If the member or members, or any of them, designated in such petition file with the clerk of the council, within five days after the last mentioned notice from the clerk of the circuit court of the city his or their written resignation or resignations, the clerk of the council shall at once notify the clerk of the circuit court of the city of that fact, and such resignation or resignations shall be irrevocable and shall be filed and preserved in the offices of the clerk of the council; and the council shall proceed to fill the vacancy or vacancies, subject to the provisions of Section 5 of this charter. In the absence of notice from the clerk of the council that such resignation or resignations have been filed, as aforesaid, the clerk of the circuit court of the city shall, upon the expiration of the period of five days, forthwith present to the court the copies with his certificate as to the percentage of voters whose names are signed thereto, and a certificate as to the date of the service of the notice given by him to the member or members designated in the petition, as above provided. And, thereupon, the court shall forthwith enter an order calling and fixing a date for holding a recall election for the removal of the member or members named in the petition who have not resigned as aforesaid. Any such election shall be held in accordance with the provisions of § 24.1-165 of the Code of Virginia. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.11. Ballots and effect of voting.

The ballots of such recall election shall provide, with respect to each person whose removal is sought, the following question: "Shall (name of person) be removed from the office of councilman by recall?" In all other respects the election shall be held in accordance with general law.

In any election, if the majority of the votes cast on the question of the removal of any member are affirmative, such member shall be deemed removed from office upon the ascertainment and certification of the results of such election as in other special elections, and the vacancy or vacancies caused by such recall shall be filled by the remainder of the council, according to the provisions of Section 5 of this charter. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.12. Effect of resignations pending proceedings for the recall of the whole council.

No proceedings for the recall of all of the members of the council at the same election shall be defeated in whole or in part by the resignation of any of them or all of them; but in any such case upon the resignation of any of them, the remaining members of council or if a majority of the members of council resign, then the circuit court, as provided for in § 15.1-808 of the Code of Virginia (1950), as amended, shall have the power, and it shall be their duty or the court's duty, as the case may be, forthwith to fill such vacancy or vacancies temporarily until successors are elected, and the proceedings for the recall and the election of successors shall continue and have the same effect as though there had been no resignation. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.13. Miscellaneous provisions.

No petition to recall any member shall be filed within one year after he assumes the duties of his office.

The method of removal herein provided shall not be deemed or held to be exclusive, but it is in addition to such other methods as are now or may hereafter be provided by general law. (1982, c. 398)

General Provisions Relating to Initiative, Referendum and Recall.

§ 19.14. Elections.

All municipal elections shall be conducted, and the results canvassed and certified by the regular election officials provided by the general election laws of the Commonwealth; and except as otherwise provided by this charter, all such elections shall be governed by the general election laws. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.15. Petitions.

All petitions referred to in this charter shall be signed in ink or indelible pencil by the voter in person and not by agent or attorney. Each person signing any such petition shall print opposite his signature his full name and his place of residence by street and number. The signatures to any such petition need not all be appended to one paper, but to each such paper (except in the case of copies of recall petitions, which may not be circulated) there shall be attached an affidavit by the circulator thereof stating that each signature appended thereto is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be, and that it was made in the presence of the affiant. All copies of any such petition shall be treated as originals. No such petition shall be deemed invalid by reason of the fact that it is signed by one or more persons who are not voters, but the names of such persons shall not be counted. As used in this charter the term "voter," "qualified voter" and "registered voter" are synonymous. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.16. Presumptions.

All signatures to any petition referred to in this charter shall be accepted and treated as prima facie genuine. For the purpose of certifying the number of voters whose names are signed to any such petition, the clerk of the circuit court of the city shall presume that any person whose name appears thereon is a voter if such person be a voter within the meaning of § 19.17 hereof. All such petitions substantially complying with the requirements of this charter, and certified by the clerk of the circuit court to bear the required number of signatures of voters, shall be accepted and treated as prima facie sufficient. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.17. Qualifications of persons signing certain petitions.

Any person shall be deemed to be a voter for the purpose of signing any petition referred to in this charter if the name of such person is on the registration books maintained by the general registrar of the city on the date such petition is filed with the appropriate official. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.18. Duty of city attorney.

Before any ordinance or amendment proposed by popular petition shall be submitted to the council, it shall first be approved as to form by the city attorney, whose duty it shall be to draft such proposed ordinance or amendment in proper legal language, and to render such other service to persons desiring to propose such ordinances or amendments as shall be necessary to make the same proper for consideration by the council. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.19. Offenses.

No person shall:

- A. Falsely impersonate another in the signing of any petition for initiative, referendum or recall, or forge any name thereto, or deface, destroy or remove from any of the places designated in this charter any copy of a petition for recall with intent to interfere with or defeat such recall;
- B. Sign any petition for initiative, referendum or recall with knowledge that he is not qualified voter of the city; or purposely write his name or residence falsely in the signing of any such petition; or sign or intentionally permit to be signed any petition for recall at any other place than hereinbefore designated for the signing of such petitions; or employ or pay another or accept employment on the basis of the number of signatures subscribed thereto, or for circulating any petition permitted by this charter to be circulated.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

The foregoing provisions shall not be deemed or held to be exclusive of, but in addition to, all laws of the Commonwealth prescribing penalties for the same offenses, or for other offenses relating to the same matter. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.20. Compensation of clerk of the circuit court.

For his services in connection with any proceedings under the foregoing sections relating to the initiative, referendum and recall, the clerk of the circuit court of the city shall be paid by the city such reasonable fees as are now or may hereafter be provided by law for similar services in other cases. (1982, c. 398)

§ 20. Oaths of office.

The members of the city council and all other officers of the city, whether elected by the people or appointed by the council, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, shall be sworn in accordance with the laws of the State. Such oaths may be administered by the clerk of council, the judge or clerk of the circuit court or by any person competent to administer an oath under the laws of the State; and a certificate of such oaths having been taken shall be filed by each officer with the clerk of the council, who shall enter the same upon the journal of the council. If any person appointed or elected to any office in said city, shall neglect to take such oath as required by law, his office shall be deemed vacant, and there shall be another appointment or election for the same. (1928, c. 343; 1999, c. 172)

§ 21. All persons elected by the people to fill any municipal office, shall enter upon the duties thereof at the time prescribed by the general laws of the Commonwealth, and shall respectively continue in office until their successors have qualified. (1928, c. 343)

§ 22. The council shall designate such officers and employees of the city as shall give to the city bonds, with securities to be approved by the council, conditioned so as to secure the faithful discharge of their official duties, and the several penalties of said bonds shall be the sums the council, by ordinance, shall prescribe; provided that the securities of the treasurer, collector, commissioner of revenue and high constable, respectively, shall be equally liable for the acts of his deputy or deputies as for those of their principals.

The bonds provided for under this section are only to secure the faithful discharge of duties to the city, and in no wise are to supersede the official bonds of the Commonwealth required of any of said officials by law. All official bonds given by municipal officers and employees shall be filed with the clerk of the corporation court. (1928, c. 343)

§ 23. In case of default on the part of any bonded municipal officer, the city shall have the same remedies upon his bond against him and his sureties as are provided for the Commonwealth in enforcing the penalty of any official bond given to it. (1928, c. 343)

Chapter V. Corporation, Circuit and Municipal Courts, Bail Commissioners.

§ 24. The jurisdiction of the corporation and the circuit courts of the city shall extend to the corporate limits thereof and to a space of one mile without and around said limits, except that the same shall not extend into the county of Amherst beyond the corporate limits; and any judgment, order or decree of the said corporation court or of the said circuit court for the city of Lynchburg heretofore made in any case, in which the said court would have had jurisdiction had this act been in operation, shall have the same effect as if this act had been at that time in force. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167)

§ 25. The city council, in the month of September, 1943 and each four years thereafter, shall elect an officer, who at the time of his election shall be an attorney-at-law, licensed to practice in this Commonwealth for at least five years, who shall be called the Judge of the Municipal Court of said city, whose term of office shall begin on the January 1 succeeding his election, and shall continue for four years thereafter; his salary shall be fixed by the council and paid out of the city treasury in monthly installments and shall not be diminished during his term of office. The present judge of the municipal court shall be the judge of the municipal court until the expiration of the term for which he was elected and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. The council may elect to the position of judge of the municipal court the same person who holds the position of judge of the municipal civil court. The city council shall provide a suitable court room and office for the judge of the municipal court and shall furnish all necessary furniture, books and stationery. Such furniture, books and stationery shall be under the control of the judge of the municipal court, but shall remain the property of the city. (1928, c. 343; 1930, c. 11; 1942, c. 167)

§ 26. The judge of the municipal court shall have all the powers and duties in all criminal matters as by the laws of this Commonwealth are, or may be, conferred upon justices of the peace, and the same power to hold commissions to ascertain insanity, inebriety, addiction to drugs, feeble-mindedness, and epilepsy, and to enforce the laws of the Commonwealth relating thereto, as are now or may hereafter be conferred by state law upon justices of the peace, trial justices or courts of record or the judges thereof, and in addition to such powers and duties, it shall be his duty and he shall have jurisdiction to enforce the penal laws of the Commonwealth, the city ordinances of the city and resolutions of the council, and shall further have the same jurisdiction in all aforesaid matters as the civil and police justices of the cities of Virginia under the laws of the Commonwealth, and especially as set forth in section three thousand one hundred and two (3102) of the Code of Virginia. The said judge of the municipal court shall act as and serve as judge of the juvenile and domestic relations court of said city and shall have and exercise all powers conferred by general state laws upon such courts and the judges thereof. The said judge of the municipal court shall expressly have original jurisdiction and power to hear, try and dispose of, subject to appeal from his judgment and decision as hereinafter provided, charges of misdemeanor for violation of the laws of the Commonwealth, and to hold preliminary hearings upon charges of felony for violation of the laws of the Commonwealth and to send on to the grand jury those charged with felony against whom he finds probable cause and to discharge those charged with felony as to whom he does not find probable cause of guilt. He shall expressly have exclusive original jurisdiction and power to hear, try and dispose of, subject to appeal from his judgment and decision as hereinafter provided, all charges of violation of the ordinances of said city and resolutions of the city council. And he shall have power to issue such warrants of arrest, search warrants, summons, capias, mittimus, and other process and papers as may be proper in enforcing the aforesaid laws, ordinances and resolutions and his judgments and decisions. And he shall have the power and jurisdiction within the said city to admit to bail persons charged with crime in all cases where the courts of record of this Commonwealth or the judges thereof are by general state law authorized to admit to bail, except he shall not admit to bail any person whose application therefor has been refused by a court of record or judge thereof or while such application for bail is pending before a court of record or judge thereof. In the enforcing of laws of the Commonwealth relating to misdemeanors and the city ordinances and resolutions of the council, he shall have power to impose, enforce and collect all fines and penalties and to impose and inflict such other punishment as by such laws, ordinances or resolutions are provided. His territorial jurisdiction or venue shall extend throughout the corporate limits of the city and for one mile beyond those limits, except that the same shall not extend into the county of Amherst beyond the corporate lines of the city. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167)

§ 26-A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this charter, the council shall appoint or elect a person who at the time of his election shall be an attorney at law, who shall have been licensed to practice law in this Commonwealth for at least five years, who shall be known as the judge of the juvenile and domestic relations court of the city, whose term of office shall begin the first day of the month following his election and shall continue for six years thereafter; his salary shall be fixed by the city council and paid out of the city treasury in monthly, bi-weekly or weekly installments, and shall not be diminished during his term of office.

The assistant judge of the municipal court, or, if he be unavailable, the substitute assistant judge of the municipal court, shall be authorized to act in all matters in the place, room and stead of the said judge of the juvenile and domestic relations court in case of absence from the city or inability to act on the part of the judge of the said juvenile and domestic relations court or during the annual vacation of said judge; and the compensation for so acting shall be fixed by the council and paid out of the city treasury. The assistant judge of the municipal court, or the substitute assistant judge of the municipal court, independently of whether either be acting for the judge of the juvenile and domestic relations court or not, shall, subject to the general supervision and control of the judge of the juvenile and domestic relations court, have at all times the same authority and power with respect to the admitting to bail and the issuing of warrants, summons, process, capias, and other proper papers as to matters within the jurisdiction of the juvenile and domestic relations court as such officers now possess with respect to bail and the issuance of such papers as to matters within the jurisdiction of the municipal court. The judge of the juvenile and domestic relations court shall hold court at such times as the council may by ordinance or resolution provide, and the city council shall further have the authority to provide by ordinance or resolution for the trial of juvenile cases coming before said court separate and apart from domestic relations cases.

Any vacancy in the office of such judge shall be filled for the unexpired term in the manner prescribed herein for original appointments or election to such office.

The judge of the juvenile and domestic relations court shall have the same powers, jurisdiction, duties, rights, privileges, and the same method of qualification as are now conferred and provided for by general state laws upon such courts in this Commonwealth and the judges thereof.

The present judge of the juvenile and domestic relations court shall continue in office until the expiration of the term for which he was appointed or elected, and upon the expiration of his term and of each successive term thereafter, a successor shall be appointed or elected for the term and in the manner prescribed herein. (1947, c. 5; 1958, c. 156)

§ 27. An appeal may be taken, as a matter of right, to the corporation court of said city from any judgment or decision of the judge of the municipal court imposing any fine, penalty, imprisonment, or other punishment, for violation of any penal laws of the Commonwealth. And from his judgment or decision

imposing any fine, penalty, imprisonment, or other punishment, for any infraction of a city ordinance or resolution of the council, an appeal may be taken, as a matter of right, to the said corporation court, except in cases where the penalty imposed is a fine not exceeding twenty dollars, in which case his judgment or decision shall be final. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167)

§ 28. The said court, and the judge thereof, shall have power to enforce the payment of any fine or penalty imposed by the said court for any violation of a city ordinance or resolution, or of any state law, by imprisonment in the city jails or by committing any person convicted by said court to the city farm. (1928, c. 343)

§ 29. Said judge shall hold court each day (except Saturdays and Sundays, and such holidays as may be specified by council, and such days as he may set apart for the trial of juvenile and domestic relations cases when he is sitting as judge of such court), to take cognizance of such cases as may be brought before him under the laws of the Commonwealth or the ordinances of the city. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167; 1968, c. 22)

§ 30. When the judge of the municipal court is elected, the city council shall also elect an assistant judge of the municipal court whose term of office shall coincide with that of the judge of the municipal court, and who shall be an attorney-at-law licensed to practice in this Commonwealth, and who in case of the absence from the city or inability to act on the part of the judge of the municipal court, shall act in all matters in the place, room and stead of the said judge of the municipal court, and who when so acting shall possess the same powers and discharge the same duties as said judge; and his salary for so acting shall be fixed by the council and paid out of the city treasury. And in addition, the said assistant judge of the municipal court, independently of whether he be acting for the judge of the municipal court or not, shall at all times have the same power to issue warrants and to admit to bail as is hereinafter provided for bail commissioners, and at all times have the same powers as the judge of the municipal court in matters relating to lunacy, inebriacy, drug addicts, feeble-mindedness and epilepsy, and in matters relating to the issuing of summons, mittimus, process, capias and other proper papers; and for his services in issuing warrants, admitting to bail or in connection with matters of lunacy, inebriacy, drug addicts, feeble-mindedness or epilepsy, he shall receive the same fees and from the same sources as allowed under the general laws of the Commonwealth to other officers for performing similar services. The present assistant judge of the municipal court shall be the assistant judge of the municipal court and fill that office until the expiration of the term for which he was elected and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. The city council may elect one or more attorneys-at-law licensed to practice in this Commonwealth as substitute assistant judges of the municipal court to act in case of the absence from the city or inability to act on the part of the assistant judge of the municipal court, who when so acting shall have all the powers and duties of the assistant judge of the municipal court. And the council may fix their terms of office and provide for and fix their compensation. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167; 1970, c. 9)

§ 31. Any vacancy in the office of judge of the municipal court or of the assistant judge of the municipal court or of the substitute assistant judge thereof may be filled by election by the city council; and the person or persons thus elected shall serve for the unexpired term of their predecessor and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167)

§ 32. The said judge of the municipal court shall appoint a clerk of said court who shall hold office at the pleasure of said judge and shall receive such salary as may be fixed by the city council. Said clerk shall also act as clerk of the domestic relations and juvenile court and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned him. The said judge of the municipal court may also appoint a deputy clerk, who shall hold office at the pleasure of said judge, and who if appointed, shall have the same powers and duties as the clerk of said court and shall receive such salary as may be fixed by the city council. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167)

§ 33. The city council shall have authority to appoint from such of the qualified voters of the city not more than five persons, who shall, when appointed, be called bail commissioners, whose respective terms of office shall begin on the January 1 succeeding their respective appointment and shall continue for four years thereafter.

All said bail commissioners, if appointed, shall each, at all times, have the same authority and power as the judge of the municipal court to issue search warrants and warrants of arrest for violation of the criminal laws of the Commonwealth and penal ordinances of the city, and each of said bail commissioners shall at all times have power and jurisdiction within the said city to admit to bail persons charged with crime in all cases where the courts of record or the judges thereof are authorized to admit to bail; but none of said bail commissioners shall issue any such warrants nor admit any persons to bail after any court of record having jurisdiction in the matter, or the judge thereof, or the judge of the municipal court of the city, has acted upon the application for such warrant or bail nor while the application for such warrant or bail is pending before such court or judge.

The council shall have authority by ordinance to provide such rules and regulations governing the work and duties of the said bail commissioners as it may deem proper and shall fix the fees and compensation of such bail commissioners as it may deem proper. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167; 1970, c. 9)

§ 34. The city council, in the month of September, 1943, and each fourth year thereafter, shall elect an officer, who at the time of his election shall be an attorney-at-law licensed to practice law in this Commonwealth for at least five years, who shall be called the judge of the municipal civil court of said city, whose term of office shall begin on the January 1 succeeding his election, and shall continue for four years thereafter and until his successor shall be elected and qualified; his salary shall be fixed by the city council and paid out of the city treasury, by monthly instalments, and shall not be diminished during his term of office. The present judge of the municipal civil court shall be the judge of said municipal civil court until the expiration of the term for which he was elected and until his successor is elected and qualified. The council may elect to the position of judge of the municipal civil court the same person who holds the position of judge of the municipal court. Said judge of the municipal civil court shall give bond in the penalty of $2,500 with such security as may be approved by the council, payable to the city of Lynchburg with a condition for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167)

§ 35. When the judge of the municipal civil court is elected, the council shall also elect an assistant judge of the municipal civil court who shall be an attorney-at-law licensed to practice in this Commonwealth whose term of office shall coincide with that of the judge of the municipal civil court. In the event of the inability of the judge of the municipal civil court to perform the duties of his office by reason of sickness, absence, vacation, or otherwise, such assistant judge of the municipal civil court shall perform the duties of the office during such absence or disability and shall receive for his services such compensation as may be fixed by the city council. While acting as such judge of the municipal civil court either the judge of the municipal civil court or the assistant judge of the municipal civil court may issue warrants, executions upon, grant new trials, hear motions and perform other acts in reference to the judgments and proceedings of the other in the same manner as if they were his own. The present assistant judge of the municipal civil court shall be assistant judge of the municipal civil court until the expiration of the term for which he was elected and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167)

§ 36. Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the municipal civil court or assistant judge of the municipal civil court may be filled by election by the city council. The person or persons thus elected shall serve for the unexpired term and until their successor shall be elected and qualified. In case of absence from the city, or inability to act, on the part of either the judge of the municipal civil court or the assistant judge of the municipal civil court, the city council may designate some person to act in the place of said judges, who when acting, shall possess the same powers and discharge the same duties as such judges. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167)

§ 36-a. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall appoint a clerk and may appoint a deputy clerk for said court, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the said judge and shall receive such salary as may be fixed by the city council. Such clerk shall be a conservator of the peace within said city, and shall as such clerk issue warrants, executions, garnishments, writs of possession, summons for witnesses, summons on interrogatories, copies of orders in attachment cases, abstracts of judgments and all other processes original, mesne and final, which might or could be issued by the judge of the municipal civil court himself. Such clerk shall keep the docket and accounts for the municipal civil court, shall collect all fees and regularly deposit all moneys collected by him, and shall give bond in the sum of $2,500 for the faithful performance of his duties as such clerk. Such clerk shall make a monthly report to the city auditor showing all fees collected by him as such clerk and shall pay monthly to the collector of the city of Lynchburg all fees collected by him. Such clerk shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the judge of the municipal civil court. He shall be allowed annually, a vacation period of two weeks with pay. If a deputy clerk is appointed for said court as provided herein, said deputy clerk shall exercise all the powers and duties herein given to said clerk. (1942, c. 167)

§ 36-b. The city council shall provide a suitable courtroom and office for the judge of the municipal civil court and shall furnish all necessary furniture, books and stationery. Such books and furniture shall be under the control of the judge of the municipal civil court, but shall remain the property of the city. (1942, c. 167)

§ 36-c. The high constable of the city of Lynchburg shall act as bailiff of said municipal civil court and shall have charge of the courtroom thereof. He shall also call the docket of said court and while exercising his duties as bailiff shall have all the powers, rights, and duties of a police officer of the city of Lynchburg. (1942, c. 167)

§ 36-d. The municipal civil court shall be presided over by the judge thereof and shall be held in such places as shall be designated by the city council and shall be held at least three days each week to take cognizance of such cases as may be brought before it. (1942, c. 167)

§ 36-e. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall have all the powers and duties of a justice of the peace, and of trial justices in civil matters, and of civil justices and shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit and corporation courts of the city of Lynchburg, in all actions at law where the amount in controversy does not exceed $1,000 exclusive of interest and costs. In furtherance of the aforesaid jurisdiction, powers and duties, but not in limitation thereof, the said judge of the municipal civil court, where the amount in controversy does not exceed $1,000 exclusive of interest and costs, shall have the specific jurisdiction, powers and duties as follows:

1. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of any claim to specific personal property or to any debt, fine or other money, or to damages for breach of contract, or for any injury done to property, real or personal, or for any injury to the person which would be recoverable by action at law when the amount of such claim does not exceed $200, exclusive of interest and costs.
2. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall have the same jurisdiction in actions of unlawful entry and detainer as a court of record of general jurisdiction.
3. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine and to enter the proper orders on petitions for the enforcement of any lien on personal property.
4. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall have jurisdiction to try and decide attachment cases.

5. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall have jurisdiction to decide controversies arising out of distress warrants issued by said judge of the municipal civil court.

6. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall have the power and jurisdiction in any action or suit pending in said municipal civil court wherein an infant, idiot, or lunatic is a party, to approve and confirm a compromise of matters in controversy on behalf of such infant, idiot, or lunatic, if said compromise shall be deemed to be to the interest of the infant, idiot, or lunatic; and any order or decree approving and confirming any such compromise shall be binding upon such infant, idiot, or lunatic, except that the same may be set aside for fraud; and he shall have the same power and jurisdiction as a court of record of general jurisdiction to order the disposition of any such sum found to be due said infant, idiot, or lunatic.

7. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall have the same power as a court of record of general jurisdiction to issue summons in interrogatories and to determine issues arising therefrom, when the fieri facias upon any final judgment heretofore or hereafter rendered was issued by him.

8. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall have the same power as a court of record of general jurisdiction to issue summons in interrogatories to adverse parties or claimants and to determine issues arising therefrom. The procedure hereunder shall be the same as provided for courts of record of general jurisdiction.

9. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall have the power to recognize witnesses to appear at a subsequent date to give testimony in any case; and to issue subpoenas duces tecum, and to punish for contempt any failure to appear or produce the papers required. In order to procure the subpoenas duces tecum, the party applying therefor, must present an affidavit of himself or someone for him describing the desired papers with reasonable certainty and naming the person who is desired to produce the same, and stating that to the best of affiant's belief, the papers are relevant to the trial of the case.

10. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall have the same powers in matters of contempt as are conferred on courts and judges by the general law, but in no case shall the fine exceed fifty dollars nor shall imprisonment exceed ten days for the same contempt. From any such fine or sentence, an appeal shall be allowed as a matter of right to the corporation court of the city of Lynchburg, Virginia.

11. The said judge of the municipal civil court shall have the power and jurisdiction to try any statutory interpleader. (1942, c. 167)

§ 36-f. In any case in which the judge of the municipal civil court is given jurisdiction, the procedure of a court of record shall be followed unless otherwise herein provided, except that all cases shall be tried by said judge of the municipal civil court without the intervention of a jury.

1. Procedure before said judge of the municipal civil court, wherever practicable, shall conform to the chapter of the Code of Virginia of 1919, as now or hereafter amended, concerning warrants for small claims, except that either party may require the adverse party to file the particulars of his claim or the grounds of defense, as provided by general law, and except that the proceedings in a case wherein an infant or insane person is a party shall not be stayed because of such infancy or insanity, but the judge of the municipal civil court before whom such suit is pending, shall appoint some discreet and competent attorney-at-law as guardian ad litem for such infant or insane defendant, whether such defendant shall have been served with process or not, or, if no such attorney be found willing to act, the judge of the municipal civil court shall appoint some other discreet and proper person as guardian ad litem, who shall faithfully represent the interest or estate of the infant or insane person for whom he is appointed; but the said guardian ad litem so appointed shall not be liable for costs. Any warrant issued hereunder shall be served on the defendant not less than five nor more than thirty days from the return day thereof, unless service of such warrant shall be accepted or waived by the defendant or his counsel.
2. The judge or the court exercising such concurrent jurisdiction shall appoint five disinterested freeholders, any or all of whom may reside either in such county or in the city, any three of whom may act, as provided by law.

(2) In addition to the procedure prescribed by general law for the exercise of the power of eminent domain, the council of the city may, by such ordinance or resolution, direct the acquisition of such property and provide therein in a lump sum the total estimated necessary funds to compensate the owners thereof for the property or properties to be acquired or damaged. Upon the adoption of such ordinance or resolution the city may file a petition in the clerk's office of any of the courts hereinbefore enumerated, which shall be signed by the mayor, vice-mayor or city manager and shall set forth the interest or estate to be taken in the property and the uses and purposes for which the property or the interest or estate therein is wanted, or when no property is to be taken but is likely to be damaged, the necessity for the work of improvement which will cause or is likely to cause damage to the property or estate of any person. There shall also be filed with the petition a plat of a survey of the property with a profile showing cuts and fills, trestles and bridges, if any, and a description of the property which, or an interest or estate in which, is sought to be taken or likely to be damaged and a memorandum showing the names and residences of the owners of the property, if known, and showing also the quantity of property which, or an interest or estate in which, is sought to be taken or will be or is likely to be damaged. There shall be filed also with said petition a notice directed to the owners of the property, if known, copies of which shall be served on such owners or on tenants of the freehold of such property, if known. If such owner or tenant of the freehold be unknown or a nonresident of the Commonwealth and cannot with reasonable diligence be found in this Commonwealth, or if the residence of such owner or tenant be unknown, he may be proceeded against by order of publication, which order, however, need not be published more than once a week for two successive weeks and shall be posted at a main entrance to the courthouse. The publication shall in all other respects conform to §§ 8-71, 8-72, 8-76 and 25-46.10 of the Code of Virginia. Upon the filing of said petition and the deposit of the funds provided by the council for the purpose, in a bank to the credit of the court in such proceedings and the filing of a certificate of deposit therefor, the interest or estate of the owner of such property shall terminate and the title to such property or interest or estate of the owner shall be absolutely vested in the city in fee simple, and such owner shall have such interest or estate in the funds so deposited as he had in the property taken or damaged and all liens by deed of trust, judgment or otherwise upon said property or estate shall be transferred to such funds and the city shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of such property for its uses and purposes and to construct its works of improvement.

The clerk of the court in which such proceeding is instituted, unless such court shall also be the court in which deeds are admitted to record, shall make and certify a copy of the petition, and any exhibits filed therewith, notice and orders and deliver or transmit the same to the clerk of the court in which deeds are admitted to record. The clerk of the court in which deeds are admitted to record shall record the same in his deed book and index them in the name of the person or persons who had the property before and in the name of the city, for which he shall receive the same fees prescribed for recording a deed, which shall be paid by the city. If the city and the owner of property so taken or damaged agree upon compensation therefor upon filing such agreement in writing in the clerk's office of such court, the court or judge thereof in vacation shall make such distribution of such funds as to it may seem right, having due regard to the interest of all persons therein, whether such interest be vested, contingent or otherwise, and to enable the court or judge to make a proper distribution of such money it may in its discretion direct inquiries to be taken by a special commissioner in order to ascertain what persons are entitled to such funds and in what proportions and may direct what notice shall be given of the making of such inquiries by such special commissioner. If the city and the owner cannot agree upon the compensation for the property taken or damaged, if any, upon the filing of a memorandum in the clerk's office of said court to that effect, signed by either the city or the owner, the court shall appoint commissioners provided for in § 25-46.20 of the Code of Virginia, or as provided for in this section, and shall in this order appointing such commissioners designate the day and hour for them to meet, and all proceedings thereafter shall be had as provided in §§ 25-46.20 through 25-46.34 of the Code of Virginia, or as provided in § 15.1-236 thereof, insofar as they are then applicable and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and the court shall order the deposit in bank to the credit of the court such additional funds as appear to be necessary to cover the award of the commissioners or shall order the return to the city of such funds deposited that are not necessary to compensate such owners for property taken or damaged. The commissioners so appointed shall not consider improvements placed upon the property by the city subsequent to its taking nor the value thereof nor the enhancement of the value of said property by the erection of said improvements in making their award.

(3) In all cases under the provisions of this act, the enhancement, if any, in value of the remaining property of the owner by reason of the construction or improvement contemplated or made by the city, shall be offset against the damage, if any, resulting to such remaining property of such owner by reason of such construction or improvement, provided such enhancement in value shall not be offset against the value of the property taken; and provided, further, that if such enhancement in value shall exceed the damage, there shall be no recovery over against the owner for such excess.

(4) Whenever any money shall have heretofore remained or shall hereafter remain for five years in the custody or under the control of any of the courts hereinbefore enumerated in any condemnation proceedings instituted therein by the city under this section or the general law, without any claim having been asserted thereto, such court shall, where the amount is $100 or more, cause a publication to be made once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, setting forth the amount of such money, the source from which it was derived and the proceedings in which it is held, and requiring all persons having any claim to said money to appear before said court within such time after the completion of the publication as the court may prescribe and establish their claim. If the sum be less than $100, the court shall direct the same to be paid into the treasury of the city, and a proper voucher for the payment taken and filed among the records of the proceeding. If no person shall appear and show title in himself, the court shall order the money, after deducting therefrom the costs of such publication if such publication is made, and any other proper charges, to be paid into the treasury of the city and a proper voucher for the payment to be taken and filed among the records of the proceeding. The city comptroller shall, in a book provided for the purpose, keep an account of all money thus paid into the city treasury, showing the amount thereof, when, by whom, and under what order it was paid, and the name of the court, and, as far as practicable, a description of the suit or proceeding in which the order was made, and as far as known, the names of the parties entitled to said funds. Money thus paid into the treasury of the city shall be paid thereout to any person entitled thereto, who has not asserted a claim therefor in the proceeding in which it was held, on the order of the court having jurisdiction of such proceeding, upon satisfactory proof that he is entitled to such money. If such claim be established, the net amount thereof, after deducting costs and other proper charges, shall be paid to the claimant out of the treasury of the city on the warrant of the city comptroller. No claim to such money shall be asserted after ten years from the time when such court obtained control thereof; provided, however, if the person having such claim was an infant, insane, or imprisoned at the time the claim might have been presented or asserted, claim to such money may be asserted within five years after the removal of such disability. (1947, c. 5; 1968, c. 22)

The determination of the council made hereunder and any determination that may be made by the Authority as constituted hereunder shall be effective without the prerequisite of an election being held to determine the question as provided by the Housing Authorities Law.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the council and the Authority from otherwise proceeding under and in accordance with the Housing Authorities Law. (1950, c. 253; 1956, c. 244)

(1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167)

§ 57. On or before the fifteenth day of August in each year, the collector shall file with the clerk of the corporation court a list of all real estate in the city of Lynchburg delinquent for the non-payment of taxes thereon for the preceding year, which list shall be recorded by the clerk in the book of delinquent taxes kept in the clerk's office, indexed in the name of the parties against whom said taxes are assessed, and said clerk shall be paid for so recording said list of delinquent taxes the same sum that he has been heretofore paid for recording delinquent state taxes. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167)

§ 58. There shall be a lien on all real estate, and on each and every interest therein, for the city taxes assessed thereon from the commencement of each year for which they are assessed. The city council may require real estate in the city delinquent for the non-payment of taxes, to be sold for the said taxes, with interest thereon at eight percent per annum, and such percent as they may prescribe for expenses of collection. Such real estate shall be sold and may be redeemed under the provisions of other sections of the charter. (1928, c. 343; 1942, c. 167; 1974, c. 22)

§ 59. On the second Monday in December in the year next after the year in which the real estate shall have been returned delinquent for taxes thereon for the preceding year, the city collector shall sell, a hereinafter provided, all real estate embraced in his said list of delinquent real estate for the said year, on which the levies for which the same were returned delinquent, or any part thereof, may remain unpaid on the day of sale.

Before making any such sale the collector shall give general notice thereof by posting a printed list of the real estate to be sold at the front door of the court house of the corporation court for the city, and he shall also post a copy of said list at the front door of his office or in the lobby of the city hall, and shall publish said list in one issue of some newspaper published in the city, such list to be published and posted at least thirty days before the delinquent sale.

The list to be so published and posted shall contain the names of the persons in whose names said real estate was returned delinquent and a description of the property in the same way it appears on the land books, and the amount for the satisfaction of which each certain parcel will be sold, and said list shall have appended thereto a notice to the effect that each and every parcel of real estate therein contained, or so much thereof as may be necessary, will be sold at public auction on the second Monday in December of said year, between the hours of ten in the morning and four in the afternoon, at the front door of the court house of the city, to satisfy all levies, penalties, interest and charges due thereon, unless the same shall have been previously paid to the city collector.

The cost of printing and publishing such notices, and all other proper expenses in connection with such sale, shall be apportioned among the delinquents embraced in said list, according to the amount of levies, penalties, and interest due by them respectively.

If the sale be not completed on the day fixed in said notice, it shall be adjourned from day to day between the same hours until it shall be completed. (1928, c. 343; 1946, c. 381)

§ 60. If such taxes, levies, interest, costs, and charges and a due proportion of said expenses be not previously paid, the collector shall proceed to make sale of the said several parcels of real estate according to said notice so published, and sell the several parcels of real estate separately, or such portion of each as shall be sufficient to satisfy the taxes, penalties, interest, and costs thereon, including the proportionate cost of expenses of sale; and the sale may be adjourned from day to day, and proceed between the hours aforesaid, until it shall be completed.

The city collector, on receipt from the purchaser of the amount of purchase and also an additional sum of fifty cents as a prerequisite, shall execute to the purchaser a certificate in which he shall set forth with reasonable certainty the quantity of land so sold, the land book description of the same, in whose name it was sold, the price paid, and the aggregate amount of taxes, penalties, interest and expenses of sale against said parcel, and also the fact that the additional sum of fifty cents as a fee for the certificate was received.

The city collector shall not for himself, either directly or indirectly, purchase any real estate so sold. If he does, he shall forfeit to the city fifty dollars for every such purchase, and the purchase shall be absolutely void. (1928, c. 343; 1946, c. 381)

§ 61. If at any such sale no bid shall be made for any such parcel of land, or such bid shall not be equal to the tax or assessment, with interest and charges, then the same shall be struck off to the city. As soon as practicable after the completion of such sales the city collector shall make out a list of all sales made to the city, or to others, in which the property purchased shall be described, and the aggregate amount of tax or assessment with charges and expenses specified, and shall deposit the same with the city auditor, and a copy thereof with the clerk of the corporation court, who shall record the same in a book kept for the purpose, and indexed as heretofore provided for state taxes. (1928, c. 343)

§ 62. (a) Where sold to city. - In all cases where the city has become the purchaser of any lot at any such sale as herein provided, the original owner, or his heirs or assigns, or anyone holding a lien thereon, may, within two years from the sale, redeem the same by paying to the collector of the city the amount for which the same was sold, and such additional taxes thereon as would have accrued to the city had it not been the purchaser, with interest on such purchase money and taxes at the rate of six percent per annum from the time the same may have or would have been paid, and all costs of sale and also the additional sum of fifty cents as a fee for the receipt therefor; and the city collector upon such payment shall give the party paying the same a receipt acknowledging receipt of taxes, interests, penalties, and costs, which receipt shall state the name of the owner in whose name the property was assessed for the year or years in which sold, the number of the lot, the feet frontage, the location, the amount of the tax due for each year, the penalty, interest and costs, and which receipt shall be acknowledged before a notary public for the purpose of providing for the satisfaction of the taxes on the delinquent land books and sale books in the clerk's office as provided in § 61 of this charter.

(b) Where sold to others. - The owner of any real estate so sold to others than the city, his heirs or assigns, or any person having a right to charge such real estate for a debt, or any person having interest in said real estate by way or reversion, remainder or otherwise, may redeem the same by payment to the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, within two years from the sale thereof, the amount for which the same was sold (including the fifty cents fee for a certificate of purchase), and such additional taxes thereon as may have been paid by the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, with interest on the purchase money at the rate of six percent per annum from the time the same may have been paid, or the same may be paid within the said two years, to the collector in any case in which the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, may refuse to receive the same, or may not reside or cannot be found in the city. (1928, c. 343; 1946, c. 381)

§ 63. Any infant, insane person, or person imprisoned, whose real estate may have been sold, or his heirs, may redeem the same by paying to the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, within two years after the removal of the disability, the amount for which the same was so sold, with the necessary charges incurred by the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, in obtaining the title under the sale, and such additional taxes on the estate as may have been paid by the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, and the appraised value of any improvement that may have been made thereon, with interest on the said items at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum within two years after the removal of such disability, the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, shall, at the cost of the original owners, his heirs or assigns, convey to him or them, by deed with special warranty, the real estate sold. (1928, c. 343)

§ 64. The purchaser of any real estate sold for taxes and not redeemed shall, after the expiration of two years from the sale, obtain from the city auditor a deed conveying the same, wherein shall be set forth what appears in the auditor's office in relation to the sale. In no case shall a deed to any such real estate be made to any such purchaser until after he has paid in full any other delinquent taxes against said real estate and until after he has given to the person in whose name the real estate so stood at the time of said sale and to the person to whom said real estate so sold has been conveyed by record subsequent to the time of such sale, or if any of said persons be dead, then to his or their personal representatives and heirs or devisees, and to the trustees, mortgagees, and beneficiaries as shown by the records in any deed of trust or mortgage on such property, or their personal representatives, four months' written notice of his said purchase; provided, that no notice need be given to any trustee, mortgagee or beneficiary of a mortgage which has been recorded, or the lien thereon renewed, more than twenty years prior to the date of such sale, and the person entitled to redeem the real estate shall have such right of redemption at any time before the expiration of said four months, although such time extends beyond the two years mentioned herein. Such notice to any person entitled to redeem, who is a resident of Virginia, shall be served by an officer authorized to serve process without the necessity of court procedure. Where, however, one or more persons entitled to redeem are non-residents of the Commonwealth, or where diligence has been used by and on behalf of the purchaser to ascertain in what county or corporation such persons are, without effect, or where a copy of the notice has been twice delivered to the proper officer of the county or city in which he resides without being executed, or where the names of persons who may be interested in said real estate are unknown, the purchaser may file a petition in any court of record for the city, in which petition shall be set forth the facts relating to his purchase, and the person or persons, known or unknown, who are or may be entitled to redeem shall be made parties defendant to the proceeding. After the filing of the petition, on affidavit by the purchaser setting forth the reason or reasons why personal service of notice could not be had and also setting forth the last known post office address of any person entitled to redeem, or that such address is unknown, an order of publication may be entered by the court, or clerk thereof, against such parties. The object of the proceedings shall be to give notice to parties who are or may be entitled to redeem the real estate from the purchaser, and to determine whether any party claiming the right to redeem is in fact so entitled. The order of publication shall direct such parties, including unknown parties, if any there be, to appear within four months after due publication thereof and do what is necessary to protect their interests. It shall be published once a week for four successive weeks in some newspaper published in the city, and shall be posted by the clerk at the front door of the court house wherein the court is held, on or before the first day of the next term of court. The clerk shall also mail a copy thereof to each party whose address is stated in said affidavit directed to the post office address as stated therein, and file an affidavit stating the fact of such publication, posting and mailing of the papers in the proceeding.

When such order shall have been published as heretofore provided, if the defendants against whom it is published shall not appear within four months after the completion of the expiration of the four weeks required for the completion of such publication, the proceeding may be tried or heard as to them, and no other publication or notice shall thereafter be required. Any party having the right to redeem and who desires so to do may, within the time limit hereinbefore provided, file an answer to said petition setting forth the facts on which his right to redeem is based. If on the trial the court adjudicates that such person is entitled to redeem, an order shall be entered providing for such redemption on the payment to the purchaser of the amount set forth in § 62 (b) hereof, and, in addition, the costs of the proceeding. In the event, however, that no party shall appear, or in the event that any party appears and upon trial the court adjudicates that such party is not entitled to redeem, the court shall enter an order directing the auditor to convey the property to the purchaser. An appeal shall lie from the judgment of said court to the Supreme Court of Appeals in the same manner as provided by law for appeals in civil cases.

When any purchaser has assigned the benefit of his purchase, the deed may, with his assent, evidenced by his joining therein, or by writing annexed thereto, be executed to his assignee. If the purchaser shall have died, his heirs or assigns may move the corporation court of said city to order the auditor to execute a deed to such heirs or assigns. Such deed shall be executed in the name of the city by the auditor, under the seal attested by the treasurer, and shall be with special warranty. For each deed the auditor shall be paid by the purchaser one dollar. (1928, c. 343; 1946, c. 381)

§ 64-a. The provisions of § 64, as amended, shall apply to lands sold for taxes whether the same were purchased prior or subsequent to the enactment of the section, as amended; but this section shall not operate to defeat any person's right of redemption by law. (1952, c. 623)

§ 65. When the purchaser of any real estate sold for taxes, his heirs or assigns, shall have obtained a deed therefor within sixty days from the date of such deed shall have caused the same to be recorded, a fee simple estate shall stand vested in the grantee in such deed at the commencement of the year for which the said taxes were assessed, subject to be defeated only by proof that the taxes for which said real estate was sold were not chargeable thereon, or that the taxes properly chargeable on such real estate have been paid. And if it be alleged that the taxes, for the non-payment of which sale was made, were not in arrears, the party making such allegations must establish the truth thereof by proving that the taxes were paid; but nothing in this section shall be construed to affect or impair the lien of the city on the real estate and on each and every interest therein, or affect, limit or impair the right of the city, when it becomes a purchaser of real estate under the next succeeding section. (1928, c. 343)

§ 66. In case that any real estate struck off to the city as hereinbefore provided, shall not be redeemed within the time specified, the auditor shall, within sixty days after the expiration of two years from the sale, cause to be recorded in the clerk's office of the corporation court, a certificate of sale with his oath that the same has not been redeemed, and thereupon the said corporation, or its assignee, shall acquire an absolute title in fee to such real estate, and every interest therein, for life, in reversion, in remainder and otherwise, subject to be defeated only by proof that the taxes for which said real estate was sold were not properly chargeable thereon, or that the taxes properly chargeable thereon had been paid at the time of the execution of such certificate. The said certificate shall be recorded in the said clerk's office in a record book known as "deed book, recording conveyances to city of lands sold for delinquent taxes," for recording which certificate the clerk shall be entitled to a fee of ten cents, payable out of the city treasury. The city council may impose penalties upon its officers for their failure to comply with the requirements of this section. The said certificate, or the record thereof, or a certified copy thereof, shall, in all courts and other places, be evidence of the facts therein stated; provided, however, that the failure to obtain or record such certificate shall not invalidate the lien of the city for all taxes assessed against such real estate, but the city may, at any time, elect to enforce its lien for taxes in a court of equity and release its right as purchaser, or to become a purchaser of such real estate. (1928, c. 343)

§ 67. When lands and lots returned delinquent for taxes are sold for taxes and have been redeemed as hereinbefore provided, and a receipt of the city collector or a receipt of the purchaser at the tax sale showing that all taxes, costs or other expenses to which he is entitled upon such redemption, duly assigned by him and acknowledged as a deed is required to be acknowledged, has been delivered to the clerk of the corporation court, the clerk shall endorse the satisfaction of such payment upon the delinquent land book opposite the entry of such tract or lot for the year or years for which it was redeemed, or in case the property has been purchased, on the delinquent sales book for the year or years for which it was sold to the purchaser. The clerk shall receive a fee of twenty-five cents to be paid by the person for whose benefit the endorsement was made for endorsing the fact of redemption or payment on delinquent land book or sales book. (1928, c. 343)

Chapter IX. Streets, Highways, Damages, Etc.

§ 68. The city shall not take or use any private property for streets or any other public purposes without making just compensation for the same, but where the city cannot obtain the title to ground necessary for its purpose, it may proceed to condemn the same in the mode prescribed by law. (1928, c. 343)

§ 68-A. Limited access streets.

(a) A limited access street is defined as a street especially designed for through traffic over which abutters have no easement or right of light, air, or access to by reason of the fact that their property abuts upon such limited access street.

(b) The city shall have the same power and authority with respect to the planning, designation, acquisition, opening, construction, reconstruction, improvement, maintenance, discontinuance, and regulation of the use of limited access streets; the designation of existing streets as limited access streets, and the extinguishment of easements in connection therewith; the regulation and restrictions of access to such streets; the construction of service roads in connection therewith; and all other authority with respect to such streets, and incidental thereto as the State Highway Commission has under the provisions of chapter seventy-eight of the Acts of the General Assembly, 1942, approved February 26, 1942, or as said State Highway Commission may hereafter be granted, by amendment to said act or otherwise. (1948, c. 130)

§ 69. No order shall be made and no injunction shall be granted by any judge or court of this Commonwealth to stay the proceedings of the city in the exercise of any power herein granted it over its streets and railways, unless it be manifest that it is exceeding its powers and that the interposition of the court is necessary to prevent injury which cannot be adequately compensated in damages. (1928, c. 343)

§ 70. In every case where there has been or shall be encroachments upon a street by a fence, building or otherwise, the judge of the municipal court may require the owner to remove the same. If such removal shall not be made within the time ordered, the judge of the municipal court may impose a penalty to be fixed by the council for each day which it is allowed to continue thereafter, and may cause the encroachment to be removed at the risk and cost of the owner, although the right to impose such penalty or require the removal of such encroachment involves the validity of a bona fide title to real estate. (1928, c. 343)

§ 71. Wherever any ground shall have been opened to and used by the public as a street for ten years it shall be considered as dedicated to the public, and the city shall have the same authority and jurisdiction over and right and interest therein as it has over other streets. (1928, c. 343)

§ 72. No property within the territorial limits of the city shall be laid out by the owner thereof with streets and alleys therein except upon a plan to be first approved by the council. Any street or alley reserved in the division or subdivision into lots of any portion of the territory within the corporate limits of the city by a plan or plat of record shall be deemed and held to be dedicated to the public use and the council shall have authority, upon the petition of any person interested therein, to open any such street or alley or any portion of the same. No agreement between or release of interest by the persons owning the lands immediately contiguous to any such alley or street, whether the same has been opened or used by the public or not, shall avail or operate to abolish said alley or street so as to divest the interest of the public therein or the authority of the council over the same; provided, however, that the right may be reserved by the owner of any subdivision and set forth on said plat to modify said plat by abolishing any block with the streets or alleys in said block, provided no lot has been sold in said block, and provided, further, that no such change shall be made which shall cut off the owner of any other property from convenient access to the main avenues of the city; and provided, further, that where said plat has been submitted for approval by the council before its recordation, no such modification shall be allowed without the approval of the council. (1928, c. 343)

§ 73. (a) In any action against the city to recover damages against it for any negligence in the construction or maintenance of its streets, alleys, lanes, parks, public places, sewers, reservoirs or water mains, where any person or corporation is liable with the city for such negligence, every such person or corporation shall be joined as defendant with the city in any action brought to recover damages for such negligence, and where there is judgment or verdict against the city, as well as the other defendant, it shall be ascertained by the court or jury which of the defendants is primarily liable for the damages assessed.

(b) If it be ascertained by the judgment of the court that some person or corporation other than the city is primarily liable, there shall be a stay of execution against the city until execution against such person or persons or other corporation or corporations shall have been returned without realizing the full amount of such judgment.

(c) If the city, where not primarily liable, shall pay the said judgment, in whole or in part, the plaintiff shall, to the extent that said judgment is paid by the city, assign the said judgment to the city without recourse on the plaintiff, and the said city shall be entitled to have execution issued for its benefit against the other defendant or defendants who have been ascertained to be primarily liable, or may institute any suit in equity to enforce the said judgment, or an action at law, or scire facias to revive or enforce said judgment. (1928, c. 343)

Editor's note: Chapter 343 of the 1928 Acts of Assembly did not create § 74 or 75.

§ 76. No action shall be maintained against the same city for damages for any injury to any person or property alleged to have been sustained by reason of the negligence of the city or of any officer, agent, or employee thereof, unless a written statement verified by the oath of the claimant, his agent or attorney, or the personal representative of any decedent whose death is the result of the alleged negligence of the city, its officers, agents, or employees, of the nature of the claim and the time and place at which the injury is alleged to have occurred or to have been received, shall have been filed with the city attorney of said city within six months after such cause of action shall have accrued. And no officers, agents or employees of the city shall have authority to waive such conditions precedent or any of them. (1928, c. 343)

Chapter X.

All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed; and all acts and parts of acts in any way concerning the city of Lynchburg and the rights of the people thereof, or any of them, not inconsistent with this act, shall be in full force, to all intents and purposes, as if this act had never been passed. ### § 3.1. Election, qualification and term of office of councilmen and mayor.

The town of Madison shall be governed by a town council composed of four councilmen and a mayor, all of whom shall be qualified voters of the town, to be elected from the town at large. Any person qualified to vote in the town shall be eligible for the office of councilman or mayor. The mayor and councilmen in office at the time of the passage of this act shall continue in office until the expiration of the terms for which they were elected or until their successors are duly elected and qualified. An election for mayor and councilmen shall be held on the first Tuesday in May, 1976 and on the first Tuesday in

May of every fourth year thereafter. The mayor and councilmen elected the first Tuesday in May, 1976 and thereafter shall enter upon their duties on the first day of July next succeeding their election, and shall each serve for a term of four years or until their successors have qualified. (1976, c. 629)

§ 3.5. Powers and duties of mayor.

The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the town. He shall have and exercise all the privileges and authority conferred by general law not inconsistent with this charter. He shall preside over the meetings of the town council and shall have the same right to speak therein as members of the council, but shall not vote except in the case of a tie vote. He shall have the power of veto over the ordinances and resolutions of the council, but such ordinances and resolutions may be passed over such veto by a two-thirds vote of the members of the town council present and voting. He shall be the head of the town government for all ceremonial purposes and shall perform such other duties consistent with his office as may be imposed by the town council. He shall see that the duties of the various town officers are faithfully performed. The police force of the town shall be under the control of the mayor for the purpose of enforcing peace and good order and executing the laws of the State and the ordinances of the town. He, or the person acting as mayor, may deputize such assistant policemen as may be necessary; and shall authenticate his signature on such documents or instruments as the council, this charter or the laws of the Commonwealth shall require. Whenever it is necessary to elect an acting mayor pursuant to this section, in the absence of both the mayor and vice-mayor, the town clerk or acting town clerk shall call the meeting of the town council to order and shall preside until an acting mayor is elected. Every ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds shall specify the purpose or purposes for which they are to be issued, the aggregate amount of the bonds, the terms for which they shall be issued, and the maximum rates of interest to be paid thereon. Any such ordinance may be amended by ordinance at any time before the bonds to be affected by such amendment have been sold; however, if there is omitted from this charter any provision essential to the valid authorization, sale, execution and issuance of any bonds of the City, the provisions of general law with reference to similar bonds shall supply said omission.

continue thereafter, and may cause the encroachment to be removed, and collect from the owner all reasonable charges therefor, with costs, by the same process that it is hereinafter empowered to collect taxes. Except, in any case where there is a bona fide dispute as to the true boundary line or the location of the true street line, and if passage over such street is not seriously impeded, the same shall first be established and determined by an adjudication of a court of competent jurisdiction in a proceeding instituted by either the City or the property owner for that purpose before the City shall take any steps to remove the said obstruction or encroachment, or to impose a penalty therefor. No encroachment upon any street, however long continued, shall constitute any adverse possession to or confer any rights upon persons claiming thereunder as against the City.

2. Dedication of streets. Dedication of any street, alley or lane in the City may be made by plat or deed. Any street or alley reserved in the division or subdivision into lots, of any portion of the territory within the corporate limits of the City, by a plan or plot of record, shall be deemed and held to be dedicated to public use, unless it appears by said record that the street or alley so reserved is designated for private use. The Governing Body shall have the right to elect, by resolution entered on its minutes whether it will, or will not accept the dedication of any street or alley.

If the owner of such menace fails or refuses to repair, wreck or remove the same within thirty days from the date of written notice from the City Clerk, transmitting such resolution of condemnation, the Governing Body may then order the City Manager or other authorized agent to repair, wreck or remove such building or structure, and the cost of such repair, wrecking or removal by the City Manager or other authorized agent shall be a charge against the property on which such menace is located; such costs shall be collectible by due process of law.

In the case of nonresident owners who have no agent in the City, such notice shall be given by publication at least once a week for not less than two consecutive weeks in any newspaper having general circulation in the City.

§ 44. All ordinances and resolutions passed by the council shall take effect at the time indicated in such ordinances and resolutions, but in event no effective date shall be set forth in any such ordinance, resolution or bylaw passed by the council, the same shall become effective thirty days from the date of its passage.

Any such ordinance may be amended by ordinance at any time before the bonds to be affected by such amendment have been sold; provided, however, if there shall be omitted from this charter any provision essential to the valid authorization, sale, execution and issuance of any of the bonds of the city, the provisions of general law with reference to similar bonds shall supply said omission.

In addition to the powers mentioned in the preceding section the said City shall have power:

- (1) To raise annually by taxes and assessments in said City on all subjects the taxation of which by cities is not forbidden by general law, such sums of money as the Council herein provided for shall deem necessary for the purposes of said City, and in such manner as said Council shall deem expedient, in accordance with the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth and of the United States.
- (2) The City Council may levy a tax or a license on any person, firm, or corporation conducting any business, employment or profession whatsoever in the City, except when expressly prohibited by general law, whether a license may be required therefor by the Commonwealth or not, and may exceed the State license, if any be required.

Such real estate may be sold and may be redeemed in the manner provided by law; provided that at any such sale, where no person bids the amount chargeable on any such real estate, it shall be lawful for the City treasurer to purchase the same for the benefit of the City upon the same terms and conditions prescribed by general law, for the purchase of delinquent real estate by the treasurer for the benefit of a city.

(15) Subject to the provisions of the Constitution of Virginia to grant franchises for public utilities.

(16) To acquire in the manner provided by the general laws any existing water, gas or electric plant, works or system, or any part thereof. Any public utility owned or operated by the City of Martinsville, whether it be water, gas, electric plant or otherwise shall not be sold until the same shall have been first submitted to the qualified voters of the City at a general or special election and shall have been approved by two-thirds of such voters voting on the question of such sale, which two-thirds shall include the majority of qualified registered voters owning real estate in said City and voting in such election on such sale.

(19) To collect and dispose of sewage, offal, ashes, garbage, carcasses of dead animals and other refuse, and to acquire and operate plants for the utilization or destruction of such materials, or any of them; or to contract for and regulate the collection and disposal thereof.

(23) To prevent the running at large in said City of all animals and fowls, and to regulate the keeping or raising of same within said City, and to subject the same to such levies, regulations and taxes as it may deem proper.

(24) To inspect, test, measure and weigh any commodity or article offered for human consumption or use within the City.

(25) To provide for the care, support and maintenance of children and of sick, aged, insane, or poor persons and paupers.

(30) To exercise full police powers, and establish and maintain a department or division of police.

(31) To create, regulate and maintain a fire department for the City and to prescribe the duties of said department and its officers.

(32) (a) For the purpose of guarding against the calamities of fires, the City Council may, from time to time, designate such portions and parts of the City as it deems proper within which inflammable buildings may not be erected. It may prohibit the erection of wooden buildings or buildings of inflammable material in any portion of the City without its permission, and may provide for the removal of such buildings or additions which shall be erected contrary to such prohibition at the expense of the builder or owner thereof; or if any building in process of erection or already built appears clearly to be unsafe, the Council may cause such building to be taken down, after reasonable notice to the owner; it may provide for the disposition of garbage and waste; provide precautionary measures against danger from fires; provide for the removal of buildings or structures of any kind, erected in violation of ordinances, at the expense of the builder or owner; and may do all other things lawful to be done, looking to the health and safety of the inhabitants of the City.

(b) The Council may, by proper ordinance, divide the City into zones; specify the kind and character of buildings which may be erected in the different zones; and may, after recommendation from the planning commission and public notice and hearing pursuant to § 15.2-2204, establish design overlay districts to encourage compatible development in areas of the City identified on an adopted comprehensive plan as having historic value or unique architectural value and located within an area designated on an adopted plan for conservation, rehabilitation or redevelopment. In such areas, the Council shall adopt specific standards as to new construction or rehabilitation within view from public streets and provide for a design review process. City Council may establish a fee applicable to such design review process which shall not exceed the actual cost of such review process.

(33) (a) The City Council shall not take or use any private property for streets or other public purposes without making the owner thereof just compensation for the same; but in cases where the Council cannot by agreement obtain title to the ground for such purposes the Council may exercise the power of eminent domain, as provided by law; and shall, subject to the following paragraphs, have all the powers provided in Chapter 19 (§ 15.2-1900 et seq.) of Title 15.2, of the Code of Virginia, as amended, which is incorporated herein by reference.

(b) The City may enter upon the property to be condemned at any time after the filing of its petition for condemnation and prior to the determination and deposit of the award of just compensation for its purposes if, upon the petitioner's application to do so, the court, after thirty days' notice to the parties and after hearing all parties in interest, finds (1) that a public necessity or an essential public convenience requires such entry for such purposes, and that an emergency exists justifying such entry, before the time when just compensation can be determined and the amount so determined paid into court, and (2) that the interests of the owners of such property will be adequately protected by the payment into court or to the clerk thereof for the benefit of the owners of the amount of the offer made in accordance with law. Upon such payment, the petitioner shall have the right to enter upon the property as described in its petition. At any time after such payment into court or to the clerk thereof, a party whose property or interest therein is to be taken or damaged may apply to the court for the withdrawal of his share thereof in the manner provided by law.

(c) At any time during the condemnation proceedings, if it appears necessary so to do in order to protect the owners of the property or estate or interest therein to be condemned and assure unto them the payment of just compensation to which they are entitled, the court may require the petitioner to pay such additional sums into court as deemed necessary to protect the owners of the property or estate in interest being condemned.

(d) If the petitioner enters upon the property under this section and does any work thereon, or causes any injury or damage to such property, it shall not thereafter be entitled, without the consent of the owner, to abandon the proceedings for the condemnation thereof, but shall conduct such proceedings with reasonable dispatch to final judgment and the petitioner shall pay to the owner of the property or into court the amount of just compensation determined in the condemnation proceedings.

(34) In every case where a street in said City has been, or shall be encroached upon by any fence, building or otherwise, the Council may require the owner to remove the same, and if such removal be not made within the time prescribed by the Council, it may impose such penalty as it deems proper for each and every day it is allowed to continue thereafter, and may cause the encroachment to be removed, and collect from the owner all reasonable charges therefor, with costs by the same process that Council is hereinafter empowered to collect taxes.

Except, in case where there is a bona fide dispute as to the true boundary line or the location of the true street line (and if such passage over such street is not seriously impeded) the same shall be first established and determined by an adjudication of a court of competent jurisdiction in a proceeding instituted by either the City or the property owner for that purpose before the said City shall take any steps to remove the said obstruction or encroachment, or to impose any penalty therefor. No encroachment upon any street, however long continued, shall constitute any adverse possession to or confer any rights upon the persons claiming thereunder as against the said City.

(35) Dedication of any street, alley or lane in said City may be made by plat or deed. Any street or alley reserved in the division or subdivision into lots of any portion of the territory within the corporate limits of said City, by a plan or plot of record, shall be deemed and held to be dedicated to public use, unless it appears by said record that the street or alley so reserved is designated for private use. The Council shall have the right to elect, by resolution entered on its minutes, whether it will or will not accept the dedication of any street or alley.

(36) To do all things whatsoever necessary or expedient for promoting or maintaining the general welfare, comfort, education, morals, peace, government, health, trade, commerce or industries of the City or its inhabitants.

(37) To make and enforce all ordinances, rules and regulations necessary or expedient for the purpose of carrying into effect the powers conferred by this charter or by any general law, and to provide and impose suitable penalties for the violation of such ordinances, rules and regulations, or any of them, by fine or confinement, or both; which shall not exceed the maximum of such penalties allowable under the general laws of this Commonwealth for misdemeanors or, in the case of traffic infractions, the maximum penalties allowable under the general laws of this Commonwealth for such traffic infractions; and the City may maintain a suit to restrain by injunction the violation of any ordinance notwithstanding such ordinance may provide punishment for its violation. The enumeration of particular powers in this charter shall not be deemed or held to be exclusive, but in addition to the powers enumerated herein or implied thereby, or appropriate to the exercise thereof, the said City shall have and may exercise all other powers which are now or may hereafter be possessed or enjoyed by cities under the Constitution and general laws of this State not inconsistent with this charter.

(g) Unless the council designates some member of the board as chairman, the board shall select a chairman and secretary from among its own members. The board may employ such persons as the council may approve, and may expend such sums as are appropriated by the council for its work.

Chapter 11. Bond Issue.

§ 1. Purposes for which bonds may be issued.

The council may issue bonds of the City of Martinsville for any municipal purpose provided for in this act or in any general law now or hereafter in effect. (1950, c. 193; 1981, c. 201)

§ 2. Election on question of the issuance of bonds.

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, no bonds of the City of Martinsville shall be issued until the question of issuing these shall have first been submitted to the qualified voters of the city at a general or special election and shall have been approved by a majority of such voters voting on the question of such issue. The question or propositions submitted to the voters as aforesaid shall state in general terms the purpose or purposes of the proposed bond issue and the actual or maximum amount of the bond issue. All other details of the bond issue shall be left to be determined by ordinance adopted by the council of the City of Martinsville. Any election held pursuant to this chapter shall be conducted in accordance with, and the form of ballot used in such election shall be in such form as prescribed by, general law now or hereafter in effect. No question as to the validity of such an election, or as to the determination of the result thereof shall be raised in any court except in an action or proceeding commenced in the Circuit Court of the City of Martinsville within ten days (10) days after the determination of the result of said election. No election shall be required with respect to any indebtedness described in Article VII, Section 10 (a) (1) of the Constitution of Virginia of nineteen hundred seventy-one (1971). (1950, c. 193; 1981, c. 201)

§ 3. When bonds to be made payable.

All bonds of the City of Martinsville hereafter issued shall be made payable within the probable life of the improvement or undertaking on account of which they are to be issued. The determination of or by the council as to the probable life of any such improvement or undertaking shall be conclusive. The probable life of any improvement or undertaking shall not be deemed to be more than thirty (30) years; provided, however, that the probable life of real property acquired by the City may be deemed to be as long as forty (40) years. In case of a bond issue for a hydroelectric project, the probable life of the improvement or undertaking requiring said bond issue, and of any real property acquired therefor, may be deemed to be as long as fifty (50) years. In case of a bond issue for several different purposes, having different probable periods of usefulness; the council shall determine the average of said period, taking into consideration the amount of bonds to be issued on account of each purpose for which a period is determined and the bonds shall mature within such average period. (1950, c. 193; 1980, c. 7)

§ 4. Bonds to be serial or term.

Bonds of the City of Martinsville may be issued as serial or term bonds, or any combination thereof. Serial bonds shall mature in annual installments commencing not later than five (5) years after the date of the bonds. Term bonds may be redeemed prior to the maturity thereof by mandatory sinking fund redemption. (1950, c. 193; 1954, c. 104; 1981, c. 201)

§ 5. Procedure for issuing bonds.

A. Whenever the council of the City of Martinsville proposes to issue bonds, the council shall adopt an ordinance reciting the expediency of borrowing money by the City of Martinsville and the issuance of bonds therefor, the purpose or purposes, in general terms, for which bonds are to be issued, the actual or maximum amount of bonds to be issued, or if bonds are to be issued for more than one purpose, the actual or maximum amount to be issued for each purpose and the maximum length of time such bonds will be outstanding.

B. Upon the adoption by the council of the ordinance described in subsection A, a copy thereof, certified by the clerk of the council, shall be filed with the judge of the Circuit Court of the City of Martinsville, Virginia, whereupon the judge of such circuit court shall enter such order as may be required by general law now or hereafter in effect ordering that the question of issuing bonds be submitted to the qualified voters of the City of Martinsville at a regular or special election and may enter such additional orders as may be required by general law now or hereafter in effect.

C. Notice of the proposed bond issue shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the City of Martinsville at least once a week for two successive weeks after the adoption of the ordinance described in subsection A. Such notice shall set forth in general terms the purpose or purposes for which the bonds are to be issued, the actual or maximum amount of such bonds or if bonds are to be issued for more than one purpose, the actual or maximum amount of bonds to be issued for each purpose, and the maximum time such bonds will be outstanding.

D. In lieu of the election required by § 2 of this chapter, in any bond issue which does not exceed two percent of the assessed valuation of the real estate of the city subject to taxation, the council may hold a public hearing on the proposed bond issue. In the event that council elects to hold a public hearing in lieu of an election, the notice described in subsection C shall be published in the display advertising of the newspaper and, in addition, shall be broadcast at least once a week for two successive weeks on all radio and television stations whose broadcast facilities are located within the city, and the notice shall specify the time and place of the hearing at which persons may appear and present their views. The hearing shall not be held less than six nor more than twenty-one days after the date the second notice appears in the newspaper.

E. Following approval of the bonds by the qualified voters of the City of Martinsville or, where applicable, following said public hearing, the council may at any time thereafter adopt an ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds approved by the voters or any portion thereof. Such ordinance shall set forth the specific terms of the bond issue, including the term thereof and the rate of interest thereon. Any such ordinance may be amended or supplemented from time to time.

F. Any ordinance adopted pursuant to this § 5 may be adopted on the same day it is introduced before the council and may take effect on the date of its adoption. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any ordinance enacted for the purpose of authorizing the issuance of bonds after a public hearing.

G. Any ordinance adopted by the council pursuant to this § 5 and any bonds issued pursuant to this chapter may contain such provisions and be in such form as required or permitted by general law, now or hereafter in effect, unless specifically provided or permitted otherwise by this chapter. (1950, c. 193; 1981, c. 201; 1992, c. 31)

§ 6. Debt limitation.

The City of Martinsville shall not issue bonds or other interest-bearing obligations to an amount, which including existing indebtedness, shall, at any time, exceed such amount as permitted by law now or hereafter in effect; provided, however, that in determining this limitation to incur indebtedness, there shall not be included the classes of indebtedness specifically provided for in Article VII, Section 10 (a) (1), (2), (3) and (4) of the Constitution of Virginia of nineteen hundred and seventy-one (1971). (1950, c. 193; 1981, c. 201)

§ 7. Payment of principal and interest.

Irrespective of the provisions of Chapter 1, § 2, paragraph (1) of this charter relating to the tax limit on real and personal property, the full faith and credit of the City of Martinsville shall be deemed to be pledged for the punctual payment of the principal of and interest on every bond and note issued under this act, except the classes of indebtedness specifically provided for in Article VII, Section 10 (a) (1), (2), (3) and (4) of the Constitution of Virginia of nineteen hundred and seventy-one (1971). The council of the City of Martinsville shall have power to annually levy and collect a tax ad valorem upon all taxable property in the city, sufficient to pay the principal and the interest on all bonds issued under this act, as such principal and interest become due; provided, however, that such tax may be reduced by the amount of other moneys appropriated and actually available for said purposes. In the case of bonds pledging the full faith and credit of the City of Martinsville, the council may, if it deems prudent, annually set aside from the resources of the city a sum not less than one (1) per centum of the aggregate bonded indebtedness of the city pledging the full faith and credit thereof, not payable within one year, whether heretofore, or hereafter contracted, except that no sinking fund shall be required for bonds heretofore or hereafter issued in serial form or for revenue bonds or term bonds required to be redeemed by mandatory sinking fund redemption; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the council to discontinue any sinking fund which may be required for bonds issued pursuant to Clause B, Section 127 of the Constitution of Virginia of nineteen hundred and two; provided further, any such amounts required to be set aside for bonds heretofore issued, shall continue to be set aside until such bonds have been paid or provided for. The fund thus set aside shall be called the sinking fund and shall be applied to the payment of the bonded indebtedness of said city, as it shall become due, and if no part be due and payable, the sinking fund may be invested as permitted by law now or hereafter in effect. (1950, c. 193; 1954, c. 104; 1981, c. 201)

§ 8. Sinking fund commissioners.

The sinking fund commission for the City shall be composed of the mayor, city commissioner of revenue and the city treasurer, whose duties shall be to take over annually from the treasurer, and invest the sinking fund as herein provided; and shall annually submit a report to the council showing the condition and amount of the sinking fund. A bond with satisfactory surety shall be required of the sinking fund commissioners, the amount of which shall be fixed by ordinance. No fees nor commissions shall be paid to any officer for the handling and control of the sinking fund. (1950, c. 193)

Chapter 12. Budget, Accounting and Audit.

§ 1. By ordinance, the City council shall not later than July First, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty (1950), provide for a modern budget and accounting system to be maintained on a current modern basis, which shall include a pre-audit, control and approval of all expenditures with appropriate records and reports. The officer in charge of this activity shall be the city manager or some qualified employee appointed by him. (1950, c. 193)

§ 2. By ordinance, the City council shall not later than July First, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty (1950), provide for a thorough system of post audit of all expenditures, receipts and financial affairs of the City. The council shall cause this work to be done by a Certified Public Accountant of their selection and appointment or the Auditor of Public Accounts of the Commonwealth of Virginia. The council may direct an audit of any or all financial records at any time but they shall cause a complete audit to be made of all accounts, books, records and financial transactions of the City at least once each fiscal year. (1950, c. 193)

§ 3. The City may establish and maintain a municipal trust or equivalent arrangement for the purpose of accumulating and investing proceeds from the sale of assets owned by the City, and such other funds as the council may contribute pursuant to this section. The principal of the trust or equivalent arrangement shall be (i) all of the proceeds of the sale of any asset owned by the City that generates between $10 million and $20 million, (ii) one-half of any such proceeds in excess of $20 million, (iii) such income generated by the trust or equivalent arrangement remaining unexpended at the close of each fiscal year, and (iv) such other funds as the council may by majority vote to contribute to the trust or equivalent arrangement. Deposits to such trust or equivalent arrangement and any earnings on those deposits shall be exempt from state and local taxation and the assets of any such trust or equivalent arrangement shall not be subject to execution, attachment, garnishment, or any other process. Investment of the assets of the trust or equivalent arrangement shall be managed by a competent professional investment entity, as designated by a contract awarded by the council for a three-year term. All assets or funds of the trust or equivalent arrangement shall be invested in accordance with the prudent person standard established by § 51.1-803 of the Code of Virginia and such investments shall not be limited by Chapter 45 (§ 2.2-4500 et seq.) of Title 2.2 of the Code of Virginia. The principal of the trust or equivalent arrangement may be expended only after a public hearing that has been advertised for two successive weeks in a newspaper having general circulation in the City and upon the two-thirds vote of the council membership. No more than 25 percent of the principal of the trust or equivalent arrangement may be expended in any fiscal year except by unanimous vote of the council membership. Income generated by the fund in each fiscal year may be appropriated, in whole or in part, for any purpose allowed by law by majority vote of the council. (2008, cc. 435, 607)

§ 4. Composition of council and vacancies.

The council shall consist of a mayor and five other electors of the town, who shall be denominated the council of said town. The mayor and councilmen shall be elected for a term of two years at a general election held for that purpose on the first Tuesday of May, 1972, and the first Tuesday in May every two years thereafter as provided by law, and the persons so elected shall enter upon the duties of their office on the first day of July next succeeding their election, and shall continue in office until their successors are qualified.

Any such oath of councilmen and mayor may be taken before any officer authorized by law to administer oaths, and shall, when so taken and subscribed, be forthwith returned to the recorder of the town, who shall enter the same on record on the minute book of the council.

The councilmen shall judge of the election, qualification and returns of its members; may fine them for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds of its membership expel a member. Thereafter the council shall meet at such times as may be prescribed by ordinance or resolution. The mayor or any three members of the council may call specific meetings of the council at any time after giving at least twelve hours written notice to the other members of the purpose, place, and time of such special meeting. Special meetings may also be held at any time without notice, provided all members of the council attend.

A majority of all members shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time, and compel the attendance of absentees.

In the absence or disability of the mayor, his duties shall be performed by such member of the council as may be designated and appointed by the council.

In addition to the powers and duties herein specifically enumerated, the mayor shall be vested with all such other powers and charged with all such other duties, not in conflict herewith, as are provided by the Constitution and general laws of the State. (1944, c. 308)

§ 9. The town sergeant.

There shall be a sergeant for said town who shall be elected by the council, who shall serve at the will and pleasure of the council. The sergeant shall be the chief police officer of the town and shall perform such duties and be invested with such authority as is provided by the general law for sergeants of towns, and shall perform such other duties and be invested with such other authority as the council may prescribe. The council may create, appoint, or elect such other officers, assessors, attorneys, or agents, departments, bodies or boards for the town as may be deemed necessary or proper, and may fix their compensation and define their duties, and require such bond as may seem necessary. (1944, c. 308)

§ 10.1. The council may appoint pursuant to the provisions of § 16-129 of the Code of Virginia, a trial justice for the town who shall serve for a term of two years or until his successor is appointed by the council and qualifies. The mayor, or any other qualified voter of the town of McKenney whom the council deems qualified, may be appointed by it as such trial justice. If the mayor is appointed as trial justice he shall discharge such duties as the trial justice of the town under this charter and not as mayor of the town, in addition to the execution of the duties of the mayor imposed upon him by this charter; and his powers, duties, authority and jurisdiction as such trial justice shall be as hereinafter provided for the trial justice; he may receive the salary of mayor provided by the council for the discharge of his duties as mayor as well as such salary of trial justice as may be provided by the council, if any.

Removals may be taken, and appeals from the decisions of the trial justice may be taken, to the Circuit Court of Dinwiddie County in the same manner, upon the same terms and shall be tried in the same way as removals, or as appeals from the decision of trial justices, as the case may be, are provided to be taken and tried by the laws of the State of Virginia, relating to trial justices as the same shall now be or as hereafter amended.

The council may also appoint such clerk or clerks as may in their discretion be necessary, provide for just compensation therefor and provide necessary records.

The council of said town shall provide a salary to compensate such trial justice in such amount and payable at such times as the council shall deem proper, and the council may provide also for a vacation period, either with or without pay, and for such duration as in the judgment of the council may be proper.

Like provisions may be made for a substitute justice, and when such substitute acts, he shall receive the compensation which would have been paid him had the principal acted, and which compensation shall be deducted from salary or allowance made to the principal.

The town of McKenney may combine with the county of Dinwiddie for the use of one trial justice and one substitute trial justice for such combined town and county, in such manner as may be provided by the laws of the State of Virginia relating to trial justices; and if the town of McKenney and the county of Dinwiddie shall at any time combine for the use of one trial justice and one substitute trial justice for the said town and the said county, the laws of the State of Virginia relating to trial justices, so far as applicable, shall control and not this section of this charter. (1956, c. 276)

In the matter of the petition for incorporation of the Town of Melfa

Accomack County, Virginia

On the first day of March, 1951, came the petitioners by their attorneys and with leave of Court filed their petition praying that an order be entered, incorporating the unincorporated community of Melfa, Accomack County, Virginia, as an incorporated Town, under the name of the "Town of Melfa," said petition being in the words and figures following to-wit:

To: The Honorable Jeff F. Walter, Judge of the Court aforesaid;

Your petitioners respectfully state:

- (1) That they are inhabitants of the Town of Melfa, residing within the proposed incorporated limits of said Town, and that more than twenty (20) of your petitioners are qualified voters.
- (2) That the Town of Melfa is an unincorporated Town, situate in the County of Accomack, Virginia.
- (3) That it will be to the best interest of the inhabitants of said Town; that the same be incorporated, and the general good of the community will be promoted thereby.
- (4) That the number of inhabitants of said Town exceeds Two Hundred and does not exceed Five Thousand.
- (5) That the metes and bounds of the proposed corporate limits of said Town are as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a concrete marker planted in the ground approximately three feet on the right-of-way of United States Highway Route thirteen from the intersection of the line of Eric C. Neville and Mrs. Elizabeth Justis, on the Northwest side of said Highway and from said marker running; North 62 degrees 12 minutes West, 203.0 feet to and along the boundary aforesaid between Mrs. Elizabeth Justis and Eric C. Neville to a point, from thence; turning and running North 1 degree 53 minutes East, 1634.2 feet across the lands of George T. Turlington and Brooks Hart to another point, from thence; running North 13 degrees, .01 minute East, 1050 feet across the land of Brooks Hart to a concrete marker on the Southwest side of the County Road leading to Onancock thence; running North 47 degrees 17 minutes East 786.8 feet across said County Road and the land of C. M. Byrd to a pipe, from said pipe; running South 62 degrees 12 minutes East, 772.1 feet across the land of C. M. Byrd to a point and from said point running North 27 degrees 48 minutes East; 1360.4 feet across the land of the W. H. Hatton Estate and that of T. U. Belote to a point, from this point running; south 62 degrees 12 minutes East, 516.0 feet across the land of the said T. U. Belote, the said U S. Route Thirteen and the right-of-way of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, to a point, and from thence; running South 27 degrees 48 minutes West, 1006.2 feet along the line of the Will Bull land to a point, from said point running; South 21 degrees 26 minutes East, 1311.7 feet along the line of the Allan Wales Lumber Company and across the land of George Mapp to a concrete marker, from thence; running; South 20 degrees 40 minutes East 1879.7 feet across the Will Bull land and the County Road to a concrete marker on the Southeast side of said road, thence; running South 30 degrees 26 minutes West 1248.5 feet across the land of Fred Harmon, Kate Bull and Dr. John Turlington to a point and from thence running; North 67 degrees 14 minutes West, 2616.5 feet across the land of Richard Elmore, the right-of-way of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and United States Highway Route thirteen to the point of beginning.

(6) That the entire area embraced in said proposed corporate limits is 225.59 acres.

Wherefore your petitioners pray that an order may be entered by the Court incorporating the unincorporated Town of Melfa as an incorporated Town, under the name of "The Town of Melfa" with the metes and bounds set forth in this petition.

And likewise came the defendants C. M. Byrd and others by their attorney and moved the Court for leave to be made parties defendant to said petition which leave is hereby granted and upon further motion of said defendants by their attorneys leave is granted them to file their answer to said petition and the same is filed accordingly.

And the Court having considered said petition and answer and the evidence adduced on behalf of the petitioners and defendants and the arguments of Counsel and having personally inspected the area doth find:

- (1) That said petition along with the notice attached of the time and place that the petition would be presented has been published in full in the Peninsula Enterprise, a newspaper published in Accomack County, Virginia, once a week for four successive weeks, to-wit: from January 19, 1951, to February 23, 1951, inclusive and that said petition was posted at the front door of the Court House of Accomack County, Virginia, for more than four weeks prior to the hearing of this cause.
- (2) That it will be to the interest of the inhabitants of said community that the same be incorporated.
- (3) That the prayer of the petition is reasonable with the modification of the area to be embraced as hereinafter set forth.
- (4) That the general good of the community will be promoted.
- (5) The number of the inhabitants residing in the area to be incorporated exceeds three hundred and does not exceed five thousand.
- (6) That more than twenty of the signers of said petition residing within the area to be incorporated are duly qualified voters.

But the Court is of the opinion that the area of land designated in said petition to be embraced within said town is excessive and in the exercise of its discretion, doth find that the boundaries of the incorporated area, as prayed for in said petition, should be changed and established as follows to-wit:

Beginning at a concrete marker planted in the ground approximately three feet on the right-of-way of U. S. Highway Route 13, from the intersection of the line of Bill Neville, who is the same person as Eric C. Neville and that of the Hanchey property on the Northwest side of said highway, said marker being shown on the plat of the corporate limits of the Town of Melfa, Accomack County, Virginia, dated April 5, 1951, made by S. S. Highway route 13 and the right-of-way of the Pennsylvania Railroad to a concrete marker on the Southeast side of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, said marker being 1.4 feet on Pennsylvania Railroad right-of-way: and from said marker running South 62 degrees 12 minutes East 181.4 feet; and from this point running South 27 degrees 48 minutes west 1360 feet plus minus to a point on the Northeast bank of the ditch separating the land of the Will Bull estate from that of George Mapp; from thence following the line of the Northeast bank of the said ditch to a point where the said ditch turns and runs in a general Southern direction; and from said turning point of said ditch following the East bank of said ditch along the line of the Will Bull estate crossing the County road known as number 639 and continuing along said ditch on the Kate Bull property to a certain point approximately 125 feet from said road, said point being on the East bank of said ditch and from this point running South 25 degrees 37 minutes West 940 feet plus minus to another point on the property of Dr. John Turlington; thence North 64 degrees 23 minutes West 250 feet to a point on road number 626 leading to Wachapreague, Virginia, from Fair Oaks; continuing said course; from said point running North 64 degrees 23 minutes West 240.1 feet to a point on the land of R. ## Chapter 6. Budget, Etc.

§ 6.01. Fiscal year; definition of "budget year."

The fiscal year of the city government shall be established by ordinance. Such fiscal year shall also constitute the budget and accounting year. As used in this charter, the term "budget year" shall mean the fiscal year for which any particular budget is adopted and in which it is administered. (1978, c. 576)

§ 6.02. Submission of general budget.

The city manager, at least sixty days prior to the beginning of each budget year, shall submit to the council a general budget. (1978, c. 576)

§ 6.03. Estimates of revenue and expenditures filed by department heads, etc.

It shall be the duty of the head of each department, the judges of all courts, each board or commission, including the school board, and each other officer or agency supported in whole or in part by the city, including the commissioner of revenue, the treasurer, the sheriff, the Attorney for the Commonwealth and clerks of courts to file with the city manager or with his/her designee for budget preparation, at such time as the manager may prescribe, estimates of revenue and expenditure for that department, court, board, commission, office or agency for the ensuing fiscal year. Such estimates shall be submitted on the forms furnished by the city manager's designee for budget preparation and it shall be the duty of the head of each such department, judge, board, commission, office or agency to supply all the information which the city manager may require to be submitted thereon. The city manager's designee for budget preparation shall assemble and compile these estimates and supply such additional information relating to the financial transactions of the city as may be necessary or valuable to the city manager in the preparation of the budgets. The city manager shall hold such hearings as he may deem advisable and with the assistance of the city manager's designee for budget preparation, shall review the estimates and other data pertinent to the preparation of the budgets and make such revisions in such estimates as he may deem proper, subject to the laws of the Commonwealth relating to obligatory expenditures for any purpose, except that in the case of the school board, he may recommend a revision only in its total estimated expenditures. (1978, c. 576; 1980, c. 78)

§ 6.04. Contents and form of general budget.

The general budget shall contain:

- A. An estimate of such portion of the general fund balance, if any, at the end of the current fiscal year as it is proposed to use for meeting expenditures in the general budget.

- B. An estimate of the revenues from current ad valorem taxes on real estate and personal property during the ensuing fiscal year.
- C. An estimate of revenues from all other sources of revenue.
- D. A statement to be furnished by the director of finance of the debt service requirements for the ensuing year.
- E. An estimate of the city's general fund balance deficit, if any, at the end of the current fiscal year and of any other obligations required by this charter to be budgeted for the ensuing fiscal year.
- F. An estimate of expenditures for all other purposes to be met in the ensuing fiscal year.

All the estimates shall be in detail, showing revenues by sources and expenditures by operating units, functions, character and object, so arranged as to show revenues and expenditures as estimated for the current fiscal year and actual revenues and expenditures for the last preceding fiscal year in comparison with estimated revenues and recommended expenditures for the ensuing year. At the head of the budget there shall appear a summary of the budget, which need not be itemized further than by principal sources of anticipated revenue, stating separately the amount to be raised by property tax, and by departments and kinds of expenditures, in such a manner as to present a simple and clear summary of the detailed estimates of the budget. (1978, c. 576; 1980, c. 78)

§ 6.05. Balancing of budget.

In no event shall the expenditures recommended by the city manager in the general budget exceed the receipts estimated, taking into account the estimated general fund balance or deficit at the end of the current fiscal year, as provided in the preceding section, unless property assessments have been raised or unless the city manager shall recommend an increase in the rate of ad valorem taxes on real estate and tangible personal property or other new or increased taxes or licenses within the power of the city to levy and collect in the ensuing fiscal year, the receipts from which, estimated on the basis of the average experience with the same or similar taxes during the three tax years last past, will make up the difference. If estimated receipts exceed estimated expenditures the city manager may recommend revisions in the tax and license ordinances of the city, in order to bring the general fund budget into balance. (1978, c. 576; 1980, c. 78)

§ 6.06. Budget message.

The budget message submitted by the city manager to the council shall be explanatory of the budget, shall contain an outline of the proposed financial policies of the city for the budget year and shall describe in connection therewith the important features of the budget plan. It shall set forth the reasons for salient changes from the previous year in cost and revenue items and shall explain any major changes in financial policy. As a part of the budget message, with relation to the proposed expenditures for down payments and other proposed expenditures for capital projects stated in the budget, the city manager shall include a statement of pending capital projects and proposed new capital projects, relating the respective amounts proposed to be raised therefor by appropriations in the budget and the respective amounts, if any, proposed to be raised therefor by the issuance of bonds during the budget years. (1978, c. 576)

§ 6.07. Appropriation and additional tax ordinances.

At the same time that he submits the general fund budget, the city manager shall present to the council a general appropriation ordinance. The appropriation ordinance shall be based on the general fund budget but need not be itemized further than by administrative units. At the same time, the city manager shall also present any ordinance or ordinances altering the tax rate on real estate and personal property or levying a new tax or altering the rate of any other tax necessary to balance the general fund budget as hereinbefore provided. Nothing contained herein shall prohibit the adoption of an ordinance altering the tax rate on real estate or personal property or the levying of a new tax or altering the rate of any other tax, at a time other than when the general fund budget and general appropriation ordinance is presented to council, when necessary for the efficient operation of the city. The hearing on the budget plan as a whole, as provided in this section shall constitute the hearing on all ordinances presented at the same time the budget is presented. (1978, c. 576; 1980, c. 78)

§ 6.08. Budget, etc., as public record.

The budget and budget message and all supporting schedules shall be a public record in the office of the city manager open to public inspection after the budget has been made public by the city manager; provided, however, that no department or agency, head or judge or board or commission shall divulge details of the proposed budget nor make public statements regarding budget estimates until the budget has been publicized by the city manager and made public by him. Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the city manager from discussing budget estimates with city council. The city manager on authorization from the council shall cause sufficient copies of the budget and budget message to be prepared for distribution to interested persons. (1978, c. 576; 1980, c. 78)

§ 6.09. Publication of notice of public hearing.

At the meeting of the council at which the budget and budget message are submitted, the council shall determine the place and time of the public hearing on the budget, which time shall be at least thirty days prior to the beginning of each budget year, and shall cause to be published a notice of the place and time, not less than fifteen days prior to the date of the public hearing. (1978, c. 576)

§ 6.10. Public hearing on budget.

At the time and place so advertised, or at any time and place to which such public hearing shall from time to time be adjourned, the council shall hold a public hearing on the budget as submitted, at which all interested persons shall be given an opportunity to be heard, for or against the estimates or any item thereof. (1978, c. 576)

§ 6.11. Action by the council on general budget.

After the conclusion of the public hearing on the general budget, the council may insert new items of expenditures or may increase, decrease or strike out items of expenditure in the general fund budget, except that no item of expenditure for debt service as required by law shall be reduced or stricken out. The council shall in no event adopt a general budget in which the total expenditures exceed the revenues, estimated as hereinbefore provided, unless at the same time it adopts measures for providing additional revenue in the ensuing fiscal year, estimated as hereinbefore provided, sufficient to make up the difference. (1978, c. 576; 1980, c. 78)

§ 6.12. Adoption of budget.

The budget shall be adopted by ordinance by the votes of at least a majority of all the members of the council. The budget shall be finally adopted not later than the fifteenth day of the last month of the fiscal year. Should the council take no final action on or prior to such day, the budget, as submitted, shall be deemed to have been finally adopted by the council. (1978, c. 576)

§ 6.13. Additional appropriations.

An appropriation in addition to those contained in the general appropriation ordinance, except for the purpose of meeting a public emergency as provided for elsewhere in this charter, may be made by the council, by not less than a majority affirmative vote of the members present, only if there is an available funding source to meet such appropriation. (1978, c. 576; 1980, c. 78)

§ 6.14. Reserve for permanent public improvements.

The council may by ordinance establish a reserve fund for permanent public improvements and may appropriate thereto any portion of the general fund balance not otherwise appropriated at the close of any fiscal year. It may likewise assign to such fund a specified portion of the ad valorem tax on real estate and tangible personal property not to exceed ten cents on the hundred dollars of the assessed valuation thereof or the whole or part of the proceeds of any other tax. (1978, c. 576; 1980, c. 78)

§ 7.02. Purposes for which bonds may be issued.

Bonds may be issued for the purpose of financing the whole or any part of the cost of any capital improvement project, and to refund outstanding bonds. A capital improvement is hereby defined to include any public improvement or utility which the city is authorized to undertake, including the acquisition of any property, real or personal, incident thereto, the construction or reconstruction in whole or in part of any building, plant, structure, or facility, necessary or useful in carrying out the powers of the city, and in the equipment or re-equipment of the same. (1978, c. 576)

§ 7.03. Limitation on indebtedness.

Except as otherwise provided in §§ 7.07 and 7.08 of this chapter, the city shall not issue bonds or other interest bearing obligations to an amount which, including existing indebtedness, shall, at any time, exceed ten percent of the assessed valuation of real estate in the city subject to taxation, as shown by the last preceding assessment for taxes; provided, however, that in determining the limitations to the power to incur indebtedness, there shall not be included the classes of indebtedness especially described in Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia. (1978, c. 576; 1982, c. 76)

§ 7.04. Notes in anticipation of bonds.

Whenever an issue of bonds has been authorized as provided in this charter, the mayor, when authorized by resolution, shall have power to issue notes of the city in anticipation of such bonds, for the purpose of defraying the whole or any part of the cost of such project. Such notes shall be authenticated by the signature of the mayor and the city treasurer and shall mature not later than five years after the date of issue. (1978, c. 576; 1982, c. 76)

All bonds issued pursuant to this charter shall be issued in accordance with the general laws of Virginia relating to the issuance of bonds by municipalities. (1978, c. 576)

§ 7.06. Payment of bonds and notes generally.

The faith and credit of the city and all taxes and revenues paid thereto are hereby pledged for the payment of principal of and interest on all bonds and notes of the city issued pursuant to this charter, except bonds for revenue producing utilities issued pursuant to this charter and which bonds are by their terms payable solely from the revenues derived from such utilities, whether or not such pledge be stated in the bonds or notes or in the bond ordinances authorizing their issue. (1978, c. 576)

§ 7.07. Bond issues for revenue producing utilities.

The city is hereby empowered to issue from time to time in the manner prescribed by Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia, bonds of the city, for the purpose of acquiring, establishing, constructing, improving or enlarging any sewage disposal system, waterworks, gas plant, electric plant, garbage and trash disposal system, incinerator, toll bridge, motor vehicle parking area or building, airport or other public utility, from which the city may derive a revenue; for the purpose of reimbursing the general fund or any other fund of the city for monies paid from such fund or funds for such purposes; and/or for the purpose of funding or refunding any existing indebtedness incurred for such purposes. Such bonds shall not be included in determining the power of the city to incur indebtedness within the limitation prescribed by Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia or § 7.03 hereof; but, from and after a period to be determined by the council, not exceeding five years from the date of the election authorizing such bonds, whenever and for so long as any such revenue producing utility fails to produce sufficient revenue to pay for cost of operation and administration, including the interest and amortization of such bonds, and the cost of insurance against loss by injury to persons or property, all such bonds outstanding shall be included in determining the limitation of the power of the city to incur indebtedness under any provision of this charter or under the provisions of Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia. The city may, however, issue bonds from time to time for any or all of such purposes, including reimbursement of funds and the funding or refunding of existing indebtedness, in the manner prescribed by Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia, the principal and interest of which bonds shall be payable exclusively from the revenue of such revenue producing utilities and for which payment of principal and interest the full faith and credit of the city shall not be deemed to be pledged, notwithstanding any other provision of this charter, and such bonds shall never be included in determining the limitation of the power of the city to incur indebtedness under the provisions of this charter or under the provisions of Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia. A. That the bonds shall be payable from the ad valorem taxes without limitation of rate or amount; the full faith and credit of the city is deemed to be pledged for the payment of principal and interest thereof; and the bonds are to be issued pursuant to the provisions of Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia and are not to be included in determining the power of the city to incur indebtedness within the limitation prescribed by Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia; provided, however, that from and after a period specified in such ordinance not exceeding five years from the date of the election authorizing the bonds, whenever and for so long as such revenue producing utility fails to produce sufficient revenue to pay for the cost of operation and administration, including the interest on bonds issued therefor, the cost of insurance against loss by injury to persons or property, and an annual amount to be placed into a sinking fund sufficient to pay the bonds at or before maturity, all outstanding bonds issued on account of such revenue producing utility shall be included in determining such limitation; or

B. That the principal and interest of such bonds shall be payable exclusively from the revenue of such revenue producing utility, the faith and credit of the city shall not be deemed to be pledged for the payment of such principal and interest; and the bonds are to be issued pursuant to the provision of Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia and are never to be included in determining the power of the city to incur indebtedness within the limitation prescribed by Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia. Said building lines may be established for the whole or any part of a street (but not for less than one block or the distance between two cross streets), as the council may determine. Before any such lines shall be established, the council shall cause to be published, for at least 10 days in some paper of general circulation in the city, a notice addressed generally, but without naming them, to the owners of the property on which building lines are proposed to be established, stating that it is proposed to establish building lines thereon and naming a day when a hearing will be had in respect thereof. After said hearing the council may proceed to establish such lines, and the ordinance establishing the same shall be recorded by the city clerk and indexed in the name of the street near which said building lines are to be established; and thereafter all persons shall be deemed to be affected with notice of the establishment of such lines, and no permits shall be granted for the construction of any building on the interlying property.

But the ordinance establishing said lines shall become null and void as against any owner of property objecting thereto, unless:

(a) When the interlying property shall be unoccupied by buildings, the city shall, within 60 days after the passage of the ordinance establishing said lines, purchase the same or institute condemnation proceedings for the acquisition thereof; or

(b) When the interlying property is occupied, in whole or in part, by buildings, the city shall, within 60 days after receipt of notice in writing that the said buildings have been removed from said interlying property (it being hereby made the duty of the said owner to give such notice), purchase said interlying property or institute condemnation proceedings for the acquisition thereof, and thereafter complete its acquisition of property in said proceedings.

The rights of the city shall not be prejudiced by any defect in the proceedings instituted under paragraph (a) and (b) hereof, resulting in their dismissal, if within 30 days after said dismissal new proceedings shall be instituted for the same purpose. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting or abridging in any degree the power of eminent domain now possessed by the city under existing law.

The Council.

§ 4. Creation and powers of council.

There is hereby created a council, which shall have full power and authority, except as herein otherwise provided, to exercise all of the powers conferred upon the city. It shall by ordinance fix the salaries of all officers and employees of the city, except the salaries of its own members, which shall be as provided in this charter; and may, so far as is not inconsistent with the provisions of this charter, define the powers and prescribe the duties of all such officers and employees. (1918, c. 34)

§ 4(a). Council may require certain officers and employees to reside in the city.

Notwithstanding the authority granted the civil service commission by paragraph 5 of § 112 of this charter to establish resident requirements for candidates and eligibles, the council shall have the power to provide by ordinance that the regular, permanent officers and employees of the city in the classified and unclassified services, or any of them, as a condition of holding office or employment, shall reside in the city during their continuance in office or employment, and the council shall have the power to make such exceptions to and to impose such conditions upon any resident requirement

§ 5.1. Composition of council.

On and after July 1, 2006, the city council shall consist of seven members, each elected from single-member wards as provided in § 3.2, and a mayor elected at-large. Any member of city council shall be subject to recall in accordance with the provisions of this charter.

The council shall be a continuing body and no measure pending before such body shall abate or be discontinued by reason of the expiration of the term of office or removal of the members of said body or any of them. (2005, cc. 893, 897)

Qualification of Members; Conduct of Candidates.

§ 6. (1918, c. 34; 1940, c. 6; 1992, c. 261; repealed 2005, cc. 893, 897)

§ 6.1. Qualification of members; conduct of candidates.

Beginning with the municipal election in 2006, any person qualified to vote in said city shall be eligible to the office of mayor or for the office of council member for the ward or superward in which such person resides. No person shall serve on council as both mayor and council member from a ward or superward, nor from more than one ward, including superwards. No candidate for the office of council member, including mayor, shall promise any money, office, employment, or other thing of value to secure a nomination or election, or expend in connection with his candidacy any money except as permitted by the general election laws of the state; and any such candidate violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or both, in the discretion of the jury, and shall forfeit his office, if elected; in which event, the person receiving the next highest number of votes from the voters for said office, who has not violated the said provision, shall be entitled to said office. Should there be no such candidate, the council shall fill the office with a person from the vacated ward or superward and, in the case of the office of mayor from the city at-large, in accordance with § 7, until a special election pursuant to general law is held. (2005, cc. 893, 897)

Vacancies.

§ 7. (1918, c. 34; 1940, c. 6; 1950, c. 428; 1956, c. 115; 1982, c. 289; 1983, c. 587; 1992, c. 261; repealed 2005, cc. 893, 897)

§ 7.1. Vacancies.

Any vacancy in the council after July 1, 2006, except as otherwise provided in this Charter, shall be filled by the remaining members. Any person elected to fill an unexpired term for ward representative shall be elected only from among the qualified voters in the ward or superward where such vacancy exists. Any vacancy in the office of mayor shall be filled from among the qualified voters of the city at-large. No candidate shall be elected unless he receives at least five votes in his favor. If by reason of resignation, death, or other circumstances, except in the case of vacancies resulting from a recall election, five or more vacancies exist or occur at the same time in said council, then the members of the civil service commission shall at once convene a majority of said commission and, by a majority vote of the members of said commission present, forthwith make such number of appointments from the wards and superwards where such vacancies exist, or from the city at-large in the case of the mayor, as may be necessary to constitute a council of five qualified members, which five members shall at once proceed to fill the remaining vacancies with qualified members. And in any case the council shall fail to fill a vacancy therein for a period of thirty days after the occurrence of the vacancy, such vacancy shall be filled by said commission as provided herein. The city clerk shall act as the clerk of the commission so constituted, and shall cause his certificate of its action to be entered on the record of the council.

If the term of office so filled, either by the council or by said commission, does not expire for two years after the next regular election of council members following such vacancy, and such vacancy occurs more than one hundred twenty days prior to that election, an additional council member shall then be elected at such election only by the qualified voters of the ward or superward where such vacancy exists, or in the case of the mayor from the city at-large and after the date of his qualification, succeed such appointee, and serve the unexpired term. When any vacancy is so required to be filled by election, the council or commission shall, within fifteen days of the occurrence of the vacancy, petition the circuit court to issue a writ of election to fill the vacancy at the next general election of council members. In the event that more than one vacancy is to be filled by election, the same provision shall apply. The foregoing provisions of this section are subject to the further provision that any vacancy resulting from a recall election shall be filled in the manner provided in such case. (2005, cc. 893, 897)

§ 8. Compensation of council members.

Each member of the council shall receive such salary as shall be established by state law. (1918, c. 34; 1956, c. 100; 1970, c. 484; 2005, cc. 893, 897)

§ 9. Limitations on the powers of the council.

Neither the council, nor any of its members, shall dictate the appointment of any person to office or employment by the city manager, or in any manner interfere with the city manager, or prevent him from exercising his own judgment in the appointment of officers or employees in the administrative service. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the council and its members shall deal with the administrative service solely through the city manager, and neither the council nor any member thereof, shall give orders to any of the subordinates of the city manager either publicly or privately. Any such dictation, prevention, orders or other interferences on the part of a member of the council with the administration of the city, shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof the member so convicted shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars and may, in the discretion of the court, be removed from office. (1918, c. 34)

§ 10. (1918, c. 34; 1975, c. 127; 1976, c. 599; 1982, c. 289; repealed 2005, cc. 893, 897)

§ 10.1. Officers elected by council; rules.

Effective July 1, 2006, the council shall elect a city manager, a city clerk, a city attorney, a city auditor, and a high constable. The said council shall also appoint the members of such boards and commissions as are hereinafter provided for. All elections by the council shall be viva voce and the vote recorded in the record of the council. The mayor shall serve as chair of the council. The council may determine its own rules of procedure, may punish its members for misconduct, and may compel the attendance of members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. It shall keep a record of its proceedings. A majority of all the members of the council, including the mayor, shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time.

No member of the council shall be eligible, during the term of office for which he was elected or appointed, to hold any office filled by the council by election or appointment, except that a member of the council may be named a member of such other boards, commissions, and bodies as may be permitted by general law. (2005, cc. 893, 897)

The council shall appoint a city manager, a city assessor, a city clerk, a city attorney, a city auditor and a high constable, each of whom shall be appointed for an indefinite period and serve at the will of the council. (1918, c. 34; 1976, c. 599; 1999, cc. 479, 525)

§ 11(a). (1952, c. 258; repealed 1976, c. 599)

§ 11(b). The council is authorized to create the position of city architect whose duties shall be to review, advise the council with regard to and recommend approval or disapproval of the plans for the construction or reconditioning of all public buildings to be constructed or reconditioned by the city, and such other duties as the council may prescribe. Such city architect shall be elected by the council for an indefinite period and shall serve at the will of the council, except that he shall not be removed within twelve months from the date he assumes his duties, except for incompetence, malfeasance, misfeasance, or neglect of duty. He shall receive such compensation as may be prescribed by the council, shall be responsible only to the council, shall devote his full time to the duties of his office, shall not be a member of the classified civil service, and shall be a member of the employees' retirement system of the city. (1962, c. 120)

§ 12. Meetings of council.

On the next Tuesday in January after January 1 following the regular municipal election, the council shall meet at the usual place for holding meetings of the legislative body of the city, at which time the newly elected council members shall assume the duties of their office. The time for any such meeting shall be set by ordinance adopted by council not less than thirty nor more than forty-five days prior to the election. Thereafter the council shall meet at such times as may be prescribed by ordinance or resolution. It shall hold at least one regular meeting each month. The mayor, any member of the council, or the city manager, may call special meetings of the council at any time upon at least twelve hours' written notice to each member, served personally or left at his usual place of business or residence; or such meeting may be held at any time without notice, provided all members of the council attend. All meetings of the council shall be public except where closed pursuant to the provisions of general law, and any citizen may have access to the minutes and records thereof at all reasonable times. (1918, c. 34; 1952, c. 239; 1964, c. 24; 1966, c. 188; 1975, c. 127; 1988, c. 519; 1995, c. 164; 1997, c. 535; 2004, c. 52; 2005, cc. 893, 897; 2006, cc. 152, 727; 2014, cc. 235, 683; 2022, c. 288)

§ 13. Penalty for absence.

For each absence of a councilman from a regular meeting of the council, except where such absence is occasioned or required by city business, sickness, or other unavoidable cause, in which case the absence of such councilman may be excused by a two-thirds vote of the council, there shall be deducted from his pay a sum equal to two per centum of his annual salary. Absence from five consecutive regular meetings shall operate to vacate the seat of a member, unless the absence is excused by a council resolution setting forth the reason thereof, and entered upon the record. (1918, c. 34; 1926, c. 289; 1954, c. 72; 1982, c. 289)

Legislative Procedure.

§ 14. (1918, c. 34; 1940, c. 6; 1950, c. 428; 1958, c. 115; 1966, c. 51; 1982, c. 289; repealed 2005, cc. 893, 897)

§ 14.1. Legislative procedure.

Except in dealing with questions of parliamentary procedure, the council shall act only by ordinance or resolution, which shall be introduced in writing, and all ordinances except ordinances making appropriations, or authorizing the contracting of indebtedness or issuance of bonds or other evidences of debt, shall be confined to one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title.

Ordinances making appropriations or authorizing the contracting of indebtedness or the issuance of bonds or other obligations and appropriating the money to be raised thereby shall be confined to those subjects respectively. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the council from authorizing in and by the same ordinance the making of any one public improvement and the issue of bonds therefor.

The enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the council shall be, "Be it ordained by the council of the City of Norfolk"; the enacting clause of all ordinances submitted to popular election by the initiative shall be, "Be it ordained by the people of the City of Norfolk." No ordinance, unless it be an emergency measure, shall be passed until it has been read by its title at two regular meetings not less than one week apart, or the requirements of such reading has been dispensed with by the affirmative vote of five of the members of the council. No ordinance, section, or subsection thereof shall be revised or amended by its title, section number, or subsection number only, but the new ordinance shall contain the entire ordinance, section, or subsection, as revised or amended. The ayes and noes shall be taken upon the passage of all ordinances or resolutions and entered upon the record of the proceedings of the council, and every ordinance or resolution shall require, on final passage, the affirmative vote of at least five of the members. No member shall be excused from voting except on matters involving the consideration of his own official conduct, or where his financial interests are involved.

In authorizing the making of any public improvements, or the acquisition of real estate or any interest therein; or authorizing the contracting of indebtedness or the issuance of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness (except temporary loans in anticipation of taxes or revenues or of the sale of bonds lawfully authorized); or authorizing the sale of any property or rights in property of the City of Norfolk, or granting any public utility franchise, privilege, lease, or right of any kind to use any public property or easement of any description or any renewal, amendment or extension thereof, the council shall act only by ordinance; provided, however, that after any such ordinance shall have taken effect, all subsequent proceedings incidental thereof and providing for the carrying out of the purposes of such ordinance may, except as otherwise provided in this Charter, be taken by resolution of the council.

Emergency Measures.

§ 15. Effective date of ordinances and resolutions.

All ordinances and resolutions passed by the Council shall be in effect from and after thirty days from the date of their passage; provided, however, that the Council may, by the affirmative vote of five of its members, pass any ordinance or resolution to take effect at the time indicated therein, but every measure providing for the sale or lease of city property, or making a grant, renewal or extension of a franchise or other special privilege, or regulating the rate to be charged for its service by any public utility, shall be in effect from and after thirty days from the date of its adoption. (1918, c. 34; 1940, c. 6; 1950, c. 428; 1966, c. 50; 1972, c. 706)

A record or entry made by the city clerk or a copy of such record or entry duly certified by him shall be prima facie evidence of the terms of the ordinance and its due publication.

All ordinances and resolutions of the council may be read in evidence in all courts and in all other proceedings in which it may be necessary to refer thereto, either from a copy thereof certified by the city clerk or from the volume of ordinances printed by authority of the council. (1918, c. 34; 1966, c. 74; 1982, c. 289)

§ 17.1 Mayor.

Effective July 1, 2006, the mayor shall preside at meetings of the council, and perform such other duties consistent with his office as may be imposed by the council. He shall be entitled to a vote, but shall possess no veto power. He shall be recognized as the official head of the city for all ceremonial purposes, by the courts for the purpose of serving civil process, and by the governor for military purposes. He may use said title in any case in which the execution of contracts or other legal instruments in writing, or other necessity arising from the general laws of the state, may so require; but this shall not be construed as conferring upon him the administrative or judicial functions, or other powers or functions, of a mayor, under the general laws of the state. In time of public danger or emergency, he may, with the consent of the council, take command of the police and of the home guards hereinafter provided for and maintain order and enforce laws. During his absence or disability his duties shall be performed by another member appointed by the council.

The powers and duties of the mayor shall be such as are conferred upon him by this Charter, together with such others as may be conferred by the council in pursuance of the provisions of this Charter, and no others. (2005, cc. 893, 897)

It shall be the duty of such commission to fill such vacancy or vacancies temporarily until successors are elected. The proceedings for the recall of the council members, and the election of their successors, shall continue and have the same effect as though there had been no resignation. (1918, c. 34; 1992, c. 261)

§ 29. Miscellaneous provisions.

No petition to recall any councilman shall be filed within one year after he assumes the duties of his office.

The method of removal herein provided shall not be deemed or held exclusive, but is in addition to such other methods as are now or may hereafter be provided by general law. (1918, c. 34)

Initiative.

§ 30. Petition.

Any proposed ordinance or ordinances, including ordinances for the repeal or amendment of an existing ordinance, may be submitted to the council by petition signed by qualified voters equal in number to ten per cent of the number of electors who cast their votes at the last preceding regular municipal election for the election of councilmen. Such petition shall contain the proposed ordinance in full, and shall have appended thereto or written thereon the names and addresses of at least five qualified voters, who shall be officially regarded as filing the petition, and who shall constitute a committee of the petitioners for the purpose hereinafter stated. (1918, c. 34)

§ 31. Time of filing.

All papers comprising the petition shall be assembled and filed with the city clerk, as one instrument, within one hundred and twenty days, from the date of the first signature thereon, and when so filed the clerk shall submit the same to the council at its next regular meeting, and provision shall be made for public hearings upon the proposed ordinance. (1918, c. 34)

§ 32. The council shall at once proceed to consider such petition and shall take final action thereon within thirty days from the date of the submission thereof. If the council rejects the proposed ordinance, or passes it in a form different from that set forth in the petition, or fails to act finally upon it within the time stated, the committee of the petitioners may require that it be submitted to a vote of the electors in its original form, or that it be submitted to a vote of the electors with any proposed change, addition or amendment, by the following procedure: Said committee shall present to the clerk of the corporation court of said city a petition for such election, addressed to said court and signed by qualified voters equal in number to twenty-five per cent of the number of electors who cast their votes at the last preceding regular municipal election for the election of councilmen, but in no case signed by less than four thousand qualified voters of the city. Said petition shall contain the proposed ordinance in full in the form in which it is proposed to submit the same to the electors. The said petition and all copies thereof shall be filed with the clerk of said court as one instrument. Within ten days after the filing thereof the said clerk shall ascertain and certify thereon whether the required number of qualified voters have signed the same. If it be found that the required number of qualified voters have signed the said petition, then the said petition, with the certificate of the said clerk thereon, shall be presented by said committee to the corporation court of said city, or to the judge thereof in vacation, and thereupon the said court, or the judge thereof in vacation, shall forthwith enter an order calling and fixing a date for holding an election for the purpose of submitting the proposed ordinance to the electors of the said city. Any such election shall be held not less than thirty nor more than sixty days after the date of the entering of said order. If any other election is to be held within the said period said court or the judge thereof shall direct that such proposed ordinance shall be submitted to a vote of the electors at such election. At least ten days before any such election the clerk of the said court shall cause such proposed ordinance to be published once in one or more newspapers of general circulation published in said city. (1918, c. 34; 1956, c. 339)

§ 33. The ballots used when voting upon any such proposed ordinance shall state the title of the ordinance to be voted on, and the ballots and method of voting shall conform to the provisions of § 24-141 of the Code of Virginia.

If a majority of the electors voting on such proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, it shall, upon the ascertainment and certification of the results of such election by the commissioners of election, become an ordinance of the city. (1918, c. 34; 1956, c. 339)

§ 34. Ordinances adopted by the electors; how amended or repealed.

No ordinance adopted by the vote of the electors, as herein provided, shall be repealed or amended, except by vote of the electors; but the corporation court of said city, or the judge thereof in vacation, may, on request of the council, by resolution, order an ordinance to repeal or amend any ordinance so adopted, to be submitted to the electors at any regular election, or at any special municipal election called for some other purpose, provided that the clerk of said court shall cause notice of the proposed submission of such ordinance repealing or amending an ordinance, to be published once in one or more newspapers of said city not more than sixty days nor less than thirty days prior to said election. If an amendment is so proposed such notice shall contain the proposed amendment in full, and such submission shall be in the same manner and the vote shall have the same effect as in the case of an ordinance submitted to election by popular petition. (1918, c. 34)

Referendum.

§ 35. Petition for referendum.

If at any time within a thirty-day period following the adoption of an ordinance a petition, signed by qualified voters equal in number to twenty-five per cent of the number of electors who cast their votes at the last preceding regular municipal election for the election of councilmen, but in no case signed by less than four thousand qualified voters of the city, be filed with the city clerk, requesting that any such ordinance be repealed, or amended, as stated in the petition, such ordinance shall not become operative until the steps indicated herein shall have been taken or the time allowed for taking such step shall have elapsed without action. Such petition shall state therein the names and addresses of at least five electors, who shall constitute a committee to represent the petitioners, who shall be officially regarded as filing the petition, and shall constitute a committee of the petitioners for the purposes hereinafter stated. Referendum petitions need not contain the text of the ordinance or ordinances, the amendment or repeal of which is sought, but shall contain the proposed amendment, if an amendment is demanded. (1918, c. 34; 1956, c. 339; 1972, c. 706)

§ 36. Proceedings thereunder.

The city clerk shall present the said petition to the council at its next regular meeting, and thereupon the council shall proceed to reconsider the ordinance. If, within thirty days after the filing of such petition, the ordinance be not repealed or amended as requested in such petition, the city clerk shall, if so requested by a writing signed by a majority of the said committee and presented to the said city clerk within twenty days after the expiration of said period of thirty days, present to the clerk of the corporation court of said city, the said petition and all copies thereof as one instrument together with a copy of the ordinance the repeal of which is sought. Within ten days after the filing of said petition, the clerk of said court shall ascertain and certify whether the required number of qualified voters have signed the same. If it be found that the required number of qualified voters have signed the said petition, then within five days after the expiration of said ten days the said petition, with the certificate of the clerk thereon, shall be presented by the said committee to the corporation court of said city, or to the judge thereof in vacation, and thereupon the said court or the judge thereof in vacation shall forthwith enter an order calling and fixing a date for holding an election for the purpose of submitting the said ordinance to the electors of said city. Thereupon the said ordinance shall ipso facto be further suspended from going into effect until such election shall have been held and shall then be deemed repealed unless approved by a majority of those voting thereon. Any such election shall be held not less than thirty nor more than sixty days after the date of the entering of such order. If any other election is to be held within the said period, said court or the judge thereof in vacation shall direct that the said ordinance shall be submitted to the vote of the electors at such election. At least ten days before any such election the clerk of said court shall cause the said ordinance to be published once in one or more newspapers of general circulation published in said city. (1918, c. 34)

§ 37. Ballots and method of voting.

The ballots used when voting upon such ordinance shall conform in all respects to the ballots required for an initiative election under § 33 hereof, and the method of voting in any such election shall be as prescribed in said section.

If in any such election the ordinance so referred or submitted be approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, the said ordinance shall upon the ascertainment and certification of the results of such election by the commissioners of election, go into effect as an ordinance of the city. (1918, c. 34)

§ 38. Ordinances submitted by popular petition.

Ordinances submitted to the council by initiative petition and passed by the council without change, or passed in an amended form, and not required to be submitted to the vote of the electors by the committee of the petitioners, shall be subject to the referendum in the same manner as other ordinances. (1918, c. 34)

§ 39. Conflict of ordinances.

If two or more ordinances adopted or approved at the same election conflict in respect of any of their provisions, such ordinances shall go into effect in respect of such of their provisions as are not in conflict, and the one receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail insofar as their provisions conflict. (1918, c. 34)

§ 40. Measures not subject to referendum.

Ordinances passed providing for any work, improvement or repairs certified by the city manager to be immediately necessary to protect public property or health from imminent danger, or to protect the city from imminent loss or liability shall not be subject to the referendum. The certificate of the city manager in any such case shall be conclusive. All other ordinances passed unless exempted by law, shall be subject to the referendum in like manner as other ordinances, except that they shall go into effect at the time indicated in such ordinances. If, when submitted to a vote of the electors, an ordinance be not approved by a majority of the voters voting thereon, it shall be considered repealed as regards any further action thereunder; but such measure so repealed shall be deemed sufficient authority for payment in accordance with the ordinance of any expenses incurred previous to the ascertainment and certification by the commissioners of election of the result of the referendum vote thereon. (1918, c. 34; 1972, c. 706)

§ 41. Preliminary action.

In case a petition be filed requesting that a measure passed by the council providing for the expenditure of money, for a bond issue or a public improvement be submitted to a vote of the electors, all steps preliminary to such actual expenditure, actual issue of bonds or actual signing of a contract for such improvements may be taken prior to the election. (1918, c. 34)

The signatures of any such petition need not all be appended to one paper, but to each such paper, (except in the case of copies of recall petitions, which may not be circulated) there shall be attached an affidavit by the circulator thereof stating that each signature appended thereto is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be and that it was made in the presence of the affiant on the date indicated. All copies of any such petition shall be treated as originals. No such petition shall be deemed invalid by reason of the fact that it is signed by one or more persons who are not qualified voters, but the names of such persons shall not be counted. As used in this charter the terms "elector," "qualified elector" and "qualified voter" are synonymous. (1918, c. 34)

§ 44. Presumptions.

All signatures to any petition mentioned in the preceding section hereof shall be accepted and treated as prima facie genuine. For the purpose of certifying the number of qualified voters whose names are signed to any such petition the clerk of the corporation court of said city shall presume that any person whose name appears thereon is a qualified voter under the provisions and within the meaning of § 45 hereof, assuming him to be duly registered.

All such petitions substantially complying with the requirements of this charter and certified by said clerk to bear the required number of signatures of qualified voters shall be accepted and treated as prima facie sufficient. The burden of proving the insufficiency of any such petition in any respect shall be upon the person alleging the same. (1918, c. 34; 2021 Special Session I, c. 371)

§ 45. Qualification of persons signing certain petitions.

The question whether any person is a qualified voter for the purpose of signing any nominating petition or any petition in connection with the initiative, referendum or recall shall be determined as follows: If any petition be signed on or before the second Tuesday in June in any year the person signing the same shall be deemed a qualified voter for that purpose within the meaning hereof, if qualified to vote on said second Tuesday in June. If such petition be signed after the second Tuesday in June in any year, the person signing the same shall be deemed a qualified voter for that purpose within the meaning hereof, if qualified to vote on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of said year. Any person violating any of the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than two hundred dollars.

The foregoing provisions shall not be deemed or held to be exclusive of, but in addition to, all laws of the State prescribing penalties for the same offenses, or for other offenses relating to the same matter. (1918, c. 34)

§ 48. Compensation of clerk of the corporation court.

In case any officer, board or commission shall fail to perform any duty required by law, the city attorney shall apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a writ of mandamus to compel the performance of such duty. If no agreement be effected, such claimant may give to the city attorney of said city ten days' written notice of his intention to apply to the corporation court of said city for the appointment of commissioners to ascertain and assess his said damage. (1918, c. 34)

§ 63. Supervision in divisions of fire and police.

The chief of police and the fire chief, with the approval of the director of public safety, except as hereinafter provided, shall have the right and power to reprimand, or to suspend, for a given number of days or indefinitely, any of the sworn officers and sworn employees in their respective divisions who may be under their management and control, for incompetence, neglect of duty, immorality, drunkenness, failure to obey orders given by proper authority, or for any other just and reasonable cause. This section does not apply to the deputy chief of police, who, like the chief of police and the fire chief, is appointed by and serves at the will of the city manager. If any such officer or employee be suspended for more than ten days or be suspended indefinitely, the chief of the division concerned shall forthwith certify in writing the fact, together with the cause for such suspension, to the trial board hereinafter provided for, and a copy of such certificate of suspension, and the cause therefor, shall be promptly served on such officer or employee, which service may be by an officer of his division or in the manner prescribed by law for the service of civil process.

Such judgment, in the event said accusations or any of them are, in the opinion of said trial board, sustained, may be a reprimand, extra duty without extra compensation, suspension for a fixed time, reduction in rank, or dismissal, as to said trial board may seem proper, which judgment shall be final.

Whenever the judgment of the said trial board is that the accusations were not sustained, it may order the reinstatement of such officer or employee in the office or position from which he was suspended. Such order of reinstatement may, in the discretion of said trial board, be retroactive and provide that such officer or employee shall be entitled to compensation for all or part of the time he was so suspended.

In the event any such officer or employee who is suspended for more than ten days or suspended indefinitely shall not file with said trial board a written demand for a hearing as hereinabove provided, the suspension of such officer or employee shall become final, and if the suspension be for an indefinite period, such officer or employee may be discharged by the city manager without a hearing.

The trial board above referred to shall be known as the Norfolk Police-Fire Trial Board, and the members thereof shall be appointed by the council. It shall consist of not less than three nor more than five members, in the discretion of the council, who shall be qualified voters residing in the city, none of whom shall be in any way connected with any other city office. The first appointment of the members of the said trial board shall be for a term of one year commencing July 1, 1950, and all subsequent appointments shall be for consecutive terms of one year. Any member may be appointed for a consecutive term or terms, and any vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the council for the remainder of the unexpired term. The judgment of a majority of the members appointed on said trial board shall control. The members shall receive such compensation as may be provided by council. Each member shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the oaths provided by § 133 of this Charter for city officers.

The council shall designate one member of said trial board as chairman thereof. The chairman shall have the power to subpoena witnesses, administer oaths and compel the production of any books and papers in connection with any hearing held hereunder by said trial board. Any person refusing or failing to appear and testify or to produce such books and papers, or who shall testify falsely under oath at any hearing held by said trial board, may be proceeded against in the same manner and shall be subject to the same penalties as provided by § 51 of this Charter relating to investigations as to city affairs.

The council shall also designate one member of said trial board as vice-chairman thereof to act in the absence, disability or inability to act of the chairman, and when so acting, the said vice-chairman shall have all the powers herein conferred upon the chairman.

Any such officer or employee against whom accusations are so filed shall have the right to be represented by counsel at any hearing before said trial board. All notices required to be given the trial board may be given to the chairman thereof, or in his absence, to the vice-chairman. (1918, c. 34; 1936, c. 283; 1950, c. 430; 1970, c. 484; 1977, c. 42; 1978, c. 80; 2014, cc. 235, 683)

The city manager, or the assistant director of finance or city controller, as appropriate pursuant to this section, may require any claimant to make oath to the validity of a claim; may investigate any claim, and for such purposes may examine any witnesses under oath; and if such claim be found fraudulent, erroneous or otherwise invalid, shall not issue a warrant therefor. During such time as the city manager shall act as director of finance the aforesaid certification shall be made by the assistant director of finance or the city controller. The sum so certified shall not thereafter be considered unencumbered, until the city is discharged from the contract, agreement or obligation. (1918, c. 34; 1972, c. 706; 2000, cc. 950, 979)

§ 73. Money in fund.

All moneys actually in the treasury to the credit of the fund from which they are to be drawn and all moneys applicable to the payment of the obligation or appropriation involved that are anticipated to come into the treasury before the maturity of such contract, agreement or obligation from taxes, assessments, license fees, or from sales of property or of services, products, or by-products of any city undertaking or federal or state grants, and moneys to be derived from lawfully authorized bonds, for the purpose of such certificate shall be deemed in the treasury to the credit of the appropriate fund and subject to such certification. (1918, c. 34; 1956, c. 115)

§ 74. City treasurer generally.

The city treasurer shall be elected at the time, in the manner and for the term provided in § 23 of this charter. He shall give bond in such sum not less than one hundred thousand dollars, as the council may prescribe, with surety to be approved by the council, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his official duties in relation to the revenue of the city, and of such other official duties as may be imposed upon him by this charter and the ordinances of the city. Subject to the supervision of the city manager, he shall collect and receive all city taxes, levies, assessments, license taxes, rents, water rents, fees and all other revenues or moneys accruing to the city, and for that purpose shall be vested with any and all powers which are now or may hereafter be vested in such city treasurer as collector of State taxes. He shall be the custodian of all public money of the city, and of all other money coming into his hands as city treasurer. The city treasurer shall keep and preserve such moneys in such banks or trust companies as may be determined by ordinance or by the provisions of any law applicable thereto. When city moneys have been deposited in such banks or trust companies as designated by ordinance, the city treasurer shall not be liable for any loss sustained as to funds of the city so deposited. It shall be the duty of said city treasurer to conduct all of the proceedings and render all services necessary to perfect the sale and transfer of real estate in said city where the same shall be sold or advertised for sale for the nonpayment of any taxes or assessments imposed by the council. He shall perform such other duties, have such powers and be liable to such penalties as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law or ordinance. (1918, c. 34; 1950, c. 107; 1958, c. 115; 1974, c. 11; 1976, c. 599)

§ 74(a). Supplementing salary of city treasurer.

The city may supplement the salary of the city treasurer for additional services not required by state law, provided, however, that such supplementary salary shall be paid wholly by the city. (1956, c. 115)

§ 75. Commissioner of the revenue generally.

The commissioner of the revenue shall be elected at the time, in the manner and for the term provided in § 23 of this charter. He shall give bond in such sum not less than ten thousand dollars, as the council may by ordinance prescribe, with surety to be approved by the council, conditioned for the faithful performance of all of his duties under this charter, and under any ordinance of the city. He shall, subject to the supervision of the city manager, perform such duties not inconsistent with the laws of the State in relation to the assessment of property and licenses as may be required by the council for the purpose of levying city taxes and licenses. He shall have power to administer such oaths as may be required by the council in the assessment of license taxes or other taxes for the city. He shall make such reports in regard to the assessment of both property and licenses, or either, as may be required by the council or by the city manager. The council may by ordinance require that all tax bills shall be made out by the commissioner of the revenue and delivered in such manner as said ordinance may prescribe. For all such services the said commissioner of the revenue shall receive such compensation as the council may from time to time prescribe by ordinance. (1918, c. 34; 1976, c. 599)

§ 75(a). Supplementing salary of commissioner of the revenue.

The city may supplement the salary of the commissioner of the revenue for additional services not required by state law, provided, however, that such supplementary salary shall be paid wholly by the city. (1956, c. 115)

§ 76. Vacancies in the office of city treasurer or commissioner of the revenue.

In case of a vacancy in the office of the city treasurer or commissioner of the revenue the council shall elect a qualified person to fill the office in which such vacancy occurs for the unexpired term; provided that if the term of office so filled does not expire for two years or more after the next regular municipal election for the election of councilmen following such vacancy, and such vacancy occurs in time to permit it, a city treasurer or commissioner of the revenue, as the case may be, shall then be elected and shall from and after the date of his qualification succeed such appointee and serve the unexpired term. (1918, c. 34)

§ 77. City purchasing agent.

The city purchasing agent shall, under the supervision of the director of finance, and until the council shall otherwise provide by ordinance, purchase all goods and services for the city, and sell all personal property of the city that may have been condemned as useless by the director of a department of the city, except the purchase of such goods and services and the sale of such personal property for which the council may make other provisions.

He may require from the director of each department, at such times as contracts for goods and services are to be let, a requisition for the quantity and kind of goods and services to be paid for from the appropriations of the department. Upon certification that funds are available in the proper appropriations, such goods and services shall be purchased and shall be paid for from funds in the proper department for that purpose. He shall not purchase any goods and services for any department unless there be to the credit of such department an available appropriation balance sufficient to pay for such goods and services. However, this procedure shall not prevent him from purchasing goods and services for cash on account of storehouse stock for future use by the various departments under such regulations as the director of finance may prescribe.

Before making any purchase or sale, he shall give opportunity for competition under such rules and regulations as may be established by the director of finance.

He shall perform such other duties in connection with the purchase of goods and services and the sale of personal property of the city as may be from time to time prescribed by the council. (1918, c. 34; 1956, c. 115; 2000, cc. 950, 979)

§ 78. Emergency purchases.

In cases of emergency, purchases may be made without competition, if a sufficient appropriation has theretofore been made against which such purchases may lawfully be charged. In such cases a copy of the order issued shall be filed with the city purchasing agent, together with a certificate by the head of the department, stating the facts constituting the emergency. (1918, c. 34; 2000, cc. 950, 979)

§ 79. Contingent fund.

Provision shall be made in the annual budget and in the annual appropriation ordinance for a reasonable contingent fund under the exclusive control of the city manager to be expended for use in the administration of the city's affairs in emergency situations as certified to by the city manager and under such rules of procedure therefor as the council shall prescribe. The city manager shall at least once in each quarter report to the council in writing all such emergency payments, together with a statement of the facts constituting the emergency in each case. (1918, c. 34; 1976, c. 599)

§ 80. Public improvements.

Any public work or improvement costing more than fifteen thousand dollars, except as provided in the next succeeding section, shall be executed by written contract. All contracts for more than fifteen thousand dollars shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder after public advertisement and competition, as may be prescribed by ordinance. No contract may be split or divided to avoid the requirement of competition. But the city manager shall have the power to reject any and all bids and all advertisements shall contain a reservation of this right. (1918, c. 34; 1958, c. 115; 1972, c. 706; 1978, c. 80)

§ 81. Improvements by direct labor; emergency work.

After bids shall have been advertised for and received for making any public improvement or doing any public work, or if no bids are received, the council may authorize the making of such improvement or doing of such work by the direct employment of the necessary labor and purchase of the necessary materials and supplies on the basis of detailed estimates submitted by the department authorized to execute such work or improvement; provided the probable cost of such work or improvements as shown by such estimate is less than the bid of the lowest responsible bidder for the same work or improvement; and provided further, that the city manager shall certify to the council that in his opinion the cost of making such improvement or doing such work will not exceed the said estimate. Separate accounts shall be kept of all work and improvements so done or made.

In an emergency requiring immediate action the city manager may cause any such improvement to be made or other public work to be done by direct employment of the necessary labor and purchase of the necessary material and supplies without previously advertising for or receiving bids therefor. Every such case shall be reported by him in writing to the council at its next regular meeting with a statement of the facts constituting such emergency. Separate accounts shall be kept of all such work; provided that nothing in this or the next preceding section shall prevent the said city from doing maintenance and repair work by direct labor and from maintaining a reasonable force of men for that purpose. (1918, c. 34; 1974, c. 11)

§ 82. Alteration or modification of contracts.

When it becomes necessary in the performance of any work under contract to make amendments or modifications to such contract, such amendments or modifications shall be made only upon the order of the city manager, unless otherwise provided by council by ordinance. No such order shall be effective until the price to be paid for the work and material, or both, and the credits, if any, to be allowed the city, under the amended or modified contract, shall have been agreed upon in writing and signed by the contractor and by the city manager, or by the person designated by the council by ordinance. (1918, c. 34; 1970, c. 484; 2000, cc. 950, 979)

§ 83. Contracts for public advertising.

All public advertising or publications necessary under this charter shall be in a daily newspaper of general circulation published in the city, and shall be done by contract; or in a journal published by the city as may be determined by ordinance; provided that the publication of notice of the sale of lands for delinquent taxes and assessments thereon under § 90 of this charter shall only be in a newspaper of general circulation published in said city. If such contract shall be with the publisher of a newspaper it shall be entered into only after opportunity has been given for competition under such rules and regulations as the council may provide and for a term not exceeding one year. (1918, c. 34)

§ 84. (1918, c. 34; repealed 1976, c. 599)

§ 85. (1918, c. 34; 1950, c. 436; 1972, c. 706; repealed 1983, c. 587)

§ 86. Bond issues generally.

(1) The council may in the name and for the use of the city contract debts and make and issue or cause to be made and issued as evidence thereof, bonds, notes or other obligations, upon the credit of the city or solely upon the credit of specific property owned by the city, or personal property including investments and other securities deposited in a separate account and held for, and pledged to, the payment of principal of and interest on such bonds, notes or other obligations, or solely upon the credit of income derived from property used in connection with any public utility owned and operated by the city, such bonds and notes or other obligations to be either coupon or registered bonds, or coupon bonds with the privilege to the holder of having same registered as to principal or as to both principal and interest. Such bonds may be made subject to redemption prior to maturity, with or without premium, and subject to such notice as may be provided in the ordinance authorizing such bonds or in a resolution adopted in connection with the sale of such bonds. But except as provided in clause (4) of this section no debt shall hereafter be contracted for a longer period than that of the probable life of the work or object for which the debt is to be contracted, to be determined by the director of public works and by him certified as hereinafter provided. In determining the probable life or probable average life of works or objects as hereinafter provided, the director of public works shall not deem the life of the following classes of work or objects to exceed the following periods, namely: roadways of streets having, at the time the debt is contracted, railroad or street railway tracks thereon, fifteen years; roadways of all other streets, twenty years; school houses, thirty years; other public buildings, forty years; iron bridges, thirty years; concrete bridges, forty years; parks or other real estate, fifty years; and all other works or objects not hereinabove specified, thirty years. In the event that a debt shall be authorized for purposes falling within two or more of the above-named classes, it shall be the duty of the director of public works to determine and certify as hereinafter provided the probable average life of the works or objects for which said debt is contracted, taking into consideration the nature of said works or objects and the portion of said debt applicable to said works or objects, respectively. The words "probable life," as herein used, shall be construed to mean the length of time that will probably elapse before any particular improvement (assuming it to be kept in reasonable current repair) will reasonably require replacement.

(2) No bond, note, or other obligation of the city shall hereafter be issued except as hereinafter provided in the case of temporary loans, unless and until there is filed with the city clerk a certificate from the director of public works in substantially the following form:

"I hereby certify that the probable life (or 'the probable average life') of the work or object (or 'the works or objects') for which the debt authorized by the ordinance entitled (naming it) is contracted is as great as the longest period fixed for the maturity of any obligation issued or to be issued under the same ordinance"; and the said certificate shall be conclusive.

(3) The maximum periods hereinabove fixed for the contracting of debts for the several purposes hereinabove set forth may be changed at any time by the General Assembly, or under its authority, as to any bonds to be issued after said change is made, and such change shall not be deemed to constitute an impairment of the obligation of the contract of the city as to any bonds theretofore issued.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section the city may issue, without the certification of the director of public works above-mentioned, bonds, notes or other obligations for the purpose of refunding any obligations of the city at any time, whether or not prior to the maturity or earliest redemption date of the obligations to be refunded and including interest on the obligations to be refunded; but no such refunding bonds, notes or obligations shall be issued for a period which exceeds twenty-five years.

(5) Bonds issued by the city may be either serial bonds or term bonds. Serial bonds shall be payable in annual installments, the first of which shall be payable at any time within two years of the date of the bonds, and the last of which shall be payable within the period of probable life of the work or object for which the debt evidenced by said bonds was created, ascertained and certified as hereinabove provided. Such installments may be in amounts determined by the council either in the ordinance authorizing such bonds or in a resolution adopted in connection with the sale of such bonds. Unless otherwise provided by ordinance for bonds issued for the purposes of refunding of outstanding bonds of the city, no installment shall be greater than double the amount of the smallest. If term bonds are issued which mature prior to the first principal repayment date of an issue of serial bonds, the first annual installment of such serial bonds may be more than two years after the date of such bonds. Term bonds must be payable within the period of the probable life of the work or object for which the debt evidenced by said bonds was created, ascertained and certified as hereinabove provided; and the council, either in the ordinance authorizing such bonds or in a resolution adopted in connection with the sale of the bonds, shall establish a sinking fund into which deposits shall be made for the payment of the principal of such bonds, in such amounts and in such times as may be determined by the council so that such bonds will be fully retired either by redemption or by payment at maturity by the maturity date thereof.

(6) [Repealed.]

(7) All bonds issued after April 1, 1916, shall be paid at their respective maturities, and, except in the case of obligations of said city issued after April 1, 1916, and prior to the enactment of this Charter, which mature not more than three years from the date thereof, no refunding bonds shall be issued for the payment thereof; provided, however, that if for any reason there shall not at the time of the maturity of any such bonds be sufficient funds of said city available for the payment thereof, it shall be lawful for the city to borrow money and issue negotiable notes to the amount required to pay such maturing bonds, which bonds shall be paid out of taxes to be levied and collected within the three years next succeeding the year in which such notes were issued. The payment out of the proceeds of the sale of any bonds of temporary loans made in anticipation of the sale of such bonds shall not be deemed a refunding of such temporary loans within the meaning of this clause. If the council shall fail to make provision for the payment of any sinking fund installment required as to any bonds lawfully issued under this section, or of any installment of serial bonds lawfully issued under this section, and such default shall continue for sixty days, then, and in either of said events, the city treasurer shall, without further direction from the council, and notwithstanding any contrary direction from the council, pay such sinking fund or serial bond installments from moneys then in his hands, if sufficient; and, if not, then from the first moneys that shall come into his hands thereafter.

(8) Pending the issuance or sale of any bonds, notes or other obligations by this section authorized, or in anticipation of the receipt of taxes and revenues of the current fiscal year, or of either of the two fiscal years immediately preceding the current fiscal year, it shall be lawful for the city to borrow money temporarily and issue notes or other evidences of indebtedness therefor, and from time to time to renew such temporary loans to be ultimately repaid from the proceeds of said bonds, notes or other obligations, or from the city taxes and revenues, as the case may be; provided that such temporary loans, including all renewals thereof, if made pending the issuance or sale of bonds, notes or other obligations, issued under clause (5) five hereof, shall not be made for a period greater than five (5) years, nor shall they exceed in the aggregate at any one time the amount of such bonds, notes or other obligations remaining unissued and unsold; and temporary loans made in anticipation of the receipt of taxes and revenues of any fiscal year including all renewals thereof, shall not be made for a period greater than the period ending two years after the expiration of such fiscal year and shall not exceed in the aggregate at any one time the uncollected portion of the taxes and revenues in anticipation of which such notes or other evidences of indebtedness are issued. All such temporary loans shall be evidenced by instruments upon the face of which there shall be plainly written "temporary loans." No such loan made pending the issuance or sale of bonds, notes, or other obligations under the provisions of clause (5) five hereof shall be valid unless the said bonds, notes or other obligations shall have been first legally authorized. The provisions of clauses (1) to (5) inclusive, of this section, shall not apply to said temporary loans.

(9) The credit of the city shall not, directly or indirectly, under any device or pretense whatsoever, be granted to or in aid of any person, association or corporation. The council shall not issue any bonds, notes or other obligations of the city, or increase the indebtedness thereof, to an amount greater than ten percent of the assessed valuation of the real estate in the city subject to taxation as shown by the last preceding assessment for taxation; provided, however, that in determining the limitation of the power of the city to incur indebtedness there shall not be included the classes of indebtedness mentioned in numbered subdivisions (1), (2), (3) and (4) of subsection (a) of § 10, Article VII of the Constitution of Virginia.

(10) Bonds of the city, the principal and interest on which are payable exclusively from the revenues and receipts of a water system or other specific undertaking or undertakings from which the city may derive a revenue, or secured solely or together with such revenues, by contributions of other units of government, may be issued pursuant to the provisions of this Charter and any general law of the State of Virginia as the council may deem applicable with regard to the funds and revenues pledged, covenants by the city with regard to fees and charges and other matters required for the protection of bondholders, remedies of bondholders and appointment of a trustee as well as the right of such trustee to the appointment of a receiver. The provision of clause (5) of this section shall not apply to such bonds and the ordinance authorizing such bonds shall not be subject to a vote of the qualified voters. Such bonds shall not be a debt of the city and the city shall not be liable thereon except to the extent set forth in the ordinance pursuant to which the bonds are authorized and in no event shall such bonds be payable out of any funds other than those referred to in such ordinance. The bonds shall not constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any debt limitation or restriction.

(10-a) Bonds pledging the full faith and credit of the city authorized by an ordinance enacted in accordance with Article VII of the Constitution of Virginia and approved by the affirmative vote of the qualified voters of the city voting upon the question of their issuance, for a supply of water or other specific undertaking from which the city may derive a revenue, may be issued without being included in determining the limitation on indebtedness set forth in clause (9) of this section and in Article VII, § 10 of the Constitution of Virginia, but from and after a period to be determined by the council not exceeding five years from the date of such election, whenever and for so long as such undertaking fails to produce sufficient revenue to pay for the cost of operation and administration (including interest on bonds issued therefor), the cost of insurance against loss by injury to persons or property, and an annual amount to be placed into a sinking fund sufficient to pay the bonds at or before maturity, all outstanding bonds issued on account of such undertaking shall be included in determining the limitation on indebtedness set forth in clause (9) of this section and in Article VII, § 10 of the Constitution of Virginia.

(11) Every ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds shall specify the purpose or purposes for which they are to be issued, the aggregate amount of the bonds, the term for which they shall be issued, and the rate or maximum rate of interest to be paid thereon. Any such ordinance may be amended by ordinance at any time before the bonds to be affected by such amendment have been sold. All other matters relating to such bonds may be determined by resolution, within the limitations prescribed by such ordinance or by this act.

(12) All bonds shall be under the seal of the city and shall be signed by the city treasurer or one of his deputies and by such other officer or officers of the city as may be designated in the ordinance authorizing the bonds. If such ordinance shall so determine, the officer or officers signing the bonds, other than the city treasurer or his deputy, may sign the bonds by their facsimile signatures, in lieu of manual signatures; but the signature of the city treasurer or his deputy on such bonds shall be in his own proper handwriting, provided that the treasurer may cause the bonds to be executed by a facsimile of his signature if a fiscal agent, transfer agent or registered agent is appointed with authority to manually authenticate each bond. Coupons attached to a bond shall be authenticated by the facsimile signature of the city treasurer. (1918, c. 34; 1932, c. 93; 1950, c. 436; 1964, c. 23; 1972, c. 706; 1983, c. 587; 1988, c. 519)

§ 86(a). Notwithstanding anything contained in this charter or in any other law, any serial bonds issued by said city prior to the first day of January, 1952, in accordance with subdivision 6 of § 86 of this charter, may, in the discretion of the council, be made payable in annual installments, the first of which shall be payable in the fiscal year 1953 and the last of which shall be payable within the period of the probable life, ascertained and certified as provided in said § 86, of the work or object for which the debt evidenced by said bonds is created. (1942, c. 99)

§ 86(b). Bond ordinances may specify one or more classes of objects or purposes.

Any ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds adopted pursuant to § 86 may specify one or more single specific objects or purposes as the purposes for which the bonds are to be issued and the maximum principal amount of bonds to be issued for each such specific object or purpose or may specify one or more classes of objects or purposes, each to be described in brief and general terms sufficient for reasonable identification, and the maximum principal amount of bonds to be issued for each such class of objects or purposes. Bonds authorized for a single specific object or purpose shall not be issued until an ordinance authorizing the carrying out of such object or purpose has been adopted and taken effect. Bonds authorized for a class of objects or purposes may be issued either before or after ordinances authorizing the carrying out of such objects or purposes have been adopted and taken effect, but none of the moneys raised by the issuance of the bonds issued for such class of objects or purposes shall be applied to the financing of an object or purpose included in such class of objects or purposes until an ordinance authorizing the carrying out of such object or purpose has been adopted and taken effect, and the aggregate amount of the moneys so applied shall not exceed the amount appropriated to said object or purpose and directed to be expended from the moneys raised by the issuance of the bonds authorized for such class of objects or purposes, either by said ordinance or by a resolution adopted by the council. (1956, c. 124)

§ 86(c). Facsimile seal may be used on bonds.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this charter bonds issued pursuant thereto need not be under the seal of the city provided they bear a facsimile of such seal. (1956, c. 124)

§ 87. Special assessments.

All local or special assessments shall be made and collected by the director of finance under such regulations as the council may by ordinance prescribe.

Provision shall be made by ordinance for the method of levying and apportioning such special assessments, for the publication of plans, for serving notice upon the owners of property affected, and for giving to such owners an opportunity to be heard before final action on the assessment.

Any person affected by such special or local assessment may appeal from the decision of the director of finance as to any such assessment against him to the corporation court of said city. (1918, c. 34)

§ 87(a). (1950, c. 488; 1972, c. 706; repealed 1976, c. 599)

§ 88. Levy for taxes.

All goods and chattels of any person against whom taxes for the city are assessed may be distrained and sold for said taxes when due and unpaid in the same manner and to the same extent that goods and chattels may be distrained and sold for State taxes.

A tenant by whom payment is made or from whom payment is obtained, by distress or otherwise, of taxes or levies due the city, by a person under whom he holds, shall have credit for the same against such person out of the rents he may owe him, except when the tenant is bound to pay such taxes and levies by an express contract with such person. And where taxes or levies are paid to the city by any fiduciary on any estate in his hands or for which he may be liable, such taxes and levies shall be refunded out of the said estate. (1918, c. 34)

§ 88(a). Assessment and equalization of assessments of real estate.

The council of said city shall have the right and power, in lieu of any other method prescribed by law, to provide for the annual assessment and reassessment of real estate for taxation, and to that end may appoint in the manner and for the term prescribed in § 11 of this charter a single assessor to assess such real estate for taxation, may prescribe the duties and term of office of said assessor, may require that he shall give his entire time to the duties of his office, may remove him for cause, may fix his compensation, which shall be payable out of the local treasury, and may likewise provide for such technical and clerical assistance as may be necessary or advisable and for the payment of any other expenses that may be properly incident thereto. Such person so appointed shall be the city assessor and shall have such number of assistants as the council by ordinance may provide, such assistants to be nominated by him and confirmed by the council. Said annual assessments or reassessments shall be completed by said assessor by the thirty-first day of March of the year in which they are made.

All such real estate shall be assessed at its fair market value and the taxes for each year on such real estate shall be extended on the basis of the last assessment made prior to such year, subject to such changes as may have been lawfully made.

Notwithstanding any of the provisions of §§ 58-895 and 58-899 to 58-901, inclusive, of the Code of Virginia, the circuit court of said city or the judge thereof in vacation shall, annually, appoint for the city a board of review of real estate assessments, to be composed of three members, who shall be freeholders of said city. The terms of such members shall commence on their appointment and shall expire on the thirtieth day of November of the year in which they are appointed unless such terms are extended. Such court or the judge thereof in vacation may extend the terms of the members of the said board of review and shall fill any vacancy therein for the unexpired term. The members of the said board shall receive per diem compensation for the time actually engaged in the duties of the board, to be fixed by the council of said city, and to be paid out of the treasury of said city, provided, however, that the council of said city may limit the per diem compensation to such number of days as, in its judgment, is sufficient for the completion of the work of the board.

Such board of review shall have and may exercise the power to revise, correct and amend any assessments of real estate made by said assessor in the year in which they serve, and to that end shall have all the powers conferred upon boards of equalization by §§ 58-903 and 58-912, inclusive, of the Code of Virginia. Notwithstanding any provision of said sections, however, the board of review may adopt any regulations providing for the oral presentation, without formal petitions or other pleadings of requests for review, and looking to the further facilitation and simplification of proceedings before the board.

Any person of said city aggrieved by any assessment made by said assessor or board of review may apply for relief in the manner provided by §§ 58-1145 to 58-1151, inclusive, of the Code of Virginia.

This section shall not apply to the assessment of any real estate assessable under the law by the State Corporation Commission. (1950, c. 488; 1983, c. 587; 1999, cc. 479, 525)

§ 88(b). Annual assessment, reassessment and equalization of real estate taxes.

Notwithstanding the August thirty-first date prescribed by § 88(a) of the charter, in the event the council, pursuant to State law, provides that the assessment of real property whenever made, except that of public service corporations which is assessed by the State Corporation Commission, shall become effective for city tax purposes on the first day of July of each year then the annual assessment or reassessment of such property shall be completed by the assessor by the last day of February of the fiscal year in which they are made. (1968, c. 219)

§ 89. Lien for taxes, etc.

There shall be a lien on all real estate and on each and every interest therein for the city taxes assessed thereon, from the commencement of the year for which they were assessed, and also for all local assessments which may be made thereon according to law. There shall also be a lien on any land or premises for the amount of expense incurred by said city in abating any nuisance thereon or cutting or removing weeds therefrom, after notice to the owner thereof by publication or otherwise as may be provided by ordinance; provided, however, that the lien for the amount of any such local assessment or for the expense of abating any nuisance or cutting or removing weeds from any premises shall not be good against a purchaser of such land or premises for value without notice except and until from the time that the same shall be docketed in a book or books kept for that purpose in the office of the city treasurer and indexed in the name of the person or persons owning such estate or land at the time the said lien accrued. The council may require such real estate in the city delinquent for the non-payment of taxes, or assessments on expenses incurred as above provided, to be sold for said taxes or assessments or expenses, with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum, and such percentage as may be prescribed for charges. (1918, c. 34)

§ 90. (1918, c. 34; 1968, c. 473; repealed 1976, c. 599)

§§ 91 through 97. (1918, c. 34; repealed 1976, c. 599)

§ 98. Sales for local assessments, etc.

The council may by ordinance provide the method of making sale of any lands, lots or premises for non-payment of the amount of any local or special assessments thereon, or for the non-payment of any expense incurred by the city in abating any nuisance thereon, or cutting or removing weeds therefrom as provided in § 89 hereof. (1918, c. 34)

§ 99. Audit of official accounts.

Upon the death, resignation, removal, or expiration of the term of any fiscal officer of the city, other than the director of finance, the director of finance shall make an audit and investigation of the accounts of such officer, and shall report the result thereof to the city manager and to the council. (1918, c. 34)

§ 135. (1918, c. 34; repealed 1976, c. 599)

§ 136. General laws to apply.

All general laws of the State applicable to municipal corporations now in existence or hereafter enacted and which are not in conflict with the provisions of this charter or with ordinances or resolutions hereafter enacted by the council pursuant to authority conferred by this charter shall be applicable to the said city; provided, however, that nothing contained in this charter shall be construed as limiting the power of the council to enact any ordinance or resolution not in conflict with the Constitution of the State or with the express provisions of this charter. (1918, c. 34)

§ 136(a). Procedure upon exercise of right of eminent domain.

In addition to the other powers conferred by law the city may, in exercising the right of eminent domain, make use of the procedure prescribed by the general law or may elect to proceed as hereinafter provided. In the latter event the ordinance directing acquisition of any property shall provide therein in a lump sum the total funds necessary to compensate the owners thereof for the property to be acquired or damaged. Upon the adoption of such ordinance the city may file a petition in the clerk's office of a court having jurisdiction, which shall be signed by the city manager and set forth the interest or estate to be taken in the property and the uses and purposes for which the property or the interest or estate therein is wanted; or when property is not to be taken but is likely to be damaged, the necessity for the work or improvement which will cause or is likely to cause such damage. There shall also be filed with the petition a plat of a survey of the property with a profile showing cuts and fills, trestles and bridges, if any, and a description of the property which, or an interest of estate in which, is sought to be taken or likely to be damaged and a memorandum showing names and residences of the owners and tenants of the property, if known, and showing also the quantity of property which, or an interest or estate in which, is sought to be taken or which will be or is likely to be damaged. There shall be filed also with the petition a notice thereof directed to the owners and tenants of the property, if known, copies of which shall be served on such owners as well as on the tenants of such property, if known. If any such person be unknown or a nonresident of the State or cannot with reasonable diligence be found in the State, or if his residence be unknown, he may be proceeded against by order of publication published once a week for two successive weeks in a daily newspaper published in the City of Norfolk, and shall be posted at a main entrance to the courthouse.

Upon the filing of the petition and the funds provided by the council for the purpose having been duly deposited to the credit of court, if the court is of the opinion that the property or interest or estate therein to be acquired is for the uses and purposes of the city as provided by law, it shall order that the interest or estate of the owner of such property shall terminate and the title of such property or the interest or estate to be taken in such property shall be vested absolutely in the city and such owner shall have such interest or estate in the funds so deposited as he had in the property taken or damaged and all liens by deed of trust, judgment or otherwise upon said property or estate shall be transferred to such funds and the city shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of such property for its uses and purposes and to construct its works or improvements. The clerk of the court in which such proceeding is instituted shall make and certify a copy of the order and deliver or transmit the same to the clerk of the court in which deeds are admitted to record, who shall record the same in his deed book and index it in the name of the record title owner of such property and in the name of the city, for which he shall receive the fees prescribed for recording a deed, which shall be paid by the city.

If the city and the owner of property so taken or damaged agree upon compensation therefor, upon filing such agreement in writing in the clerk's office of such court the court or judge thereof in vacation shall make such distribution of such funds as to it may seem right, having due regard to the interest of all persons therein whether such interest be vested, contingent or otherwise, and to enable the court or judge to make a proper distribution of such money it may in its discretion direct inquiries to be taken by a special commissioner in order to ascertain what persons are entitled to such funds and in what proportions and may direct what notice shall be given of the making such inquiries by such special commissioner.

If the city and the owner cannot agree upon the compensation for the property taken or damaged, if any, upon the filing of a memorandum in the clerk's office of said court to that effect, signed by either the city or the owner, the court shall appoint commissioners provided for in § 25-46.20 of the Code of Virginia, and shall in the order appointing such commissioners designate the day and hour for them to meet, and all proceedings thereafter shall be had as provided in §§ 25-46.20 through 25-46.34 of the Code of Virginia insofar as they are then applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this section, and the court shall order the deposit in bank to the credit of the court such additional funds as appear to be necessary to cover the award of the commissioners or shall order the return to the city of such funds deposited that are not necessary to compensate such owners for property taken or damaged. The commissioners so appointed shall not consider improvements placed upon the property by the city subsequent to its taking nor the value thereof nor the enhancement of the value of the property by such improvements in making their award. Provided, however, that the provisions of § 25-233 of the Code of Virginia, as now or hereafter in effect, shall apply to any property belonging to any corporation possessing the power of eminent domain that may be taken hereunder.

§ 138. Continuance of present officers.

Upon the taking effect of this charter on the first day of September, 1918, all members of the present council of said city, members of the board of control, and the mayor, shall go out of office and their respective offices shall be abolished. The judges of the several courts of said city, the clerks of such courts, the attorney for the Commonwealth, the commissioner of the revenue, the city treasurer and the city sergeant then in office shall continue in office to the end of the respective terms for which they were elected and until their respective successors shall have been elected and qualified. All other persons holding office in said city on the first day of September, 1918, shall continue in office and in the performance of their duties until provision shall have been made in accordance with the provisions of this charter for the performance or discontinuance of the duties of any such office. When such provision shall have been made the term of any such officer shall expire and the office shall be ipso facto abolished. In case of dispute, the council may by resolution declare when the functions and duties of any such office or position have been provided for, and the said office or position abolished, and its decision thereon shall be final. The powers which are conferred and the duties which are imposed upon any officer, board, commission or department of the city under the laws of the State shall, if such office, board, commission or department is abolished by this charter, be thereafter exercised and discharged by the officer, board, commission or department upon whom are imposed corresponding functions, duties and powers under the provisions of this charter. (1918, c. 34)

§ 139. Continuance of contracts.

All contracts entered into by the city or for its benefit prior to the taking effect of this charter shall continue in full force and effect. All public works begun prior to the taking effect of this charter shall be continued and completed hereunder. Public improvements for which legislative steps shall have been taken under laws in force at the time this charter takes effect may be carried to completion in accordance with the provisions of such laws. (1918, c. 34)

§ 140. Hours of labor.

The council shall have power to provide by ordinance that on any public work carried on by the municipality, whether done by contract or otherwise, not to exceed eight hours a day shall constitute a day's work; but such ordinance shall not prevent persons who may be employed for one week or longer from making up lost time by working longer than eight hours in any one day; provided they are not required to work more than forty-eight hours in any one week, nor shall such ordinance apply in cases of emergency. (1918, c. 34)

§ 141. Power to appoint boards or commissions of citizens.

The council may, at the request of the city manager, appoint boards or commissions, to be composed of such number of citizens regardless of sex as the council may deem expedient to act in an advisory capacity in conjunction with any one or more of the departments created or authorized hereby. The members of all such commissions shall serve without compensation. (1918, c. 34)

§ 142. Removal of members of boards and commissions.

The members of all boards and commissions, whose members are by this charter elected or appointed by the council, may be removed by the council at any time for malfeasance or misfeasance or for failure or neglect to perform any of the duties of their respective offices or positions. (1918, c. 34)

§ 143. Working prisoners.

Subject to the general laws of the State regulating the working of those convicted of offenses against the State, the council shall have the power to provide by ordinance for the employment or the working, either within or without the city limits, or within or without any city prison or jail, of all persons sentenced to confinement in said prison or jail for the violation of the laws of the State of Virginia or the ordinances of the city of Norfolk. (1918, c. 34)

§ 143(a). Pension funds generally.

In addition to the other powers conferred by law, the council of said city shall have the right and power to establish and maintain, in such manner and to such extent and in such combination thereof as said council may deem desirable, a system or systems of pensions and retirement allowances for, and death benefits for the designated beneficiaries of, the officers and employees of said city, including policemen and firemen and such other officers and employees whose entire compensation is paid directly by said city, but not to include officials elected by the people or the General Assembly, except that the council of said city may, in its discretion, include therein members of the city council, the city treasurer and the employees in that office, the commissioner of the revenue and the employees in that office, the city sheriff and the employees in that office, the clerks of the courts of record of the city and the employees in their respective offices, the commonwealth's attorney of the city and the employees in that office, the employees in the welfare department of the city, and any person who becomes a State employee by virtue of an agreement between the city and the State, or any department, board or agency thereof, affiliating the city's department of public health with the State Health Department, provided such person was a city employee and a member of the employees' retirement system of the city on the effective date of any such agreement and does not elect, in writing, and within sixty days after the effective date of any such agreement, to become a member of the State's retirement system, or any of them, and to that end, shall have authority to establish a fund or funds for the payment of such pensions, retirement allowances and death benefits by making appropriations out of the treasury of said city, by requiring contributions from time to time from those participating in any such system, or by any other mode not prohibited by law, or by any combination of said methods, to make rules and regulations for the management, investment and administration of such fund or funds, and the payment of such pensions, retirement allowances and death benefits, and to do all such other things that may be deemed necessary or advisable to carry into effect the provisions of any such system or systems.

The pensions accruing and to accrue to any such officer or employee or to the beneficiary thereof, under any such system, and the accumulated contributions, securities, moneys and assets of any such fund, are hereby exempted from State, county and municipal taxation to the extent permitted by other law, and shall not be subject to execution, attachment or garnishment, or any other process whatsoever, and shall be unassignable except as provided by a regulation of such system.

The council shall have the continuing right and power to amend at any time any ordinance adopted pursuant to the provisions hereof, which right and power is expressly reserved to them, but no such amendment shall be adopted which will reduce the then accrued benefits of such officers and employees and beneficiaries covered by any such system or systems below to the extent they may be then covered by accumulative reserves in any such fund or funds, which shall constitute a trust fund or funds for the payment of such benefits.

The inclusion in the system of pensions, retirement allowances and death benefits heretofore established by the city or any of the officers or employees embraced within the provisions of this section as above amended, but not embraced within the provisions thereof prior to the above amendment, by an ordinance effective January 1, 1954, are hereby authorized, ratified and confirmed, and said ordinance shall have the same force and effect as if this section had become effective on January 1, 1954.

In addition to the foregoing powers the council is hereby authorized to make the necessary appropriation for the supplemental payments to retired city employees or to other persons retired under a city pension system. Such payments are in addition to their regular retirement benefits. The amount, manner, and terms and conditions of payment shall be as the council may prescribe. In so doing, the council may create or designate classes of the foregoing persons and may distinguish with respect to the amount of payment or otherwise between such classes. No person or class of persons receiving such supplemental payment shall have any vested interest in the same beyond the fiscal year in which the appropriation for such payment is made. 193)

§ 144(d). Transfer of city's facilities.

The council of the city of Norfolk is hereby authorized and empowered to transfer to said Authority the operation and maintenance of such of the above or other facilities as are now or may be hereafter owned by the city of Norfolk, on such terms and conditions as said council may prescribe. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as authorizing such Authority to maintain and operate such facilities now or hereafter owned by the city of Norfolk unless and until the operation thereof has been transferred by said council.

The council of the city of Norfolk is also hereby authorized and empowered to transfer the operation and maintenance and all rights, title and interest of the city of Norfolk to the above facilities as are now or may be hereafter owned by the city of Norfolk to said Authority or to any other authority or body politic authorized by law to maintain, operate or own such facilities, on such terms and conditions as said council may prescribe, reserving to the City a reversionary interest in such facilities if the council so determines.

The council of the city of Norfolk is further authorized and empowered to acquire by gift, purchase, lease, condemnation or otherwise, from time to time, whether before or after it transfers all right, title and interest of such facility or facilities to said Authority or such other authority or body politic, additional lands or interest in lands necessary or desirable for the operation of said facility or facilities. If the council so determines, it may transfer all right, title and interest of such additional lands or interest in lands to said Authority or such other authority or body politic on such terms and conditions as said council may prescribe, reserving to the city a reversionary interest in such additional lands or interest in lands if the council so determines. The right of the city to acquire such additional lands or interest in lands shall be the same as it had prior to the transfer of the right, title and interest of such facility to said Authority or such other authority or body politic. (1948, c. 463; 1968, c. 196; 1970, c. 484; 2007, c. 193)

§ 144(e). Contributions by city.

The city of Norfolk is authorized and empowered to make such appropriations, to provide such funds, and to make such loans and charge interest thereon to said Authority for the operation of the said Authority and for said Authority to operate and maintain, including the making of capital improvements thereon, any public utility or facility it has the power to acquire, lease, maintain and operate either directly or by transfer by the city of Norfolk to the said Authority and for the general operation of said Authority in carrying out its functions and powers, as its council may deem proper. (1948, c. 463; 1968, c. 196; 2007, c. 193)

§ 144(f). Bonds; power to issue.

The Authority shall have the power to borrow money on either a short-term or a long-term basis and to issue from time to time its notes, bonds and other evidences of debt payable on such terms, conditions and provisions as in its discretion may be advisable, for any of its corporate purposes, including the payment or retirement of bonds, notes or other evidences of debt previously issued by it. The cost of carrying out its corporate purposes shall include discount on bonds, cost of issuance of bonds, engineering and inspection costs and legal expenses, costs of financial, professional and other estimates, advice, administrative, operating and other expenses of the Authority prior to and during acquisition or construction including the payment of interest on bonds during the period of construction and for not exceeding one year thereafter and also such provision or reserves for working capital, operating, maintenance or replacement expenses or for payment or security of principal of and interest on bonds during and after such acquisition or construction as the Commissioners of the Authority may determine, and also reimbursements to the city of Norfolk or to any other person or corporation on account of any moneys theretofore expended for the purpose of the Authority. The Authority may issue such types of bonds as it may determine, including (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) bonds payable, both as to principal and interest: (1) from its revenues generally; (2) exclusively from the income and revenues of a particular "facility"; which term shall mean a particular building or structure or particular buildings or structures including all equipment, appurtenances and accessories necessary or appropriate for the operation of such facility; or (3) exclusively from the income and revenues of certain designated facilities whether or not they are financed in whole or in part from the proceeds of such bonds. Any such bonds may be additionally secured by a pledge of any grant or contributions from the federal government, Commonwealth of Virginia, or city of Norfolk, or a pledge of any income or revenues of the Authority, or a mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien of any particular facility or facilities or other property of the Authority.

Except as to provisions of subsection (6) of § 144(c), the power to issue bonds shall not be exercised prior to July 1, 1950.

Whenever in this or other sections relating to the power of the Authority to issue its bond or bonds, the term "bond" or "bonds" is used, it shall be construed to mean and embrace its bonds, notes or other evidences of debt or any other obligations of said Authority. (1948, c. 463; 1968, c. 196; 1970, c. 484; 2007, c. 193)

§ 144(g). Bonds; liability.

Neither the commissioners of the authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds by reason of the issuance thereof. The bonds and other obligations of the authority (and such bonds and obligations shall so state on their face) shall not be a debt of the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof and neither the Commonwealth nor any political subdivision thereof nor the city of Norfolk shall be liable thereon, nor in any event shall such bonds or obligations be payable out of any funds or properties other than those of the Authority. The bonds shall not constitute indebtedness within the meaning of any debt limitation or restriction. Bonds of the authority are declared to be issued for an essential public and governmental purpose and to be public instrumentalities. (1948, c. 463; 2007, c. 193)

§ 144(h). Bonds; provisions.

(1) Bonds of the Authority shall be authorized by resolutions adopted by the Board of Commissioners and may be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates, may be sold at such price, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption (with or without premium) as such resolution or its trust indenture or mortgage may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale.

(2) Issuance by the Authority of one or more series of bonds for one or more purposes shall not preclude issuing other bonds in connection with the same facility or any other facility, as may be authorized by the provisions of the bond resolution, trust indenture or mortgage. Any bonds of the Authority at any time outstanding may from time to time be refunded by the Authority by the issuance of its refunding bonds in such amount as the Board of Commissioners may deem necessary.

(3) If the proceeds derived from a particular bond issue due to error of estimates or otherwise, shall be less than the cost of the Authority facilities for which such bonds were issued, additional bonds may in like manner be issued to provide the amount of such deficit, and unless otherwise provided in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds of such issue or in the trust indenture securing the same, shall be deemed to be of the same issue and shall be entitled to payment from the same fund without preference or priority of the bonds of the first issue. If the proceeds of the bonds of any issue shall exceed such costs, the surplus may be deposited to the credit of the sinking fund for such bonds or may be applied to the payment of the cost of any additions, improvements or enlargements of the Authority facilities for which such bonds shall have been issued.

(4) Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds, the Authority may, under like restriction, issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when such bonds shall have been executed and are available for delivery. Bonds may be issued under the provisions of this section without obtaining the consent of any department, division, commission, board, bureau or agency of the Commonwealth, and without any other proceedings or the happening of any other conditions or things other than those proceedings, conditions or things which are specifically required by this section, provided, however, that nothing contained in this section shall be construed as affecting the powers or duties now conferred by law upon the State Corporation Commission.

(5) The bonds issued pursuant to this section shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, guardians and for all public funds of the Commonwealth of Virginia or other political corporations or subdivisions of the Commonwealth. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, counties, school districts or other political corporations or subdivisions of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appertaining thereto. (1948, c. 463; 1970, c. 484; 2007, c. 193)

§ 144(i). Bonds; validity.

In case any of the commissioners or officers of the Authority whose signatures appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such commissioners or officers before the delivery of such bonds, such signatures shall, nevertheless, be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if such commissioners or officers had remained in office until such delivery. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds issued pursuant to this act shall be fully negotiable within the meaning and for all the purposes of § 8.3A-303 of the Code of Virginia. (1948, c. 463; 2007, c. 193)

§ 144(j). In order to secure the payment of such bonds or other obligations the Authority shall have power by provision or provisions included in any resolution authorizing such bonds or in any indenture made to secure their payment:

- (1) To pledge all or any part of its gross or net rents, fees or revenues to which its right then exists or may thereafter come into existence.

The city council may also provide that any police officer may detect and

But in no case shall city council redistrict the city into wards or change the boundaries of existing wards except insofar as it may be necessary to maintain wards which meet the test of equitable population distribution, or to change such boundaries for the purpose of attaching newly annexed territory of such existing ward or wards as may be contiguous thereto, oftener than once every five years, except upon a recorded vote of three-fourths of the members elected to council; and in every such case the reason therefor shall be set forth in the ordinance providing for such redistricting. The report so made shall be in the office of the clerk for thirty days, during which time any citizen or taxpayer of the city may file written exceptions to the same. If no exceptions to the report are made, then at the expiration of such thirty days the clerk shall transmit the report to the city council, which report shall be entered in full on the records of the council and shall have the force and effect of an ordinance duly adopted in the mode prescribed by law.

If any citizen or taxpayer files exceptions to the report within the thirty-day period above provided for, the matter shall be immediately docketed by the clerk for hearing as a privileged case as soon as the court may be able to hear the same, after the lapse of such thirty days from the making of the report. The judge of such court shall have entire control of the matter, and may either reject, modify or confirm the report. Any citizen or taxpayer of the city may make himself a party to the hearing before the court, and may present such evidence as may be pertinent. If the report be rejected by the court, new commissioners shall be appointed immediately, and the same procedure followed as set forth in the first instance.

Upon the final determination of the matter such order as the court may enter shall be certified to the city council, spread upon its records, and have the force and effect of an ordinance duly adopted as prescribed by law. (1962, c. 259)

The appointing authority may then appoint a certified person to the vacant position.
- b. Whenever request is made, or whenever a position is held by a temporary appointee and an eligibility list for the class of such position exists, the Commission shall certify the names of the persons eligible for appointment to the appointing authority, who may then appoint a certified person to the position.
- c. To enable the appointing authority to exercise a choice in the filling of positions, no appointment, employment, or promotion in any position in the classified service shall be deemed complete until after the expiration of a period of not more than one year probationary service, during which the appointing authority may terminate the employment of the person, if during the performance test thus afforded, upon observations or considerations of the performance of duty, the appointing authority deems the employee unfit or unsatisfactory for service in the department. Whereupon the appointing authority shall designate a person or persons certified for such position and such person or persons shall likewise enter upon said duties until some person is found who is deemed fit for appointment, employment or promotion for the probationary period required. The employee may appeal such disciplinary action to the Commission within ten days, unless a different and legally authorized appeal or grievance procedure is chosen by the employee. A civil service employee may select only one appeal or grievance procedure and may not change procedures once the initial election is made. The Commission shall thereafter conduct a hearing and receive such testimony from witnesses and other evidence as may be relevant to the matter. Thereafter, the Commission shall have general authority to affirm, reverse, or modify the disciplinary action that has been appealed, based on the evidence and the law.

- b. All appeal hearings conducted by the Commission pursuant to this section shall be open to the public, after reasonable notice to the accused of the time and place of such hearing. At any such appeal hearing the accused may appear in person and by counsel and may present a defense. The Commission shall retain the power to sequester witnesses during a public appeal hearing. After a hearing, the Court may affirm, modify or reverse the Commission's decision. The Court's review will be limited to whether the appointing authority's actions were in good faith and for cause, and the decision of the Commission shall be affirmed unless the Court concludes, based on the record and the law, that the decision was not in good faith or was not for cause. (2011, c. 640)

- b. No public officer whether elected or appointed shall discharge, promote, demote or in any manner change the official rank, employment or compensation of any person under the civil service, or promise or threaten to do so, for giving or withholding or neglecting to make any contribution of money or services, or any other valuable thing, for any political purpose.

c. The execution of the petition by an elector shall be acknowledged before a notary, or it may be proved by the oath of a witness who shall swear that he or she knows the elector and that the petition was signed by the elector in the presence of the witness. The separate sheets, each sheet containing at the top thereof the petition as set forth above, and when bound together and offered for filing, shall be deemed to constitute one petition. (2011, c. 640)

§ 12.03. Time of filing.

All papers comprising a Petition for Initiative or Referendum shall be filed with the City Clerk thirty days from the date of the first signature thereon, and when so filed, the Clerk shall submit the same to the City Council at its next regular meeting. (2011, c. 640)

§ 12.04. Duty of City Attorney.

Before any ordinance proposed by petition in accordance with § 12.01 hereof shall be submitted to the City Council, it shall first be approved as to form by the City Attorney. If the City Attorney disapproves of the proposed ordinance or amendment, the reasons therefore shall be stated in writing to the person submitting the proposal for examination. (2011, c. 640)

§ 12.05. Duty of City Council.

Upon the presentation of a petition as provided in this Chapter, it shall be the duty of the City Council either to pass such proposed ordinance without alteration or repeal such existing ordinance within sixty days after determining the sufficiency of the petition or submit the question of the adoption or repeal of the ordinance, as the case may be, to the electorate at the next general election occurring more than sixty days after determining the sufficiency of the petition. (2011, c. 640)

§ 12.06. Elections.

- a. All initiative and referendum elections shall be conducted, and the result canvassed and certified by the regular election officials, as provided by the general laws of the state, and except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, all such elections shall be governed by the general election laws.
- b. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on a proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, it shall thereupon become a valid and binding ordinance of the city, and the same shall not be repealed or amended, except by a vote of the electors, within two years thereafter.
- c. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the repeal of an existing ordinance shall vote in favor of its repeal, it shall thereupon stand repealed and be of no force and effect.
- d. Where an election has been held upon the question of the adoption or repeal of any ordinance in accordance with this Chapter, then no election may be held upon a substantially similar question for two years following such election, except that the council may submit the repeal, amendment or modification of any ordinance adopted under subsection b. above, to be voted upon at any general election succeeding its adoption. (2011, c. 640)

§ 12.07. Publication of ordinance.

Whenever an ordinance is required under the provisions of this Chapter to be submitted for adoption or repeal to the electors of the city, the City Clerk shall cause the ordinance to be published once in a daily newspaper published in or having a general circulation in the City of Portsmouth. Such publication shall occur not more than sixty days nor fewer than thirty days prior to the date of such election. (2011, c. 640)

§ 12.08. Judicial review.

A petition, which complies with the requirements of this Chapter as to form, number of signers, and manner of execution, shall be accepted as prima facie sufficient. The Circuit Court of the City of Portsmouth shall have summary jurisdiction upon complaint of an elector to determine the sufficiency of the petition and the genuineness of the signatures thereon, and the qualifications of the electors signing the same, and may make such order in the matter as justice may require. Such proceedings shall be instituted within ten days after presentation of the petition, and the burden of proof shall be on the complainant. (2011, c. 640)

a. Any elective officer of the city may be removed from office at any time after one year from the beginning of the term of office by the electors qualified to vote for a successor for such incumbent. The procedure to effect such removal shall be as hereinafter set forth.

b. A petition signed by electors equal in number to at least thirty percent (30%) of the electors of the city voting for governor in the last preceding gubernatorial election, and demanding the election of a successor of the officer sought to be removed, shall be filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court. The petition shall contain a general statement of the grounds upon which the election of a successor is sought. Such petition may be filed at any time after one year has elapsed since the beginning of the term of the official sought to be removed. Each signer shall include the number and street of his or her residence in the city, and the date he or she signed the petition. Such petition may be in the form of separate papers, but each separate paper to which signatures are appended shall contain at the top thereof the original petition or a duplicate statement thereof, and when bound together and offered for filing, such separate papers shall be deemed to constitute one petition with respect to the election of the successor of the officer or officers named therein. One of the signers of such petition shall make oath before a proper official that the statements made therein are true, as he or she believes, and upon such separate paper, the circulator of the petition to which signatures are appended shall make oath that each signature to such paper is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be, and that it was signed in his or her presence.

c. If it appears that the petition is signed by the requisite percentage of electors, the same shall be accepted as prima facie regular and sufficient, but it shall be subject to summary review in the same manner as provided in § 12.08 of this Chapter.

d. If the petition is sufficient, and if the officer or officers whose removal is sought do not resign within five days after the sufficiency of the petition has been determined by a judge of the Circuit Court, a judge thereof shall thereupon order and fix a day for holding an election for the selection of a successor to each officer named in said petition, which election shall be held not fewer than thirty nor more than forty days from the presentation of the petition or from the making of any court order thereon. The judge shall cause publication of notice and all arrangements to be made for holding such election and the same shall be conducted and the result thereof returned and declared in all respects as in other special elections, in so far as possible.

e. A nomination of a candidate to succeed each officer sought to be removed shall be made without the intervention of a primary election, by filing with the Clerk of the Circuit Court at least ten days prior to such special election, a petition proposing a person for such office, signed by the electors equal in number to at least thirty percent (30%) of the electors of the city voting for governor in the last preceding gubernatorial election.

f. The ballots at such election shall conform to the following requirements: with respect to each officer whose removal is sought, the question shall be submitted: Shall (name of officer) be removed from the office (name of office) by recall? Beneath the aforesaid question shall be placed the names of the candidates to fill the vacancy. The name of the officer whose removal is sought shall not appear on the ballot as a candidate to succeed him/herself.

g. In any such election, if a majority of the votes cast on the question of removal be affirmative, the candidate receiving the highest number of the votes cast shall be declared elected and if more than one council member is removed at such election, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes, equal in number to the number of council members removed, shall be declared elected. The officer whose removal is sought shall thereupon be deemed removed from office upon the announcement of the official canvass of the election. The successor of any officer so removed shall hold office during the unexpired term of his predecessor. In case the person or persons receiving the highest number of votes shall fail to qualify within ten days after receiving notification of election, the office shall be deemed vacant. The question of the removal of any officer shall not be submitted to the electors a second time during the same term of office, until after the expiration of one year from the determination of the first application for removal. The method of removal herein provided is cumulative and additional to such other methods as may be provided by law. (2011, c. 640)

§ 3.07. Mayor and vice-mayor.

The mayor shall be elected on the first Tuesday in May, 1986, and every two years thereafter. The position of mayor shall occupy a separate position on the ballot from that of the other council members and the mayor shall be elected in the manner provided by Virginia election laws.

The mayor shall have no right to vote in the council, except that in every case of a tie vote of the council, the mayor shall be entitled to vote and such vote (in case of a tie only) shall then have the same weight and effect as the vote of a councilman, but the mayor shall have no right to veto. In addition, he shall preside at meetings of the council and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by this charter and by general law and such as may be imposed by the council consistent with the office. The mayor shall be recognized as head of the town government for all ceremonial purposes, for purposes of military law, and for the service of civil processes. In the event of public danger or emergency the mayor shall maintain order and enforce the law. Such course of action shall be subject to review by the council.

The vice-mayor shall act as mayor during the absence or disability of the mayor and, if a vacancy occurs, shall become acting mayor until such time as a successor is appointed to fill the unexpired term. The council member who serves as vice-mayor or acting mayor under this section shall continue to have all the rights, privileges, powers, and duties and obligations of a council member, even when performing the duties of mayor. (1986, c. 47)

§ 3.08. Absence or disability of mayor and vice-mayor.

If both the mayor and vice-mayor are absent or unable to act, the council shall, by a majority vote of the members present, elect from its members a person to serve as acting mayor until either the mayor or vice-mayor is present and able to act. The person so elected shall possess the powers and discharge the duties of the mayor during such period of time as the person serves under this section. Whenever it is necessary to elect an acting mayor pursuant to this section, in the absence of both the mayor and vice-mayor, the clerk of council or acting clerk of council shall call the meeting of the council to order and shall preside until an acting mayor is elected. This shall not be construed to vest in the clerk any of the powers and duties of the mayor, except as expressly stated in this section.

The council member who serves as acting mayor under this section shall continue to have all the rights, privileges, powers, and duties and obligations of a council member, even when performing the duties of mayor. (1986, c. 47)

Neither the council nor any of its members shall in any manner dictate the appointment or removal of any town employees whom the manager or any of his subordinates are empowered to appoint or employ, but the council may express its views and fully and freely discuss with the manager anything pertaining to appointment and removal of such employees. Nothing contained herein shall limit the ability of the council to eliminate an employment position or alter the conditions of employment attendant upon a given position.

C. Interference with administration. Except for the purpose of discussions, informal reviews, investigating injuries and/or official investigations, the council or its members shall communicate with town officials and employees who are subject to the direction and supervision of the manager solely through the manager, and neither the council nor its members shall give orders to any such official or employee, either publicly or privately. Removal of a council member shall require a unanimous vote of the remaining members of the council.

D. Filling of vacancy in office of mayor. A vacancy in the office of mayor shall be filled within forty-five days, for the unexpired term, by majority vote of the remaining members. A council member or other qualified voter of the town may be so appointed. Should a member of council be chosen to serve for such unexpired term, such councilman shall be deemed to have surrendered his or her office of councilman forthwith upon qualification as mayor, and the office of such councilman shall thereafter be vacant.

E. Filling of vacancies other than office of mayor. A vacancy on the council shall be filled within forty-five days, for the unexpired term, by a majority vote of the remaining members. Notwithstanding any other provision of this charter, if at any time the membership of the council is reduced to less than three, the remaining members shall petition the circuit court to issue a writ for a special election to fill the vacancies for the unexpired terms. Such special election shall be held not less than sixty days after the date on which the writ is entered and shall not be held within sixty days prior to any primary or general election. (1986, c. 47; 2000, c. 159)

§ 3.11. Judge of forfeiture.

A council member charged with conduct constituting grounds for forfeiture of his office shall be entitled to a public hearing on demand, and notice of such hearing shall be published in one or more newspapers with general circulation in the town at least two weeks in advance of the hearing. After such hearing council by a unanimous vote of the other members may declare the office of a council member forfeited and vacant. (1986, c. 47)

Such audits shall be made by a certified public accountant or firm of such accountants who have no personal interest, direct or indirect, in the fiscal affairs of the town government or any of its officers. The council may, without requiring competitive bids, designate such accountant or firm annually. If the Commonwealth makes such an audit, the council may accept it as satisfying the requirements of this section. (1986, c. 47)

(1968, c. 209)

Article II. The Council.

§ 2.1. Creation and powers of the council.

There is hereby created a city council, composed of the mayor and four other members, which shall have full power and authority, except as herein otherwise specifically provided, to exercise all of the powers conferred upon the city, and to pass all laws and ordinances relating to its municipal affairs, subject to the Constitution and general laws of the Commonwealth and of this charter, and shall have full control of all fiscal and municipal affairs of the city and all of its real and personal property and may from time to time amend, reamend or repeal any or all of the ordinances, for the proper regulation, management and government of the city and may impose fines and penalties for the violation or nonobservance thereof. It shall by ordinance or resolution fix the salaries of all officers and employees of the city elected or appointed by it, or appointed by its authority, and their rates of pay, and may so far as is not inconsistent with the provisions of this charter, define the powers and prescribe the duties of all such officers and employees. To effectuate the powers conferred by general law as well as the powers herein specifically granted, the council may employ all such persons as may be necessary. (1968, c. 209; 1985, c. 349)

§ 2.2. Composition of council; election of mayor; terms; powers of mayor; election and terms of other members of council; coincidental election for mayor and council.

(a) The council. The council shall consist of the mayor and four other members to be elected and to serve for the terms set forth in this section.

(b) The mayor. The mayor of the City of Radford shall be elected at large by the voters of the City of Radford beginning with the regular councilmanic election in the year 1986, to serve for a term of four years from the first day of July next following the date of the election and until a successor is elected and qualified, and his successor shall be elected each four years thereafter for the term commencing on the first day of July next following the date of the preceding regular councilmanic election.

(c) Status and duties of mayor. The mayor shall be in all respects equal in status with other members of council, and except as provided for herein, of no greater status, and the mayor shall be entitled to vote on all ordinances, resolutions and issues before city council, shall be entitled to make and second motions, and to otherwise exercise all rights and privileges of a member of city council.

The mayor shall preside at meetings of council and perform such other duties consistent with his office as may be imposed by the council, and while entitled to vote, shall possess no power of veto over any action of the council. He shall be recognized as the official head of the city for all ceremonial purposes, and by the Governor for military purposes. The title of mayor shall be used by the occupant of that office in any case in which the execution of contracts or other legal instruments in writing, or other necessity arising from the general laws of Virginia, or the city council, so require, but this shall not be construed as conferring upon him the administrative, judicial functions, or other powers or functions of a mayor under the general laws of Virginia unless specifically set forth herein. In times of public danger or emergency he may, with the consent of the council, take command of the police and maintain order and enforce the laws, and for this purpose may deputize such special policemen as may be necessary. During the absence or disability of the mayor, the duties of the office shall be performed by the vice mayor.

The mayor shall enforce council's rules of procedure and preserve order and decorum at all meetings of the city council. He shall decide questions of order and may, without vacating the chair, give reasons for his decision.

The powers and duties of the mayor as a member of council shall be the same as any other member of council, and his powers and duties as mayor shall be such as are conferred by this charter, and by general laws not inconsistent herewith, together with such others as may be conferred by the council pursuant to the provisions of this charter.

(d) Other members of city council. In addition to the mayor, the council of the City of Radford shall consist of four members, who shall be elected at large and shall serve for a term of four years from the first day of July next following the date of their election and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the terms of council members elected or appointed under the provisions of this charter prior to the regular councilmanic election in the year

1986, or thereafter until their then term expires. At the regular councilmanic election in 1986, two persons shall be elected as members of council, and at the regular councilmanic election in 1988, two persons shall be elected as members of council, and in each case their successors shall be elected every four years thereafter.

(e) Elections of mayor and council members coinciding. When the election for mayor coincides with the election of two other members of council, a candidate may run only for mayor, or for one of the council seats being voted upon, and cannot be qualified or appear on the ballot for both positions.

An incumbent member of council whose term will not expire until after the beginning of the term for which the mayor's election is being voted upon may, without vacating the council seat for which such member was elected, be a candidate for mayor for the term for which the election is held, but, upon that person's commencement of service of the mayor's term for which elected, the council seat occupied by such member shall become, ipso facto, vacant, and the provisions herein contained for filling such vacancy shall thereafter apply. (1968, c. 209; 1973, c. 291; 1980, c. 590; 1985, c. 349)

§ 2.2:1. Council a continuing body.

The council shall be a continuing body, and no measure pending before such body shall abate or be discontinued by reason of the expiration of the terms of office or removal of the members of the body, or any of them. (1980, c. 590)

§ 2.2:2. (1980, c. 590; repealed 1985, c. 349)

§ 2.2:3. (1980, c. 590; repealed 1985, c. 349)

§ 2.2:4. (1980, c. 590; repealed 1985, c. 349)

§ 2.2:4.1. Vice mayor; how elected; term; powers and duties.

Beginning in the year 1986, the council, on the first business day in July next following the regular councilmanic election, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, shall elect one of its members as vice mayor, who shall serve for a term extending from the first day of July, next following said councilmanic election to the thirtieth day of June, 1988, and for a like term in each year in which a councilmanic election is held. During the absence or disability of the mayor, the vice mayor shall have and perform all of the powers, duties, privileges and responsibilities of the office of mayor, and, in the event of a vacancy in the office of mayor, shall temporarily serve as acting mayor until the vacancy is filled as provided in this charter. During such temporary service, the councilmanic seat held by him shall not be deemed to have been vacated. (1985, c. 349)

§ 2.2:4.2. Vacancy in office of mayor; how filled; vacancies on council; how filled.

When a vacancy occurs on the city council, including the case of a vacancy in the office of mayor, then the office of mayor or the vacancy in the other members of council, in either case, shall be filled within thirty days of such vacancy by majority vote of the remaining members of council for the period from the date of appointment until the next regular councilmanic election; however, if such vacancy occurs less than 120 days prior to the next regular councilmanic election, then the appointment by the remaining members of council shall be for the period remaining until the councilmanic election which first occurs more than 120 days after the vacancy. In any case, the unexpired term shall be filled by the voters at the next succeeding regular councilmanic election which occurs more than 120 days after such vacancy.

In the event the remaining members of council cannot or do not fill such vacancy in the office involved within the time and in the manner herein provided, then such vacancy shall be filled by a majority of the circuit judges of the judicial circuit of which the City of Radford is a part, or if there be only one such judge, then by the judge of such circuit. If a majority of the judges cannot agree, if there be more than one such judge, then the senior judge of the circuit shall make the appointment.

An appointment to fill a vacancy in the office of mayor, or on council, as the case may be, made by the judge or judges of the circuit court shall expire at the next regular councilmanic election; however, if the vacancy occurs within 120 days of the next election, then the appointment shall expire at the time of the second ensuing regular councilmanic election. (1985, c. 349)

§ 2.2:4.3. Writ of election to fill vacancy.

When a vacancy occurs in the office of mayor or in city council, the council shall, within thirty days of the occurrence of the vacancy, cause a petition to be filed with the Circuit Court of the City of Radford for issuance of a writ of election to fill such vacancy in accordance with the applicable sections of Title 24.2 of the Code of Virginia, and, upon receipt of such petition, the court shall issue the writ of election. When the vacancy has been filled by appointment by the remaining members of council the election shall be held at the next ensuing regularly scheduled councilmanic election or, if the vacancy occurred within 120 days of the date on which the next such election is scheduled, then at the second such election, provided, that when such vacancy has been filled by the remaining members of council, no such election shall be held if the regular councilmanic election at which the vacancy would be filled hereunder is scheduled in the calendar year in which that term expired; provided, further, that no such election shall be held if the regular councilmanic election at which a vacancy would otherwise be filled is scheduled within sixty days of the end of the term of office to be filled.

The person appointed by the circuit court to fill the vacancy shall hold office until the qualified voters shall fill the same by election as provided by Title 24.2 of the Code of Virginia, and the person so elected shall have qualified. (1985, c. 349)

§ 2.2:4.4. Method of election by voters to fill vacancy.

If the vacancy in the office of mayor is to be filled at a regular councilmanic election, the office shall be listed on the ballot separately from any other councilmanic office for which the election is also being held, and no candidate for a seat on council at such election may also be a candidate for mayor. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes for that vacancy shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. If, at the same time, a vacancy in council's other membership is also being filled by the voters, no candidate may run for both offices.

In cases in which a vacancy or vacancies on city council (other than mayor) is or are to be filled at a regular councilmanic election, the number of candidates equal to the number of seats to be filled for full terms receiving the highest number of votes shall be entitled to such full terms, and the candidate receiving the next highest number shall fill the unexpired term caused by such vacancy, and so on in similar fashion until the vacancies are filled. (1985, c. 349)

§ 2.2:5. Qualifying of appointees.

Any person appointed under § 2.2:2 of this charter, or by the circuit judges in the event the remaining members of council cannot agree or do not act, shall, within thirty days of their appointment, qualify before any judge of the Circuit Court of the City of Radford, or before the clerk of such court, in like manner as is required of such council member when elected by the voters. (1980, c. 590)

§ 2.3. Qualification of members.

Any person qualified to vote in the city shall be eligible to the office of mayor or councilman. (1968, c. 209; 1985, c. 349)

§ 2.4. (1968, c. 209; repealed 1980, c. 590)

§ 2.4:1. Oath of councilmen and mayor; compensation.

Members elected or appointed to council shall, before entering upon the performance of their duties, take the oath of office prescribed by law.

Members of council and the mayor shall receive as compensation such sums as council may determine within ranges provided by general law, and a reasonable differential between compensation paid to the mayor and other members shall be established consistent with the responsibilities of the mayor. No increase in salary shall take effect, however, for a given member of council or the mayor until after the end of the term for which such member or mayor was elected. Such compensation shall be paid in monthly or equal semi-monthly installments as council may direct. (1980, c. 590; 1985, c. 349)

§ 2.5. Votes for councilmen.

In any election for mayor and councilman, each elector shall be entitled to vote for the office of mayor and for as many persons as there are seats on council to be filled, and no more, and no elector shall cast more than one vote for the same person. The candidates at any regular municipal election for the election of councilmen, equal in number to the places to be filled, who shall receive the highest number of votes at such election shall be declared elected as council member, and, when the election is also for mayor, the candidate with the highest member of votes cast for that office shall be declared elected mayor. (1968, c. 209; 1985, c. 349)

§ 2.6. Limitation of the powers.

Neither the mayor, the council nor any of its members shall dictate the appointment of any person to office or employment by the city manager, or prevent him from exercising his own judgement in the appointment of officers or employees in the administrative service. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the mayor, the council and its members shall deal with the administrative service solely through the city manager and neither the mayor nor council nor any member thereof shall give orders to any subordinate of the city manager, either publicly or privately. (1968, c. 209; 1985, c. 349)

§ 2.7. (1968, c. 209; 1973, c. 291; repealed 1985, c. 349)

§ 2.7:1. Ineligibility of the mayor and council members to hold other office.

No member of city council, including the mayor, shall be eligible during his or her term of office as such member to hold any office to be filled by the council, by election or by appointment, except that the mayor and other members of city council may be named as a member of such other boards, commissions, and bodies as may be permitted by general law; provided, however, that a member of the city council may be elected or appointed to fill a vacancy in the office of mayor. (1985, c. 349; 1997, c. 536)

§ 2.8. (1968, c. 209; repealed 1985, c. 349)

§ 2.9. (1968, c. 209; 1973, c. 291; 1974, c. 61; repealed 1980, c. 590)

§ 2.9:1. Appointment of boards and commissions, city attorney, city clerk, city physician.

Council shall appoint the members of such boards and commissions as are provided by this charter, by the general laws of the Commonwealth, or as are established by council. The council may further appoint a city attorney, city physician and city clerk, and fix their salaries, compensation and term of office. Such term may be established for a time certain, or at the will of council. (1980, c. 590; 2004, c. 632)

§ 2.10. (1968, c. 209; 1973, c. 291; repealed 1980, c. 590)

§ 2.11. All elections by the council shall be viva voce and the vote recorded in the journal of the council.

The council may determine its own rules of procedure. It shall keep a journal of its proceedings. A majority of all the members of the council shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time. (1968, c. 209)

§ 2.12. Meetings of council.

On the first business day in July (or as soon thereafter as may be practicable) next following the regular municipal election, the council shall meet at the usual place for holding meetings of the legislative body of the city for the purpose of organizing for the ensuing term. Thereafter the council shall meet at such times as may be prescribed by ordinance, resolution or motion of its members. The mayor, any member of council, or the city manager may call special meetings of the council at any time upon reasonable notice to each member, or such meeting may be held at any time without notice, provided, all members of the council attend. All meetings of the council shall be public, except where the public interest may require executive sessions, and any citizen may have access to the minutes and records of all public meetings at all reasonable times. The requirements of the Virginia Freedom of Information Act (§ 2.2-3700 et seq.) of the Code of Virginia shall be observed in calling any meeting of council. (1968, c. 209; 1973, c. 291; 1985, c. 349; 2004, c. 632)

§ 2.13. Legislative procedure.

Except in dealing with questions of parliamentary procedure the council shall act only by ordinance or resolution, and all ordinances except ordinances making appropriations, or authorizing the contracting of indebtedness or issuance of bonds or other evidences of debt, shall be confined to one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title. Ordinances making appropriations or other obligations and appropriating the money to be raised thereby shall be confined to those subjects respectively.

The enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the council shall be "Be it ordained by the council of the City of Radford." No ordinance, unless it be an emergency measure, shall be passed until it has been read at two regular or special meetings not less than three days apart, or the requirement of such reading has been dispensed with by the affirmative vote of four of the members of the council. Any ordinance may be amended at any reading without the necessity of again reverting to a first reading thereof, and council may then proceed to consider the ordinance as amended on the subsequent readings. No ordinance or section thereof shall be revised or amended by its title or section number only, but the new ordinance shall contain the entire ordinance, or section as revised or amended. The ayes and nays shall be taken upon the passage of all ordinances or resolutions and entered upon the journal of the proceedings of the council. All readings of ordinances shall require an affirmative vote of the majority of the members present and voting to pass. In the event that an ordinance or resolution fails to gain an affirmative vote of the majority of the members present and voting on either the first or second reading, said ordinance or resolution shall fail. No member shall be excused from voting except on matters involving the consideration of his official conduct, or where his financial or personal interests are involved.

The notice shall specify the time, and the place at which persons affected may appear before the council and present their views.

C. After the hearing as provided in subsection A of § 5.8 the council may adopt by ordinance any such regulations and restrictions applicable within the limits of the town and may adopt such regulations and restrictions applicable in an area outside such limits, provided that such regulations and restrictions shall not be adopted or become effective or applicable except in the manner and to the extent provided by the general laws of the Commonwealth.

D. When such regulations have been adopted, a certified copy thereof and all amendments thereto shall be filed in the office of the building and zoning inspector and in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court of Tazewell County.

E. Any owner or any proprietor of any tract of land situated within the corporate limits of the Town of Richlands, who subdivides the same, shall cause a plat of such subdivision with reference to known or permanent monuments to be made and recorded in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court of Tazewell County. No such plat of the subdivision shall be recorded unless and until it shall have been submitted and approved by the town council or its designated agent in accordance with regulations adopted under this Charter and so certified by the person authorized to make such certificate.

F. From and after the date on which such regulations and restrictions become effective in the town or in any area outside the town but within two miles thereof, no plat of any subdivision to which such regulations and restrictions are applicable shall be received or recorded by the clerk of any court unless the plat has been approved as provided in subsection D of § 5.8. No owner of land in the town or outside area in which such regulations and restrictions are applicable, who has subdivided the same into two or more lots, shall sell or offer for sale any such lot by reference to or exhibition of or by the use of a plat of such subdivision or otherwise before the plat of such subdivision has been approved as provided in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court of Tazewell County.

G. The recordation of the plat shall operate to transfer in fee simple to the town or the county in which the land lies, such portion thereof as is on the plat set apart for streets, alleys, easements, or other public use or purpose and to create a public right of passage over or use of the same. The owner or owners of the land subdivided may construct, reconstruct, operate, and maintain with the consent of the town or the county where the land lies, sewers, gas and water pipes, or electric lines along or under the streets, alleys, easements, or other land devoted to public use, provided that it shall not obstruct or hinder the passage over the streets, alleys, or other property devoted to public use further than is reasonably necessary to construct, reconstruct, repair, operate, and maintain such works.

H. Any plat or part thereof recorded may be vacated, with the consent of the council or of the governing body of the county wherein the land lies, or both where the plat has been approved by both, by the owners thereof at any time before the sale of any lot therein, by a written instrument declaring the plat to be vacated which shall be duly executed, acknowledged, and recorded in the clerk's office wherein the plat to be vacated is recorded. The execution and recordation of the instrument shall operate to destroy the force and effect of the recording of the plat and to divest all public rights in and to reinvest the owners with the title to the streets, alleys, easements, and other land devoted to public use laid out or described in the plat. In cases where lots have been sold, the plat or part thereof may be vacated upon the application of the owners of the lots in the plat and with the approval of the council or governing body of the county, or both where the plat has been approved by both, and shall not be vacated otherwise. The clerk in whose office any plat so vacated has been recorded shall write in plain, legible letters across the plat or part thereof vacated the word "vacated" and also make a reference on the plat to the volume and page thereof in which the instrument of vacation is recorded.

I. In case of any violation or attempted violation of the provisions of this Charter, or of any of the provisions of the regulations adopted as authorized in this Charter, the council, in addition to other remedies, may institute any appropriate action or proceedings to prevent such violation or attempted violation, to restrain, correct, or abate such violation or attempted violation, or to prevent any act which would constitute such violation. Any owner or proprietor of any tract of land who subdivides such tract of land and who violates any of the provisions of the regulations adopted under the authority of this Charter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than ten dollars and not more than $200, and each day after the first, during which the violation continues, shall constitute a separate violation. Trigg Company, by deed dated June 1, 1901, in accordance with the provisions of the act of assembly approved February 15, 1901, and which dock is now owned by the city may be maintained and operated by the city for such other public purposes as authorized by the city council, but further provided if said dock shall be closed by the city to such public use and purpose and filled in, the city shall make provision for disposing of the water required by said dock and shall at its own cost and expense maintain the provision so made and the city shall have the right to use or dispose of the land upon which the said landing, wharf, dock or canal may be located, together with all lands or other rights appurtenant thereto, to the same extent as if the said landing, wharf, dock, canal or lands, or right thereto belonging, had never been charged with any public use or easement; improve and keep in good, safe and navigable condition the James River in the corporate limits and within twenty miles thereof, and may hold, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of all lands or interest therein acquired for the improvement of the James River and navigation and for the construction of canals or widening the river; and provide and operate such connections by ferries, bridges, or otherwise, as may be necessary for transportation between the section of land divided by such canals.

§ 2.03:1. Powers relating to certain other public works, utilities and properties.

In addition to the powers granted by other sections of this charter the city shall have power:

(a) To construct, maintain and operate limited or controlled access or express highways within the city and to fix and revise from time to time and charge and collect tolls for transit over such highways and compensation for other uses that may be made thereof. (1958, c. 185)

§ 2.03.2. Use of buildings or structures acquired or constructed for municipal purposes.

In addition to the powers granted by other sections of this charter, the city shall have the power to permit any building or structure acquired or constructed for any municipal purpose, or any part thereof or any space therein, which is not needed for such purpose, to be used for private purposes upon such terms and conditions as shall be prescribed by the council until such building or structure or part thereof or space therein is needed for a municipal purpose, when in the opinion of the council it is deemed proper to do so. (1964, c. 120)

(b) Such an agreement between a property owner and the city shall be for the purpose of stimulating and facilitating economic growth along the Richmond riverfront, shall not be inconsistent with the master plan, and shall not authorize any use or condition not permitted by the zoning ordinance and other ordinances in effect at the time the agreement is made. It shall be authorized by ordinance. It shall be for a term not to exceed ten years and may be renewed by mutual agreement of the parties. It may provide for: uses, the density or intensity of uses; the maximum height, size, setback and/or location of buildings; the number of parking spaces required; the measures required to control stormwater; and other land use matters. It may authorize the property owner to transfer to the city land, public improvements, money, or anything of value to further the purposes of the agreement or other public purposes set forth in the city's master plan, but not as a condition to obtaining any permitted use or zoning. A property owner may agree to accept land use controls that are more restrictive than the zoning applicable to the property, conditioned on the city making public improvements, including parking, which also benefit the property; provided, however, that any agreement of the city to make such improvements shall be subject to the availability and appropriation of funds.

(c) If a property owner who is a party to such an agreement and is not in breach of the agreement dedicates or is required to dedicate real property of substantial value to the city, makes or is required to make substantial cash payments to the city, or makes or is required to make substantial public improvements for the city, then during the term of that agreement neither any amendment to the zoning map for the subject property nor any amendment to the text of the zoning ordinance with respect to the zoning district applicable to the property which eliminates or materially restricts, reduces, or modifies: the density or intensity of uses; the maximum height, size, setback or location of a building; the number of parking spaces required; or the measures required to control stormwater shall be effective with respect to such property unless there has been mistake, fraud, or a change in circumstances substantially affecting the public health, safety or welfare. (1992, c. 850)

§ 2.04. Power to make regulations for the preservation of the safety, health, peace, good order, comfort, convenience, morals and welfare of the city and its inhabitants.

In addition to the powers granted by other sections of this charter, the city shall have power to adopt ordinances, not in conflict with this charter or prohibited by the general laws of the Commonwealth, for the preservation of the safety, health, peace, good order, comfort, convenience, morals and welfare of its inhabitants, and among such powers, but not in limitation thereof, the city shall have power:

- (a) To provide for the prevention of vice, immorality, vagrancy and drunkenness; prevention and quelling of riots, disturbances and disorderly assemblages; suppression of houses of ill fame and gambling places; prevention of lewd and disorderly conduct or exhibitions; and prevention of conduct in the streets dangerous to the public.

- (c) To provide for the protection of the city's property, real and personal, and prevention of the pollution of the city's water supply, and the regulation of use of parks, playgrounds, playfields, recreational facilities, landings, docks, wharves, canals, airports and other public property, whether located within or without the city. For the purpose of enforcing such regulations all city property wherever located shall be under the police jurisdiction of the city. Any member of the police force of the city or employee thereof appointed as a special policeman shall have power to make arrests for violation of any ordinance, rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this section and the district court, criminal division, shall have jurisdiction in all cases arising thereunder within the city and the district court of the county wherein the offense occurs shall have jurisdiction of all cases arising thereunder without the city.
- (d) To grant or authorize the issuance of permits under such terms and conditions as the council may impose for the use of streets, alleys and other public places of the city by railroads, street railways, buses, taxicabs and other vehicles for hire; prescribe the location in, under or over, and grant permits for the use of, streets, alleys and other public places for the maintenance and operation of tracks, poles, wires, cables, pipes, conduits, bridges, subways, vaults, areas and cellars; require tracks, poles, wires, cables, pipes, conduits and bridges to be altered, removed or relocated either permanently or temporarily; charge and collect compensation for the privileges so granted; and prohibit such use of the streets, alleys and other public places of the city, and no such use shall be made of the streets, alleys, or other public places of the city without the consent of the council.

(e) To prevent any obstruction of or encroachment over, under or in any street, alley, sidewalk or other public place; provide penalties for maintaining any such obstruction or encroachment; remove the same and charge the cost thereof to the owner or owners, occupant or occupants of the property so obstructing or encroaching, and collect the sum charged in any manner provided by law for the collection of taxes; require the owner or owners or the occupant or occupants of the property so obstructing or encroaching to remove the same; pending such removal charge the owner or owners of the property so obstructing or encroaching compensation for the use of such portion of the street, alley, sidewalk or other public place obstructed or encroached upon the equivalent of what would be the tax upon the land so occupied if it were owned by the owner or owners of the property so obstructing or encroaching, and, if such removal shall not be made within the time ordered, impose penalties for each and every day that such obstruction or encroachment is allowed to continue thereafter; authorize encroachments upon streets, alleys, sidewalks or other public places, subject to such terms and conditions as the council may prescribe, but such authorization shall not relieve the owner or owners, occupant or occupants of the property encroaching, of any liability for negligence on account of such encroachment; and recover possession of any street, alley, sidewalk or other public place or any other property of the city by suit or action in ejectment.

(f) To prescribe the route and grade of any railroad laid in the city, regulate the operation of locomotives and cars, and exclude such locomotives and cars from the city; provided, no contract between the city and the corporation operating such locomotives or cars is violated by such action.

However, beginning with the elections to be held in 2008, and subject to approval by referendum as called for by this act, council members shall be elected for a term of four years.

B. No primary election shall be held for the nomination of candidates for the office of councilman, and candidates shall be nominated only by petition.

C. Each council member elected in accordance with this section shall reside in the election district from which such member was elected throughout the member's term on the council. However, these filing requirements shall only apply to the initial, general election and not to any runoff election that may subsequently become necessary.

In the general election, the person receiving the most votes in each of at least five of the nine city council districts shall be elected mayor. Should no one be elected, then the two persons receiving the highest total of votes city wide shall be considered nominated for a runoff election. The runoff election shall be held on the sixth Tuesday after the November general election between the two nominees. The date of any such runoff election shall, as soon as possible, be posted at the courthouse and published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. In any such runoff election, write-in votes shall not be counted, and the person receiving the most votes in each of at least five of the nine city council districts shall be elected mayor. In the event the two candidates in a runoff election shall each win an equal number of council districts, the candidate receiving the most votes city wide shall be elected mayor. An elected term shall run four years. A. Vacancies in the office of councilman, from whatever cause arising, shall be filled in accordance with general law applicable to interim appointments and special elections, provided that, any provision in the general law to the contrary notwithstanding, a special election may be called to fill any such vacancy if the vacancy occurs more than one year prior to the expiration of the full term of the office to be filled.

B. A vacancy in the office of mayor shall be filled by special election conducted according to the rules herein provided for the general election and held within 60 days, but no sooner than 30 days, from the date of the vacancy. Any runoff, should one be necessary, shall be held on the first Tuesday after the fifth day following the date that voting machines used in the special election may be unsealed pursuant to § 24.2-659 of the Code of Virginia or the third Tuesday following the special election, whichever is later. However, if the date by which either the special election or possible runoff election for the office of mayor must be conducted should fall within 60 days prior to a primary election or general election, then the special or runoff election shall be held on the same day as the primary or general election, if allowed by general law, or, if not allowed by general law, then the special election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the fifth day following the date that voting machines used in the primary or general election may be unsealed pursuant to § 24.2-659 of the Code of Virginia. Any runoff that may be necessary shall be held on the first Tuesday after the fifth day following the date that the voting machines used in the special election may be unsealed pursuant to § 24.2-659 of the Code of Virginia or the third Tuesday following the special election, whichever is later. The president of the council shall serve as acting mayor until a successor is elected.

C. The procedures and deadlines for voter registration, applying for an absentee ballot, and casting an absentee ballot for any runoff election as may be necessary after a special election for mayor shall be as provided in Chapters 4 (§ 24.2-400 et seq.), 4.1 (§ 24.2-451 et seq.), and 7 (§ 24.2-700 et seq.) of Title 24.2 of the Code of Virginia for general elections. The member shall be entitled to notice and hearing. It shall be the duty of the council, at the request of the person sought to be removed, to subpoena witnesses whose testimony would be pertinent to the matter in hand. From the decision of the council an appeal shall lie to the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond, Division I.

B. The mayor may be removed following the procedure set forth in § 24.2-233 of the Code of Virginia applicable to constitutional officers; provided, however, that the petition must be signed by a number of registered voters in each council district equal to at least 10 percent of the total number of votes cast in the last general election for mayor in each respective council district.

C. The mayor or any member of council who shall be convicted by a final judgment of any court from which no appeal has been taken or which has been affirmed by a court of last resort on a charge involving moral turpitude, or any felony, or any misdemeanor involving possession of marijuana or any controlled substances, shall forfeit his/her office. (2004, cc. 877, 898; 2020, cc. 116, 827).

§ 3.05. Election of other city officers.

All other city officers required by the laws of the Commonwealth to be elected by the qualified voters of the city shall be nominated and elected at the time, for the terms and in the manner prescribed by the general laws of the Commonwealth. Court of the City of Richmond shall order an election to be held in accordance with the applicable provisions of Article 5 (§ 24.2-681 et seq.) of Chapter 6 of Title 24.2 of the Code of Virginia. Following certification of the election results by the Electoral Board to the Circuit Court, the Court shall enter an order proclaiming the results of the election, and a duly certified copy of the order shall be transmitted to the council, which may take such further action as it may deem advisable and in the best interests of the city.

If a petition requesting the submission of an amendment to this charter, set forth in such petition, signed by qualified voters equal in number to ten percent or more of the largest number of votes cast in any general or primary election held in the city during the five years immediately preceding, is filed with the clerk of the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond, he/she shall forthwith certify that fact to the Court. The process and requirements for voter petitions established under state law shall be applicable to voter petitions provided for under this section, except to the extent of any conflict with requirements set forth in this charter. Upon the certification of such petition, the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond shall determine that the proposed charter amendment pertains only to the structure or administration of the city government. When such determination has been made, the court shall order an election to be held in accordance with the applicable provisions of Article 5 (§ 24.2-681 et seq.) of Chapter 6 of Title 24.2 of the Code of Virginia, in which such proposed amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the city for their approval or disapproval. If a majority of those voting thereon at such election approve the proposed amendment, such result shall be communicated by the clerk of the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond to the representatives of the city in the General Assembly with the same effect as if the council had adopted a resolution requesting the General Assembly to adopt the amendment. (1998, c. 711)

§ 6.07. Appropriation and additional tax ordinances.

At the same time that he/she submits the budget, the mayor shall introduce in the council any appropriation ordinance required. The appropriation ordinance shall be based on the budget but need not be itemized further than by departments unless required by the council. At the same time, the mayor shall also introduce any ordinance or ordinances altering the tax rate on real estate and tangible personal property or levying a new tax or altering the rate of any other tax necessary to balance the budget as hereinbefore provided. The hearing on the budget plan as a whole, as provided in § 6.09, shall constitute the hearing on all ordinances referred to in this section, and the appropriation ordinances for each utility. (1948, c. 116; 1998, c. 711; 2004, cc. 877, 898; 2006, cc. 650, 712)

§ 6.08. Distribution of copies of budget message and budgets.

The mayor shall cause the budget message to be printed, mimeographed or otherwise reproduced for general distribution at the time of its submission to the council and sufficient copies of the general fund, school and utility budgets to be made to supply copies to each member of the council and each newspaper published or in general circulation in the city and two copies to be deposited in the office of the city clerk where they shall be open to public inspection during regular business hours. (1948, c. 116; 1998, c. 711; 2004, cc. 877, 898)

§ 6.09. Public hearings on budget plan.

A public hearing on the budget plan as a whole shall be held by the council within the time and after the notice provided for hearings on ordinances by § 4.10 of this charter, except that the notice of such hearing shall be printed in a newspaper published or in general circulation in the city. (1948, c. 116; 1993, c. 613; 1998, c. 711)

§ 6.10. Action by council on budget generally.

After the conclusion of the public hearing, the council may insert new items of expenditure or may increase, decrease or strike out items of expenditure in the budget, except that no item of expenditure for debt service or required to be included by this charter or other provision of law shall be reduced or stricken out. The council shall not alter the estimates of receipts contained in the said budget except to correct omissions or mathematical errors, and it shall not cause the total of expenditures as recommended by the mayor to be increased without a public hearing on such increase, which shall be held not less than five days after notice thereof has been printed in a newspaper published or in general circulation in the city. The council shall in no event adopt a budget in which the total of expenditures exceeds the receipts, estimated as provided in § 6.04, unless at the same time it adopts measures for providing additional revenue in the ensuing fiscal year sufficient to make up this difference. (1948, c. 116; 1982, c. 658; 1998, c. 711; 2006, cc. 650, 712)

§ 6.11. Adoption of budget, appropriation ordinance and ordinances for additional revenue.

Not later than the thirty-first day of May in each year the council shall adopt the budget, the appropriation ordinances and such ordinances providing for additional revenue as may be necessary to put the budget in balance. If for any reason the council fails to adopt the budget on or before such day, the budget as submitted by the mayor shall be the budget for the ensuing year and the appropriation ordinance and the ordinances providing additional revenue, if any, as recommended by the mayor shall have full force and effect to the same extent as if the same had been adopted by the council, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this charter.

The mayor shall have the power to veto any particular item or items of any city budget ordinance by written notice of veto delivered to the city clerk within 14 calendar days of council's action. Council may thereafter override the mayor's veto with a vote of six or more of the currently filled seats on council at any regular or special meeting held within 14 calendar days of the city clerk's receipt of the notice of veto. Vetoes of any one or more items shall not affect other items not vetoed. (1948, c. 116; 1958, c. 185; 1998, c. 711; 2004, cc. 877, 898; 2005, c. 844; 2006, cc. 650, 712)

§ 6.12. Effective date of budget; certification and availability of copies thereof.

Upon final adoption, the budget shall be in effect for the ensuing fiscal year. A copy of such budget as finally adopted shall be certified by the city clerk. Copies of the budget, capital program and appropriation and revenue ordinances shall be public records and shall be made available to the public at suitable places in the city. (1948, c. 116; 1998, c. 711; 2006, cc. 650, 712)

§ 6.13. Utility budgets and related ordinances.

Separate budget estimates for each of the utilities as defined in Chapter 13 of this charter shall be submitted to the mayor at the same time as the budgets of other departments and in the form prescribed by the mayor, subject, however, to the provisions of Chapter 13 which shall also control the action of the mayor and council thereon. The mayor shall submit with the budget of each utility an ordinance making appropriations for the operation of such utility during the ensuing fiscal year. He/she shall also at the same time submit any ordinance changing the rates to be charged by the utility, used in estimating receipts. The council shall have the same powers and be subject to the same limitations with regard to the adoption of such utility budgets and accompanying appropriation and rate ordinances, subject to the provisions of the said Chapter 13, as are conferred or imposed on it by § 6.10 with regard to the budget and its accompanying appropriation and revenue ordinances. If for any reason the council fails to adopt the utility budgets or any of them before the expiration of the time set for the adoption of the budget, such budget or budgets and the accompanying appropriation ordinance or ordinances and the ordinances changing rates, if any, shall have full force and effect to the same extent as if the same had been adopted by the council, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this charter. (1948, c. 116; 1954, c. 64; 1998, c. 711; 2004, cc. 877, 898; 2006, cc. 650, 712)

§ 6.14. School budget.

It shall be the duty of the school board to submit its budget estimates to the mayor at the same time as other departments and in the form prescribed by the mayor. The school board shall before the beginning of the fiscal year file with the director of finance its budget as finally revised and its appropriations based thereon. It shall have power to order during the course of the fiscal year transfers from one item of appropriation to another, notice of which shall be immediately transmitted to the director of finance. The director of finance shall have the same authority to require expenditures to be made by school officers in accordance with the school budget as he/she is given by this charter to require expenditures by other city officers to be made in accordance with the general fund or utility budgets. (1948, c. 116; 1998, c. 711; 2004, cc. 877, 898; 2005, c. 844)

§ 6.15:3. School buildings and infrastructure modernization.

(a) Not later than January 1, 2019, the mayor shall formally present to the city council a fully funded plan to modernize the city's K-12 educational infrastructure consistent with national standards or inform city council such a plan is not feasible. In fulfilling the duties herein, the mayor shall consult with the school board and city council, consider cost savings available in state or federal law, and further provide an opportunity for public participation.

(b) Such fully funded plan required in subsection (a) shall not be based on the passage of new or increased taxes for that purpose.

(c) Nothing herein shall alter powers previously given to the school board.

(d) Once the mayor has complied with subsection (a), the city council shall have 90 days to take such action as it deems appropriate. (2018, c. 664)

§ 6.16. Amendments after adoption.

(a) At any time within the fiscal year, upon the recommendation of the mayor and certification of the director of finance that there remain sufficient funds not theretofore allotted for a specific purpose, the council may, by not less than six affirmative votes, allot all or part of the funds appropriated to an account designated "Reserve for Contingencies" as authorized in § 15.2-2505 of the Code of Virginia for a designated program or project and authorize expenditure of the funds so allotted.

(b) If at any time during the fiscal year the mayor certifies that there are available for appropriation revenues in excess of those estimated in the budget, the city council may by not less than six affirmative votes, and only upon the recommendation of the mayor, make supplemental appropriations for the year up to the amount of such excess.

(c) If at any time during the fiscal year it appears probable to the mayor that the revenue or fund balances available will be insufficient to finance the expenditures for which appropriations have been authorized, the mayor shall report to the city council without delay, indicating the estimated amount of the deficit, any remedial action taken by the mayor and recommendations as to any other steps to be taken. The council shall then take such further action as it deems necessary to prevent or reduce any deficit, and for that purpose it may by ordinance reduce one or more appropriations.

(d) At any time during the fiscal year, at the request of the mayor, the city council may by ordinance adopted by not less than six affirmative votes transfer part of or all of the unencumbered appropriation balance from one department or major organizational unit to the appropriation for other departments or major organizational units.

(e) No appropriation for debt service may be reduced or transferred, and no appropriation may be reduced below any amount required by law to be appropriated or by more than the amount of the unencumbered balance thereof. The supplemental and emergency appropriations and reduction or transfer of appropriations authorized by this section may be made effective immediately upon adoption. (1948, c. 116; 1982, c. 658; 1985, c. 22; 1998, c. 711; 2004, cc. 877, 898)

§ 6.17. (1948, c. 116; 1970, c. 226; 1973, c. 348; 1974, c. 19; 1982, c. 658; 1987, c. 230; 1995, c. 165; repealed 1998, c. 711)

§ 6.17.1. (1972, c. 336; 1974, c. 19; 1993, c. 613; repealed 1998, c. 711)

§ 6.18. Lapsing of appropriations.

Every appropriation, except an appropriation designated for special revenue or for a capital expenditure, shall lapse at the close of the fiscal year to the extent that it has not been expended or encumbered. Appropriations designated special revenue (funding provided beyond 12 months or extends beyond the end of the city's fiscal year) shall not lapse at the close of the fiscal year but shall remain in force for the life of the multiyear project, until expended, revised, or repealed. The purpose of any such multiyear appropriation should be restricted based on grant award instructions.

An appropriation for a capital expenditure shall continue in force until expended, revised or repealed; the purpose of any such appropriation shall be deemed abandoned if three years pass without any disbursement from or encumbrance of the appropriation. (1948, c. 116; 1998, c. 711; 2004, c. 514)

§ 6.19. Capital budget.

At the same time he/she submits the current expense budgets, the mayor shall submit to the council a program which he/she shall previously have submitted to the city planning commission of proposed capital improvement projects for the ensuing fiscal year and for the four fiscal years thereafter, with his/her recommendations as to the means of financing the improvements proposed for the ensuing fiscal year. The council shall have power to accept with or without amendments or reject the proposed program and proposed means of financing for the ensuing fiscal year; and may from time to time during the fiscal year amend by ordinance adopted by at least six affirmative votes the program previously adopted by it or the means of financing the whole or any part thereof or both, provided that the amendment shall have been recommended by the mayor and shall have been submitted to the city planning commission for review and such additional funds as may be required to finance the cost of the improvements are available. The council shall adopt a capital budget prior to the beginning of the fiscal year in which the budget is to take effect. No appropriation provided for a capital improvement purpose defined in the capital budget shall lapse until the purpose for which the appropriation was made shall have been accomplished or abandoned, provided the council shall have the power to transfer at any time any appropriation or any unencumbered part thereof from one purpose to another on the recommendation of the mayor. The mayor may transfer the balance remaining to the credit of any completed project to an incompleting project for the purpose of completing such project, provided the projects have been approved in the adoption of a capital budget or budgets. If no such transfers are made, the balances remaining to the credit of completed or abandoned purposes and projects shall be available for appropriation and allocation in a subsequent capital budget or budgets. Any project shall be deemed to have been abandoned if three fiscal years elapse without any expenditure from or encumbrance of the funds provided therefor. The council shall have the power at any time to abandon or to reduce the scope of any project in a capital budget to the extent that funds appropriated therefor are unexpended and unencumbered. (1948, c. 116; 1950, c. 251; 1954, c. 64; 1964, c. 120; 1973, c. 348; 1977, c. 513; 1998, c. 711; 2004, cc. 877, 898)

§ 6.20. Certification of funds, penalties for violation.

Except as otherwise provided in § 13.06 of this charter, no payment shall be made and no obligation incurred by or on behalf of the city or the school board except in accordance with an appropriation duly made and no payment shall be made from or obligation incurred against any allotment or appropriation unless the director of finance or his designee shall first certify that there is a sufficient unexpended and unencumbered balance in such allotment or appropriation to meet the same. Every expenditure or obligation authorized or incurred in violation of the provisions of this charter shall be void. Every payment made in violation of the provisions of this charter shall be deemed illegal and every official who shall knowingly authorize or make such payment or knowingly take part therein and every person who shall knowingly receive such payment or any part thereof shall be jointly and severally liable to the city for the full amount so paid or received. If any officer, member of a board or commission, or employee of the city or of the school board, shall knowingly incur any obligation or shall authorize or make any expenditure in violation of the provisions of this charter or knowingly take part therein such action may be cause for his/her removal. Nothing in this section contained, however, shall prevent the making of contracts of lease or for services providing for the payment of funds at a time beyond the fiscal year in which such contracts are made, provided the nature of such transactions will reasonably require, in the opinion of the council, the making of such contracts. (1948, c. 116; 1950, c. 251; 1954, c. 64; 1991, c. 396; 1998, c. 711; 2004, c. 514)

Chapter 13. Department of Public Utilities.

§ 13.01. Department of public utilities; created; composition.

There shall be a department of public utilities which shall consist of the director of public utilities and such other officers and employees organized into such bureaus, divisions and other units as may be provided by ordinance or by the orders of the director consistent therewith. The director shall have power to make rules and regulations consistent with this charter and the ordinances of the city for the conduct of its business. (1948, c. 116; 1998, c. 711)

§ 13.02. Functions.

The department of public utilities shall be responsible for: (a) the operation of the water, wastewater, stormwater, gas and electric utilities of the city, including street lighting; (b) the collection of all charges for the services of such utilities; and (c) such other powers and duties as may be assigned to the department by ordinance. (1948, c. 116; 1982, c. 658; 1994, c. 215)

§ 13.03. (1948, c. 116; 1988, c. 269; repealed 1998, c. 711)

§ 13.04. (1948, c. 116; repealed 1998, c. 711)

§ 13.05. Collection of bills.

The collection of unpaid bills may be enforced in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law or ordinance, and water service may be disconnected for nonpayment of landfill refuse fees. (1948, c. 116; 1982, c. 658; 1988, c. 269; 1993, c. 613; 1998, c. 711)

§ 13.06. Each utility a separate enterprise.

The water, wastewater, stormwater, gas and electric utilities shall each be conducted as a separate enterprise, provided that nothing herein shall prevent the transfer of employees from one utility to another or the division of the time of any officer or employee between two or more of such utilities. To facilitate accurate analysis of the financial results of the operation of each utility:

(a) The customer service division shall, as directed by ordinance, bill for and collect on behalf of each utility not only the charges due from domestic, commercial and industrial users of its services but similar charges against the city and each department, board, commission, office and agency thereof, including the school board and each other utility. The rates to be charged for street lighting and for electric current furnished to the city and its departments, boards, commissions, offices and agencies, as well as any political subdivision, shall be fixed by the director of public utilities to generate such revenue as shall enable the utility to make a reasonable return on investment and meet retirement schedules and other debt service requirements in accordance with the provisions of any bond ordinance pursuant to which bonds have been issued to finance capital improvements of such utility and to comply with the terms and conditions of any documents securing any such bonds.

(b) Separate budgets shall be prepared for each utility annually at the time and in the manner prescribed in Chapter 6 of this charter, which shall include estimates of revenue and expense for the ensuing fiscal year. After the budget of a utility has been adopted, should it appear that substantial sales of the unit product of the utility can be made in excess of the sales of the unit product contemplated by the budget which were not reasonably foreseen at the time the estimates of revenue and expense were made, additional expenditures may be authorized by the chief administrative officer from the funds of the utility in an amount not exceeding the estimated cost of producing or purchasing additional units of the product of the utility to be sold upon the justification of such expenditure by and recommendation of the director of public utilities. The chief administrative officer shall report to the council as soon as practicable any such additional expenditures authorized by him/her and shall also report any such additional expenditures to the director of finance, who shall adjust the appropriation accounts accordingly. The expenditure of any other funds of any utility shall be authorized only when an additional appropriation thereof is made in accordance with § 6.16 of this charter. The budget estimates of each department of the city shall include items for gas, water, wastewater, stormwater, and electric current to be used by them. An item for street lighting shall be included in the general fund budget and shall be disbursed by the director of finance on the basis of bills rendered by the customer service division.

(c) The accounting system of each utility shall conform to generally accepted principles of public utility accounting and shall be kept on an accrual basis. Expenditures shall be authorized and made in accordance with appropriations made by the council and in accordance with the provisions of Chapters 6, 8 and 13 of this charter. The records of revenues of each utility shall be kept so that the services rendered to each class of customer according to the rate schedules adopted by the council for each utility can be obtained. After the close of each fiscal year there shall be submitted to the chief administrative officer and the council a report as to the operation of each utility containing at least the following financial statements: (1) a comparative balance sheet showing the financial condition of the utility as of the beginning and close of the fiscal year and an analysis of the surplus account showing the factors of change in the account as reflected by the comparative balance sheet; and (2) a comparative profit and loss statement of the last two fiscal years; and a comparative detailed analysis of operating expense for the last two fiscal years according to functional grouping. The expense of operating each utility shall include: (1) taxes, if any, lawfully accruing during the fiscal year; and (2) except for the stormwater utility, taxes not actually accruing but which would have accrued had the utility not been municipally owned, and such taxes shall be paid annually into the general fund. For the purposes of this chapter, all indebtedness of the city incurred on account of each utility shall be considered as the indebtedness of such utility. (1948, c. 116; 1954, c. 64; 1982, c. 658; 1988, c. 269; 1993, c. 613; 1994, c. 215; 1998, c. 711; 2006, cc. 650, 712)

§ 13.06.1. Payments by utilities for city services.

The amount charged to and to be paid for any city services provided to a city utility by any other department or agency of the city shall be computed upon and limited to the actual cost incurred by such city department or agency in providing such service. (1989, c. 349)

§ 13.06.2. Investment of utility funds.

The cash of any utility may be invested for the utility with other city funds, provided, however, that the investment earnings from such cash be credited to the utility. The excess cash not required as working capital for any such utility, for renewal fund transfer, or for other legal obligations of a utility may be utilized for capital projects in accordance with industry standards as determined by and directed by the director of public utilities. (1989, c. 349)

§ 13.07. Utility renewal funds.

A renewal fund for each utility shall be established to be known as the "water utility renewal fund," the "wastewater utility renewal fund," the "stormwater utility renewal fund," the "gas utility renewal fund" and the "electric utility renewal fund," respectively. Simultaneously with the introduction of budgets for each city owned and operated utility there shall be introduced renewal fund budgets for each of the utilities utilizing operating cash of the respective utilities for appropriations to finance such budgets. Funds received from the federal and state governments, representing grants in aid of construction, shall be deposited into the respective utility renewal funds. Appropriations may be made by the council from the renewal fund of any utility, on the recommendation of the mayor, only for renewing, rebuilding or extending the plant and distribution system of such utility. (1948, c. 116; 1954, c. 64; 1973, c. 348; 1989, c. 349; 1994, c. 215; 2006, cc. 650, 712)

§ 13.07.1. Transfer of utility retained earnings.

Transfers of retained earnings of any utility of the city shall be made only after retention of sufficient funds to meet all bond covenant requirements, working capital requirements, and other legal requirements, and any such transfer shall be limited to thirty percent of any year's net income of such utility with such transfer to be made in the second succeeding fiscal year and provided further that in no case shall cash transfers be made to the general fund if a utility does not have a minimum of forty-five days working capital requirements. (1954, c. 64; 1960, c. 7; 1973, c. 348; 1989, c. 349)

§ 13.07.2. Amendment of the capital budget adopted pursuant to provisions of § 6.19 of the charter; increase in appropriation for utility purposes.

The capital budget ordinance for a fiscal year adopted by the city council pursuant to § 6.19 of the charter may be amended to allow for an increase in a public utility capital budget within the fiscal year if such additional appropriation is a result of and warranted by a demand for new services, changes in conditions, including emergencies and acts of God occurring after the capital budget goes into effect, necessity for complying with regulatory requirements, or the capital budget needs could not have been reasonably anticipated and estimated at the time of adoption of the capital budget. (1989, c. 349)

§ 13.08. Valuation of utilities.

At such times as it shall determine, the council shall cause to be made a valuation of each of the utilities, in accordance with accepted valuation principles, by a competent firm of engineers to be selected by the council on the recommendation of the chief administrative officer, showing in the case of the water utility the proportion of its valuation properly allocable to fire protection. (1948, c. 116; 1994, c. 215; 1998, c. 711; 2006, cc. 650, 712)

§ 13.09. Changes in rates.

The rates to be charged for the respective services of the water, wastewater, stormwater, and gas utilities and for the sale of any excess of electric current beyond the needs of the city and its departments, boards, commissions and agencies, as well as any political subdivisions, shall be fixed from time to time by the council on the recommendation of the director of public utilities and the mayor. If for any fiscal year any utility other than the stormwater utility shall operate at a net loss as shown by its annual statement of profit and loss, it shall be the duty of the director of public utilities and the mayor to recommend and the council to adopt for that utility a schedule of rates which in its judgment will produce revenue at least equal to expense. (1948, c. 116; 1954, c. 64; 1982, c. 658; 1994, c. 215; 2006, cc. 650, 712)

§ 13.10. No sale or lease of utilities except when approved by referendum.

There shall be no sale or lease of the water, wastewater, gas or electric utilities unless the proposal for such sale or lease shall first be submitted to the qualified voters of the city at a general election and be approved by a majority of all votes cast at such election. (1948, c. 116; 1998, c. 711)

§ 13.11. Implementation of stormwater utility.

The stormwater utility shall be implemented by ordinance, and shall be effective as of the effective date of that ordinance. Notwithstanding other provisions of this charter, the stormwater utility program may be administered by either the Department of Public Works or the Department of Public Utilities. Stormwater utility charges shall be assessed to all property owners and shall be based upon their contributions to stormwater runoff. Procedures and guidelines may be established to provide for full or partial waivers of charges to any person who develops, redevelops, or retrofits outfalls, discharges, or property so that there is a permanent reduction in post-development stormwater flow and pollutant loading. Federal and state government agencies shall receive a full waiver of stormwater utility charges when the agency owns and provides for maintenance of storm drainage and stormwater control facilities. If stormwater utility charges are not paid when due, interest thereon shall at that time accrue at the rate determined by council, not to exceed any maximum allowed by law. The city may collect charges and interest by action at law or suit in equity, and such unpaid charges and interest shall constitute a lien against the property, of equal stature with liens for unpaid real estate taxes. (1994, c. 215; 2004, c. 514; 2010, cc. 218, 476)

§ 17.04. Duty to adopt master plan.

It shall be the duty of the commission to make and adopt a master plan which with accompanying maps, plats, charts and descriptive matter shall show the commission's recommendations for the development of the territory covered by the plan. (1948, c. 116)

§ 17.06. Adoption of master plan by commission and approval by council.

The commission may adopt the master plan as a whole by a single resolution or may by successive resolutions adopt successive parts of the plan, said parts corresponding to major geographical sections or geographical or topographical divisions of the city or with functional subdivisions of the subject matter of the plan, and may adopt any amendment or extension thereof or addition thereto. In general the commission shall have such powers as may be necessary to enable it to fulfill its function, promote planning and carry out the purposes of this charter. The commission shall make an annual report to the council concerning its activities. (1948, c. 116)

§ 17.10. Zoning powers.

In addition to the powers granted elsewhere in this charter the council shall have the power to adopt by ordinance a comprehensive zoning plan designed to lessen congestion in streets, secure safety from fire, panic and other danger, promote health, sanitation and general welfare, provide adequate light and air, prevent the overcrowding of land, avoid undue concentration of population, facilitate public and private transportation and the supplying of public utility services and sewage disposal, and facilitate provision for schools, parks, playgrounds and other public improvements and requirements. The comprehensive zoning plan shall include the division of the city into districts with such boundaries as the council deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this charter and shall provide for the regulation and restriction of the use of land, buildings and structures in the respective districts and may include but shall not be limited to the following:

(a) It may permit specified uses of land, buildings and structures in the districts and prohibit all other uses.

(b) It may restrict the height, area and bulk of buildings and structures in the districts.

(c) It may establish setback building lines and prescribe the area of land that may be used as front, rear and side yards and courts and open spaces.

(d) It may restrict the portion of the area of lots that may be occupied by buildings and structures.

(e) It may prescribe the area of lots and the space in buildings that may be occupied by families.

(f) It may require that spaces and facilities deemed adequate by the council shall be provided on lots for parking of vehicles in conjunction with permitted uses of land and that spaces and facilities deemed adequate by the council shall be provided on lots for off-street loading or unloading of vehicles.

(g) It may permit the use and development of land not less than ten acres in extent in a manner that does not conform in all respects with the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district or districts in which such land is situated, provided that such use shall be approved by the city planning commission and the council.

(h) It may provide that land, buildings and structures and the uses thereof which do not conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district in which they are situated may be continued so long as the then existing or more restricted use continues and so long as the buildings or structures are maintained in their then structural condition; and may require that such buildings or structures and the use thereof shall conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district or districts in which they are situated whenever they are enlarged, extended, reconstructed or structurally altered; and may require that such buildings or structures and the use thereof shall conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district or districts in which they are situated, in any event within a reasonable period of time to be specified in the ordinance. (1948, c. 116)

§ 17.11. Uniformity of regulations within a district; special use permits.

(a) The regulations and restrictions shall be uniform and shall apply equally to all land, buildings, and structures and to the use and to each class or kind thereof throughout each district; however, the regulations and restrictions applicable in one district may differ from those provided for other districts.

(a1) The council may, by ordinance adopted after holding one or more public hearings concerning same, establish design overlay districts, providing for such design overlay districts, a design review process applicable to exterior changes within view from public right-of-ways in order to protect developed areas of the city which are characterized by uniqueness of established neighborhood character, architectural coherence and harmony, or vulnerability to deterioration, and council may assess a reasonable fee, not exceeding the actual cost of the review process, for a determination if proposed new construction, alterations, rehabilitation, or demolition conforms to general guidelines for a particular design overlay district established by the planning commission and urban design committee after holding a public hearing.

(b) The council shall have the power to authorize by ordinance adopted by not less than six affirmative votes the use of land, buildings, and structures in a district that does not conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for that district and to authorize the issuance of special use permits therefor, whenever it is made to appear that such special use will not be detrimental to the safety, health, morals and general welfare of the community involved, will not tend to create congestion in streets, roads, alleys and other public ways and places in the area involved, will not create hazards from fire, panic or other dangers, will not tend to overcrowding of land and cause an undue concentration of population, will not adversely affect or interfere with public or private schools, parks, playgrounds, water supplies, sewage disposal, transportation or other public requirements, conveniences and improvements, and will not interfere with adequate light and air. No such special use permit shall be adopted until (1) the city planning commission has conducted a public hearing to investigate the circumstances and conditions upon which the council is empowered to authorize such use and until the commission has reported to the council the results of such public hearing and investigation and its recommendations with respect thereto, and (2) the council has conducted a public hearing on an ordinance to authorize such special use permit at which the person in interest and all other persons shall have an opportunity to be heard. Notice of the time and place of such public hearings shall be given in accordance with general law. The council shall have the power to require greater notice as it may deem expedient. The city planning commission may recommend and the council may impose such conditions upon the use of the land, buildings and structures as will, in its opinion, protect the community and area involved and the public from adverse effects and detriments that may result therefrom. (1948, c. 116; 1960, c. 7; 1968, c. 644; 1987, c. 230; 1998, c. 711)

§ 17.12. Considerations to be observed in adoption and alteration of regulations.

The regulations and restrictions shall be enacted with reasonable consideration, among other things of the character of each district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses and with a view of conserving the value of land, buildings and structures and encouraging the most appropriate use thereof throughout the city. Upon the enactment of the ordinance dividing the city into districts and regulating and restricting the use of land, buildings and structures therein in accordance with a comprehensive zoning plan no land, building or structure shall be changed from one district to another district unless the change is in accord with the interest and purposes of this section and will not be contrary to the comprehensive zoning plan and the enumerated factors upon which it is based and the regulations and restrictions applicable to the districts involved in the change. (1948, c. 116; 1950, c. 251; 1960, c. 7)

§ 17.13. Duties of the city planning commission with relation to zoning.

It shall be the duty of the city planning commission to prepare and submit to the council a comprehensive zoning plan as referred to in § 17.10 and from time to time prepare and submit such changes in or revisions of the said plan as changing conditions may make necessary. (1948, c. 116)

§ 17.14. Adoption and amendment of zoning regulations and restrictions and establishment of district boundaries.

Subject to the other provisions of this chapter and general law, the council shall have power by ordinance to adopt the regulations and restrictions hereinbefore described and establish the boundaries of the districts in which they shall apply, provide for their enforcement, and from time to time amend, supplement or repeal the same. The council shall also have authority to provide for the collection of fees to cover costs involved in the consideration of any request for amendment, supplement or repeal of any such regulation, restriction or establishment of boundaries, to be paid to the department of planning and community development by the applicant upon filing such request. No such regulation, restriction or establishment of boundaries shall be adopted until:

- (a) The city planning commission has conducted a public hearing to investigate the circumstances and conditions upon which the council is empowered to authorize such regulation, restriction or establishment of boundaries, and until the commission has reported to the council the results of such public hearing and investigation and its recommendations with respect thereto; and
- (b) The council has conducted a public hearing on an ordinance to authorize such regulation, restriction or establishment of boundaries at which the person in interest and other persons shall have an opportunity to be heard.

Notice of the time and place of such public hearings shall be given in accordance with general law.

The procedures set forth in this section shall also apply to the adoption, amendment and repeal of historic district boundaries. All historic districts previously adopted by city council, except for the Church Hill North district adopted by Ordinance no. 90-197-194 and repealed by Ordinance no. 90-242-314, shall remain in full force and effect, shall be deemed to have been in continuous existence, and shall not henceforth be declared invalid by reason of a failure to follow the procedures set forth herein applicable to zoning districts. (1948, c. 116; 1984, c. 163; 1992, c. 850; 1998, c. 711)

§ 17.15. Effect of protest by twenty percent of the owners of property.

If a protest is filed with the city clerk against such amendment, supplement or repeal, signed and acknowledged before a person authorized to administer oaths, by the owners of twenty percent or more of the total area of the lots included in such proposed change or of the total area of the lots outside of the proposed change any point in which is within 150 of the boundary of such area, the council shall not adopt the ordinance making such amendment, supplement or repeal, by less than seven affirmative votes. (1948, c. 116)

§ 17.16. Board of zoning appeals; composition.

(a) There shall be a board of zoning appeals which shall consist of five regular members and two alternates. They shall be qualified voters of the city, shall hold no office of profit under the city government and shall be appointed by the chief judge of the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond for terms of four years. Vacancies shall be filled by the chief judge of such court for the unexpired portion of the term. A regular or alternate member may be removed by the chief judge of the said court for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, upon written charges and after public hearing. Members of the board of appeals shall serve without compensation.

(b) The city may by ordinance create a separate division of the board which shall be empowered only to hear appeals concerning interpretations of sections of the zoning ordinance dealing expressly with preservation of the Chesapeake Bay. This division shall consist of five regular members and two alternates appointed as provided in paragraph (a) of this section and subject to the same conditions of office. This division shall have only the powers set forth in § 17.20 (a). In all other respects, it shall be governed by those sections of this charter and of law which are generally applicable to the Board of Zoning Appeals. (1948, c. 116; 1960, c. 7; 1975, c. 112; 1992, c. 850)

§ 17.18. (1948, c. 116; repealed 1998, c. 711)

§ 17.19. Appeals to board of zoning appeals.

Appeals to the board may be taken by any person aggrieved, or by any officer, department, board, commission or agency of the city affected, by any decision of the administrative officer designated by the council to administer and enforce the ordinance dividing the city into districts and regulating and restricting the use of land, buildings and structures therein. Appeals shall be taken within such reasonable time as shall be prescribed by the board by general rule, by filing with the said administrative officer and with the board a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The administrative officer shall forthwith transmit to the board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken. An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from unless the administrative officer from whose decision the appeal is taken certifies to the board that by reason of the facts stated in the certificate a stay would in his/her opinion cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the board or by a court of record on application and on notice to the administrative officer and on due cause shown.

The board shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof as well as due notice to the parties in interest and decide the issue within a reasonable time. At the hearing any party may appear in person, by agent or by attorney and shall be given an opportunity to be heard. The board may prescribe a fee to be paid whenever an appeal is taken which shall be paid into the city treasury. (1948, c. 116; 1998, c. 711)

§ 17.20. Powers of board of zoning appeals.

The board shall have the following powers and it shall be its duty:

(a) To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order, requirement, decision or determination by the administrative officer in the administration and enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance.

(b) To grant variations in the regulations when a property owner can show that his/her property was acquired in good faith and where by reason of the exceptional narrowness, shallowness or shape of a specific piece of property at the time of the effective date of the ordinance or where by reason of the exceptional topographical conditions or other extraordinary or exceptional situation the strict application of the terms of the ordinance actually prohibit or unreasonably restrict the use of the property, or where the board is satisfied, upon the evidence heard by it, the granting of such variations will alleviate a clearly demonstrable hardship approaching confiscation as distinguished from a special privilege or convenience sought by the owner, provided, however, that all variations granted shall be in harmony with the intended spirit and purpose of this chapter and the ordinance.

(c) To permit, when reasonably necessary in the public interest, the use of land, or the construction or use of buildings or structures, in any district in which they are prohibited by the ordinance, by any agency of the city, county or Commonwealth or the United States, provided such construction or use shall adequately safeguard the health, safety and welfare of the occupants of the adjoining and surrounding property, shall not unreasonably impair an adequate supply of light and air to adjacent property, shall not increase congestion in streets and shall not increase public danger from fire or otherwise affect public safety.

(d) To permit the following exceptions to the district regulations and restrictions, provided such exceptions shall by their design, construction and operation adequately safeguard the health, safety and welfare of the occupants of the adjoining and surrounding property, shall not unreasonably impair an adequate supply of light and air to adjacent property, shall not increase congestion in streets and shall not increase public danger from fire or otherwise unreasonably affect public safety and shall not diminish or impair the established property values in surrounding areas:

(1) Use of land or erection or use of a building or structure by a public service corporation for public utility purposes exclusively which the board finds to be reasonably necessary for the public convenience and welfare.

(2) Use of land or construction or use of buildings and structures in any district in which they are prohibited by the ordinance, for cemetery purposes, airports or landing fields, greenhouses and nurseries and the extraction of raw materials from land, such as rock, gravel, sand and similar products.

(3) Use of land in dwelling districts immediately adjoining or separated from business, commercial or industrial districts by alleys, or widths to be specified in the ordinance, for parking of vehicles of customers of business, commercial or industrial establishments, provided such use shall not extend more than the distance specified in the ordinance from the business, commercial or industrial district.

(4) Use of buildings for dwelling purposes in districts specified in the ordinance for use for other purposes, where it can be shown that conditions in the specified districts are not detrimental to the health, safety, or welfare of the inhabitants of such buildings and on condition that the buildings will be removed within a time specified in the ordinance.

(5) Reconstruction of buildings or structures that do not conform to the comprehensive zoning plan and regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district in which they are located, which have been damaged by explosion, fire, act of God or the public enemy, to the extent of more than sixty per cent of their assessed taxable value, when the board finds some compelling public necessity for a continuance of the use and such continuance is not primarily to continue a monopoly, provided that nothing herein shall relieve the owner of any such building or structure from obtaining the approval of such reconstruction by the council or any department or officer of the city when such approval is required by any law or ordinance.

(e) To modify the interpretation and application of the provisions of the ordinance where the street layout actually on the ground varies from the street layout as shown on the map fixing the districts and their boundaries adopted with and as a part of the ordinance. (1948, c. 116; 1954, c. 64; 1962, c. 65; 1981, c. 199; 1998, c. 711)

§ 17.21. Form and scope of decisions by board of zoning appeals.

In exercising the powers conferred upon it the board may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from, and may make such order, requirement, decision or determination as should be made, and to that end shall have all the powers of the administrative officer charged by the ordinance with enforcement. The concurring affirmative vote of three members of the board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of the administrative officer or to decide in favor of the applicant in any matter of which it has jurisdiction. The board shall act by formal resolution which shall set forth the reason for its decision and the vote of each member participating therein which shall be spread upon its records and shall be open to public inspection. The board may, upon the affirmative vote of three members, reconsider any decision made and, upon such reconsideration, render a decision by formal resolution.

Every decision of the board shall be based upon a finding of fact based on sworn testimony which finding of fact shall be reduced to writing and preserved among its records. (1948, c. 116)

§ 17.22. Same, appeals from boards.

Any person, firm or corporation, jointly or severally aggrieved or in fact affected by any decision of the board of zoning appeals, or any officer, department, board or agency of the city government charged with the enforcement of any order, requirement or decision of said board, may appeal from such decision by filing a petition in the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond, Division I, verified by affidavit, setting forth the alleged illegality of the action of the board and the grounds thereof. The petition shall be filed within thirty days from the date of the decision of the board. No appeal from the decision of the board shall be allowed in any case involving the same petitioner, principles, property and conditions previously passed upon by such court. (1948, c. 116; 1954, c. 73; 1975, c. 112; 1976, c. 633)

§ 17.23. Procedure on appeal.

Upon filing of the petition the court may cause a writ of certiorari to issue directed to the board, ordering it to produce within the time prescribed by the court, not less than ten days, the record of its action and documents considered by it in making the decision appealed from, which writ shall be served upon any member of the board. The issuance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from but the court may, on application, notice to the board and due cause shown, issue a restraining order. The board shall not be required to produce the original record and documents but it shall be sufficient to produce certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be required by the writ. With the record and documents the board may concisely set forth in writing such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from, verified by affidavit. (1948, c. 116)

§ 17.24. Powers and duties of the court.

The court shall review the record, documents and other matters produced by the board pursuant to the issuance of the writ and may reverse or modify the decision reviewed, in whole or in part, when it is satisfied that the decision of the board is contrary to law or that its decision is arbitrary and constitutes an abuse of discretion. Unless it is made to appear that the decision is contrary to law or is arbitrary and constitutes an abuse of discretion the court shall affirm the decision. If the court finds that the testimony of witnesses is necessary for a proper disposition of the matter it may hear evidence. (1948, c. 116)

§ 17.25. Proceedings against violators of zoning ordinance.

Whenever any building or structure is erected, constructed, reconstructed, altered, repaired or converted, or whenever any land, building or structure is used in violation of any ordinance adopted in accordance with § 17.14, the city may institute and prosecute appropriate action or proceedings to prevent such unlawful act and to restrain, correct or abate such violation or to prevent any unlawful act, conduct or use of such property. (1948, c. 116)

§ 17.26. Penalties for violation of zoning ordinance.

The council may in such ordinance provide that fines and jail sentences, either or both, shall be imposed for violations of the ordinance by owners of land, buildings or structures, their agents having possession or control of such property, lessees, tenants, architects, builders, contractors or any other persons, firms or corporations who take part in or assist in any such violations or who maintain any land, building or structure in which such violations exist, which penalties shall not exceed those prescribed in § 2.06 of this charter. (1948, c. 116)

§ 17.28. (1948, c. 116; repealed 1998, c. 711)

§ 17.29. (1948, c. 116; 1975, c. 112; 1994, c. 215; repealed 1998, c. 711)

§ 17.30. (1948, c. 116; repealed 1994, c. 215)

§ 17.31. (1948, c. 116; 1975, c. 112; 1976, c. 633; 1982, c. 658; 1994, c. 215; repealed 1998, c. 711)

§ 17.32. (1948, c. 116; 1994, c. 215; repealed 1998, c. 711)

§ 17.34. (1948, c. 116; 1994, c. 215; repealed 1998, c. 711)

§ 17.35. (1948, c. 116; 1981, c. 199; 1994, c. 215; repealed 1998, c. 711)

§ 17.36. Use of street for five years; dedication.

Whenever any piece, parcel or strip of land shall have been opened to and used by the public as a street, alley, lane or other public place or part thereof for the period of five years, the same shall thereby become a street, alley, lane, public place or part thereof for all purposes and the city shall have the same authority and jurisdiction over and right and interest therein that it has by law over the streets, alleys, lanes and public places laid out by it and thereafter no action shall be brought to recover such piece, parcel or strip of land so opened to and used by the public as aforesaid. Any street, alley, lane or other public place reserved in the division or subdivision into lots by a plat or plan of record shall be deemed and held to be dedicated to the public use and the council shall have authority upon the petition of any person or corporation interested therein to open such street, alley, lane or other public place or any portion of the same. No agreement between, or release of interest by, persons or corporations owning the lands immediately contiguous to any such street, alley, lane or other public place, whether the same has been opened or used by the public or not, shall avail or operate to abolish such street, alley, lane or other public place or to divest the interest of the public therein or the authority of the council over the same. (1948, c. 116; 1994, c. 215)

§ 17.37. Present master plan and comprehensive zoning plan.

The master plan and the comprehensive zoning plan as heretofore adopted, approved and filed, with all amendments, additions and extensions thereto, in force and effect at the effective date of this charter, are hereby validated and confirmed as if the same had been prepared, adopted, approved and filed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Every amendment or addition thereto or extension thereof and every other master plan or comprehensive zoning ordinance henceforth adopted shall be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Where existing ordinances are at variance with the provisions of this chapter they shall be deemed to be amended in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. (1948, c. 116)

Chapter 18. Acquisition of Property for Public Purposes.

§ 18.01. Acquisition, ownership and use of property.

The city shall have, for the purpose of carrying out any of its powers and duties, power to acquire by gift, bequest, purchase or lease, and to own and make use of, within and without the city, lands, buildings, other structures and personal property, including any interest, right, easement or estate therein, and in acquiring such property to exercise, within and without the city, the right of eminent domain as hereinafter provided in this chapter. (1948, c. 116)

§ 18.02. Eminent domain.

The city is hereby authorized to acquire by condemnation proceedings lands, buildings, structures and personal property or any interest, right, easement or estate therein, of any person or corporation, whenever in the opinion of the council a public necessity exists therefor, which shall be expressed in the resolution or ordinance directing such acquisition, whether or not any corporation owning the same be authorized to exercise the power of eminent domain or whether or not such lands, buildings, structures or personal property or interest, right, easement or estate has already been devoted to a public use, and whenever the city cannot agree on terms of purchase or settlement with the owners of the subject of such acquisition because of incapacity of such owner, or because of the inability to agree on the compensation to be paid or other terms of settlement or purchase, or because the owner or some one of the owners is a nonresident of the Commonwealth and cannot with reasonable diligence be found in the Commonwealth or is unknown.

Such proceedings may be instituted in the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond, Divisions I or II, if the subject to be acquired is located within the city, or, if it is not located within the city, in the circuit court of the county in which it is located. If the subject is situated partly within the city and partly within any county the circuit court of such county shall have concurrent jurisdiction in such condemnation proceedings with the circuit court of the city. The judge or the court exercising such concurrent jurisdiction shall appoint five disinterested freeholders any or all of whom reside either in the county or city, any three of whom may act as commissioners, as provided by law. (1948, c. 116; 1975, c. 112)

§ 18.03. Alternative procedures in condemnation.

The city may, in exercising the right of eminent domain conferred by the preceding section, make use of the procedure prescribed by the general law as modified by said section or may elect to proceed as hereinafter provided. In the latter event the resolution or ordinance directing acquisition of any property, as set forth in the preceding section, shall provide therein in a lump sum the total funds necessary to compensate the owners thereof for such property to be acquired or damaged. Upon the adoption of such resolution or ordinance the city may file a petition in the clerk's office of a court enumerated in the preceding section, having jurisdiction of the subject, which shall be signed by the chief administrative officer and set forth the interest or estate to be taken in the property and the uses and purposes for which the property or the interest or estate therein is wanted, or when property is not to be taken but is likely to be damaged, the necessity for the work or improvement which will cause or is likely to cause such damage. There shall also be filed with the petition a plat of a survey of the property with a profile showing cuts and fills, trestles and bridges, if any, and a description of the property which, or an interest or estate in which, is sought to be taken or likely to be damaged and a memorandum showing names and residences of the owners of the property, if known, and showing also the quantity of property which, or an interest or estate in which, is sought to be taken or which will be or is likely to be damaged. There shall be filed also with said petition a notice directed to the owners of the property, if known, copies of which shall be served on such owners or tenants of the freehold of such property, if known. If the owner or tenant of the freehold be unknown or a nonresident of the Commonwealth or cannot with reasonable diligence be found in the Commonwealth, or if the residence of the owner or tenant be unknown, he/she may be proceeded against by order of publication which order, however, need not be published more than once a week for two successive weeks and shall be posted at a main entrance to the courthouse. The publication shall in all other respects conform to §§ 8.01-316, 8.01-317 and 8.01-319 of the Code of Virginia.

Upon the filing of said petition and the deposit of the funds provided by the council for the purpose in a bank to the credit of the court in such proceedings and the filing of a certificate of deposit therefor the interest or estate of the owner of such property shall terminate and the title to such property or the interest or estate to be taken in such property shall be vested absolutely in the city and such owner shall have such interest or estate in the funds so deposited as he/she had in the property taken or damaged and all liens by deed of trust, judgment or otherwise upon said property or estate shall be transferred to such funds and the city shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of such property for its uses and purposes and to construct its works or improvements. The clerk of the court in which such proceeding is instituted shall make and certify a copy of the petition, exhibits filed therewith, and orders, and deliver or transmit the same to the clerk of the court in which deeds are admitted to record, who shall record the same in his/her deed book and index them in the name of the person or persons who had the property before and in the name of the city, for which he/she shall receive the same fees prescribed for recording a deed, which shall be paid by the city.

If the city and the owner of property so taken or damaged agree upon compensation therefor, upon filing such agreement in writing in the clerk's office of such court, the court shall make such distribution of such funds as to it may seem right, having due regard to the interest of all persons therein whether such interest be vested, contingent or otherwise, and to enable the court or judge to make a proper distribution of such money it may in its discretion direct inquiries to be taken by a special commissioner in order to ascertain what persons are entitled to such funds and in what proportions and may direct what notice shall be given to the making of such inquiries by such special commissioner.

If the city and the owner cannot agree upon the compensation for the property taken or damaged, if any, upon the filing of a memorandum in the clerk's office of said court to that effect, signed by either the city or the owner, the court shall appoint commissioners provided for in §§ 25.1-220 and 25.1-226 through 25.1-230 of the Code of Virginia or as provided for in § 18.02, and all proceedings thereafter shall be had as provided in Chapter 2 (§ 25.1-200 et seq.) of Title 25.1 of the Code of Virginia insofar as they are then applicable and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this and the preceding section, and the court shall order the deposit in bank to the credit of the court of such additional funds as appear to be necessary to cover the award of the commissioners or shall order the return to the city of such funds deposited that are not necessary to compensate such owners for property taken or damaged. The commissioners so appointed shall not consider improvements placed upon the property by the city subsequent to its taking nor the value thereof nor the enhancement of the value of said property by said improvements in making their award. (1948, c. 116; 1968, c. 644; 1998, c. 711; 2004, cc. 877, 898)

§ 18.04. Enhancement in value when considered.

In all cases under the provisions of § 18.02 and 18.03, the enhancement, if any, in value of the remaining property of the owner by reason of the construction or improvement contemplated or made by the city, shall be offset against the damage, if any, resulting to such remaining property of such owner by reason of such construction or improvement, provided such enhancement in value shall not be offset against the value of the property taken, and provided further, that if such enhancement in value shall exceed the damage there shall be no recovery over against the owner for such excess. (1948, c. 116)

§ 18.05. Unclaimed funds in condemnation cases.

Whenever any money shall have remained for five years in the custody or under the control of any of the courts enumerated in § 18.02, in any condemnation proceeding instituted therein by the city, without any claim having been asserted thereto such court shall direct the same to be paid into the treasury of the city, and a proper receipt for the payment taken and filed among the records of the proceeding. The director of finance shall, in a book provided for the purpose, keep an account of all money thus paid into the city treasury, showing the amount thereof, when, by whom, and under what order it was paid, and the name of the court and, as far as practicable, a description of the suit or proceeding in which the order was made and, as far as known, the names of the parties entitled to said funds. Money thus paid into the treasury of the city shall be paid out on the order of the court having jurisdiction of the proceeding, to any person entitled thereto who had not asserted a claim therefor in the proceeding in which it was held, upon satisfactory proof that he/she is entitled to such money. If such claim is established the net amount thereof, after deducting costs and other proper charges, shall be paid to the claimant out of the treasury of the city on the warrant of the director of finance. No claim to such money shall be asserted after ten years from the time when such court obtained control thereof; provided, however, if the person having such claim was an infant, insane, or imprisoned at the time the claim might have been presented or asserted by such person, claim to such money may be asserted within five years after the removal of such disability. ### § 9.04. Civil penalties for violations of zoning ordinances.

Notwithstanding the provisions of § 15.1-491 (e) of the Code of Virginia, the board of supervisors may adopt an ordinance which establishes a uniform schedule of civil penalties for violations of specified provisions of the zoning ordinances. Such schedule of offenses shall not include any zoning violation resulting in injury to any person or persons, and the existence of a civil penalty shall not preclude action by the zoning administrator under § 15.1-491 (d) of the Code of Virginia or action by the governing body under § 15.1-499 of the Code of Virginia.

This schedule of civil penalties shall be uniform for each type of specified violation, and the penalty for any one violation shall be a fine of not more than fifty dollars. Any person summoned for a scheduled violation may make an appearance in person or in writing by mail to the treasurer of the county prior to the date fixed for trial in court. Any person so appearing may enter a waiver of trial, admit liability, and pay the civil penalty established for the offense charged. Such persons shall be informed of their right to stand trial and that a signature to an admission of liability will have the same force and effect as a judgment of court.

If a person charged with a scheduled violation does not elect to enter a waiver of trial and admit liability, the violation shall be tried in the general district court in the same manner and with the same right of appeal as provided for in Title 8.01 of the Code of Virginia. In any trial for a scheduled violation authorized by this section, it shall be the burden of the county to show the liability of the violator by a preponderance of the evidence. An admission of liability or finding of liability shall not be a criminal conviction for any purpose.

No provision herein shall be construed to allow the imposition of civil penalties: (i) for enforcement of the Uniform Statewide Building Code; (ii) for activities related to land development or activities related to the construction or repair of buildings and other structures; (iii) for violation of an erosion and sediment control ordinance; or (iv) for violation of any provision of a local zoning ordinance relating to the posting of signs on public property or public rights-of-way. Permitting the growth of algae in an amount which materially affects the purity, taste or smell of such water, so as to render the same unfit for drinking purposes or general domestic use, in the reservoirs or sources of water supply is hereby declared a condition which it is the duty of the city council to prevent or remedy under the powers granted in this subsection. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as in anywise limiting, altering, affecting or impairing the existing duties, jurisdiction or powers of the State Corporation Commission or of the State Board of
