance, except for the purpose of meeting a public emergency as provided for elsewhere in this charter, may be made by the council, by a majority affirmative vote of the entire council, only if there is available in the general fund a sum unencumbered and unappropriated sufficient to meet such appropriation. (1960, c. 213; 1962, c. 467)

§ 6.18. Appropriations to lapse.

Any portion of an annual appropriation remaining unexpended and unencumbered at the close of the fiscal year shall lapse, except that any balance remaining in the funds of the school board at the end of the fiscal year shall remain to the credit of that board and an estimate of any such balance shall be included in the school budget of the ensuing year as an estimated receipt. (1960, c. 213)

§ 6.19. Certification of funds.

No payment shall be made and no obligation incurred by or on behalf of the city except in accordance with an appropriation duly made; provided that the council shall have the power to authorize and direct and making of expenditures and contracts for the expenditure of funds not appropriated in any budget for the then current fiscal year. No payment shall be made from or obligation incurred against any allotment or appropriation, except those of the School Board, unless the director of finance shall first certify that there is a sufficient unexpended and unencumbered balance in such allotment or appropriation to meet the same; provided that nothing herein shall be taken to prevent the advance authorization of expenditures for small purchases as provided in this charter. Every payment made in violation of the provisions of this charter shall be deemed illegal and every official who shall knowingly authorize or make such payment or knowingly take part therein and every person who shall knowingly receive such payment or any part thereof shall be jointly and severally liable to the city for the full amount so paid or received. If any officer, member of a board or commission, or employee of the city shall knowingly incur any obligation or shall authorize or make any expenditure in violation of the provisions of this charter or knowingly take part therein, such action shall be cause for his removal. (1960, c. 213; 1980, c. 206)

§ 6.20. Reserve for permanent public improvements.

The council may, by ordinance, establish a reserve fund for permanent public improvements and may appropriate thereto any portion of the general fund cash surplus not otherwise appropriated at the close of any fiscal year. It may likewise assign to the said fund a specified portion of the ad valorem tax on real estate and tangible property not to exceed ten cents on $100 of the assessed valuation thereof or the whole or part of the proceeds of any other tax. Appropriations from the said fund shall be made only to finance permanent public improvements. (1960, c. 213)

Chapter 7. Borrowing.

§ 7.1. Borrowing power.

The council may, in the name and for the use of the city, incur indebtedness by issuing its negotiable bonds or notes for the purposes, in the manner provided in this chapter, and to the extent provided in this chapter and under the general law. (1960, c. 213)

§ 7.2. Purposes for which bonds or notes may be issued.

(a) To finance capital projects. Bonds, and notes in anticipation of bonds when the issue of bonds has been authorized as hereinafter provided, may be issued for the purpose of financing the whole or any part of the costs of any capital improvement project which is hereby defined to include any public improvement or utility which the city is authorized to undertake, including the acquisition of any property, real or personal, incident thereto, the construction or reconstruction in whole or in part of any building, plant, structure or facility necessary or useful in carrying out the powers of the city, and the equipment or reequipment of the same.

(b) To anticipate the collection of revenue. Notes may be issued when authorized by the council, at any time during the fiscal year in anticipation of the receipt of taxes and revenue of the current fiscal year.

(c) To finance increased operating expenses. Notes to be repaid within four years of the date of issuance may be issued when authorized by the council for the purpose of meeting increased operating expenses, including debt service, provided, however, that no notes shall be issued pursuant to the authority of this section after January 1, 1965.

(d) To provide for emergency expenditures. Notes may be issued to finance an appropriation for the purpose of meeting a public emergency, as provided in subsection (c) of § 2.3 of this charter, when authorized by the ordinance making such appropriation. Notes so issued shall be authenticated by the signature of the city manager and city treasurer and shall mature not later than twelve months after the date of issue. Bonds may be issued, when authorized as hereinafter provided, for the purpose of funding such notes or other obligations incurred in accordance with such appropriation.

(e) To refund outstanding bonds. Bonds may be issued, when authorized as hereinafter provided, for the purpose of refunding bonds, provided that the director of finance shall certify in writing that such refunding is necessary to prevent default on the interest or principal of the city's outstanding bonds. (1960, c. 213)

§ 7.3. Limitation on indebtedness.

In the issuance of bonds and notes, the city shall be subject to the limitations as to amount contained in § 127 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth. (1960, c. 213)

§ 7.4. Notes in anticipation of bonds and revenue.

Whenever an issue of bonds for any capital improvement project has been authorized as hereinafter provided, the director of finance, when authorized by ordinance, shall have power to issue notes of the city in anticipation of such bonds, for the purpose of defraying the whole or any part of the cost of such project. Such notes in anticipation of bonds shall be authenticated by the signature of the director of finance and shall mature not later than five years after the date of issue. They shall be paid at maturity from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds in anticipation of which they have been issued; provided, however, the city may in its discretion, retire any such loans by means of current revenues, special assessments, or other funds, in lieu of retiring them by means of bonds. Notes in anticipation of revenues shall be authorized by the council by ordinance. They shall be authenticated by the signature of the director of finance and shall mature not later than twelve months after the date of issue. If not paid at maturity, the amount of such unpaid notes shall be included as an appropriation in the general fund budget for the ensuing fiscal year. (1960, c. 213; 1968, c. 474)

§ 7.5. Form and term of bonds.

All bonds shall be in serial form payable, as consecutively numbered, in annual installments, the first of which shall be payable not more than five years from the date of issue of such bonds. Bonds shall be authenticated by the seal of the city attested by the facsimile signature of the city clerk and by the signatures of the city manager and director of finance or by the city manager and city treasurer, if the city manager and the director of finance are the same person. All bonds shall be made payable within the probable life of the improvement or undertaking on account of which they are to be issued or, if the bonds are to be issued for several improvements or undertakings, within the average probable life of such improvements or undertakings. In the case of a bond issue for several improvements, or undertakings having different probable periods of usefulness, the council shall determine the average of said periods, taking into consideration the amount of bonds to be issued on account of each purpose, and the period so determined shall be the average period of usefulness. The determination of the council as to the probable life of any such improvement or undertaking shall be conclusive. The probable life of no public improvement shall be considered over thirty years, except that the possible life of public buildings other than schoolhouses, may be forty years; concrete bridges, forty years; and parks or other real estate, fifty years. (1960, c. 213)

§ 7.6. Restrictions on loans and credits.

The credit of the city shall not directly, or indirectly, under any device or pretense whatsoever, be granted to or in aid of any person, association or corporation. (1960, c. 213)

§ 7.7. Issuance of bonds; how authorized.

The procedure for the passage of an ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds shall be the same as for the passage of any other ordinance, except that such ordinance must be adopted by the recorded affirmative vote of a majority of the entire council. Upon the adoption of an ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds and a resolution fixing the form and details thereof which may be finally adopted at the meeting at which it is introduced, which may be a regular or special meeting, by a majority of the members of the entire council, and which need not be published or posted, a certified copy of the same shall be filed with the corporation or circuit court having jurisdiction over the city, or to the judge thereof in vacation. A notice setting forth (1) in brief and general terms the purpose or purposes for which the bonds are to be issued, and (2) the amount of such bonds and, if bonds are to be issued for more than one purpose, the amount for each purpose, except that with respect to bonds for school purposes the amount of each separate purpose is not required, shall be published once in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city within ten days after such filing. For a period of thirty days after the date of the filing with the corporation or circuit court having jurisdiction over the city of a certified copy of the resolution of the governing body of the city authorizing the issuance of bonds and fixing the form and details thereof any person in interest shall have the right to contest the validity of such bonds or the taxes to be levied for the payment of the principal of and the interest on such bonds or the rates, rents, fees and other charges for the services and facilities furnished by or for the use of or in connection with the project or the pledge of the revenues or receipts of the project or any provisions which may be recited in such resolution or in any trust agreement securing the bonds, or any amendment thereof, or any matter therein contained or provided for or done or to be done pursuant thereto. If such contest shall not have been begun within the thirty days' period, the authority to issue the bonds, the validity of the taxes necessary to pay the principal of and the interest on the bonds, and the validity of any other provision contained in such resolution or any such trust agreement and all proceedings in connection with the authorization and the issuance of the bonds shall be conclusively presumed to have been legally taken and no court shall have authority to inquire into such matters and no such contest shall thereafter be instituted. (1960, c. 213)

§ 7.8. Procedure for sale of bonds and notes.

All bonds issued under this charter may be sold either at public or private sale. All bonds sold at public sale shall be sold upon sealed proposals after at least ten days' notice published at least once in a publication carrying municipal bond notices and devoted primarily to financial news or to the subject of state and municipal bonds, published in the city of New York, New York, and at least ten days' notice published at least once in a daily newspaper of general circulation or published in the City of Colonial Heights. The terms of the sale of bonds shall be approved by the council by resolution. Notes in anticipation of bonds, in anticipation of revenue, or to provide for emergency expenditures, when authorized by the council, may be sold by the director of finance, with the approval of the city manager, at private sale without prior public offering.

In the event bonds issued under this charter are sold at public sale the council may waive all technicalities existing in sealed proposals and accept the low bid or the council may reject all bids and negotiate the sale of such bonds to the low bidder. (1960, c. 213; 1968, c. 474)

§ 7.9. Contents of the bond ordinance.

An ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds shall include a statement of the purpose or purposes of the issue, and if the purpose is to finance one or more capital improvement projects, it shall describe each of them sufficiently for purposes of identification, and shall estimate the cost of the project or projects and the portion thereof to be defrayed from sources, specifying them, other than the proposed bond issue. The bond ordinance shall also include the amount of the proposed issue, a statement showing the proposed issue to be within the limitation of indebtedness as provided in § 7.3, the length of time for which they are to run, the maximum rate of interest to be paid thereon, not to exceed such maximum interest rate as may be set by general law, the probable life of the purpose or the average probable life of the purposes to be financed, as determined by council, and a declaration that principal of and interest on the proposed issue are to be paid from ad valorem taxes on real estate and tangible personal property and that the full faith and credit of the city are pledged to such payment, and the procedure for the sale of the proposed issue. All other matters relating to the authorization, issuance or sale of the bonds or notes may be provided by resolution. Any such ordinance may be amended by ordinance at any time before the bonds to be affected by such amendment have been sold. The council is authorized and empowered to sell all bonds issued under this charter for such prices or rate of interest as it may determine to be in the best interests of the city, not to exceed such maximum interest rate as may be set by general law. All other matters relating to such bonds may be determined by resolution within the limitations prescribed by such ordinance or by this charter. (1960, c. 213; 1970, c. 183; 1983, c. 106)

§ 7.10. Payment of bonds and notes.

The power and obligation of the city to pay any and all bonds and notes hereafter issued by it pursuant to this charter, except revenue bonds, as provided in § 7.12, shall be unlimited, and the city shall levy ad valorem taxes upon all taxable property within the city for the payment of such bonds or notes and interest thereon, without limitation of rate or amount. The faith and credit of the city are hereby pledged for the payment of the principal of and the interest on all bonds and notes of the city hereafter issued pursuant to this chapter, except revenue bonds, as provided in § 7.12, whether or not such pledge be stated in the bonds or notes or in the bond ordinance authorizing their issuance. (1960, c. 213)

§ 7.11. (1960, c. 213; repealed 1980, c. 206)

§ 7.12. Revenue bonds.

In addition to the authority to issue bonds otherwise provided in this chapter, and in addition to the authority of § 127 (b) of the Constitution of Virginia, the council may, in the manner provided for the issuance of other bonds and subject to the limitations of this chapter, except that the faith and credit of the city need not be pledged to their payment and except as hereinafter provided, authorize the issuance of revenue bonds to be secured by mortgage upon the property of the city devoted to the use of a revenue-producing utility, project or enterprise and the interest and principal of which may be paid exclusively from the revenues of such utility, project or enterprise; provided that such issue need not be limited to a term of thirty years. (1960, c. 213)

§ 7.13. Applicability of general law.

If there shall be omitted from this charter any provision essential to the valid authorization, sale, execution and issuance of any of the bonds of the city, the provisions of the general law, with reference to similar bonds, shall supply said omission. (1960, c. 213)

Chapter 8. Financial Administration.

§ 8.1. Department of finance.

The city council may by ordinance create a department of finance which shall include the functions of accounting and control; budgeting; purchasing; the collection of locally imposed taxes, fees, special assessments, and other revenues; and such other functions as may be provided by ordinance or by orders of the director of finance consistent therewith. (1960, c. 213; 2016, c. 514)

§ 8.2. Director of finance; appointment.

The head of the department of finance shall be known as the director of finance, and council may by ordinance provide that the director of finance shall be the city manager, or it may establish a director of finance separate from the city manager. When the city council shall by ordinance establish a director of finance separate from the city manager, he shall be appointed by the city manager. In making such appointment, the city manager shall give consideration to the applicant's qualifications in municipal finance and financial control. (1960, c. 213; 2016, c. 514)

§ 8.3. Director of finance; powers and duties.

The director of finance shall have general management and control of the functions of the department of finance. He shall appoint and remove, subject to the provisions of Chapter 9 of this charter, all officers and employees of the department and shall have power to make rules and regulations consistent with this charter and the ordinances of the city for the conduct of its business. He shall have charge, subject to the direction and control of the city manager, of the administration of the financial affairs of the city, except those of the school board, unless specified in this chapter, and to that end shall have authority and be required to:

- (a) Compile the departmental estimates and other data necessary or useful to the city manager in the preparation of the current expense and capital budgets.
- (b) Supervise and control all encumbrances, expenditures and disbursements to insure that budget appropriations are not exceeded.
- (c) Maintain a general accounting system for the city government and each of its departments, boards, commissions, offices and agencies, in conformity with the best recognized practices in governmental accounting; and encumber each item of appropriation and the allotments thereof with the amount of each purchase order, payroll or contract which he has approved, including each advance authorization as provided in subsection (f) of § 8.3.

(d) Prescribe the form of receipts, vouchers, bills or claims to be used, and of accounts to be kept by all departments, boards, commissions, offices and agencies of the city, provided that in so doing he shall consult with any officer appointed by the council for the purpose.

(e) Require daily, or at such other intervals as he may deem expedient, a report of receipts from each of such departments, boards, commissions, offices and agencies, and prescribe the times at and the manner in which moneys received by them shall be paid to the office of the director of finance.

(f) Examine all contracts, purchase orders and other documents, except bonds and notes authorized as provided in Chapter 7, which create financial obligations against the city and approve the same only upon ascertaining that money has been appropriated and allotted therefor and that an unexpended and unencumbered balance is available in such appropriation and allotment to meet the same, provided that the director of finance may give advance authorization for expenditures in conformance with a procurement policy approved by the council and consistent with the laws of the Commonwealth.

(g) Audit before payment, for legality and correctness, all accounts, claims and demands against the city, and no money shall be drawn from any bank account of the city or school board except by warrant or check, signed, if from an account of the city, by the director of finance, based upon a voucher duly approved by him as above provided.

(h) Supervise and be responsible for provision of tax maps, property descriptions and such other information as may be necessary or convenient for the scientific assessment of property for taxation within the city.

(i) Have custody of all investments and invested funds of the city or in its possession in a fiduciary capacity, unless otherwise provided by this charter or by law, ordinance or the terms of any trust, and the safekeeping of all bonds and notes of the city and the receipt and delivery of city bonds and notes for transfer, registration and exchange.

(j) Submit to the city manager for presentation to the council not later than the tenth day of each month, a statement concerning the financial transactions of the city and each utility respectively, prepared in accordance with accepted principles of municipal accounting and budgetary procedure, and showing: (1) the amount of each appropriation with transfers to and from the same, the allotments thereof to the end of the preceding month, the encumbrances and expenditures charged against such appropriation and the allotments thereof during the preceding month, the total of such charges for the fiscal year to the end of the preceding month, and the unencumbered balance remaining in such appropriation and the allotments thereof; (2) the revenue estimated to be received from each source, the actual receipts from each source for the preceding month, the total receipts from each source for the fiscal year to the end of the preceding month, and the balance remaining to be collected.

(k) Furnish to the head of each department, court, board, commission, office and agency of the city a copy of that portion of the statement relating to such department, court, board, commission, office or agency.

(l) Prepare and submit to the city manager at the end of each fiscal year, for the preceding year, a complete financial statement and report of the financial transactions of the city.

(m) Protect the interests of the city by withholding the payment of any claim or demand by any person, firm or corporation against the city until any indebtedness or other liability due from such person, firm or corporation shall first have been settled and adjusted.

(n) Unless otherwise authorized by the city council, collect all tax payments, fees, assessments, and charges that the City of Colonial Heights imposes.

(o) Unless otherwise authorized by the city council, employ any procedure that is now or hereafter prescribed by law to collect locally imposed taxes, assessments, fees, and charges that are delinquent. (1960, c. 213; 1980, c. 206; 2006, cc. 14, 761; 2016, c. 514)

§ 8.4. City treasurer.

The city treasurer shall collect and receive all money due the city from the State and all taxes and levies due the State and collected within the city, and disburse the same, using any procedure now or hereafter prescribed by law. In performing his duties, the city treasurer shall be entitled to employ such staff as the State Compensation Board authorizes.

The city council may authorize the treasurer to assume such duties of the director of finance as the council deems appropriate. (1960, c. 213; 1981, c. 513; 2016, c. 514)

§ 8.5. Commissioner of revenue.

The commissioner of revenue shall perform such duties not inconsistent with the laws of the Commonwealth in relation to the assessment of property and licenses as may be required by the council for the purpose of levying city taxes and licenses. He shall have power to administer such oaths as may be required by the council in the assessment of license taxes or other taxes for the city. He shall make such reports in regard to the assessment of both property and licenses, or either, as may be required by the council or by the director of finance. The council may by ordinance require that all tax bills shall be made out by the commissioner of revenue and delivered in such manner as said ordinance may prescribe. (1960, c. 213)

§ 8.6. Sale of property for taxes.

The council may require real estate in the city, delinquent for the nonpayment of taxes, to be sold for said taxes, as provided in the Code of Virginia, except that if at any such sale no bid shall be made for any such real estate, or such bid shall not be equal to the tax or assessment, with interest, charges and expenses, then such real estate shall be struck off to the city. As soon as practicable thereafter, the director of finance shall prepare a statement of sales made to the city, in which the real estate so sold shall be described, and the aggregate amount of tax or assessment with interest, charges and expenses specified.

(a) The owner of any real estate so struck off to the city, his heirs or assigns, or any person having the right to charge such real estate for a debt, or any person having interest in such real estate by way of reversion, remainder or otherwise, may redeem the real estate within three years from the sale thereof, by payment to the city of the amount for which it was sold, with such additional sums as would have accrued for taxes thereon if it had not been purchased for the city, with interest on the purchase money and taxes at the rate of six percent per annum from the time that they may have been so paid.

(b) In case that any real estate, struck off to the city as hereinbefore provided, shall not be redeemed within the time specified, the director of finance may, at the direction of the council, within sixty days after the expiration of three years from the sale, cause to be recorded in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court having jurisdiction of the city a certificate of sale with his oath that the same has not been redeemed, and thereupon the city, or its assignee, shall acquire an absolute title in fee in chancery proceedings to such real estate, and every interest therein, subject to be defeated only by proof that the taxes for which said real estate was sold were not properly chargeable thereon, or that the taxes properly chargeable thereon had been paid at the time of the execution of such certificate. The said certificate shall be recorded in the said Clerk's Office in a record book known as "deed book, recording conveyances to city lands sold for delinquent taxes," for recording which certificate the clerk shall be entitled to a fee of ten cents, payable out of the city treasury. The council may impose penalties upon its officers for their failure to comply with the requirements of this section. The said certificate, or the record thereof, or a certified copy thereof, shall, in all courts and other places, be evidence of the facts therein stated; provided, however, that the failure to obtain or record such certificate shall not invalidate the lien of the city for all taxes assessed against such real estate, but the city may, at any time, elect to enforce its lien for taxes in a court of equity and real estate. When real estate is sold at a tax sale, it shall be continued upon the land books in the name of the former owner or owners until there is a transfer of title of record and taxes and levies shall be annually extended thereon the same as if such tax sale had not taken place.

(c) When land sold for delinquent taxes or struck off to the city is redeemed by persons under disability at the time of sale, in addition to the payments otherwise required for redemption, the person or persons so redeeming the land shall pay to the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, the appraised value of any improvement that may have been made thereon after three years from the date of the sale for delinquent taxes. (1960, c. 213; 2016, c. 514)

§ 8.7. Correction of assessments and exoneration of taxes.

(a) The officer or board responsible for making any assessment of taxes or levies, or the director of finance, may require the production of the books and records of any taxpayer containing information concerning the tax liability of such taxpayer for the purpose of verifying or amending or correcting the assessment of city taxes for any tax year of the three tax years last past or for the then current tax year. The council may provide by ordinance for the issuance of a summons requiring the production of the taxpayer's books and records and for the imposition of fines and penalties for the failure to obey such summons.

(b) If the officer or board responsible for making any assessment or the director of finance ascertain that any taxpayer has not been assessed with taxes of any kind for any tax year of the three tax years last past or for the then current tax year, or that said taxpayer has been assessed with taxes of any kind at less than the law required for or during any one or more for such years, or that the said taxes for any cause have not been realized, it shall be the duty of the officer or board responsible for making the assessment or the director of finance, upon his or its own examination and audit, to assess the taxpayer with the taxes at the rate or rates prescribed for said year or years and in cases where the error has been due to the failure of the taxpayer to file a proper return, or in cases of omitted taxes upon lands, and excluding cases where the erroneous assessment has been due to the mistake of the assessing officer, to include in such assessment penalties and interest as may be prescribed by the council, not to exceed, however, a penalty of five percent of the tax and interest upon said tax and penalty at the rate of six percent per annum from the time when such tax would have borne a penalty for nonpayment had it been regularly assessed and remained unpaid, and the council may provide for the imposition of additional interest not to exceed interest upon the entire assessment at the rate of six percent per annum from the date of assessment, if such assessment be not paid within thirty days after its date.

(c) If in the regular course of the audit of such taxpayer's records the officer or board responsible for making any assessment and the director of finance ascertain that the amount of license taxes assessed against the taxpayer for any one or more of said years is in excess of the amount of license taxes which should have been assessed against said taxpayer upon a correct computation thereof, then the director of finance, with the approval of the city attorney, may refund out of the city treasury the excess of such taxes erroneously assessed if said excess be paid or exonerate the taxpayer from the payment of said excess if the excess be not paid. If the officer or board responsible for making the assessment, or the director of finance, ascertain that there be additional liability for one or more years and also an excessive assessment for one or more years, then the excess of one assessment may be credited against the deficiency of the other assessment and the taxpayer be assessed with the net deficiency or be refunded the next excess if paid or exonerated from the payment of the net excess if unpaid, by order of the director of finance, with the approval of the city attorney.

(d) Any person, firm or corporation assessed with any local tax or levy and who is aggrieved thereby may, at any time within one year from the thirty-first day of December of the year in which such assessment is made apply to the officer or board making such assessment for a correction of said assessment. Notice of such application shall also be given to the director of finance and the city attorney, and if the officer or board making such assessment, with the approval of both the director of finance and the city attorney, be satisfied that such person, firm or corporation has been erroneously assessed with any such tax or levy, then the director of finance, with the approval of the city attorney, may order the officer or board making such assessment to correct the assessment and it shall be the duty of said officer or board to make such correction in accordance with the orders of the director of finance, with the approval of the city attorney. The director of finance, with the approval of the city attorney, shall have the power to order that the taxpayer be exonerated from the payment of so much as is erroneously charged if unpaid, and if said assessment be paid, then the director of finance, with the approval of the city attorney, shall have the power to order the refund of the excess of said assessment out of the treasury of the city. But where it is shown to the satisfaction of the officer or board making such assessment, with the approval of both the director of finance and the city attorney, that there has been a double assessment in any case, one of which assessments is proper and the other erroneous, and that a proper single tax has been paid thereon, the director of finance, with the approval of the city attorney, may order that such erroneous assessment be corrected whether the erroneous tax has been paid or not, and even though the application be not made within the one year as hereinbefore required. The remedy granted by this section shall be in addition to the right of any taxpayer to apply within the time prescribed by law to the proper court as provided by law for the correction of erroneous assessments of the taxes described in this section, and application may be made to the proper court irrespective of whether such applicant has or has not theretofore made application to the officer or board making such assessment for the correction of any such assessment. The approval or withholding of approval by the city attorney in the matters provided for in §§ 8.7 (c) and 8.7 (d) shall relate only to the legality of the proposed action. (1960, c. 213)

§ 8.8. Annual assessment and equalization of assessments.

The council may, in lieu of the methods prescribed by general law, provide by ordinance for the annual or quadrennial assessment and reassessment and equalization of assessments of real estate for local taxation and to that end may appoint one or more persons as assessors to assess or reassess for taxation the real estate within the city and to prescribe their duties and terms of office. Such assessors shall make assessments and reassessments on the same basis as real estate is required to be assessed under the provisions of general law and shall have the same authority as the assessors appointed under the provisions of general law and shall be charged with duties similar to those thereby imposed upon such assessors, except that such assessments or reassessments shall be made annually and the assessments and reassessments so made shall have the same effect as if they had been made by assessors appointed under the provisions of general law. And the council may authorize the commissioner of revenue to act as the assessor provided herein, and provided further that application for relief from assessments may be made to the circuit court of appropriate jurisdiction. (1960, c. 213; 1966, c. 232)

§ 8.9. City purchasing agent; appointment; qualifications; powers and duties generally.

The city council shall, by resolution, designate the city manager or director of finance as city purchasing agent, or it may, at its discretion, appoint any other qualified person as city purchasing agent. In selecting the city purchasing agent, consideration shall be given to the applicant's experience in private business purchasing, or governmental purchasing, or comparable kind of institutional purchasing, and property control and accountability. He shall, pursuant to the provisions of this charter and to such rules and regulations consistent therewith as may be established by the council, purchase for the use of the city and all its departments, bureaus, boards, commissions, offices, and agencies, hereinafter in this chapter referred to as "using agencies," including at its option the city school board, but not excluding any other bureau, agency or official of said city, which purchases anything on behalf of said city, all supplies, materials, equipment, medicines and drugs, legal and scientific books and periodicals, and printing of legal briefs; manuscripts, maps, charts, sheet music, phonograph records, books, pamphlets and periodicals, when ordered by a city public library; such perishable articles and other articles as may be designated in the rules and regulations established by ordinance; and such supplies, materials, equipment and contractual services as may be required by any using agency in an emergency as defined in the said rules and regulations. The services of the purchasing agent shall be available to the school board whenever it wishes to make use thereof. (1960, c. 213; 1979, c. 246)

§ 8.10. Further powers and duties of purchasing agent.

The purchasing agent, for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the preceding section, shall have the following powers and duties:

- (a) To establish, with the approval of the city manager, and after consultation with the heads of the using agencies concerned, and enforce standard specifications for all supplies, materials and equipment required by the city government except as to the purchases exempted above.
- (b) To prescribe the time of making requisitions for such supplies, materials, and equipment and the future period which said requisitions are to cover.
- (c) To inspect or cause to be inspected, all deliveries of such supplies, materials and equipment, and to cause tests to be made, when necessary, in order to determine their quality, quantity and conformance with specifications.
- (d) To supervise and control such central storerooms, workshops, garages and repair shops as the council may provide by ordinance to serve the several using agencies or any of them.

(e) To transfer to or between using agencies, sell or trade-in supplies, materials and equipment determined by him, with the approval of the city manager and after consultation with the head of the using agency concerned, to be surplus, obsolete or unused.

(f) To maintain an adequate system of accounting for all property received and all property issued by the bureau of purchasing, in accordance with accepted principles of accounting for property and inventory control, and to maintain such inventory of all movable property belonging to the city, as may be required by the council.

(g) To perform such duties with regard to the letting of contracts for public works or improvements as are provided in Chapter 12 of this charter and to have such other powers and duties as may be provided by ordinance. (1960, c. 213)

§ 8.11. Purchasing.

All purchases shall be in conformance with a procurement policy approved by the council and consistent with the laws of the Commonwealth. (1960, c. 213; 1973, c. 500; 1979, c. 246; 2006, cc. 14, 761)

§ 8.12. Accounting control of purchasing.

All purchases made and contracts executed by the purchasing agent shall be pursuant to a written requisition, in such form as may be prescribed by the director of finance, from the head of the using agency whose appropriation is to be charged, or from the head of a bureau or other operating unit to whom such authority has been delegated in writing, filed with the purchasing agent, except as provided in subsection (f) of § 8.3 of this charter, by the head of the using agency. No purchase order made or contract entered into by the purchasing agent shall be valid unless there be endorsed thereon the certificate of the director of finance that there is an unexpended and unencumbered balance in the appropriation and allotment applicable thereto. Nothing herein, however, shall be taken to prevent the purchasing agent from making purchases from a store's revolving fund which the council is hereby authorized to establish, or from making sales from the stores to the several using agencies based on their requisitions, provided the director of finance certified that there is an unexpended and unencumbered balance in the appropriation to be charged. (1960, c. 213)

Chapter 9. Personnel.

§ 9.1. Merit basis of appointments.

Appointments and other personnel actions shall be made according to merit and fitness. The council shall have all necessary powers to carry out this purpose, including, if the council so determines, the establishment and operation of a competitive examination or selection system. The council may vest the following powers in the city manager, who may delegate them to any officer or department of the city government, as he may decide:

- (a) To administer recruitment and selection to fill positions in the city government, except the following: (1) Officers elected by the people and persons appointed to fill vacancies in elective offices; (2) members of boards and commissions; (3) officers appointed by the council; (4) the municipal judge, the juvenile and domestic relations judge and the justices of the peace provided for in this charter; (5) employees of the school board; (6) assistant city attorneys, special counsel and technical advisors employed by the city attorney;
- (b) To administer any system of competitive examination or selection which may be established by the council;
- (c) To prepare and recommend to the council a classification plan;
- (d) To prepare and recommend to the council a pay plan covering all employees in the city government, including school board employees, if the board so requests;
- (e) To direct and enforce the maintenance by all departments, boards, commissions, offices and agencies of the city, of such personnel records and service rating of city employees (except employees of the school board) as he shall prescribe;
- (f) To maintain a roster of all persons in the employ of the city (except employees of the school board) which shall specify as to each such person such information as (1) the class title of the position held, (2) the salary or pay, (3) any changes in class title, salary or pay, and (4) such other data as may be deemed useful or significant;
- (g) To certify all payrolls, except those of the school board, and to make no payment for personal services to any person unless the payroll voucher bears the certificate of the city manager that the persons named therein have been appointed and employed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter;
- (h) To provide a systematic program of in-service training for city employees (other than employees of the school board) to improve their performance and their potentialities for service to the city;
- (i) To investigate the operation and effect of the personnel provisions of this charter and the rules adopted thereunder and report annually his findings and recommendations to the council;
- (j) To recommend to the council and to effectuate such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this charter and to perform such other powers and duties as may be assigned to him by ordinance. (1960, c. 213)

§ 9.2. Unclassified service.

The service of the city shall be divided into the unclassified and classified services. The unclassified service shall consist of: (a) officers elected by the people and persons appointed to fill vacancies in elective offices; (b) the members of boards and commissions, all officers appointed by the council and, any of their deputies, appointees, assistants or employees designated by council as in the unclassified service and persons appointed by officers elected by the people; (c) the justices of the peace, municipal judge and the juvenile and domestic relations judge provided for in this charter; (d) the assistant city manager, if there be one; (e) employees of the school board, provided that any class of such employees may be transferred to the classified service on the request of the school board; (f) assistant city attorneys, special counsel and technical advisors employed by the city attorney; (g) licensed physicians and dentists employed by the city in their professional capacities; (h) persons temporarily employed in a professional or scientific capacity or to conduct a special inquiry, investigation, examination or installation, if the council or the manager certifies that such employment is temporary and that the work should not be performed by employees in the classified service; (i) per diem employees. (1960, c. 213; 1980, c. 206; 1981, c. 513)

§ 9.3. Classified service.

The classified service shall comprise all positions, including those in the police and fire departments not specifically included by the preceding section in the unclassified service. (1960, c. 213)

§ 9.4. Appointment and removal.

All original appointments to positions in the classified service shall be for a probationary period. The probationary period shall be six months, but at any time prior to the conclusion of the probationary period of any employee, his services may be terminated by the officer having the power of appointment to the position, if, in the opinion of such officer, the employee does not possess the qualifications to perform satisfactorily the duties of the position. Upon the conclusion of the probationary period, no employee shall be suspended for more than sixty days, reduced in rank or pay, or removed, except after notice in writing of the grounds of the proposed action. Such notice shall be from the officer who has the power of appointment to the position. The decision of the city manager (or for positions not under his appointing power, the decision of the appointing officer) shall in all cases be final. (1960, c. 213; 1981, c. 513)

§ 9.5. Tenure.

An employee who has been continued in employment after the conclusion of the probationary period may not, so long as he continues in the employ of the city, be required to serve a new probationary period upon appointment or transfer to a position not involving different skills. (1960, c. 213)

§ 9.6. Rules.

Within six months after this charter becomes effective, the city manager shall prepare and recommend to the council such rules as he may consider necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter with respect to persons in the classified service. The council shall cause to be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, a notice of the time and place of a public hearing to be held on such proposed rules, to take place not less than five days after the publication of such notice. Thereafter, the council shall reject or adopt the rules recommended by the city manager with such modifications as it may deem advisable. Amendments to the rules may be adopted from time to time after public hearing as above provided, but no change in the rules shall be set for hearing which has not been recommended by the city manager unless the same shall have first been referred to him for his opinion at least ten days prior to such hearing. The rules and amendments thereof so adopted shall have, to the extent that they are consistent with the terms of this charter, the force of law. Among other things, they shall provide for the administration of the classification plan and pay plan; hours of work, vacations, sick leaves and other leaves of absence; overtime pay; the order and manner in which layoffs shall be effected; procedure on appeals from orders of suspension or removal or other disciplinary action; and such other matters as may be necessary to provide adequate and systematic handling of the personnel affairs of the city. (1960, c. 213)

§ 9.7. Classification plan.

The city manager first appointed shall, within seven months after his appointment, prepare, after consultation with all officers having the power of appointment, and submit to the council a plan of classification and grading for all positions in the classified service according to similarity of authority, duties and responsibilities. The council shall hold a public hearing thereon, at least ten days' notice of which shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, and within thirty days after the submission of the plan by the city manager, it shall reject or adopt the same with or without modifications. Changes in the classification plan may thereafter be recommended from time to time by the city manager and shall take effect when approved by the council. When the specifications of any job are changed or a new position created the city manager shall recommend the necessary changes in the classification plan. After the adoption of the classification plan the class title set forth therein shall be used to designate such positions in all official records, documents, vouchers and communications, and no person shall be appointed to or employed in a position in the classified service under any class title which has not been recommended by the city manager and approved by the council as appropriate to the duties to be performed. Employees affected by the allocation or reallocation of a position to a class or by any changes in the classification plan shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard thereon by the city manager after filing a request for such hearing. After such hearing, the decision of the city manager shall be final. (1960, c. 213)

§ 9.8. Pay plan.

There shall be a pay plan consisting of a salary range for each class of position in the classification plan, which shall provide for regular increments within such range to be earned by length of service upon certification of satisfactory service by the supervisor. Each such range shall be determined with due regard to the salary ranges for other classes and to the relative difficulty and responsibility of characteristic duties of positions in the class, the minimum qualifications required, the prevailing rate paid for similar employment outside the city service, and any other factors that may properly be considered to have a bearing upon the fairness or adequacy of the range. The city manager shall prepare within thirty days after the adoption of the classification plan by the council a pay plan as described above which shall be transmitted to the council, with his recommendations. The council shall have power to adopt the same by ordinance with or without modifications. When so adopted by the council the pay plan shall remain in effect until amended by the council. When a pay plan has been adopted, the council shall not increase or decrease the salaries of individual members of the classified service but shall act in fixing the salaries of members of the classified service only by amendment of the pay plan.

In case of disapproval in any of the instances enumerated above, the commission shall communicate its reason to the council which shall have the power to overrule such action by a recorded vote of not less than two-thirds of its entire membership. The failure of the commission to act within sixty days from the date of the official submission to it shall be deemed approval.

(b) However, the widening, extension, narrowing, enlargement, vacation or change in the use of streets and other public ways, grounds and places within the city, as well as the acquisition by the city of any improved or unimproved land within or without the city for public purposes, or the sale of any improved or unimproved land then held by the city, shall not be referred to or considered by the commission unless the council specifically makes such a referral to the commission and asks for its recommendation. If the council does make such a referral to the commission, the council subsequently shall act on the commission's recommendation by a majority vote of its members, or an affirmative vote of three-fourths of all members if required by the Constitution of this Commonwealth.

(c) The pavement, repavement, reconstruction, improvement, drainage or other work in or upon any existing street or other existing public way shall not be submitted to the commission or otherwise considered by it. (1960, c. 213; 2009, cc. 126, 438)

§ 17.8. Capital budget.

It shall be the duty of the commission to prepare and revise annually a program of capital improvement projects for the ensuing five years, and it shall submit the same annually to the city manager, at such time as he shall direct, together with its recommendations, and estimates of cost of such projects and the means of financing them, to be undertaken in the ensuing fiscal year and in the next four years, as the basis of the capital budget to be submitted to the council by the city manager. In the preparation of its capital budget recommendations, the commission shall consult with the city manager, the heads of departments and interested citizens and organizations, and shall hold such public hearings as it shall deem necessary. (1960, c. 213)

All public officials shall, upon request, furnish to the commission within a reasonable time, such available information as it may require for its work. The commission, its members, officers and employees in the performance of their duties, may enter upon any land in the city and make examinations and surveys, and place and maintain necessary monuments and markers thereon. In general, the commission shall have such powers as may be necessary to enable it to fulfill its function, promote planning and carry out the purposes of this charter. The commission shall make an annual report to the council concerning its activities. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.10. Zoning powers.

In addition to the powers granted elsewhere in this charter, the council shall have the power to adopt by ordinance, a comprehensive zoning plan designed to lessen congestion in streets; secure safety from fire, panic and other danger; promote health, sanitation and general welfare; provide adequate light and air; prevent the overcrowding of land; avoid undue concentration of population; facilitate public and private transportation and the supplying of public utility services and sewage disposal, and facilitate public and private transportation and the supplying of public utility services and sewage disposal, and facilitate provisions for schools, parks, playgrounds and other public improvements and requirements. The comprehensive zoning plan shall include the division of the city into districts with such boundaries as the council deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, and shall provide for the regulation and restriction of the use of land, buildings, and structures in the respective districts and may include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

- (a) It may permit specified uses of land, buildings and structures in the districts and prohibit all other uses.
- (b) It may regulate the heights, area, bulk, size, design and appearance of buildings and structures and the appropriateness of their use in the districts.
- (c) It may establish setback building lines and prescribe the area of land that may be used as front, rear and side yards and courts and open spaces.
- (d) It may restrict the portion of the area of lots that may be occupied by buildings and structures.
- (e) It may prescribe the area of lots and the space in buildings that may be occupied by families.
- (f) It may require that spaces and facilities deemed adequate by the council shall be provided on lots for parking of vehicles in conjunction with permitted uses of land and that spaces and facilities deemed adequate by the council shall be provided on lots for off-street loading or unloading of vehicles.
- (g) It may permit the designed use and development of land not less than ten acres in extent in a manner varying in certain respects from the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district or districts in which such land is situated, provided that such designed use shall be approved by the city planning commission and the council, and adopted as a part of the master plan of the city.
- (h) It may provide that land, buildings and structures and the uses thereof which do not conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district in which they are situated may be continued so long as the then existing or more restricted use continues and so long as the buildings or structures are maintained in their then structural condition; and may require that such buildings or structures and the use thereof shall conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district or districts in which they are situated whenever they are enlarged, extended, reconstructed or structurally altered; and may require that such buildings or structures and the use thereof shall conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district or districts in which they are situated, in any event, within a reasonable period of time to be specified in the ordinance. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.11. Considerations to be observed in adoption of regulations.

The regulations and restrictions shall be enacted with reasonable consideration, among other things of the character of each district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses, and with a view of conserving the value of land, buildings and structures and encouraging the most appropriate use thereof throughout the city. Upon the enactment of the ordinance dividing the city into districts and regulating and restricting the use of land, buildings and structures therein in accordance with a comprehensive zoning plan; no land, building or structure shall be changed from one district to another district unless the change is in accord with the interest and purposes of this section and will not be contrary to the comprehensive zoning plan and the enumerated factors upon which it is based and the regulations and restrictions applicable to the districts involved in the change. (1960, c. 213; 1966, c. 232)

§ 17.11-1. Uniformity of regulations within a district; special use permits.

(a) The regulations and restrictions shall be uniform and shall apply equally to all land, buildings, and structures and to the use and to each class or kind thereof throughout each district but the regulations and restrictions applicable in one district may differ from those provided for other districts.

(b) The council shall have the power to authorize by ordinance adopted by not less than five affirmative votes the use of land, buildings and structures in a district that does not conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for that district and to authorize the issuance of special use permits therefor, whenever it is made to appear that such special use will not be detrimental to the safety, health, morals and general welfare of the community involved, will not tend to create congestion in streets, roads, alleys and other public ways and places in the area involved, will not create hazards from fire, panic or other dangers, will not tend to overcrowding of land and cause an undue concentration of population, will not adversely affect or interfere with public or private schools, parks, playgrounds, water supplies, sewage disposal, transportation or other public requirements, conveniences and improvements, and will not interfere with adequate light and air. No such ordinance shall be adopted until (1) the ordinance has been referred to the city planning commission for investigation of the circumstances and conditions upon which the council is empowered to authorize such use and until the commission has reported to the council the results of such investigation and its recommendations with respect thereto, and (2) until after a public hearing in relation to such ordinance is held by the council at which the persons in interest and all other persons shall have an opportunity to be heard. At least fifteen days notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be given by publication thereof in a daily newspaper of general circulation published in the city. The council shall have the power to require such other notice as it may deem expedient. The city planning commission may recommend and the council may impose such conditions upon the use of the land, buildings and structures as will, in its opinion, protect the community and area involved and the public from adverse effects and detriments that may result therefrom. (1966, c. 232)

§ 17.12. Duties of the city planning commission with relation to zoning.

It shall be the duty of the city planning commission to prepare and submit to the council a comprehensive zoning plan as referred to in § 17.10 and from time to time prepare and submit such changes in or revisions of the said plan as changing conditions may make necessary. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.13. Adoption and amendment of zoning regulations and restrictions; determination of district boundaries, etc.

Subject to the other provisions of this chapter, the council shall have power by ordinance to adopt the regulations and restrictions hereinbefore described and determine the boundaries of the districts in which they shall apply, provide for their enforcement, and from time to time, amend, supplement or repeal the same. The council shall also have authority to provide for the collection of fees to cover at least the costs involved in the consideration of any request for amendment, supplement or repeal of any such regulations, restriction or determination of boundaries, to be paid to the city clerk by the applicant upon filing such request. No such ordinance or amendment shall be adopted until: (a) the ordinance or amendment has been referred to the city planning commission and approved by it, or disapproved by it, subject to overrule by the council, as provided in § 17.7; and (b) until after a public hearing in relation thereto shall be held by the council at which the parties in interest and other persons shall have an opportunity to be heard. At least fifteen days' notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be given by publication thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. (1960, c. 213; 1979, c. 246)

§ 17.14. Effect of protest by twenty per cent of the owners of property.

If a protest is filed with the city clerk against such amendment, supplement or repeal, signed and acknowledged before a person authorized to administer oaths, by the owners of twenty percent or more of the total area of the lots included in such proposed change or of the total area of the lots outside of the proposed change, any point in which is within one hundred and fifty feet of the boundary of such area, the council shall not adopt the ordinance making such amendment, supplement or repeal, except by the votes of two-thirds of the entire council. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.15. Board of zoning appeals; composition.

There shall be a board of zoning appeals which shall consist of five regular members and one alternate. They shall be qualified voters of the city, shall hold no office of profit under the city government and shall be appointed by the council for terms of four years; provided that the members of the board of zoning appeals in office at the effective date of this charter shall continue to hold office until the first day of January following the expiration of the terms for which they were appointed, and the first alternate member shall be appointed to serve until the said date; and provided, further, that the council shall appoint two regular and one alternate member to serve for two years, and three regular members to serve for four years from said date. Thereafter, their successors shall be appointed for full terms of four years. Vacancies shall be filled by the council for the unexpired portion of the term. A regular or alternate member may be removed by the council for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, upon written charges and after public hearing. Members of the board of zoning appeals shall serve without compensation. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.16. Board of zoning appeals; organization.

The board shall elect a chairman and a vice-chairman from among its regular members for a term of one year who shall be eligible for re-election. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the board and, in his absence, the vice-chairman or other member designated by the board shall act as chairman and shall preside. The board shall appoint a secretary and such other employees as may be needed for the conduct of the work of the board. The alternate member may take the place of any regular member who is absent or disqualified, in hearing and determining any matter before the board. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.17. Board of zoning appeals; procedure.

The meetings of the board shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as the board may determine. The board shall keep minutes of its proceedings showing the vote of each member on each question or, if absent, or failing to vote, indicating such fact, and shall keep records of its examinations and other official actions, all of which shall be filed in the office of the board and shall be a public record. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.18. Appeals to board of zoning appeals.

Appeals to the board may be taken by any person aggrieved, or by any officer, department, board, commission or agency of the city affected, by any decision of the administrative officer designated by the council to administer and enforce the ordinance dividing the city districts and regulating and restricting the use of land, buildings and structures therein. Appeals shall be taken within such reasonable time as shall be prescribed by the board by general rule, by filing with the said administrative officer and with the board a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The administrative officer shall forthwith transmit to the board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken. An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from unless the administrative officer from whose decision the appeal is taken certifies to the board that by reason of the facts stated in the certificate a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case, proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the board or by a court of record on application and on notice to the administrative officer and on due cause shown.

The board shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof, as well as due notice to the parties in interest and decide the issue within a reasonable time. At the hearing, any party may appeal in person, by agent, or by attorney, and shall be given an opportunity to be heard. The board may prescribe a fee to be paid whenever an appeal is taken which shall be paid into the city treasury. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.19. Powers of board of zoning appeals.

The board shall have the following powers and it shall be its duty:

- (a) To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order, requirement, decision or determination by the administrative officer in the administration and enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance.
- (b) To grant variations in the regulations when a property owner can show that his property was acquired in good faith and where by reason of the exceptional narrowness, shallowness or shape of a specific piece of property at the time of the effective date of the ordinance or where by reason of the exceptional topographical conditions or other extraordinary or exceptional situation, the strict application of the terms of the ordinance actually prohibit or unreasonable restrict the use of the property, or where the board is satisfied, upon the evidence heard by it, the granting of such variation will alleviate a clearly demonstrable hardship approaching confiscation, as distinguished from a special privilege or convenience sought by the owner; provided, however, that all variations granted shall be in harmony with the intended spirit and purpose of this chapter and the ordinance.
- (c) To permit, when reasonably necessary in the public interest, the use of land, or the construction or use of buildings or structures, in any district in which they are prohibited by the ordinance, by any agency of the city, county or state or the United States, provided such construction or use shall adequately safeguard the health, safety and welfare of the occupants of the adjoining and surrounding property, shall not unreasonably impair an adequate supply of light and air to adjacent property, shall not increase congestion in streets and shall not increase public danger from fire or otherwise affect public safety.
- (d) To permit such other exceptions or grant variances from the strict application of the terms of the zoning regulations under the principles, standards, rules, conditions, and safeguards set forth in the zoning ordinance, provided they are determined to be consistent with the general purpose and intent of such ordinance. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.20. Form and scope of decisions by board of zoning appeals.

In exercising the powers conferred upon it, the board may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from, and may make such order, requirement, decision or determination as should be made and to that end shall have all the powers of the administrative officer charged by the ordinance with enforcement. The concurring affirmative vote of three members of the board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of the administrative officer or to decide in favor of the applicant in any matter of which it has jurisdiction. The board shall act by formal resolution which shall set forth the reason for its decision and the vote of each member participating therein, all of which shall be spread upon its records and shall be open to public inspection. The board may, upon the affirmative vote of three members, reconsider any decision made and, upon such reconsideration, render a decision by formal resolution. Every decision of the board shall be based upon a finding of fact based on sworn testimony, which finding of fact shall be reduced to writing and preserved among its records. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.21. Appeals from board of zoning appeals.

Any person, firm or corporation, jointly or severally aggrieved, or in fact affected by any decision of the board of zoning appeals, or any officer, department, board or agency of the city government charged with the enforcement of any order, requirement or decision of said board, may appeal from such decision by filing a petition in the court of appropriate jurisdiction, verified by affidavit, setting forth the alleged illegality of the action of the board and the grounds thereof. The petition shall be filed within thirty days from the date of the decision of the board. No appeal from the decision of the board shall be allowed in any case involving the same petitioner, principles, property and conditions, previously passed upon by such court. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.22. Procedure on appeal.

Upon filing of the petition, the court may cause a writ of certiorari to issue directed to the board, ordering it to produce within the time prescribed by the court, not less than ten days, the record of its action and documents considered by it in making the decision appealed from, which writ shall be served upon any member of the board. The issuance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, notice to the board and due cause shown, issue a restraining order. The board shall not be required to produce the original record and documents, but it shall be sufficient to produce certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be required by the writ. With the record and documents, the board may concisely set forth in writing such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from, verified by affidavit. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.23. Powers and duties of the court.

The court shall review the record, documents and other matters produced by the board pursuant to the issuance of the writ and may reverse or modify the decision reviewed, in whole or in part, when it is satisfied that the decision of the board is contrary to law or that its decision is arbitrary and constitutes an abuse of discretion. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.24. Proceedings against violators of zoning ordinance.

Whenever any building or structure is erected, constructed, reconstructed, altered, repaired or converted, or whenever any land, building or structure is used in violation of any ordinance adopted in accordance with § 17.13, the city may institute and prosecute appropriate action or proceedings to prevent such unlawful act and to restrain, correct or abate such violation or to prevent any unlawful act, conduct or use of such property. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.25. Penalties for violation of zoning ordinance.

The council may, in such ordinance, provide that fines and jail sentences, either or both, shall be imposed for violations of the ordinance by owners of land, buildings or structures, their agents having possession or control of such property, lessees, tenants, architects, builders, contractors or any other persons, firms or corporations or who maintain any land, building or structure in which such violations exist, which penalties shall not exceed those prescribed in Title 16.1 Chapters 6 and 7 of the Code of Virginia in force on November 1, 1959. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.26. Powers relative to land subdivision generally; contents of subdivision regulations.

In order to provide for the orderly subdivision of land within the city, there is hereby conferred upon the city the power to adopt regulations and restrictions relative to the subdivision of land in the manner hereinafter provided. Such regulations and restrictions may prescribe standards and requirements for the subdivision of land which may include, but shall not be limited to, the following: the location, size and layout of lots so as to prevent congestion of population, to provide for light and air, and to prevent the hazard of inundation, the width, grade, location, alignment and arrangement of streets and sidewalks with relation to other existing streets, planned streets and the master plan; access for fire-fighting apparatus; adequate open spaces; adequate and convenient facilities for vehicular parking; easements for public utilities; reservation or dedication of suitable sites for schools, parks and playgrounds; planting of shade trees and shrubs; naming and designation of streets and other public places; laying out, construction and improving streets, alleys and sidewalks, the installation of public utilities and other physical improvements therein and the conditions under which the cost thereof shall be borne by the developer; and provisions for the guarantee of payment by the developer for the required improvements; procedure for making such special exceptions as may be provided by ordinance to such regulations and restrictions; requirements for preparing and recording plats of subdivisions including their size, scale, contents and other matters; and for the erection of monuments of specified type for making and establishing property and street, alley, sidewalk and other lines. (1960, c. 213; 1979, c. 246)

§ 17.27. Hearing on subdivision ordinance.

The council shall not adopt or amend any ordinance establishing such regulations and restrictions until notice of intention so to do has been published once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The notice shall specify the time, not less than ten days after final publication, and the place at which persons affected may appear before the council and present their views. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.28. Adoption of regulations and restrictions applicable only within the city limits.

After hearing, as above provided, the council may adopt by ordinance any such regulations and restrictions applicable within the limits of the city which, when recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county, shall be in full force and effect. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.29. Appeals of preliminary subdivision plat approvals.

Consistent with applicable regulations and restrictions, the planning commission shall approve or disapprove all submitted preliminary subdivision plats. If a city council member believes that the planning commission has approved a preliminary subdivision plat in violation of a city ordinance, or arbitrarily or capriciously, he may, within 20 days of the commission's approval, appeal the commission's decision to the city council by filing a written appeal with the city manager. The city manager or his designee shall give the subdivider notice of the appeal. The council, within a reasonable period of time, shall hold a hearing on the matter and affirm, modify or reverse the commission's decision. If the subdivider is aggrieved by the council's decision on the preliminary subdivision plat, he may appeal to the circuit court, subject to the same state code provisions that would apply if he was appealing a planning commission decision to the circuit court. (1960, c. 213; 2009, cc. 126, 438)

§ 17.30. Approval of final plat prerequisite to recordation; recordation prerequisite to sale of lots.

From and after the date on which such regulations and restrictions become effective in the city, no final plat of any subdivision to which such regulations and restrictions are applicable shall be received or recorded by the clerk of any court unless the plat has been approved as provided by applicable law. No owner of land in the city in which such regulations and restrictions are applicable, who has subdivided the same into two or more lots, shall sell or offer for sale any such lot by reference to or exhibition of or by the use of a plat of such subdivision or otherwise before the final plat of such subdivision has been approved as provided by applicable law and has been recorded in the office of the clerk of the court or courts in which a deed conveying such lot would be required to be recorded. (1960, c. 213; 2009, cc. 126, 438)

§ 17.31. Penalty for transfer of lots in unapproved subdivisions.

Whoever being the owner or agent of the owner of any land in a subdivision subject to such regulations and restrictions, the plat of which has not been approved and recorded as above provided, shall transfer, sell or offer for sale or agree to sell any lot in such subdivision by reference to or exhibition of an unapproved and unrecorded plat or otherwise, shall forfeit and pay a penalty of $100 for each lot or similar parcel of land transferred or agreed or negotiated to be sold; and the description of such lot or parcel by metes and bounds in the instrument of transfer or other document used in the process of selling or transferring shall not exempt the transaction from such penalty or from the remedies herein provided. The city may enjoin such transfer or sale or agreement by proceedings for injunction brought in a court having jurisdiction of the land to which the injunction applies. The city in which any lot transferred, sold or offered for sale in violation of this chapter is situated, may recover the penalty provided therefor in a civil action brought in a court in whose jurisdiction such lot is situated, for the benefit of the city. In the absence of intent to evade the provisions of this section, the penalty may be waived in the case of an attempted transfer by will. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.32. Transfer of portion for public use.

The recordation of the plat shall operate to transfer in fee simple to the city such portion thereof as is on the plat set apart for streets, alleys, easements or other public use or purpose and to create a public right of passage over or uses of the same. The owner or owners of the land subdivided may construct, reconstruct, operate and maintain with the consent of the city where the land lies, sewer, gas and water pipes or electric lines along or under the streets, alleys, easements or other land devoted to public use further than is reasonably necessary to construct, reconstruct, repair, operate and maintain such works. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.33. Vacation of plats.

Any plat or part thereof recorded may be vacated, with the consent of the council by the owners thereof at any time before the sale of any lot therein, by a written instrument declaring the plat to be vacated, which shall be duly executed, acknowledged and recorded in the clerk's office wherein the plat to be vacated is recorded. The execution and recordation of the instrument shall operate to destroy the force and effect of the recording of the plat and to divest all public rights in and to reinvest the owners with the title to the streets, alleys, easements and other land devoted to public use laid out or described in the plat. In cases where lots have been sold, the plat or part thereof or any unaccepted or abandoned street, or street recommended by the Planning Commission for vacation may be vacated according to the procedure provided in §§ 15-766, 15-766.1, 15-766.2 and 15-766.3 of the Code of Virginia as amended, for the alteration and vacation of streets and alleys. The clerk in whose office any plat so vacated has been recorded shall write in plain, legible letters across the plat or part thereof vacated the word "vacated," and also make a reference on the plat to the volume and page thereof in which the instrument of vacation is recorded. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.34. Use of street for twenty years; dedication.

Whenever any piece, parcel or strip of land shall have been opened to and used by the public as a street, alley, lane or other public place or part thereof for the period of twenty years, the same shall thereby become a street, alley, lane, public place or part thereof for all purposes, and city shall have the same authority and jurisdiction over and right and interest therein that it has by law over the streets, alleys, lanes and public places laid out by it, and thereafter no action shall be brought to recover such piece, parcel or strip of land so opened to and used by the public as aforesaid. Any street, alley, lane or other public place reserved in the division or subdivision into lots within the corporate limits of the city by a plat or plan of record shall be deemed and held to be dedicated to the public use and the council shall have authority, upon the petition of any person or corporation interested therein, to open such street, alley, lane or other public place or any portion of the same. No agreement between, or release of interest by, persons or corporations owning the lands immediately contiguous to any such street, alley, lane or other public place, whether the same has been opened or used by the public or not, shall avail or operate to abolish such street, alley, lane or other public place or to divest the interest of the public therein or the authority of the council over the same. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.35. Present master plan, comprehensive zoning plan and subdivision ordinance.

The master plan, the comprehensive zoning plan, and subdivision ordinance as heretofore adopted, approved and filed, with all amendments, additions and extensions thereto, in force and effect at the effective date of this charter are hereby validated and confirmed as if the same had been prepared, adopted, approved and filed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Every amendment or addition thereto or extension thereof and every other master plan, comprehensive zoning ordinance, or subdivision ordinance henceforth adopted shall be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Where existing ordinances are at variance with the provisions of this chapter, they shall be deemed to be amended in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. (1960, c. 213)

§ 17.36. Vacation of streets, alleys, and easements by agreement of abutting land owners.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, and in addition to any other methods provided by law, any street, alley or easement, or part thereof, shown on a plat of subdivision or other plat, heretofore or hereafter recorded, may be vacated by all owners of properties abutting such street, alley, or easement, or part thereof, to be vacated, by instrument in writing signed by all owners of properties abutting such street, alley, or easement, or part thereof, to be vacated, approved by the city council, acknowledged in the manner of a deed and filed for record in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court. In the case of an alley separating lots or parcels of land within any block bounded by one or more streets, it shall be presumed that only property owners within such block and whose properties abut the alley have any rights or privileges therein. In the case of a street, it shall be presumed that only property owners reasonably needing to use such street as a means of ingress and egress to and from their properties have any rights or privileges therein. As used in this section, the word "street" shall include any road, avenue, drive or parkway; and the word "owners" shall include lien creditors; and as used in this section, the word "easement" shall include drainage easements, sewer easements and other easements of a public nature, not constituting a street, alley or passageway. (1966, c. 232)

Chapter 18. Acquisition of Property for Public Purposes.

§ 18.1. Acquisition, ownership and use of property.

The city shall have, for the purpose of carrying out any of the powers and duties, power to acquire by gift, bequest, purchase or lease, and to own and make use of, within and without the city, lands, buildings, other structures and personal property, including any interest, right, easement or estate therein, and in acquiring such property to exercise, within and without the city, the right of eminent domain as hereinafter provided in this chapter. This power shall be in addition to the powers granted to the school board in § 20.2. (1960, c. 213)

§ 18.2. Eminent domain.

The city is hereby authorized to acquire by condemnation proceedings lands, buildings, structures and personal property or any interest, right, easement or estate therein, of any person or corporation, whenever in the opinion of the council a public necessity exists therefor, which shall be expressed in the resolution or ordinance directing such acquisition, or whether or not such lands, buildings, structures or personal property or interest, right, easement or estate has already been devoted to a public use, and whenever the city cannot agree on terms of purchase or settlement with the owners of the subject of such acquisition because of incapacity of such owner, or because of the inability to agree on the compensation to be paid or other terms of settlement or purchase, or because the owner or some one of the owners is a nonresident of the Commonwealth and cannot with reasonable diligence be found in the Commonwealth or is unknown. Provided, however, when any such property is owned by a corporation authorized to exercise the power of eminent domain, such proceedings will be governed by § 25-233 of the Code of Virginia.

Such proceedings may be instituted in the Circuit Court of the City of Colonial Heights if the subject to be acquired is located within the city, or, if it is not located within the city, in the circuit court of the county in which it is located. If the subject is situated partly within the city and partly within any county the circuit court of such county shall have concurrent jurisdiction in such condemnation proceedings with the Circuit Court of the City of Colonial Heights. The judge or the court exercising such concurrent jurisdiction shall appoint five disinterested freeholders any or all of whom reside either in the county or city, any three of whom may act as commissioners, as provided by law. (1960, c. 213; 1962, c. 467)

§ 18.3. Alternative procedures in condemnation.

The city may, in exercising the right of eminent domain conferred by the preceding section, make use of the procedure prescribed by the general law as modified by said section or may elect to proceed as hereinafter provided. In the latter event the resolution or ordinance directing acquisition of any property, as set forth in the preceding section, shall provide therein in a lump sum the total funds necessary to compensate the owner or owners thereof for such property to be acquired or damaged. Upon the adoption of such resolution or ordinance the city may file a petition in the clerk's office of a court enumerated in the preceding section, having jurisdiction of the subject, which shall be signed by the city manager or the city attorney and set forth the interest or estate or estate to be taken in the property and the uses and purposes for which the property or the interest or estate therein is wanted, or when property is not to be taken but is likely to be damaged, the necessity for the work or improvement which will cause or is likely to cause such damage. There shall also be filed with the petition a plat of a survey of the property with a profile, if pertinent to the question of damage to remaining property of the owner or owners, showing cuts and fills, trestles and bridges, if any, and a description of the property which, or an interest or estate in which, is sought to be taken or likely to be damaged and a memorandum showing names and residences of the owners and tenants of the property, if known, and showing also the quantity of property which, or an interest or estate in which, is sought to be taken or which will be or is likely to be damaged. There shall be filed also with said petition a notice directed to the owners and tenants of the property, if known, copies of which shall be served on such owners and tenants of the freehold of such property, if known. If the owner or tenant of the freehold be unknown or a nonresident of the Commonwealth or cannot with reasonable diligence be found in the Commonwealth, or if the residence of the owner or tenant be unknown, he may be proceeded against by order of publication which order, however, need not be published more than once a week for two successive weeks and shall be posted at a main entrance to the courthouse. The publication shall in all other respects conform to §§ 8-71, 8-72 and 8-76 of the Code of Virginia, of 1950, as amended.

Upon the filing of said petition and the deposit of the funds provided by the council for the purpose in a bank to the credit of the court in such proceedings and the filing of a certificate of deposit therefor the interest or estate of the owner of such property shall terminate and the title to such property or the interest or estate to be taken in such property shall be vested absolutely in the city and such owner shall have such interest or estate in the funds so deposited as he had in the property taken or damaged and all liens by deed of trust, judgment or otherwise upon said property or estate shall be transferred to such funds and the city shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of such property for its uses and purposes and to construct its works or improvements. The clerk of the court in which such proceeding is instituted shall make and certify a copy of the petition, exhibits filed therewith, and orders, and deliver or transmit the same to the clerk of the court in which deeds are admitted to record, who shall record the same in his deed book and index them in the name of the person or persons who had the property before and in the name of the city for which he shall receive the same fees prescribed for recording a deed, which shall be paid by the city. From the funds so paid into court or to the clerk thereof, the court shall, at the request of the owner, pay any indebtedness of the owner which is a lien upon such property and is evidenced by a deed of trust or other instrument duly recorded; provided, that not in excess of ninety per centum of the money paid into court or to the clerk may be so used, and provided further, that if the award of the court in condemnation proceedings be less than the amount so paid, the city may recover the excess from any person to whom the same has been paid. The balance of such money shall be held by the court for disposition in accordance with the order of the court in the condemnation proceedings.

If the city and the owner of property so taken or damaged agree upon compensation therefor, upon filing such agreement in writing in the clerk's office of such court the court or judge thereof in vacation shall make such distribution of such funds as to it may seem right, having due regard to the interest of all persons therein whether such interest be vested, contingent or otherwise, and to enable the court or judge to make a proper distribution of such money it may in its discretion direct inquiries to be taken by a special commissioner in order to ascertain what persons are entitled to such funds and in what proportions and may direct what notice shall be given of the making of such inquiries by such special commissioner.

If the city and owner cannot agree upon the compensation for the property taken or damaged, if any, upon the filing of a memorandum in the clerk's office of said court to that effect, signed by either the city or the owner, the court shall appoint commissioners provided for in § 25-12 of the Code of Virginia or as provided for in § 18.2 of this chapter, and all proceedings thereafter shall be had as provided in §§ 25-12 through 25-38 of the Code of Virginia insofar as they are then applicable and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this and the preceding sections, and the court shall order the deposit in the bank to the credit of the court of such additional funds as appear to be necessary to cover the award of the commissioners or shall order the return to the city of such funds deposited that are not necessary to compensate such owners for property taken or damaged. The commissioners so appointed shall not consider improvements placed upon the property by the city subsequent to the bringing of any proceeding for the condemnation of such property, whether the same shall have been dismissed or not nor the value thereof nor the enhancement of the value of said property by said improvements in making their award. (1960, c. 213; 1962, c. 467)

§ 18.4. Enhancement in value when considered.

In all cases under the provisions of §§ 18.2 and 18.3, the enhancement, if any, in value of the remaining property of the owner by reason of the construction or improvement contemplated or made by the city, shall be offset against the damage, if any, resulting to such remaining property of such owner by reason of such construction or improvement, provided such enhancement in value shall not be offset against the value of the property taken, and provided further, that if such enhancement in value shall exceed the damage, there shall be no recovery over against the owner for such excess. (1960, c. 213)

§ 18.5. Disposition of remaining money in condemnation proceedings.

Whenever any money shall have remained for five years in the custody or under the control of any of the courts enumerated in § 18.2 in any condemnation proceeding instituted therein by the city, without any claim having been asserted thereto such court shall, where the amount is $100 or more, cause a publication to be made once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the city, setting forth the amount of such money, the source from which it was derived and the proceeding in which it is held, and requiring all persons having any claim to said money to appear before said court within such time after the completion of the publication as the court may prescribe, and establish their claim. If the sum be less than $100, the court shall direct the same to be paid into the treasury of the city, and proper receipt for the payment taken and filed among the records of the proceeding. If no person shall appear and show title in himself the court shall order the money, after deducting therefrom the costs of such publication if such publication is made, and any other proper charges, to be paid into the treasury of the city and a proper receipt for the payment to be taken and filed among the records of the proceeding. The director of finance shall, in a book provided for the purpose, keep an account of all money thus paid into the city treasury, showing the amount thereof, when, by whom, and under what order it was paid, and the name of the court and, as far as practicable, a description of the suit or proceeding in which the order was made and, as far as known, the names of the parties entitled to said funds. Money thus paid into the treasury of the city shall be paid out on the order of the court having jurisdiction of the proceeding, to any person entitled thereto who had not asserted a claim therefor in the proceeding in which it was held, upon satisfactory proof that he is entitled to such money. If such claim be established the net amount thereof, after deducting costs and other proper charges, shall be paid to the claimant out of the treasury of the city on the warrant of the director of finance. No claim to such money shall be asserted after ten years from the time when such court obtained control thereof, provided, however, if the person having such claim was an infant, insane, or imprisoned at the time the claim might have been presented or asserted by such person, claim to such money may be asserted within five years after the removal of such disability. (1960, c. 213; 1962, c. 467)
