§ 4. Continuity.

The present mayor, council and officers of the Town of Dublin shall continue in office until the expiration of the term for which they were respectively elected, and until their successors shall be elected and shall have qualified. (1958, c. 362)

§ 4.1. Administration and government.

The administration and government of the Town shall be vested in a Council composed of a Mayor and six Councilmen, who shall have full power and authority, except as herein otherwise provided, to exercise all the power conferred upon the Town by this Charter, or by general law, and to pass all laws, ordinances, rules, and regulations relating to its municipal affairs and for the proceedings of Council, subject to the Constitution and general laws of the State and of this Charter, and shall have full and complete control of all fiscal and municipal affairs of the Town and of all its real and personal property, and may from time to time amend or repeal any or all of the said ordinances, rules, or regulations for the proper regulation, management, and government of the said Town, and may impose fines and penalties for the violations or nonobservance thereof.

The Council shall establish salaries and wages and provide for the payment to all town officers and employees of such salaries or compensation, if any, as the Council may deem in their discretion, from time to time, to be just and proper; all employees who shall be discharged by, or have a grievance against their superiors, shall have the right to have the case reviewed by the Council, and the Council shall have full and complete rights, powers, and final determination in all such matters.

The Council may require the attendance of its officers, agents, appointees, or employees at its meetings, and may further require reports to be submitted. (1958, c. 362)

§ 4.2. Composition of Council; qualification of Mayor and Councilmen, elections generally; Council to be continuing body; vacancies in Council; appointment of town officers; insufficient candidates for Council; quorum of Council; compensation of Councilmen and Mayor.

The Mayor and members of the Council in office on January 1, 1975, shall continue to serve in office until June 30 of the year in which their current terms expire. The Mayor and all Councilmen shall be residents of the Town of Dublin and Councilmen shall be elected at large during municipal elections which shall be held in every even-numbered year on the day specified by general law for the holding of municipal elections. During each such election, three Councilmen shall be elected for terms of four years each, and shall enter upon the discharge of their duties on the first day of July next succeeding their election and shall continue in office until their successors are qualified.

Therefore three councilmen shall be elected pursuant to general law in 1976 to replace councilmen whose terms will expire June 30, 1936, and three councilmen shall be elected pursuant to general law in 1978 to replace councilmen whose terms will expire June 30, 1978. The Mayor shall be elected for a term of four years as hereinafter provided in § 5.

All elections in the Town of Dublin shall be conducted pursuant to, and in accordance with, the general laws governing the holding of elections for towns.

The Council shall be a continuing body, and no measure pending before such body, contracts, or obligations incurred, shall abate or be discontinued by reason of the expiration of the term of office or removal of the members of said body, or any of them.

Vacancies in the Council shall be filled within thirty days, for the unexpired terms, by a majority vote of the remaining members; in the event of a failure to so fill any such vacancy within the time specified, the same shall be filled by appointment of the Circuit Court of Pulaski County.

The Council may create, appoint, or elect a clerk, treasurer, attorneys, departments, bodies, committees, boards, or other offices as are provided for by this Charter, or as permitted or required by general law to be created, appointed, or elected, or as may, by the Council, be deemed necessary or proper to carry out and perform the powers and duties of the Town of Dublin, granted by this Charter or by the general laws of the Commonwealth.

All of the aforesaid officers or employees, who shall be appointed or employed, shall hold office at, and during, the pleasure of the Council, and said officers and employees shall qualify and take such oath as is prescribed by law, and shall execute such bonds as may be prescribed by resolution of the Council. Upon the failure of any Council, after being duly qualified, to appoint such officers and employees, all such officers and employees then in office shall so continue in office until removed by that, or a succeeding Council. The same person may be appointed to fill two offices at the discretion of the Council.

In the event there are no, or not sufficient, candidates at any regular municipal election to fill the offices of Councilmen or Mayor, the new Council is empowered to fill such vacancies in the manner and within the time hereinabove specified, provided Councilmen elected constitute a quorum; if no quorum is available within the new Council, vacancies upon the Council may be filled by the old or retiring Councilmen prior to the expiration of their term of office. In the event they fail to fill such vacancies, then said vacancies shall be filled by appointment of the Circuit Court of Pulaski County.

The majority of all members of Council, exclusive of the Mayor, shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time and compel the attendance of the members absent.

The Councilmen and Mayor shall receive such compensation for their services as the Council shall, from time to time prescribe, but any raise in the salaries of Councilmen or Mayor shall not become effective until the expiration of the term of office of the Council voting the raise in salary, and no such raise shall be voted on between the first day of April and the first day of July, during any year in which the municipal election is held, and the Council shall not have the right to decrease the salaries of Councilmen or Mayor during said period of time. (1958, c. 362; 1964, c. 22; 1975, c. 357)

§ 5. Election of Mayor; duties and powers of Mayor; Vice-Mayor; oath of Mayor and Councilmen.

The Mayor shall be elected at large by the qualified voters of the Town for a term of four years at the municipal election held in 1976, and each four years thereafter, and shall enter upon the discharge of his duties on the first day of July, next succeeding his election, and shall continue in office until his successor qualifies.

Any resident qualified to vote in the town election in which he offers, shall be eligible for the office of Mayor.

The Mayor shall receive such compensation as the Council shall provide, but shall not vote on the question of his salary, and shall not preside or be present when such question is voted upon.

The Mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the Town, and shall be recognized as the official head of the Town for all purposes; it shall be his duty to see that the laws and ordinances thereof are fully executed, and he shall perform such other duties as are prescribed by this Charter or by general law. He shall preside over the meetings of the Council and appoint the necessary committees or departments for the dispatch of business of the Town, subject to the approval of the Council.

The Mayor, as a member of the Council, shall vote only in the case of a tie. It shall be his duty to see that the various officers, when elected or appointed, shall perform their duties in a proper and faithful manner. He shall have the right to investigate their acts, have access to all books and documents in their office, and may examine them on oath. Such course of action may be subject to the right of Council to rehear and make final determination as to the controversy; upon such hearing of the Council, final action must be by a two-thirds majority of the members present.

The Mayor, with consent of the Council, shall appoint a Chief of Police and such other police officers or force as he shall deem necessary.

The Council shall, at its first meeting in July after the effective date of this act, choose a Vice-Mayor from its members, and thereafter, shall, at its first meeting after each election of Council and Mayor, choose one of its members as Vice-Mayor.

The Vice-Mayor shall perform the duties of the Mayor during or at the absence or disability of the Mayor. In the event of death, removal, or resignation of the Mayor, the Councilmen shall appoint a member of the Council, or some other resident freeholder of the Town of Dublin, to serve as Mayor for the unexpired term. If a member of Council be chosen for such unexpired term, such Councilmen shall be deemed to have surrendered his office of Councilman, and the office shall thereupon be vacant, and shall be filled as herein provided.

The six Councilmen and Mayor shall be voted on as herein provided by all the qualified voters who are residents of the said Town. Every person elected as Councilman of the Town, shall, on or before the day on which he enters upon the performance of his duties, qualify by taking or subscribing an oath faithfully to execute the duties of the office to the best of his judgment; and the person elected Mayor shall take and subscribe the oath prescribed by law for State officers. Upon the failure of any person elected as Councilman or Mayor to take the oath of office, and qualify on, or before the date for beginning of their term, or within ten days from the time their respective terms of office would have begun, then such office shall be deemed vacant and shall be filled as herein elsewhere provided.

Any such oath of Mayor shall be taken before the Clerk or Deputy Clerk of the Circuit Court of Pulaski County, and shall, when so taken and subscribed, be forthwith returned to the Clerk of the Council, who shall enter the same of record in the minute books of the Council, or may be filed with the Clerk who administered the oath. Oath of Councilmen shall be taken before the Mayor and filed with the Clerk. (1958, c. 362; 1964, c. 22; 1975, c. 357)

§ 5.1. Mayor to act as trial officer.

In addition to his other duties and powers, the Mayor shall have power to issue warrants, summon witnesses, and exercise exclusive jurisdiction to try cases involving violations of Town Ordinances; and shall perform all the duties, and have all the powers in reference to this Court, as have been, and are being performed by the Mayor, under the powers granted by the present Charter for the Town of Dublin. In exercising the jurisdiction herein conveyed, he may exercise the powers and shall perform the duties of a judge of a county court as provided by the laws of the State of Virginia, except that he shall not be required to be a licensed attorney. The fees and costs in connection with such cases shall be the same as are authorized by law to be charged, taxed, and collected by judges of county courts for similar services, and such fees and fines collected shall promptly be paid into the Treasury of said Town. Provided, however, that the Council may, at any time it deems the same expedient, appoint a police justice for the Town other than, and in place of, the Mayor, who shall be a resident and qualified voter of said Town (unless the Council be of the opinion that a suitable qualified resident and voter is not available, in which event the Council may appoint a nonresident to serve as police justice). Any such police justice shall serve during the pleasure of the Council, shall give such bonds as the Council requires, and shall receive such compensation for his duties as the Council may fix. Such police justice, if appointed, shall have, during his term, and to the exclusion of the Mayor, the same powers and jurisdiction as are hereinabove conferred upon and vested in the Mayor, and exercise the same in like manner.

The Council shall have the power and authority to appoint one or more issuing justices or one justice of the peace for the Town of Dublin, to serve at the pleasure of said Council, who, when appointed, shall be conservators of the peace, and shall have the power and authority to issue warrants or other processes, and summon witnesses, for violations of Town Ordinances, but all such warrants and processes shall be returnable before the Mayor or police justice if there be one. Such issuing justices or justices of the peace shall have the power to admit to bail any person or persons held in violation of a Town Ordinance. Fees for services shall be the same as that prescribed by state law for justices of the peace, and shall be the only compensation received by said justices for their services as such. (1958, c. 362)

§ 5.2. Times of meetings, regulation, and rules of Council.

The Council shall, by ordinance or resolution, fix the time of their regular meetings, and they shall meet at least once a month. Special meetings may be called at any time by the Mayor or by three members of Council, provided all members are duly notified a reasonable period of time prior to such meeting; no business shall be transacted at a special meeting thereof, except that for which it shall be called, unless all members of the Council present shall give their consent.

The Council shall set and provide all rules and regulations for the conduct of its meetings and its affairs, and shall do such other things as it, in its discretion, deems necessary for the orderly carrying on of its business.

No vote taken at any meeting shall be reconsidered or rescinded at any subsequent special meeting unless at such special meeting, there be as many members of the Council present as were present when such vote was taken.

The Council shall have all power and authority that is now or may hereafter be granted to councils of towns by general law of this State, and by this Act, and the recital of special powers and authorities herein shall not be taken to exclude the exercise of any power and authority granted by the general laws of this State to town councils, but not herein specified. (1958, c. 362)

§ 6. Powers of the Town.

The maximum penalty for violation of any such ordinance shall not exceed a fine of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or imprisonment in jail or on a jail farm for Twelve (12) months, or both. Notwithstanding that an ordinance may prescribe a penalty for its violation, the Town may sue for an injunction to restrain the violation thereof. (1958, c. 362)

It shall be the duty of said Town to levy annually on all taxable property in said Town a tax sufficient to pay the interest on all bonds for said Town as such interest falls due, and also sufficient to pay the principal of said bonds, or to provide sufficient sinking funds for the payment of said bonds at maturity.

(b) Whenever, in the judgment of the Council of the Town, it is advisable in the exercise of any of the powers of such Town or in the enforcement of any of its ordinances or regulations, it may provide for the issuance of licenses or permits in connection therewith, establish the amount of the fee to be charged the licensee or permittee, and require from the licensee or permittee a bond and an insurance policy of such character and in such amount and upon such terms as it may determine.

(c) The Town may impose special or local assessments for local improvements and enforce payment thereof, under, and subject to, the limitations prescribed by § 170 of the Constitution, and by the Code of Virginia. Subject to such limitations it may also order such improvements to be made and the cost thereof apportioned in pursuance of an agreement between the Town and the abutting landowners.

Any such special or local assessment shall constitute a lien on the property benefited and may be collected in the manner prescribed by law for the collection of real estate taxes. Such lien shall be valid against subsequent purchasers and creditors if duly recorded and indexed in the manner provided by law for recording and indexing other liens. (1958, c. 362)

§ 3. Powers.

The powers set forth in §§ 15.1-837 through 15.1-915 of Title 15.1 of the Code of Virginia as in force on January 1, 1972, and all other powers which are now or may hereafter be conferred upon or delegated to cities under the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth and all other powers pertinent to the conduct of a city government are hereby specifically conferred upon the city of Emporia. It is intended that the city shall possess all powers which under the Constitution it would be competent for this charter to enumerate specifically and no enumeration of particular powers in this charter shall be held to be exclusive but shall be held to be in addition to this general grant of powers. The powers which are now or may hereafter be conferred upon or delegated to this city under the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth and this charter shall be construed liberally when such powers are exercised by the city and in case of doubt as to the existence of a power such doubts shall be resolved in favor of the city.

In addition to the powers granted by other sections of this charter, the city shall have the power to raise annually by taxes and assessments, as permitted by general law, such sums of money as the council shall deem necessary for the purposes of the city in such manner as the council shall deem expedient. The city shall have the power to expend the money of the city for any and all lawful purposes. In addition to, but not as a limitation upon, this general grant of power the city shall have power to levy and collect ad valorem taxes on real estate and tangible personal property and machinery and tools; to levy and collect taxes for admission to or other charge for any public amusement, entertainment, performance, exhibition, sport or athletic event in the city, which taxes may be added to and collected with the price of such admission or other charge; to levy and collect taxes on hotel and motel rooms; to levy and collect privilege taxes, local general retail sales and use tax as provided by law and capitation taxes; to require a business license tax on local telephone service provided to subscribers within the city; unless prohibited by general law to require business licenses, prohibit the conduct of any business, profession, vocation or calling without such a license, require taxes to be paid on such licenses in respect to all businesses, professions, vocations and callings which cannot, in the opinion of the council be reached by the ad valorem system; and to require licenses of all owners of vehicles of all kinds for the privilege of using the streets, and other public places in the city, require taxes to be paid on such licenses and prohibit the use of streets, alleys and other public places in the city without such license. Notwithstanding § 58.1-3916 of the Code of Virginia, the city by ordinance may require tangible personal property taxes to be paid on July 1 for the succeeding fiscal year.

In addition to the other powers conferred by law, the city of Emporia shall have the power to impose, levy and collect, in such manner as its council may deem expedient, a consumer or subscriber tax upon the amount paid for the use of water, gas, electricity, telephone, and any other public utility service within the city or upon the amount paid for any one or more of such public utility services, and may provide that such tax shall be added to and collected with bills rendered consumers and subscribers for such services. (1968, c. 78; 1972, c. 806; 1986, c. 49)

§ 3.1. Eminent domain.

A. Generally. (a) The powers of eminent domain set forth in Title 15.1, Chapter 1.1 of Title 25 and Chapter 1 of Title 33.1 of the Code of Virginia, as amended, and all acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, mutatis mutandis, are hereby conferred upon the city of Emporia.

(b) In any case in which a petition for condemnation is filed by or on behalf of the city, a true copy of the ordinance or resolution duly adopted by the council, declaring the necessity for any taking or damaging of any property within the city, for the purposes of the city, shall be filed with the petition and shall constitute sufficient evidence of the necessity of the exercise of the powers of eminent domain by the city.

B. Certificates. (a) Certificates issued pursuant to §§ 33.1-121 to 33.1-129, inclusive, of the Code of Virginia, as amended, and all acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, may be issued by the city, signed by the city manager. Such certificate shall have the same effect as certificates issued by the State Highway and Transportation Commissioner, under the aforesaid laws, and may be issued in any case in which the city proposes to acquire property of any kind by the exercise of its powers of eminent domain for any lawful purpose, whether within or without the city.

(b) In addition to the powers conferred by the aforesaid laws, such certificates may be amended or cancelled by the court having jurisdiction of the proceedings, upon petition or motion of the city, at any time after the filing thereof, provided that the court shall have jurisdiction to make such order for the payment of costs and damages, if any, or the refund of any excessive sums theretofore paid pursuant to such certificate as shall, upon due notice and hearing, appear just. The court shall have jurisdiction to require refunding bonds, for good cause shown by the city or any other person or party in interest, prior to authorizing any distribution of funds pursuant to any certificate issued or deposit made by the city.

C. Alternate method. (a) In addition to the other powers conferred by law, the city may, in exercising the right of eminent domain, make use of the procedure prescribed by the general law or may elect to proceed as hereinafter provided. Upon the adoption of an ordinance or resolution directing acquisition of any property, the city may file a petition for condemnation in the clerk's office of a court having jurisdiction.

(b) Upon the filing of the petition and the funds provided for the purpose having been duly deposited to the credit of the court, if the court is of the opinion that the property or interest or estate therein to be acquired is for the purpose of the city as provided by law, it may order that the interest or estate of the owner of such property shall terminate and the title to such property or the interest or estate to be taken in such property shall be vested absolutely in the city and such owner shall have such interest or estate in the funds so deposited as he had in the property taken or damaged and all liens by deed of trust, judgment or otherwise upon said property or estate shall be transferred to such funds and the city shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of such property for its uses and purposes and to construct its works or improvements. The clerk of the court in which such proceedings are instituted shall make and certify a copy of the order and deliver or transmit the same to the clerk of the court in which deeds are admitted to record who shall record the same in his deed book and index it in the name of the record title owner of such property and in the name of the city.

(c) All other proceedings under this section shall be had in accordance with the provisions of the Virginia General Condemnation Act insofar as they are then applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this section; provided, however, that the provisions of § 25-233 of the Code of Virginia, as now or hereafter in effect, shall apply to any property belonging to any corporation possessing the power of eminent domain that may be taken hereunder. Upon introduction, the ordinance shall receive its first reading, verbatim, unless waived by a two-thirds vote of those Council members present, and, provided a majority of members present concur, the Council shall set a place, time and date, not less than three days after such introduction for a public hearing thereon. A copy of the proposed ordinance shall be delivered to the Mayor and each member of Council and shall be made available to the public prior to its introduction.

(b) The public hearing may be held at a regular or special meeting of the Council and may be continued from time to time. The City Clerk shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation a notice containing the date, time and place of the hearing and the title or subject matter of the proposed ordinance. On direction of the Council the Clerk shall also publish the full text of the proposed ordinance which shall be available to citizens of the City.

(c) A proposed ordinance, unless it be an emergency ordinance, may be finally passed upon the completion of the public hearing.

(d) Amendments or additions to a proposed ordinance may be made at any time. Publication of an amendment shall not be required except that if said amendments or additions introduce an entirely new subject matter or radically change the overall purpose of the original ordinance, they shall be introduced and treated as a new ordinance. At the second reading only the title of an ordinance need be read, unless amendments or additions have been made subsequent to the introduction, in which case said amendments or additions shall be read in full prior to enactment.

(e) If, in the opinion of Council, an emergency exists, an ordinance pertinent to the emergency may be passed with or without amendment at the same meeting at which it is introduced and no publication, hearing or specific time interval between introduction and passage shall be necessary. An emergency ordinance must contain a specific statement of the emergency upon which it is based, and must be passed by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members of Council present.

Every emergency ordinance shall automatically stand repealed as of the 91st day following the day upon which it was adopted, but this shall not prevent reenactment of the ordinance in the manner prescribed for ordinances not related to an emergency. An emergency ordinance may also be repealed by adoption of a repealing ordinance. The repeal of an emergency ordinance shall follow the procedure specified for the adoption of an emergency ordinance. (1966, c. 319; 1984, c. 205; 2014, cc. 654, 689)

The Council may cause to be prepared, under the direction of the City Attorney, a codification of all general ordinances in force. Such codification may be passed by the Council as a single ordinance and without hearings or prior publication. This codification, to be known and cited officially as the City Code, shall be printed and distributed as the Council may direct.

In so codifying such ordinances, the Council may, without limitation of the foregoing, arrange the various ordinances and assign to them appropriate places and section numbers, create new titles, chapters, articles and sections, correct unmistakable printers' errors or other unmistakable errors, make consequential changes in the title of officers, agencies and references which are no longer appropriate, and make such other consequential changes, alterations, modifications, additions, and substitutions therein as it may deem best to the end that a complete simplified Code of Ordinances in force shall be presented, but with errors, inconsistencies, repetitions, ambiguities and conflicts eliminated. (1966, c. 319)

§ 5.8. No member of the Council shall cast any vote without first disclosing what interest, if any, he has in the outcome of the vote being taken. The Council is hereby empowered to enact a conflict of interest and disclosure ordinance to govern elected and appointed City officials not inconsistent with the general law. (1966, c. 319; 2014, cc. Such audits shall be made by a certified public accountant or firm of such accountants who have no personal interest, direct or indirect, in the fiscal affairs of the City government or any of its offices. The Council shall employ such accounting firm in accordance with procedures and regulations required by law. § 4.10. Procedure for passing ordinances.

An ordinance may be introduced by any member or committee of the council or by the city manager at any regular meeting of the council or at any special meeting when the subject thereof has been included in the notice for such special meeting or been approved by a majority vote of all members of the council. Upon introduction it shall receive its first reading and a time, not less than seven days after such introduction, and place shall be set at which the council or a committee thereof will hold a public hearing on such ordinance, other than an emergency ordinance, provided that the council may reject any ordinance on first reading without a hearing thereon by vote of a majority of the members. The hearing may be held separately or in connection with a regular or special meeting of the council and may be adjourned from time to time. It shall be the duty of the city clerk to cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, not later than at least two days prior to the hearing on the ordinance, a notice containing the time and place of the hearing and the title of the proposed ordinance. It shall also be his duty, within three working days after the introduction of an ordinance, to cause its full text to be printed or otherwise reproduced, as the council may by resolution direct, in sufficient numbers to supply copies to those who individually request them, or, if the council shall so order, to cause the same to be published as a paid advertisement in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. It shall further be his duty to place a copy of the ordinance in a file provided each member of the council for this purpose. A proposed ordinance, unless it be an emergency ordinance, shall be read a second time and may be finally passed at the meeting of the council following the introduction of the ordinance and after the conclusion of the public hearing thereon. If on its second reading an ordinance, other than an emergency ordinance, be amended as to its substance it shall not be passed until it shall be reprinted, reproduced or published as amended and a hearing shall be set and advertised and all proceedings had as in the case of a newly introduced ordinance. The readings referred to above may be accomplished by reading the ordinance by title only, provided copies of the ordinance are available to the public in the Council Chambers at the beginning of any meeting at which said ordinance is introduced or considered. (1950, c. 323; 1952, c. 301; 1976, c. 13)

§ 4.11. Emergency ordinances.

An emergency ordinance may be read a second time and passed with or without amendment at any regular or special meeting at which the ordinance was introduced. An emergency ordinance must contain a specific statement of the emergency claimed and affirmative votes of a majority of the entire council shall be necessary for its adoption. Ordinances passed as an emergency ordinance shall expire sixty days after the effective date of the emergency ordinance unless the ordinance is adopted again after a public hearing where the procedure followed for notice and hearing is the same as that required in § 4.10 for nonemergency ordinances. The effective date of emergency ordinances, unless otherwise provided, shall be the date of adoption. (1950, c. 323; 1987, c. 68)

§ 4.12. The council shall have authority, by resolution, to submit to the qualified voters of the city for an advisory referendum thereon any proposed ordinance or amendment to the city charter, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days after the passage of such resolution. The election shall be conducted and the result thereof ascertained and determined in the manner provided by § 24-141 of the Code of Virginia. If a petition requesting the submission of an amendment to this charter, set forth in such petition, signed by qualified voters equal in number to ten percent of the largest number of votes cast in any general or primary election held in the city during the five years immediately preceding and verified as hereinafter provided, is filed with the city clerk he shall forthwith certify that fact to the council. The signatures to such petition shall be witnessed by a person whose affidavit to that effect is attached thereto. Upon the certification of such petition the council shall order an election to be held not less than thirty nor more than sixty days after such certification, in which such proposed amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the city for their approval or disapproval. Such election shall be conducted and the results thereof ascertained and determined in the manner provided by law for the conduct of general elections and by the regular election officials of the city. If a majority of those voting thereon at such election approve the proposed amendment, such results shall be communicated by the city clerk to the two houses of the General Assembly and to the representatives of the city therein with the same effect as if the council had adopted a resolution requesting the General Assembly to adopt the amendment. (1950, c. 323; 1960, c. 429)

§ 4.13. Record and publication of ordinances.

Every ordinance after passage shall be given a serial number and shall be recorded by the clerk in a properly indexed book kept for that purpose. Within one year after the first Tuesday in September 1951, there shall be prepared under the direction of the city attorney, who is hereby authorized to employ such assistance as he deems necessary for the purpose, a codification or revision of all ordinances in force. Such codification shall be passed by the council as a single ordinance and without prior publication. Upon its passage, it shall be published in bound or loose-leaf form. This codification, to be known and cited officially as the city code, shall be furnished to city officers and shall be sold to the public at a price to be fixed by the council. A similar codification shall be prepared, passed, published and distributed, as above provided, at least every five years. It shall be the duty of the city clerk to cause all ordinances adopted to be printed or reproduced as promptly as possible after their adoption in substantially the same style and format as the codification or revision of ordinances and sold at such prices as the council may establish. (1950, c. 323)

§ 4.14. The council in making appointments shall act only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the council. All members of boards and commissions, appointed by the council, shall be qualified voters of the city, actually residing within the city limits. (1950, c. 323; 1952, c. 301; 1954, c. 514)

§ 4.15. Removal of councilmen and members of boards and commissions appointed by the council for specified terms.

Any member of the council or any member of a board or commission appointed by the council for a specified term may be removed in accordance with the general law. (1950, c. 323)

§ 4.16. Power of investigation.

The council shall have power to investigate any or all of the departments, boards, commissions, offices and agencies of the city government, including the school board, and any officer or employee of the city. The council, or any of its committees, when authorized by the council, the city manager, the heads of all departments, all boards and commissions appointed by the council, collector of city taxes, license inspector, and auditor of municipal accounts, in any investigation or hearing held by them, within their respective powers and duties, may order the attendance of any person as a witness and the production by any person of all relevant books and papers. Any person refusing or failing to obey such order may be summoned by the court of appropriate jurisdiction to appear before such court and upon failure to give a satisfactory excuse to the judge of such court may be fined not exceeding the sum of $100 or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days or both. Witnesses may be sworn by the officer presiding at such investigation and shall be liable to prosecution for perjury for any false testimony given at such investigation. (1950, c. 323; 1979, c. 421)

§ 4.17. Requests to the General Assembly for amendments to this charter shall be by one of the following procedures:

- (a) By initiative of the qualified voters as set forth in § 4.12 hereof. At least ten days prior to the holding of such election, the text, or an informative summary of the amendments proposed, shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city.
- (b) By election of the qualified voters of the city. The council may provide for holding an election to determine if the qualified voters of the city desire that it request the General Assembly to amend its charter. Such election shall be held within thirty days following the action of the council with respect thereto. At least ten days prior to the holding of such election, the text, or an informative summary of the amendments proposed shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. If a majority of the qualified voters voting in such election vote in favor of such amendments to the charter, the clerk shall transmit the necessary copies of the requested amendments to the General Assembly.
- (c) By resolution of a majority of the entire council. At least ten days notice of the time and place of a public hearing and the text or an informative summary of the proposed amendments shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The public hearing may be adjourned from time to time, and upon adoption of a resolution to request the proposed amendments, the clerk shall transmit the necessary copies to the General Assembly. (1954, c. 514; 1960, c. 429; 1973, c. 292)

Except for the city attorney, city clerk and their employees, the city manager may appoint or employ and may remove or discharge city officers, employees and assistants as may be necessary to carry on the work in those departments and offices of the City as deemed necessary by the city manager. The city manager shall have the authority to manage, organize and reorganize all city employees under the control of the city manager. Whenever the interests of the City require, irrespective of any other provisions of this charter, the city manager shall have the power and authority to assign employees of any city department, bureau, office or agency under the control of the city manager, to the temporary performance of duties in another city department, bureau, office or agency. The city manager may not remove or discharge city council appointive officers. The salaries and conditions of employment of employees and assistants shall be recommended by the city manager subject to the approval of the city council and as provided by the general law. § 5.03. Council not to interfere in appointments or removals.

Neither the council nor any of its members shall direct the appointment of any person to or his removal from any office or employment by the city manager or by any of his subordinates except as specifically provided in this charter. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the council and its members shall deal with the administrative services solely through the city manager, and neither the council nor any member thereof shall give orders either publicly or privately to any subordinate of the city manager. § 5.06. The city manager shall have the right to attend and participate in the proceedings of, but not to vote in, the meetings of all boards, commissions or agencies created by this charter or by ordinance. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 514)

§ 5.07. Acting city manager.

The council shall designate by resolution an acting city manager to act as city manager in case of the absence, incapacity, death or resignation of the city manager, until his return to duty or the appointment of his successor. (1950, c. 323; 1987, c. 68; 1999, c. 135, 168)

Chapter 6. Budgets.

§ 6.01. Fiscal and tax years.

The fiscal year of the city shall begin on the first day of July and shall end on the thirtieth day of June of the succeeding year. The tax year for taxes levied on real estate, tangible personal property, and machinery and tools and the tax year for all other taxes shall be fixed by the council by ordinance. The rates of all taxes and levies, except on new sources of tax revenue, shall be fixed at the time of adoption of the general fund budget. (1950, c. 323; 2013, c. 399)

§ 6.02. On a day to be fixed by the council and in furtherance of its goals and objectives the city manager shall submit to the council: (a) separate current expense budgets for the general operation of the city government, hereinafter referred to as the general fund budget, including the total budget for the support of public schools as filed with him by the school board, and for each utility as defined in Chapter 13 of this charter; (b) a budget message and the budget message of the school board; and (c) a capital budget, including the capital budget as defined in § 6.19 together with the capital budget for schools as submitted to the planning commission by the school board. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 560; 1960, c. 429; 1979, c. 421)

§ 6.03. Preparation of budgets.

It shall be the duty of the head of each department, each board or commission and each other office or agency supported in whole or in part by the city, including the commissioner of revenue, treasurer, sheriff, clerk of the general district court and clerk of the juvenile and domestic relations court, to file with the city manager or with the director of finance designated by him, at such time as the city manager may prescribe, estimates of revenue and expenditure for that department, board, commission, office or agency for the ensuing fiscal year. Such estimates shall be submitted on the forms furnished by the director of finance and it shall be the duty of the head of each such department, judge, board, commission, office or agency to supply all the information which the city manager may require to be submitted thereon. The director of finance shall assemble and compile these estimates and supply such additional information relating to the financial transactions of the city as may be necessary or valuable to the city manager in the preparation of the budgets. The city manager shall hold such hearings as he may deem advisable and with the assistance of the director of finance shall review the estimates and other data pertinent to the preparation of the budgets and make such revisions in such estimates as he may deem proper, subject to the laws of the Commonwealth relating to obligatory expenditures for any purpose. The school board shall furnish a copy of its budget to the city manager. (1950, c. 323; 1979, c. 421; 1987, c. 68)

§ 6.04. Scope of the general fund budget.

In respect of each utility there shall be included in the general fund budget estimates only the net amounts estimated to be received from or to be appropriated to such utility in the general fund budget as provided in § 6.13. In respect to the public schools there shall be included only the total amount to be appropriated by the city for their support. The general fund budget shall be prepared in accordance with accepted principles of municipal accounting and budgetary procedures and techniques and shall contain: (a) an estimate of such portion of the general fund cash surplus, if any, at the end of the current fiscal year as it is proposed to use for meeting expenditures in the general fund budget; (b) an estimate of the receipts from current ad valorem taxes on real estate and tangible personal property during the ensuing fiscal year, assuming that the proportion of the levy collected be no greater than the average proportion of the levy collected in the last three completed tax years; (c) an estimate of receipts from all other sources of revenue; (d) a statement to be furnished by the director of finance of the debt service requirements for the ensuing year; (e) an estimate of the general fund cash deficit, if any, at the end of the current fiscal year and of any other obligations required by this charter to be budgeted for the ensuing fiscal year; (f) an estimate of expenditures for all other purposes to be met from the general fund in the ensuing fiscal year. All the estimates shall be in detail showing receipts by sources and expenditures by operating units, character and object, so arranged as to show receipts and expenditures as estimated for the current fiscal year and actual receipts and expenditures for the last preceding fiscal year in comparison with estimated receipts and recommended expenditures for the ensuing fiscal year. (1950, c. 323)

§ 6.05. A balanced budget.

In no event shall the expenditures recommended by the city manager in the general fund budget exceed the receipts estimated, taking into account the estimated cash surplus or deficit at the end of the current fiscal year, as provided in the preceding section, unless the city manager shall recommend an increase in the rate of ad valorem taxes on real estate and tangible personal property or other new or increased taxes or licenses within the power of the city to levy and collect in the ensuing fiscal year the receipts from which, estimated on the basis of the average experience with the same or similar taxes during the three tax years last past, will make up the difference. If estimated receipts exceed estimated expenditures the city manager may recommend revisions in the tax and license ordinances of the city in order to bring the general fund budget into balance. (1950, c. 323)

§ 6.06. The budget message.

The budget message shall contain the recommendations of the city manager concerning the fiscal policy of the city, a description of the important features of the budget plan, an explanation of all salient changes in each budget submitted, as to estimated receipts and recommended expenditures as compared with the current fiscal year and the last preceding fiscal year, and a summary of the proposed budgets showing comparisons similar to those required by § 6.04 above. The budget message of the school board shall contain similar provisions. (1950, c. 323)

§ 6.07. Appropriation and additional tax ordinances.

At the same time that he submits the general fund budget, the city manager shall introduce in the council a general fund appropriation ordinance. The appropriation ordinance shall be based on the general fund budget but need not be itemized further than by departments and the major operating units thereof, and by bureaus, boards, commissions, offices and agencies submitting separate budget estimates, and by the principal objects of expenditure. At the same time the city manager shall also introduce any ordinance or ordinances altering the tax rate on real estate and tangible personal property or levying a new tax or altering the rate of any other tax necessary to balance the general fund budget as hereinbefore provided. The hearing on the budget plan as a whole, as provided in § 6.09, shall constitute the hearing on all ordinances referred to in this section, and the appropriation ordinances for each utility. (1950, c. 323)

§ 6.08. Availability of budgets for inspection and publication of the budget message.

The city manager shall cause the budget message to be printed, mimeographed or otherwise reproduced for general distribution at the time of its submission to the council and sufficient copies of the general fund, school and utility budgets to be made to supply copies to each member of the council and a newspaper of general circulation in the city, and two copies to be deposited in the office of the city clerk where they shall be open to public inspection during regular business hours. (1950, c. 323)

§ 6.09. A public hearing on the budget plan as a whole shall be held by the council within the time and after the notice provided for hearings on ordinances by § 4.10 of this charter, except that the notice of such hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The second reading of the budget ordinances and the public hearing shall be not later than the first regular council meeting in May. (1950, c. 323; 1960, c. 429)

§ 6.10. Action by the council on the general fund budget.

After the conclusion of the public hearing the council may insert new items of expenditure or may increase, decrease or strike out items of expenditure in the general fund budget, except that no item of expenditure for debt service or required to be included by this charter or other provision of law shall be reduced or stricken out. The council shall not alter the estimates of receipts contained in the said budget except to correct omissions or mathematical errors and it shall not cause the total of expenditures as recommended by the manager to be increased to an amount that would result in a higher tax rate without a public hearing on such increase, which shall be held not less than three days after notice thereof by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The council shall in no event adopt a general fund budget in which the total of expenditures exceeds the receipts, estimated as provided in § 6.04, unless at the same time it adopts measures for providing additional revenue in the ensuing fiscal year, estimated as provided in § 6.05, sufficient to make up this difference. (1950, c. 323; 1987, c. 68)

§ 6.11. Adoption of the general fund budget.

If, for any reason, the council fails to adopt the general fund budget, the general fund appropriation ordinance and such ordinances providing for additional revenue as may be necessary to put the budget in balance on or before the first day of July , the general fund budget in effect for the previous fiscal year shall be the general fund budget on a monthly basis beginning on the first day of July until the general fund budget shall be adopted by the council. (1950, c. 323)

§ 6.12. Effective date of general fund budget; certification; copies made available.

Upon final adoption, the general fund budget shall be in effect for the ensuing fiscal year. A copy of such budget as finally adopted shall be certified by the city manager and city clerk and filed in the office of the director of finance. The general fund budget so certified shall be printed, mimeographed or otherwise reproduced and sufficient copies thereof made available for the use of all departments, courts, boards, commissions, offices and agencies and for the use of interested persons and organizations. (1950, c. 323)

§ 6.13. Utility budgets.

Separate budget estimates for each of the utilities as defined in Chapter 13 of this charter shall be submitted to the director of finance at the same time as the budgets of other departments and in the form prescribed by the city manager, subject, however, to the provisions of Chapter 13 which shall also control the action of the city manager and council thereon. Estimated receipts shall take account of (a) any estimated balance of net income from the current fiscal year as determined in accordance with subsection (d) of § 13.06 of this charter not anticipated to be transferred to the general fund or a renewal fund; (b) the effect of any change in rates made during the current fiscal year or contained in any rate ordinance submitted with such budget; and (c) any appropriation to make up an estimated deficit in utility operations for the ensuing fiscal year contained in the general fund budget. The city manager shall submit with the budget of each utility an ordinance making appropriations for the operation of such utility during the ensuing fiscal year, which need not be itemized further than by principal objects of expenditure. He shall also at the same time submit any ordinance changing the rates to be charged by the utility, used in estimating receipts. The council shall have the same powers and be subject to the same limitations with regard to the adoption of such utility budgets and accompanying appropriation and rate ordinances, subject to the provisions of the said Chapter 13 as are conferred or imposed on it by § 6.10 with regard to the general fund budget and its accompanying appropriation and revenue ordinances. If, for any reason, the council fails to adopt the utility budgets or any of them before the expiration of the time set for the adoption of the general fund budget, such budget or budgets in effect for the previous fiscal year shall be the utility budget or budgets on a monthly basis beginning on the first day of July until the utility budget or budgets shall be adopted by the council. When such utility budgets and accompanying appropriation ordinances are adopted, they shall be certified to the director of finance with like effect as in the case of the general fund budget and its appropriation ordinance. (1950, c. 323)

§ 6.14. School operating budget.

It shall be the duty of the school board to file its operating budget estimates with the city manager or with the director of finance. The action of the council on the school budget shall relate to its total only and the school board shall have authority to expend in its discretion the sum appropriated for its use, provided that if it receives an appropriation greater or less than its original request it shall forthwith revise its estimates of expenditure and adopt appropriations in accordance therewith. The school board shall have power to order during the course of the fiscal year transfers from one item of appropriation to another. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 560)

§ 6.15. Administration of the budget.

If, at any time during the fiscal year, the city manager shall ascertain that the revenue cash receipts of the general fund or any utility fund for the year, plus any cash surplus available from the preceding year, will be less than the total appropriations to be met from such receipts, he shall have the power to restrict expenditures, subject to the laws of the Commonwealth relating to obligatory expenditures for any purpose, so as to forestall the incurring of a deficit, provided, however, that there shall be no reduction in salaries except by ordinance. (1950, c. 323; 1987, c. 68)

§ 6.16. Transfers of appropriations.

The city manager may at any time authorize, at the request of any department, board, commission, office or agency, the transfer of any unencumbered balance or portion thereof in any general fund or utility appropriation from one classification of expenditure to another within the same department, board, commission, office or agency, provided that for this purpose the water and sanitary sewer utilities shall be deemed separate departments. At the request of the city manager, the council may, by resolution, transfer any unencumbered balance or portion thereof in any general fund appropriation from one department, board, commission, office or agency to another. (1950, c. 323; 1992, c. 513)

§ 6.17. Additional appropriations.

An appropriation in addition to those contained in the general fund appropriation ordinance, except for the purpose of meeting a public emergency as provided in subsection (d) of § 2.02 of this charter, may be made by the council, by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the entire council, only on the recommendation of the city manager and only if the director of finance certifies in writing that there is available in the general fund a sum unencumbered and unappropriated sufficient to meet such appropriation. Additional appropriations may be made by the council, by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the entire council, from the funds of any utility for the operation of that utility, and by the school board, by the affirmative votes of at least a majority of the total membership, from school funds for school purposes, but in the case of a utility, only if the director of finance certifies in writing that there is available in the funds of the utility a sum unencumbered and unappropriated sufficient to meet such appropriation. (1950, c. 323)

§ 6.18. Appropriations to lapse.

Any portion of an annual appropriation remaining unexpended and unencumbered at the close of the fiscal year shall lapse, except that any balance remaining in the funds of the school board at the end of the fiscal year shall remain to the credit of that board and an estimate of any such balance shall be included in the school budget of the ensuing year as an estimated receipt. (1950, c. 323)

§ 6.19. At the same time that he submits the current expense budgets, the city manager shall submit to the council a program, previously acted upon by the city planning commission as provided in Chapter 17 of this charter, of proposed capital improvement projects, including schools, as defined in § 7.02 of this charter, for the ensuing fiscal year and for the four fiscal years thereafter, with his recommendations as to the means of financing the improvements proposed for the ensuing fiscal year. This program shall be termed the "capital budget" and may be adopted by resolution. Whenever the revenue for financing any capital improvement project or projects is to be derived from the sale of bonds, the bond ordinance need not be introduced at the time of submission of the capital budget, but any appropriations for any project or projects, to be so financed shall be contingent upon the issuance of such bonds being authorized in accordance with § 7.06 of this charter. The council shall have power to accept, with or without amendments, or reject, the proposed program and proposed means of financing for the ensuing fiscal year but, except in the case of emergency as provided in subsection (d) of § 2.02 of this charter, and except to meet needs for capital improvements arising out of annexation of additional territory taking effect during the current or preceding fiscal year and except to meet needs for capital improvements which could not reasonably have been foreseen at the time of adoption of the capital budget, the council shall not authorize any capital improvement project or make any appropriation therefor unless the appropriation for such project is included in the capital budget as adopted by it. The council shall take final action on the capital budget and on any revenue or appropriation ordinance submitted therewith, not later than the twenty-eighth day after the adoption of the general fund budget. The council shall in no event adopt a capital budget in which the total of expenditures for the ensuing fiscal year exceeds the estimated receipts unless at the same time it adopts measures for providing additional revenue in the ensuing fiscal year sufficient to make up the difference. No appropriation for a capital improvement project contained in the capital budget shall lapse until the purpose for which the appropriation was made shall have been accomplished or abandoned, provided that any project shall be deemed to have been abandoned if three fiscal years elapse without any expenditure from or encumbrance of the appropriation therefor. Any such lapsed appropriation shall be applied to the payment of any indebtedness incurred in financing the project concerned, and if there be no such indebtedness shall be available for appropriation in the next capital budget. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 560; 1960, c. 429; 1992, c. 513)

§ 6.20. Certification of funds, penalties for violation.

No payment shall be made and no obligation incurred by or on behalf of the city except in accordance with an appropriation duly made; provided that the council shall have the power to authorize and direct the making of contracts for the expenditure of funds not appropriated in any budget for the then current fiscal year, in which event the council shall appropriate the funds in the budget or budgets for the next fiscal year or years for the performance of the contracts. No payment shall be made from or obligation incurred against any allotment or appropriation unless the director of finance shall first certify that there is a sufficient unexpended and unencumbered balance in such allotment or appropriation to meet the same; provided that nothing herein shall be taken to prevent the advance authorization of expenditures for small purchases as provided in subsection (f) of § 8.03 of this charter. Every expenditure or obligation authorized or incurred in violation of the provisions of this charter shall be void. Every payment made in violation of the provisions of this charter shall be deemed illegal and every official who shall knowingly authorize or make such payment or knowingly take part therein and every person who shall knowingly receive such payment or any part thereof shall be jointly and severally liable to the city for the full amount so paid or received. If any officer, member of a board or commission, or employee of the city shall knowingly incur any obligation or shall authorize or make any expenditure in violation of the provisions of this charter or knowingly take part therein, such action shall be cause for his removal. (1950, c. 323)

§ 6.21. Reserve for permanent public improvements.

The council may, by ordinance, establish a reserve fund for permanent public improvements and may appropriate thereto any portion of the general fund cash surplus not otherwise appropriated at the close of any fiscal year. It may likewise assign to the said fund a specified portion of the ad valorem tax on real estate and tangible property not to exceed ten cents on the $100 of the assessed valuation thereof or the whole or part of the proceeds of any other tax. Appropriations from the said fund shall be made only to finance improvements included in the capital budget. The proceeds of the sale of public property, including any utility, may be placed in this fund. The interest accruing on the principal may be appropriated to the operating expenses of the city. (1950, c. 323; 1987, c. 68)

Chapter 7. Borrowing.

§ 7.01. Borrowing power.

The council may, in the name and for the use of the city, incur indebtedness by issuing its negotiable bonds or notes for the purposes, in the manner provided in this chapter, and to the extent provided in this chapter and under the general law. The council may choose to issue bonds using the process set out in this chapter, which includes use of a referendum on the bond-authorizing ordinance, or may use the procedure established by the Public Finance Act of 1991 in the state's general law, which does not include the use of a referendum. This charter provision shall prevail over any general law. The council may, by ordinance, borrow money from a surplus in any city account provided a competitive rate of interest for short term tax-free municipal bonds is assigned. (1950, c. 323; 1987, c. 68; 1992, c. 513)

§ 7.02. Purposes for which bonds or notes may be issued.

(a) To finance capital projects. Bonds, and notes in anticipation of bonds when the issue of bonds has been authorized as hereinafter provided, may be issued for the purpose of financing the whole or any part of the cost of any capital improvement project which is hereby defined to include any public improvement project or utility which the city is authorized to undertake, including the acquisition of any property, real or personal, incident thereto, the construction or reconstruction in whole or in part of any building, plant, structure or facility necessary or useful in carrying out the powers of the city, and the equipment or reequipment of the same.

(b) To anticipate the collection of revenue. Notes may be issued, when authorized by the council, at any time during the fiscal year in anticipation of the collection of any or all revenue not to exceed seventy-five percent of such estimated revenue for the fiscal year.

(c) [Repealed.]

(d) Temporary debt for capital outlay. The council may issue notes and may issue revenue bonds to capitalize water and sewer and may issue notes to finance the acquisition and improvement of land for municipal parking areas, park lands, open spaces and other municipal purposes when, by an affirmative vote of not less than five members of the council, the council has adopted an ordinance declaring it expedient to do so, and when the creating of the debt thereby provided for is for the purpose of installing, or extending, one or more of such public utilities, or for the acquisition and improvement of parking areas, park lands, open spaces and other municipal purposes which constitute an asset, or assets, at least equal in value to the amount expended thereon, which utility, or utilities, shall materially add to the service rendered by the city to its taxpayers and other citizens. The total indebtedness authorized by this subsection shall not exceed one percent of the total fair market value of the real property within the city. Such authorized temporary indebtedness shall be deemed a part of the total debt limit of the city, as specified by the Constitution of Virginia. The dollar amount of temporary indebtedness authorized by this subsection shall be redetermined after each reassessment.

Indebtedness which was within this authorized limit at the time it was incurred shall not be interpreted as exceeding the limit in the event of a later decrease in the total fair market value of real property within the city.

(e) To provide for emergency expenditures. Notes may be issued to finance an appropriation for the purpose of meeting a public emergency, as provided in subsection (d) of § 2.02 of this charter, when authorized by the ordinance making such appropriation. Notes so issued shall be authenticated by the signature of the director of finance and shall mature not later than twelve months after the date of issue. Bonds may be issued, when authorized as hereinafter provided, for the purpose of funding such notes or other obligations incurred in accordance with such appropriation.

(f) To refund outstanding bonds. Bonds may be issued, when authorized as hereinafter provided, for the purpose of refunding bonds, provided that the director of finance shall certify in writing that such refunding is necessary to prevent default on the interest or principal of the city's or the school board's outstanding bonds or to secure a lower rate of interest. (1950, c. 323; 1952, c. 301; 1954, c. 560; 1968, c. 364; 1973, c. 292; 1976, c. 13)

§ 7.03. Limitation on indebtedness.

In the issuance of bonds and notes, the city shall be subject to the limitations as to amount contained in Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth. (1950, c. 323; 1973, c. 292)

§ 7.04. Notes in anticipation of bonds and revenue.

Whenever an issue of bonds for any capital improvement project has been authorized as hereinafter provided, the director of finance, when authorized by ordinance, shall have power to issue notes of the city in anticipation of such bonds, for the purpose of defraying the whole or any part of the cost of such project. Such notes in anticipation of bonds shall be authenticated by the signature of the director of finance and shall mature not later than twelve months after the date of issue. They shall be paid at maturity from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds in anticipation of which they have been issued. Notes in anticipation of revenue shall be authorized by the council by ordinance. They shall be authenticated by the signature of the director of finance and shall mature not later than twelve months after the date of issue. If not paid at maturity, the amount of such unpaid notes shall be included as an appropriation in the general fund budget for the ensuing fiscal year. (1950, c. 323)

§ 7.05. Form and term of bonds.

Bonds shall be authenticated by the seal of the city and by the signatures of the city manager and director of finance or by the city manager and city treasurer, if the city manager and the director of finance are the same person. All bonds shall be made payable within the probable life of the improvement or undertaking on account of which they are to be issued or, if the bonds are to be issued for several improvements or undertakings, within the average probable life of such improvements or undertakings. In the case of a bond issue for several improvements, or undertakings having different probable periods of usefulness the council shall determine the average of said periods, taking into consideration the amount of bonds to be issued on account of each purpose, and the period so determined shall be the average period of usefulness. The determination of the council as to the probable life of any such improvement or undertaking shall be conclusive. Except as otherwise provided in this charter, no bonds shall be payable more than thirty years after their date of issuance. (1950, c. 323; 1992, c. 513)

§ 7.06. Issuance of bonds. how authorized.

The procedure for the passage of an ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds shall be the same as for the passage of any other ordinance, except that no such ordinance shall be passed as an emergency ordinance and that the affirmative votes of two-thirds of the entire council shall be necessary for its adoption. Upon adoption by the council of a bond ordinance, when required, the city clerk shall forthwith certify a copy of said ordinance to the Circuit Court having jurisdiction or to the Judge thereof, in vacation, who shall thereupon order a special election of the qualified voters of the city to be held by general law in such cases provided. If a majority of those voting therein at such election shall approve the ordinance, it shall take effect immediately, and if not, it shall be void. (1950, c. 323; 1973, c. 292; 1992, c. 513)

§ 7.07. Procedure for sale of bonds and notes.

Notes in anticipation of bonds, in anticipation of revenue, or to provide for emergency expenditures, when authorized by the council, may be sold by the director of finance, with the approval of the city manager, at private sale without prior public offering. The terms of the sale of all bonds and notes shall be approved by the council by resolution. (1950, c. 323)

§ 7.08. An ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds shall include a statement of the purpose or purposes of the issue, and if the purpose is to finance one or more capital improvement projects, it shall describe each of them sufficiently for purposes of identification, and shall estimate the cost of the project or projects and the portion thereof to be defrayed from sources, specifying them, other than the proposed bond issue. The bond ordinance shall also include the amount of the proposed issue, a statement showing the proposed issue to be within the limitation of indebtedness as provided in § 7.03, the probable life of the purpose or the average probable life of the purposes to be financed, as determined by the council, a declaration that principal of and interest on the proposed issue are to be paid from ad valorem taxes on real estate and tangible personal property and that the full faith and credit of the city are pledged to such payment, and the procedure for the sale of the proposed issue.

All other matters relating to the authorization, issuance or sale of the bonds or notes may be provided by resolution. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440)

§ 7.09. Short period of limitation.

When thirty days shall have elapsed from the date of approval of a bond ordinance by the voters, as provided in this chapter, (a) any recitals or statements of fact contained in such bond ordinance or in the preambles or recitals thereof shall be deemed to be true for the purpose of determining the validity of the bonds thereby authorized, and the city and all other parties interested shall forever thereafter be estopped from denying the same; (b) such bond ordinance shall be conclusively presumed to have been duly and regularly passed by the city and to comply with the provisions of this charter and all laws, and (c) the validity of such bond ordinance shall not thereafter be questioned by either a party plaintiff or a party defendant, except in a suit, action or proceeding commenced prior to the expiration of such thirty days. The faith and credit of the city are hereby pledged for the payment of the principal of and the interest on all bonds and notes of the city hereafter issued pursuant to this chapter, except revenue bonds, as provided in § 7.12, whether or not such pledge be stated in the bonds or notes or in the bond ordinance authorizing their issuance. (1950, c. 323)

§ 7.11. Sinking fund.

There shall be a sinking fund for the amortization of the outstanding term bonds of the city. It shall consist of the cash and securities in the sinking fund at the effective date of this charter, the sums hereinafter required to be paid into such fund and the interest earned on investments. There shall be paid into the sinking fund annually the sum determined by the director of finance, and by him certified to the city manager for inclusion in the budget, to be necessary on actuarial principles to amortize such term bonds at maturity. § 7.12. Revenue bonds.

In addition to the authority to issue bonds otherwise provided in this chapter, and in addition to the authority of Article VII, Section 10 of the Constitution of Virginia, the council may, in the manner provided for the issuance of other bonds and subject to the limitations of this chapter, except that the faith and credit of the city need not be pledged to their payment and except as hereinafter provided, authorize the issuance of revenue bonds to be secured by mortgage upon the property of the city devoted to the use of a revenue-producing utility, project or enterprise and the interest and principal of which may be paid exclusively from the revenues of such utility, project or enterprise; provided that such issue need not be limited to a term of thirty years. § 17.01. In addition to the powers granted under prevailing State laws and elsewhere in this charter, the council is authorized and empowered to make and adopt planning ordinances and approve a comprehensive master plan for the orderly development of the city to promote health, safety, morals, comfort, prosperity, and general welfare. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440)

§ 17.02. City Planning commission; composition; appointment, qualifications and removal of members.

There shall be a city planning commission which shall consist of seven members appointed by the Council who shall be qualified voters of the city, actually residing within the city limits, who hold no office of profit under the city government, appointed for terms of four years; provided, that the five citizen members in office on June 30, 1966, shall continue for the length of their appointed terms. ### § 17.03. City planning commission - Officers; meetings; records; employees; expenditures.

The commission shall elect a chairman and vice-chairman from among the citizen members appointed by the council for a term of one year, who shall be eligible for reelection, and appoint a secretary.

The commission shall hold at least one regular meeting each month, and shall adopt rules for the transaction of its business. The commission shall keep a record of its resolutions, transactions, findings and determinations showing the vote of each member on each question or, if absent, or failing to vote, indicating such fact which record shall be filed in the office of the commission and shall be a public record. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440; 2001, cc. 708, 796)

§ 17.04. It shall be the duty of the commission to make and adopt a master plan, consisting of maps, plats, charts and descriptive matter, which shall show the commission's recommendations for the development of the territory covered by the plan. Such plan may include but shall not be limited to the following:

- (a) The general location, character and extent of streets, highways, superhighways, freeways, avenues, boulevards, roads, lanes, alleys, walks, walkways, viaducts, subways, bridges, parks, parkways, squares, playfields, playgrounds, recreational facilities, stadia, arenas, swimming pools, terminals, airports and other public places or ways, and the removal, relocation, widening, narrowing, vacating, abandonment, change of use or extension thereof.

In the preparation of such plan, the commission shall make careful and comprehensive surveys and studies of existing conditions and future growth. The plan shall be made with the general purpose of guiding and accomplishing a coordinated, adjusted and harmonious development of the city and its environs which will, in accordance with existing and future needs, best promote health, safety, morals, comfort, prosperity and general welfare, as well as efficiency and economy in the process of development. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440; 1973, c. 292)

It shall be the further duty and function of the commission to make recommendations to the city council to provide for the preservation of historical landmarks, the design and location of statuary and other works of art which are or may become the property of the city and the removal, relocation and alteration of any such work, and to consider and suggest the design of bridges, viaducts, airports, stadia, arenas and swimming pools, street fixtures and other public structures and appurtenances. (1950, c. 323; 2001, cc. 708, 796)

§ 17.06. The commission may adopt the plan as a whole by a single resolution, or may, by successive resolutions, adopt successive parts of the plan, said parts corresponding to major geographical sections or geographical or topographical divisions of the area to be covered by the master plan or with functional subdivisions of the subject matter of the plan, and may adopt any amendment or extension thereof or addition thereto. Before the adoption of the plan or any such part, amendment, extension or addition, the commission shall hold at least one public hearing thereon, at least fifteen days' notice of the time and place of which shall be given by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The adoption of the plan or of any such part, amendment, extension or addition shall be by resolution of the commission carried by the affirmative vote of not less than four members of the commission. The resolution shall refer expressly to the maps and descriptive matter and other matter intended by the commission to form the whole or part of the plan adopted, which resolution shall be signed by the chairman of the commission and attested by its secretary. An attested copy of the resolution, accompanied by a copy of so much of the plan in whole or in part as was adopted thereby, and each amendment, alteration, extension or addition thereto adopted thereby, shall be certified to the council and upon approval by it to the clerk of the circuit court of the county who shall file the same. Approval by the council shall be by resolution.

Amendment of the master plan may be initiated by a majority vote of the city council to submit a proposed amendment to the planning commission. If the planning commission disapproves the proposed amendment, the council shall have power to overrule such action by the affirmative vote of not less than five members. Failure of the planning commission to act within sixty days from the date of the official submission to it shall be deemed approval; provided, however, that the sixty days limitation may be extended by resolution of the city council for a period not to exceed a total of 120 days. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440; 1960, c. 429)

§ 17.07. Whenever a master plan for the city or one or more parts thereof, geographical, topographical or functional, shall have been adopted and filed as provided in the preceding section, then and thereafter no street, square, park or other public way, ground, open space, school, public building or structure, shall be constructed or authorized in the city or in the planned section or division thereof until and unless the general location, character and extent thereof has been submitted to the planning commission and until the commission determines that the general location, character and extent are included in the master plan.

Except for local distribution or service operations, no public utility, whether publicly or privately owned, shall be constructed or authorized in the city or in the planned section or division thereof unless and until its general location, character and extent, have been submitted to the commission, and until the commission determines that the master plan includes the general location, character and extent of the proposed utility.

However, such submission and determination shall not be necessary in the case of pipes or conduits in any existing street or proposed street, square, park or other public way, ground or open space, the location of which has been approved by the commission.

The failure of the commission to act within sixty days from the date of the official submission to it shall be deemed approval. The widening, extension, narrowing, enlargement, vacation or change in the use of streets and other public ways, grounds and places within the city, as well as the acquisition by the city of any land within or without the city for public purposes, or the sale of any land then held by the city, shall be submitted to the planning commission for its approval. If the commission disapproves of any such proposal, it shall communicate its reasons to the city council which shall have the power to overrule such action by a recorded affirmative vote of not less than five members except, however, that in the matter of acquisition of land, only four votes of the council shall be required to overrule the planning commission's recommendations. The failure of the commission to act within sixty days from the date of the official submission to it shall be deemed approval.

The provisions of this section shall not be deemed to apply to the pavement, repavement, reconstruction, improvement, drainage or other work in or upon any existing street or other existing public way. (1950, c. 323; 1952, c. 301; 1954, c. 440; 1960, c. 429; 1973, c. 292)

§ 17.08. Same-Capital improvements program.

It shall be the duty of the commission to review annually a program of capital improvement projects for the ensuing five years. At a day to be fixed by resolution of the city council, each department, commission and board, including the school board, shall submit to the city manager a detailed listing of all immediate and long range capital improvement needs falling within the jurisdiction of the submitting department, commission or board, together with its estimates of cost of each of the various projects, and its recommendations as to priority and timing of the projects listed. The city manager shall subsequently submit to the commission a proposed capital improvements program, together with a report on the financial condition of the city, insofar as it may relate to any contemplated capital fund projects. In the preparation of its capital improvement recommendations, the commission shall consult with the city manager, the school board, the heads of departments and interested citizens and organizations, and shall hold such public hearings as it shall deem necessary. It shall submit its recommendations to the city council, at such time as the council shall direct, together with estimates of cost of such projects and the means of financing them, to be undertaken in the ensuing fiscal year and in the next four years. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440; 1960, c. 429; 1987, c. 68)

§ 17.09. City planning commission - Further planning powers and duties.

The commission shall have power to promote public interest in and understanding of the plan, and to that end may publish and distribute copies of the plan or any report relating thereto, and may employ such other means of publicity and education as it may determine. The commission shall consult and advise with public officials and agencies, public utility companies, civic, educational, professional or other organizations, and with citizens, with relation to the protection or carrying out of the plan. All public officials shall, upon request, furnish to the commission within a reasonable time, such available information as it may require for its work. The commission, its members, or officers, may enter upon land for which a development plan under its purview has been tendered to make such examinations as are necessary in aid of the commission's review authority and its planning duties and functions. The commission shall make an annual report to the council concerning its activities. (1950, c. 323; 2001, cc. 708, 796)

§ 17.10. In addition to the powers granted elsewhere in this charter, the council shall have the power to adopt in the manner provided in § 17.13, a comprehensive zoning plan designed to lessen congestion in streets; secure safety from fire, panic and other danger; promote health, sanitation and general welfare; provide adequate light and air; prevent the overcrowding of land; avoid undue concentration of population; facilitate public and private transportation and the supplying of public utility services and sewage disposal, and facilitate provision for schools, parks, playgrounds and other public improvements and requirements. The comprehensive zoning plan shall include the division of the city into districts with such boundaries as the council deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, and shall provide for the regulation and restriction of the use of land, buildings, and structures in the respective districts and may include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

- (a) It may permit specified uses of land, buildings and structures in the districts and prohibit all other uses.
- (b) It may regulate the height, area, bulk, size, design and appearance of buildings and structures and the appropriateness of their use in the districts.
- (c) It may establish setback building lines and prescribe the area of land that may be used as front, rear and side yards and courts and open spaces.
- (d) It may restrict the portion of the area of lots that may be occupied by buildings and structures.
- (e) It may prescribe the area of lots and the space in buildings that may be occupied by families.
- (f) It may require that spaces and facilities deemed adequate by the council shall be provided on lots for parking of vehicles in conjunction with permitted uses of land and that spaces and facilities deemed adequate by the council shall be provided on lots for off-street loading or unloading of vehicles.

(g) It may permit the designed use and development of land in a manner varying in certain respects from the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district or districts in which such land is situated, provided that it establishes a minimum area of not less than five acres subject to such designed use and provided further that such designed use shall be approved by the city planning commission and the council, and adopted as a part of the master plan of the city.

(h) It may provide that land, buildings and structures and the uses thereof which do not conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district in which they are situated may be continued so long as the then existing or more restricted use continues and so long as the buildings or structures are maintained in their then structural condition; and may require that such buildings or structures and the use thereof shall conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district or districts in which they are situated whenever they are enlarged, extended, reconstructed or structurally altered; and may require that such buildings or structures and the use thereof shall conform to the regulations and restrictions prescribed for the district or districts in which they are situated, in any event, within a reasonable period of time to be specified in the ordinance.

(i) It may provide for an affordable housing dwelling unit program. The program shall address housing needs, promote a full range of housing choices, and encourage the construction and continued existence of moderately priced housing by providing for optional increases in density in order to reduce land costs for such moderately priced housing. Any project that is subject to an affordable housing dwelling unit program adopted pursuant to this section shall not be subject to an additional requirement outside of such program to contribute to a city housing fund.

From and after the adoption of a master plan or any amendment or extension thereof as required by this chapter, or the land use portion thereof, such zoning plan shall be made to conform substantially with the master plan, and any amendments to the zoning plan shall be based upon and in substantial accordance with the master plan. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440; 1956, c. 190; 2008, cc. 316, 683)

§ 17.11. The regulations and restrictions shall be enacted with reasonable consideration, among other things, of the character of each district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses, and with a view of conserving the value of land, buildings and structures and encouraging the most appropriate use thereof throughout the city. Upon the enactment of the ordinance dividing the city into districts and regulating and restricting the use of land, buildings and structures therein in accordance with a comprehensive zoning plan; no land, building or structure shall be changed from one district to another district unless the change is in accord with the interest and purposes of this section and will not be contrary to the comprehensive zoning plan and the enumerated factors upon which it is based. Aside from extensions from an existing zone into immediately adjoining or adjacent properties, no change in district boundaries shall be made so as to create an area of such size and shape, in relation to its neighboring areas, as to comprise less than a district as intended by this chapter. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440)

§ 17.12. Duties of the city planning commission with relation to zoning.

It shall be the duty of the city planning commission to prepare and submit to the council a comprehensive zoning plan as referred to in § 17.10 and from time to time prepare and submit such changes in or revisions of the said plan as changing conditions may make necessary. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.13. Subject to the other provisions of this chapter, the council shall have power by ordinance to adopt the regulations and restrictions hereinbefore described and determine the boundaries of the districts in which they shall apply, provide for their enforcement, and from time to time amend, supplement or repeal the same. The council shall also have authority to provide for the collection of fees to cover at least the costs involved in the consideration of any request for amendment, supplement or repeal of any such regulation, restriction or boundaries, to be paid to the city clerk by the applicant upon filing such request. No ordinance adopting, amending, supplementing or repealing, any such regulation, restriction or boundaries shall be adopted until: (a) the ordinance adopting, amending, supplementing or repealing, any such regulation, restriction or boundaries has been referred to the city planning commission and approved by it, and in case of disapproval by the commission subject to overrule by the council by the affirmative vote of not less than five members of the council; and (b) after a public hearing in relation thereto shall be held by the council at which the parties in interest and other persons shall have an opportunity to be heard. At least fifteen days' notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be given by publication thereof in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. Whenever such ordinance involves the amendment, supplement, or repeal of any district boundaries, fifteen days notice of such public hearing shall also be given by conspicuous notices posted along the boundary lines of any land involved. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440; 1960, c. 429)

§ 17.14. If a protest is filed with the city clerk against such amendment, supplement or repeal, signed by the owners of twenty percent or more of the total area of the lots included in such proposed change or of the total area of the lots outside of the proposed change, any part of which is within 150 feet of the boundary of such area, the council shall not adopt the ordinance making such amendment, supplement or repeal, except by an affirmative vote of not less than five members of the council. Each signature to such protest shall be witnessed by a person whose affidavit to that effect is attached thereto. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440)

§ 17.15. There shall be a board of zoning appeals which shall consist of five regular members and one alternate. They shall be qualified voters of the city, shall reside within the city limits, shall hold no office of profit under the city government and shall be appointed by the council for terms of four years; provided that the members of the board of zoning appeals in office at the effective date of this charter shall continue to hold office until the first day in January following the expiration of the terms for which they were appointed, and the first alternate member shall be appointed to serve until the said date; and provided, further, that the council shall appoint two regular and one alternate member to serve for two years, and three regular members to serve for four years from said date. Thereafter, their successors shall be appointed for full terms of four years. Vacancies shall be filled by the council for the unexpired portion of the term. A regular or alternate member may be removed by the council for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, upon written charges and after public hearing. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440; 1966, c. 146)

§ 17.16. Board of zoning appeals. Organization.

The board shall elect a chairman and a vice-chairman from among its regular members for a term of one year who shall be eligible for reelection. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the board and, in his absence, the vice-chairman or other member designated by the board shall act as chairman and shall preside. The board shall appoint a secretary and such other employees as may be needed for the conduct of the work of the board. The alternate member may take the place of any regular member who is absent or disqualified, in hearing and determining any matter before the board. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.17. Board of zoning appeals. Procedure.

The meetings of the board shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as the board may determine. The board shall keep minutes of its proceedings showing the vote of each member on each question or, if absent, or failing to vote, indicating such fact, and shall keep records of its examinations and other official actions, all of which shall be filed in the office of the board and shall be a public record. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.18. Appeals to board of zoning appeals.

Appeals to the Board may be taken by any person aggrieved, or by any officer, department, board, commission or agency of the city affected, by any decision of the administrative officer designated by the council to administer and enforce the ordinance dividing the city districts and regulating and restricting the use of land, buildings and structures therein. Appeals shall be taken within thirty days of the date of decision, by filing with the said administrative officer and with the Board a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The administrative officer shall forthwith transmit to the Board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken. An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from unless the administrative officer from whose decision the appeal is taken certifies to the Board that by reason of the facts stated in the certificate a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case, proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the Board or by a court of record on application and on notice to the administrative officer and on due cause shown.

The Board shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give public notice thereof, as well as due notice to the parties in interest and decide the issue within a reasonable time. At the hearing, any party may appeal in person, by agent, or by attorney, and shall be given an opportunity to be heard. The city council may prescribe a fee to be paid whenever an appeal is taken which shall be paid into the city treasury. (1950, c. 323; 1989, c. 345)

§ 17.19. Powers of board of zoning appeals.

The board shall have the following powers and it shall be its duty:

- (a) To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order, requirement, decision or determination by the administrative officer in the administration and enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance.
- (b) To grant variations in the regulations when a property owner can show that his property was acquired in good faith and where by reason of the exceptional narrowness, shallowness or shape of a specific piece of property at the time of the effective date of the ordinance or where by reason of the exceptional topographical conditions or other extraordinary or exceptional situation, the strict application of the terms of the ordinance actually prohibit or unreasonably restrict the use of the property, or where the board is satisfied, upon the evidence heard by it, the granting of such variation will alleviate a clearly demonstrable hardship approaching confiscation, as distinguished from a special privilege or convenience sought by the owner; provided, however, that all variations granted shall be in harmony with the intended spirit and purpose of this chapter and the ordinance.
- (c) To permit, when reasonably necessary in the public interest, the use of land, or the construction or use of buildings or structures, in any district in which they are prohibited by the ordinance, by any agency of the city, county or state or the United States, provided such construction or use shall adequately safeguard the health, safety and welfare of the occupants of the adjoining and surrounding property, shall not unreasonably impair an adequate supply of light and air to adjacent property, shall not increase congestion in streets and shall not increase public danger from fire or otherwise affect public safety.
- (d) To permit such other exceptions or grant variances from the strict application of the terms of the zoning regulations under the principles, standards, rules, conditions, and safeguards set forth in the zoning ordinance, provided they are determined to be consistent with the general purpose and intent of such ordinance. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.20. Form and scope of decisions by board of zoning appeals.

In exercising the powers conferred upon it, the Board may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from, and may make such order, requirement, decision or determination as should be made and to that end shall have all the powers of the administrative officer charged by the ordinance with enforcement. The concurring affirmative vote of three members of the Board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of the administrative officer or to decide in favor of the applicant in any matter of which it has jurisdiction. The Board may, upon the affirmative vote of three members, reconsider any decision made and, upon such reconsideration, render a decision by formal resolution. Every decision of the Board shall be based upon a finding of fact based on sworn testimony, which finding of fact shall be reduced to writing and preserved among its records. (1950, c. 323; 1989, c. 345)

§ 17.21. Appeals from board of zoning appeals.

Any person, firm or corporation, jointly or severally aggrieved, or in fact affected by any decision of the board of zoning appeals, or any officer, department, board or agency of the city government charged with the enforcement of any order, requirement or decision of said board, may appeal from such decision by filing a petition in the court of appropriate jurisdiction, verified by affidavit, setting forth the alleged illegality of the action of the board and the grounds thereof. The petition shall be filed within thirty days from the date of the decision of the board. No appeal from the decision of the board shall be allowed in any case involving the same petitioner, principles, property and conditions previously passed upon by such court. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.22. Procedure on appeal.

Upon filing of a petition, the court may cause a writ of certiorari to issue directed to the board, ordering it to produce within the time prescribed by the court, not less than ten days, the record of its action and documents considered by it in making the decision appealed from, which writ shall be served upon any member of the board. The issuance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, notice to the board and due cause shown, issue a restraining order. The board shall not be required to produce the original record and documents, but it shall be sufficient to produce certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be required by the writ. With the record and documents, the board may concisely set forth in writing such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from, verified by affidavit. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.23. Powers and duties of the court.

The court shall review the record, documents and other matters produced by the board pursuant to the issuance of the writ and may reverse or modify the decision reviewed, in whole or in part, when it is satisfied that the decision of the board is contrary to law or that its decision is arbitrary and constitutes an abuse of discretion. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.24. Proceedings against violators of zoning ordinance.

Whenever any building or structure is erected, constructed, reconstructed, altered, repaired or converted, or whenever any land, building or structure is used in violation of any ordinance adopted in accordance with § 17.13, the city may institute and prosecute appropriate action or proceedings to prevent such unlawful act and to restrain, correct or abate such violation or to prevent any unlawful act, conduct or use of such property. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.25. Penalties for violation of zoning ordinance.

The council may, in such ordinance, provide that fines and jail sentences, either or both, shall be imposed for violations of the ordinance by owners of land, buildings or structures, their agents having possession or control of such property, lessees, tenants, architects, builders, contractors or any other persons, firms or corporations who take part in or assist in any such violations or who maintain any land, building or structure in which such violations exist, which penalties shall not exceed those prescribed in § 2.06 of this charter. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.26. Land subdivision.

In order to provide for the orderly subdivision of land within the city, there is hereby conferred upon the city the power to adopt regulations and restrictions relative to the subdivision of land in the manner hereinafter provided. Such regulations and restrictions may prescribe standards and requirements for the subdivision of land which may include, but shall not be limited to, the following: the location, size and layout of lots so as to prevent congestion of population, to provide for light and air, and to prevent the hazard of inundation, the width, grade, location, alignment and arrangement of streets and sidewalks with relation to other existing streets, planned streets and the master plan; access for fire-fighting apparatus; adequate open spaces; adequate and convenient facilities for vehicular parking; easements for public utilities; reservation or dedication of suitable sites for schools, parks and playgrounds; planting of shade trees and shrubs; naming and designation of streets and other public places; laying out, constructing and improving streets, alleys and sidewalks, the installation of public utilities and other physical improvements therein and the conditions under which the cost thereof shall be borne by the developer; and provisions for the guarantee of payment by the developer for the required improvements; procedure for making variations in such regulations and restrictions; requirements for preparing and recording plats of subdivisions including their size, scale, contents and other matters; and for the erection of monuments of specified type for making and establishing property and street, alley, sidewalk and other lines. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.27. Hearings on subdivision ordinance.

The council shall not adopt or amend any ordinance establishing such regulations and restrictions until notice of intention so to do has been published once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The notice shall specify the time, not less than ten days after final publication, and the place at which persons affected may appear before the council and present their views. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.28. Adoption of regulations and restrictions applicable only within the city limits.

After hearing, as above provided, the council may adopt by ordinance any such regulations and restrictions applicable within the limits of the city which, when recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county, shall be in full force and effect. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.29. The planning commission shall be the platting commission of the city, and, as such, shall have control of the platting or subdivision of land within the city subject to restrictions as provided in §

17.07. From and after the date on which such regulations and restrictions become effective in the city, the owners of tracts of land to which such regulations and restrictions are applicable, who subdivide them into two or more lots, shall cause plats of such subdivisions, in the form prescribed by the applicable regulations and restrictions, to be made and submitted to the city planning commission. It shall be the duty of such commission to consider such plat in the light of the regulations and restrictions applicable to the same and approve or disapprove the plat in accordance therewith. Before taking any action thereon, the city planning commission shall afford the owner and other interested parties an opportunity to be heard after such reasonable notice as may be provided in such regulations and restrictions. Failure to act on any plat for a period of forty-five days shall be deemed to constitute approval unless such plat involves amendment or extension of or addition to the master plan. Approval shall be attested on that plat by the signature of the chairman or vice-chairman of the city planning commission. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440)

§ 17.30. Recording of plats of subdivisions.

From and after the date on which such regulations and restrictions become effective in the city, no plat of any subdivision to which such regulations and restrictions are applicable shall be received or recorded by the clerk of any court unless the plat has been approved as provided in the preceding section. No owner of land in the city in which such regulations and restrictions are applicable, who has subdivided the same into two or more lots, shall sell or offer for sale any such lot by reference to or exhibition of or by the use of a plat of such subdivision or otherwise before the plat of such subdivision has been approved as provided in the preceding section and has been recorded in the office of the clerk of the court or courts in which a deed conveying such lot would be required to be recorded. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.31. Penalty for transfer of lots in unapproved subdivisions.

Whoever being the owner or agent of the owner of any land in a subdivision subject to such regulations and restrictions, the plat of which has not been approved and recorded as above provided, shall transfer, sell or offer for sale or agree to sell any lot in such subdivision by reference to or exhibition of an unapproved and unrecorded plat or otherwise, shall forfeit and pay a penalty of $100 for each lot or similar parcel of land transferred or agreed or negotiated to be sold; and the description of such lot or parcel by metes and bounds in the instrument of transfer or other document used in the process of selling or transferring shall not exempt the transaction from such penalty or from the remedies herein provided. The city may enjoin such transfer or sale or agreement by proceedings for injunction brought in a court having jurisdiction of the land to which the injunction applies. The city in which any lot transferred, sold or offered for sale in violation of this chapter is situated, may recover the penalty provided therefor in a civil action brought in a court in whose jurisdiction such lot is situated, for the benefit of the city. In the absence of intent to evade the provisions of this section, the penalty may be waived in the case of an attempted transfer by will. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.32. Transfer of portion for public use.

The recordation and acceptance of the plat shall operate to transfer in fee simple to the city such portion thereof as is on the plat set apart for streets, alleys, easements or other public use or purpose and to create a public right of passage over or use of the same. The owner or owners of the land subdivided may construct, reconstruct, operate and maintain with the consent of the city where the land lies, sewers, gas and water pipes or electric lines along or under the streets, alleys, easements or other land devoted to public use, provided that it shall not obstruct or hinder the passage over the streets, alleys or other property devoted to public use further than is reasonably necessary to construct, reconstruct, repair, operate and maintain such works. (1950, c. 323; 1979, c. 421)

§ 17.33. Vacation of plats.

Any plat or part thereof recorded may be vacated, with the consent of the council by the owners thereof at any time before the sale of any lot therein, by a written instrument declaring the plat to be vacated, which shall be duly executed, acknowledged and recorded in the clerk's office wherein the plat to be vacated is recorded. The execution and recordation of the instrument shall operate to destroy the force and effect of the recording of the plat and to divest all public rights in and to reinvest the owners with the title to the streets, alleys, easements and other land devoted to public use laid out or described in the plat. In cases where lots have been sold, the plat or part thereof or any unaccepted or abandoned street, or street recommended by the Planning Commission for vacation, may be vacated according to the procedure provided in § 15.1-364 of the Code of Virginia as amended, for the alteration and vacation of streets and alleys. The clerk in whose office any plat so vacated has been recorded shall write in plain, legible letters across the plat or part thereof vacated the word "vacated," and also make a reference on the plat to the volume and page thereof in which the instrument of vacation is recorded. (1950, c. 323; 1994, c. 92)

§ 17.34. Use of street for twenty years--Dedication.

Whenever any piece, parcel or strip of land shall have been opened to and used by the public as a street, alley, lane or other public place or part thereof for the period of twenty years, the same shall thereby become a street, alley, lane, public place or part thereof for all purposes, and the city shall have the same authority and jurisdiction over and right and interest therein that it has by law over the streets, alleys, lanes and public places laid out by it and thereafter no action shall be brought to recover such piece, parcel or strip of land so opened to and used by the public as aforesaid. Any street, alley, lane or other public place reserved in the division or subdivision into lots within the corporate limits of the city by a plat or plan of record shall be deemed and held to be dedicated to the public use and the council shall have authority, upon the petition of any person or corporation interested therein, to open such street, alley, lane or other public place or any portion of the same. No agreement between, or release of interest by, persons or corporations owning the lands immediately contiguous to any such street, alley, lane or other public place, whether the same has been opened or used by the public or not, shall avail or operate to abolish such street, alley, lane or other public place or to divest the interest of the public therein or the authority of the council over the same. (1950, c. 323)

§ 17.35. Present master plan, comprehensive zoning plan and subdivision ordinance.

The master plan, the comprehensive zoning plan, and subdivision ordinance as heretofore adopted, approved and filed, with all amendments, additions and extensions thereto, in force and effect at the effective date of this charter are hereby validated and confirmed as if the same had been prepared, adopted, approved and filed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Every amendment or addition thereto or extension thereof and every other master plan, comprehensive zoning ordinance, or subdivision ordinance henceforth adopted shall be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Where existing ordinances are at variance with the provisions of this chapter, they shall be deemed to be amended in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. (1950, c. 323)

Chapter 18. Acquisition of Property for Public Purposes.

§ 18.01. Acquisition, ownership and use of property.

The city shall have, for the purpose of carrying out any of its powers and duties, power to acquire by gift, bequest, purchase or lease, and to own and make use of, within and without the city, lands, buildings, other structures and personal property, including any interest, right, easement or estate therein, and in acquiring such property to exercise, within and without the city, the right of eminent domain as hereinafter provided in this chapter. This power shall be in addition to the powers granted to the school board in § 20.02. (1950, c. 323)

§ 18.02. The city is hereby authorized to acquire by condemnation proceedings lands, buildings, structures and personal property or any interest, right, easement or estate therein, of any person or corporation, whenever in the opinion of the council a public necessity exists therefor, which shall be expressed in the resolution or ordinance directing such acquisition, and whenever the city cannot agree on terms of purchase or settlement with the owners of the subject of such acquisition because of the incapacity of such owner, or because of the inability to agree on the compensation to be paid or other terms of settlement or purchase, or because the owner or some one of the owners is a non-resident of the State or cannot with reasonable diligence be found in the State, or is unknown.

Such proceedings shall be instituted in the court of appropriate jurisdiction. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 514)

Editor's note: Chapter 776 of the 1997 Acts of Assembly amended § 18.02, to become effective if reenacted by the 1998 Session of the General Assembly; it was not reenacted.

§ 18.03. The city may, in exercising the right of eminent domain conferred by the preceding section, make use of the procedure prescribed by the general law, as modified by said section or may elect to proceed as hereinafter provided. In the latter event the resolution or ordinance directing the acquisition of any property, as set forth in the preceding section, shall provide therein in a lump sum the total funds necessary to compensate the owners thereof for such property to be acquired or damaged. Upon the adoption of such resolution or ordinance the city may file a petition in the clerk's office of the court having jurisdiction of the subject, which shall be signed by the city manager and set forth the interest or estate to be taken in the property and the uses and purposes for which the property or the interest or estate therein is wanted, or when property is not to be taken but is likely to be damaged, the necessity for the work or improvement which will cause or is likely to cause such damage. There shall also be filed with the petition a plat of a survey of the property with a profile showing cuts and fills, trestles and bridges, or other contemplated structures if any, and a description of the property which, or an interest or estate in which, is sought to be taken or which will be or is likely to be damaged and a memorandum showing names and residences of the owners of the property, if known, and showing also the quantity of property which, or an interest or estate in which, is sought to be taken or which will be or is likely to be damaged. There shall be filed also with said petition a notice directed to the owners of the property, if known, copies of which shall be served on such owners or tenants of the freehold of such property, if known. If the owner or tenant of the freehold be unknown or a nonresident of the State or cannot with reasonable diligence be found in the State, or if the residence of the owner or tenant be unknown, he may be proceeded against by order of publication which order, however, need not be published more than once a week for two successive weeks and shall be posted at the main entrance to the City Hall. The publication shall in all other respects conform to §§ 8-71, 8-72 and 8-76 of the Code of Virginia.

Upon the filing of said petition and the deposit of funds provided by the council for the purpose in a bank to the credit of the court in such proceedings and the filing of a certificate of deposit therefor the interest or estate of the owner of such property shall terminate and the title to such property or the interest or estate to be taken in such property shall be vested absolutely in the city and such owner shall have such interest or estate in the funds so deposited as he had in the property taken or damaged and all liens by deed of trust, judgment or otherwise upon said property or estate shall be transferred to such funds and the city shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of such property for its uses and purposes and to construct its works or improvements. The clerk of the court in which such proceeding is instituted shall record the orders entered therein in his deed book and index them in the name of the person or persons who had the property before and in the name of the city, for which he shall receive the same fees prescribed for recording a deed, which shall be paid by the city.

If the city and the owner of property so taken or damaged agree upon compensation therefor, upon filing such agreement in writing in the clerk's office of such court, the court or judge thereof in vacation shall make such distribution of such funds as to it may seem right, having due regard to the interest of all persons therein whether such interest be vested, contingent or otherwise, and to enable the court or judge to make a proper distribution of such money it may in its discretion direct inquiries to be taken by a special commissioner in order to ascertain what persons are entitled to such funds and in what proportions and may direct what notice shall be given of the making of such inquiries by such special commissioner.

If the city and the owner cannot agree upon the compensation for the property taken or damaged, if any, upon the filing of a memorandum in the clerk's office of said court to that effect, signed by either the city or the owner, the court shall appoint commissioners provided for in §§ 25-12 to 25-15, inclusive, of the Code of Virginia or as provided for in § 18.02, and all proceedings thereafter shall be had as provided for in §§ 25-12 through 25-21 and §§ 25-21 and 25-23 through 25-38 of the Code of Virginia insofar as they are then applicable and are not inconsistent with the provisions of this and the preceding section, and the court shall order the deposit in the bank to the credit of the court of such additional funds as appear to be necessary to cover the award of the commissioners or shall order the return to the city of such funds deposited that are not necessary to compensate such owners for property taken or damaged. The commissioners so appointed shall not consider improvements placed upon the property by the city subsequent to its taking nor the value thereof nor the enhancement of the value of said property by said improvements in making their award. (1950, c. 323; 1954, c. 440)

§ 18.04. Enhancement in value when considered.

In all cases under the provisions of §§ 18.02 and 18.03, the enhancement, if any, in value of the remaining property of the owner by reason of the construction or improvement contemplated or made by the city, shall be offset against the damage, if any, resulting to such remaining property of such owner by reason of such construction or improvement, provided such enhancement in value shall not be offset against the value of the property taken, and provided further, that if such enhancement in value shall exceed the damage, there shall be no recovery over against the owner for such excess. (1950, c. 323)

§ 18.05. Unclaimed funds in condemnation cases.

Whenever any money shall have remained for five years in the custody or under the control of any of the courts enumerated in § 18.02, such money shall be disposed of pursuant to §§ 8-746 and 8-747 of the Code of Virginia. (1950, c. 323)

The City of Falls Church shall constitute a separate school district. (1950, c. 323)

§ 20.02. School board.

5. To determine and designate the route and grade of any railroad to be laid out in the city;

6. To make provision for and regulate the weighing, measuring, or testing of all products and articles offered for sale and barter in the city;

Upon a petition of a majority of the persons interested, the Council shall have the power to open the same for the use of the public. The Council shall have the right to elect, by resolution entered of record, whether it will or will not accept the dedication of any street or alley and shall also have the right to supervise all platting and planning and any and all other activities for the beautification of the city;

§ 11-a. The council, of the Town of Front Royal may appoint a civil and police justice for said town, whose term of office shall be two years from the date of his appointment, and whose powers, duties, authority and jurisdiction shall be as hereinafter provided for. Any such appointee shall serve for the said term of two years, and thereafter until his successor shall be appointed and qualified. The mayor, or any other qualified voter of the town, whom the council, or governing body, may deem qualified, may be appointed as such civil and police justice. In the event of the mayor being appointed as such civil and police justice, he shall discharge the duties pertaining to the office of civil and police justice, in his capacity as civil and police justice, and not as mayor, and he shall receive the salary provided for him by the council for his services as mayor, and also such salary, if any, as may be provided for him by the council for his services as civil and police justice.

Said civil and police justice is hereby vested with all the power, authority, and jurisdiction, and charged with all the duties within, and for, the Town of Front Royal, which are, or may hereafter be, imposed upon trial justices and juvenile and domestic relations courts by the laws of the State of Virginia, so far as the same may be applicable and not in conflict with the provisions of this section; and any amendments of the laws governing or relating to trial justices and juvenile and domestic relations courts, or either, of this State shall be considered as amendments, also, of this section, if the same are applicable hereto.

The council may also appoint for the civil and police justice such clerk or clerks as may in its discretion be necessary, provide for just compensation therefor, and provide necessary records.

The council shall provide a salary to compensate such civil and police justice in such amount and payable at such times as it shall deem proper, and may provide also for a vacation period, either with or without pay, and for such duration as in its judgment may be proper.

Like provisions may be made for a substitute civil and police justice, and when such substitute acts, he shall receive the compensation which would have been paid his principal if he had acted, and which compensation shall be deducted from the salary or allowance made to the principal.

Nothing contained herein shall prevent the Town of Front Royal from combining with the County of Warren for the use of one trial justice and one substitute trial justice for such combined town and county, in such manner as may be provided by the laws of the State of Virginia relating to trial justices, and if the Town of Front Royal and County of Warren shall at any time combine for the use of one trial justice and one substitute trial justice for the said town and the said county, the laws of the State of Virginia relating to trial justices, so far as applicable, shall control and not this section; but the combination of the said town with the said county for the use of one trial justice and one substitute trial justice shall not prevent the council if at any time thereafter it shall desire so to do, from withdrawing the Town of Front Royal from such combination, by a vote of the council, and appointing a civil and police justice and substitute civil and police justice for the Town of Front Royal under the provisions of this section, notwithstanding anything in the trial justice laws of Virginia to the contrary; and likewise nothing herein contained shall prevent the town, after withdrawing from such combination, from again adopting the combination with the county. (1940, c. 401)

§ 12. The council shall appoint a clerk to serve at the will of the council, and shall have authority to adopt such rules and appoint such officers and committees as they may deem proper for the regulation of their proceedings and for the convenient transaction of business; to compel the attendance of absent members; and enforce orderly conduct at meetings.

The council may appoint one of the members of the council, other than the member appointed town treasurer, as town clerk, if in the judgment of a majority of the members of the council it is proper so to do, and the member appointed town clerk shall have all of the duties and powers of town clerk as herein provided and he shall continue to have all of the powers, duties, authority, jurisdiction, responsibilities and obligations of a councilman.

The council shall keep a minute book, or its electronic equivalent, in which the clerk shall note the proceedings of the council, and shall record said proceedings at large on the record book, and keep the same properly indexed. (1937, c. 44; 2018, cc. 328, 329)

§ 13. A majority of the members of the council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. 328, 329)

No member of the council shall, during the time for which elected, be chosen as town manager. The town manager shall be appointed for a term acceptable to the town council and the town manager. He shall be removable by the town council for cause. Before the town manager may be removed, he shall, if he so demand, be given a written statement of the reasons alleged for his removal and the right to be heard publicly thereon at a meeting of the council prior to the final vote on the question of his removal, but pending and during such hearing the council may suspend him from office. The action of the council in suspending or removing the town manager shall be final, it being the intention of this charter to vest all authority and fix all responsibility for such suspension or removal in the council. In case of the absence or disability of the town manager the council may designate some qualified person to perform the duties of the office during such absence or disability. (1937, c. 44)

Twenty-seventh. The council shall have all powers and authority to remedy, remove, repair, and secure any blighted or derelict building or structure that are granted in the Code of Virginia to any other locality. (1937, c. 44; 2002, c. 705; 2018, cc. 328, 329)

§ 18.1. Town Council, through its employees and agents at its official visitors' center, shall have the power to sell and vend to the general public items and articles of merchandise obtained from local vendors and merchants and other items that help promote the Town, tourism therein, and access to and awareness of the identities, locations and wares of vendors and merchants within the Town and near vicinity. (2001, c. 245)

§ 19. The council is empowered to acquire, by purchase, gift, devise or condemnation or otherwise, lands to be used as a place for the burial of the dead. The cemetery, when established and enclosed, with the property included in it, shall be exempt from all State, county, and municipal taxation. (1937, c. 44)

§ 20. The council shall set aside, or cause to be set aside, a sufficient portion of the revenues of the town, during each fiscal year to meet the sinking fund requirements for that year of the respective town ordinances, both those now in effect and such as may be passed in the future, authorizing the issuance of bonds by the town. Unless otherwise provided in the ordinances passed prior to the effective date of this charter authorizing the issuance of bonds, all sinking funds of the town shall be administered by the board of sinking fund commissioners created by section twenty-five of this charter, who shall collect, maintain, and handle the same in the manner provided by section twenty-five hereof. None of the sinking funds of the town shall be appropriated or used for any purpose other than the retirement of the bonded indebtedness of the town. (1937, c. 44)

§ 21. Where the council has authority to pass ordinances on any subject, it may prescribe (i) any penalty not exceeding twelve months in jail or (ii) a fine not exceeding $2,500, either or both, except that for a person convicted for a third or subsequent offense involving the same property committed within ten years of an offense under the Uniform Statewide Building Code's Property Maintenance Code, the fine shall not exceed $5,000, for a violation thereof, provided that such penalty shall not exceed the penalty prescribed by general law for a like offense. (1937, c. 44; 1985, c. 53; 2002, c. 705)

§ 23. In every case where a street in said town has been, or shall be, encroached upon by any fence, building or otherwise, the council may require the owner to remove the same, and if such removal be not made within the time prescribed by the council, they may impose such penalty as they may deem proper for each and every day it is allowed to continue thereafter, and may cause the encroachment to be removed, and collect from the owner all reasonable charges therefor, with costs by the same process that they are hereinafter empowered to collect taxes.

Except, in any case where there is a bona fide dispute as to the true boundary line or the location of the true street line (and if passage over such street is not seriously impeded) the same shall first be established and determined by an adjudication of a court of competent jurisdiction in a proceeding instituted by either the town or the property owner for that purpose before the said town shall take any steps to remove the said obstruction or encroachment, or to impose any penalty therefor. No encroachment upon any street, however long continued, shall constitute any adverse possession to or confer any rights upon the persons claiming thereunder as against the said town. (1937, c. 44)

§ 24. Dedication of any street, alley or lane in said town may be made by plat or deed. Any street or alley reserved in the division or subdivision into lots of any portion of the territory within the corporate limits of said town, by a plan or plat of record, shall be deemed and held to be dedicated to public use, unless it appears by said record that the street or alley so reserved is designated for private use. The council shall have the right to elect, by resolution entered on its minutes whether it will, or will not accept the dedication of any street or alley. (1937, c. 44)

§ 25. Subject to the provisions of this charter and of the general law of the State, any action which the board of sinking fund commissioners shall take shall be controlled by the affirmative vote of at least two members thereof. No fees nor commission shall be paid to any officer for the handling and control of the sinking fund.

The board of sinking fund commissioners shall have complete charge of all insurance funds, pension and relief funds, and all other funds, which may be created under authority of the council. The sinking fund commissioners shall each give bond payable to the Town of Front Royal in such amount as the council shall prescribe and with sufficient security to be approved by the council, for the faithful discharge of their duties as sinking fund commissioners before entering upon their duties. (1937, c. 44)

§ 27. The clerk of the council shall attend the meetings of the council, shall keep a record of its proceedings, and shall have the custody of the seal of the said town. He shall keep all papers that by the provisions of this act, or the direction of the council, are required to be filed with or kept by him. Immediately after the close of each session of the town council, he shall make and present to the mayor and town manager a transcript of every ordinance, resolution or order concerning any public improvement, or for the payment of money, and every ordinance, resolution, order and act of legislative character passed by the town council at such session. He shall, in like manner, give notice to all persons presenting communications or petitions to the town council of the final action of the council on such communications or petitions. He shall publish such reports and ordinances as the town council may direct, and shall in general perform such other acts and duties as the council may from time to time require of him. (1937, c. 44)

§ 28. In addition to all the other powers mentioned in this charter, the town shall have power to raise annually, semiannually, or such other periods permitted by general law, by taxes and assessments in said town on all subjects the taxation of which by incorporated towns is not forbidden by general law, such sums of money as the council herein provided for shall deem necessary for the purposes of said town, and in such manner as said council shall deem expedient, in accordance with the Constitution and laws of this State and of the United States. (1937, c. 44; 2018, cc. 328, 329)

§ 29. The town council is hereby vested with power to impose special or local assessments for local improvements and enforce payment thereof, subject, however, to such limitations prescribed by the

§ 30. The town council may levy a tax or a license on any person, firm or corporation pursuing or conducting any trade, business, profession, occupation, employment or calling whatsoever within the boundaries of the town, whether a license may be required therefor by the State or not, and may exceed the State license, if any be required, except when prohibited by general law. (1937, c. 44)

§ 31. Any payment of delinquent taxes made by the tenant, unless under an expressed contract contained in his lease, shall be a credit against the person to whom he owes the rent. (1937, c. 44)

§ 32. The Council may require of owners of motor vehicles, trailers and semi-trailers licenses for the privilege of keeping and operating such vehicles in the town and may levy and assess taxes and charge license fees upon such vehicles. (1937, c. 44; 1968, c. 507)

§ 33. All goods and chattels wheresoever found, may be distrained and sold for taxes assessed and due thereon, and no deed of trust nor mortgage upon goods and chattels shall prevent the same from being distrained and sold for taxes. (1937, c. 44)

§ 34. No tax shall be levied or corporate debt in excess of one hundred dollars be contracted unless by a resolution passed by a recorded vote of a majority of the council, provided however that all expenditures provided for in the budget passed by the town council shall be excepted from this provision of this act. (1937, c. 44)

§ 35. There shall be a lien on real estate for the town taxes as assessed thereon from the commencement of the year for which they were assessed. The council may require real estate in the town delinquent for the non-payment of town taxes to be sold for said taxes, with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum, and such per centum as the council may prescribe for charges. Such real estate may be sold and may be redeemed in the manner provided for by law; provided that at any such sale, where no person bids the amount chargeable on any such real estate, it shall be lawful for the treasurer to purchase the same for the benefit of the town upon the same terms and conditions prescribed by general law, for the purchase of delinquent real estate by the treasurer for the benefit of a city or town, respectively. (1937, c. 44)

§ 36. The town council may create and maintain a fire department for the town and it shall be the duty of the employees of this department to stand ready at all times to answer alarms of fire and make every effort to extinguish fires and protect lives and property. It shall also be the duty of the employees of the fire department to make periodic inspections of the buildings and premises in the town for fire hazards, and to have corrected any situation tending to create a fire hazard, when ordered so to do by the council or the town manager. The employees of the fire department shall have special police powers when responding to alarms of fire and when making inspection for fire hazards. The town council may provide and maintain all necessary fire fighting apparatus, equipment, and alarm systems, and make such ordinances as it may deem proper and necessary to extinguish and prevent fire, to regulate the operation of the fire department, and may require citizens to render assistance to the fire department in case of need. (1937, c. 44)

§ 37. For the purpose of guarding against the calamities of fire, and based upon the advice of a fire marshal or building official or other person with expertise in the prevention of fires or explosion, the town council may, from time to time, designate such portions and parts of the town as it deems proper within which buildings or other structures deemed by town council as unreasonably dangerous from or susceptible to fire or explosion, may or may not be erected. It may prohibit the erection of buildings, structures, or additions of inflammable material in any portion of the town without its permission, and may provide for the removal of such buildings or structures or additions which shall be erected contrary to such prohibition at the expense of the builder or owner thereof; or if any building in process of erection or already built appears clearly to be unsafe the council may cause such building to be taken down, after reasonable notice to the owner; and the council may, by proper ordinance, divide the town into zones; specify the kind and character of buildings which may be erected in the different zones; provide for the disposition of garbage and waste; provide precautionary measures against danger from fires; provide for the removal of buildings or structures of any kind, erected in violation of ordinances, at the expense of the builder or owner; and may do all other things lawful to be done, looking to the health and safety of the inhabitants of the town. Ordinances making the annual tax levy, appropriation ordinances, ordinances and resolutions pertaining to local improvements and assessments, ordinances and resolutions providing for or directing any investigation of town affairs, resolutions requesting information from administrative bodies, or directing administrative action and emergency measures shall take effect at the time indicated in such ordinances. Except as otherwise prescribed in this charter, all other ordinances and resolutions passed by the council shall take effect at the time indicated in such ordinances, but in event no effective date shall be set forth in any such ordinance, resolution or by-law passed by the council, the same shall become effective thirty days from the date of its passage.

An emergency measure is an ordinance or resolution to provide for immediate preservation of the public peace, property, health or safety, in which the emergency claimed is set forth and defined in a preamble thereto. The affirmative vote of at least three members of the council shall be required to pass any ordinance or resolution as an emergency measure. Effective July 1, 1994, the affirmative vote of at least four members of the Council shall be required to pass any ordinance or resolution as an emergency measure. In case there shall be a tie among the members of the council, the vote of the mayor, in event of such tie, shall be controlling. (1937, c. 44; 1993, c. 479)

§ 39. All ordinances hereafter passed by the council for the violation of which any penalty is imposed, shall be published once, at least, in one of the newspapers of general circulation in said town, to be designated by the council, or shall be published in any other manner permitted by general law for the publication of proposed ordinances. A record or entry made by the clerk of said council, or a copy of said record or entry, duly certified to by him, shall be prima facie evidence of the publication of any such ordinance; and all laws, regulations and ordinances of the council may be read in evidence in all courts of justice, and in all proceedings before any officer, body or board in which it shall be necessary to refer thereto, from a copy thereof, certified by the clerk of said council, provided, however, that whenever the council of the Town of Front Royal shall codify, in whole or in part, and print at one time, or from time to time, in book or pamphlet form, the general ordinances of the Town of Front Royal, or any part thereof, it shall be unnecessary to publish any new or changed ordinances therein contained, or such codification, or codifications, in a newspaper or otherwise, provided that notice of such publication and the availability of such book or pamphlet at the town hall is published in a newspaper as hereinabove required. (1937, c. 44; 1964, c. 105; 2018, cc. 328, 329)

§ 40. (a) The council may exercise full police powers and it may establish and maintain a police force for the Town of Front Royal with such number of policemen and employees as the council may deem necessary and with the head of such force to be known as the chief of police. The chief of police and the policemen and employees of the police force shall be under the control and supervision of the town manager or the mayor as the council may deem expedient. The compensation and terms of office or employment of the chief of police and such policemen and employees of the police force as the council shall deem proper shall be fixed and determined by the council.

(b) Each member of the police force and the chief of police are hereby made and constituted a conservator of the peace and endowed with all the powers of a constable in criminal cases and all other powers which under the laws of the State of Virginia and the ordinances and resolutions of the town may be necessary to enable him to discharge the duties of his office. (1937, c. 44)

§ 41. (a) The council may, in the name of and for the use of the town, contract debts and make and issue, or cause to be made and issued, as evidence thereof, bonds, notes or other obligations, upon the credit of the town, or solely upon the credit of specific property owned by the town, or solely upon the credit of income derived from property used in connection with any public utility owned and operated by the town.

(b) Pending the issuance and sale of any bonds, notes or other obligations by this act authorized, or in anticipation of the receipt of taxes and revenues of the current fiscal year, it shall be lawful for the town to borrow money temporarily and to issue notes or other evidences of indebtedness therefor, and from time to time to renew such temporary loans or to use current funds to be ultimately repaid from the proceeds of the said bonds, notes or other obligations or from the town taxes and revenues, as the case may be.

(c) The credit of the town shall not, directly or indirectly, under any device or pretense whatsoever, be granted to or in aid of any person, firm, association or corporation.

(d) Every ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds shall specify the purpose or purposes for which they are to be issued, the aggregate amount of the bonds, the term for which they shall be issued, and the maximum rate of interest to be paid thereon. Any such ordinance may be amended by ordinance at any time before the bonds to be affected by such amendment have been sold; provided, however, if there shall be omitted from this act any provision essential to the valid authorization, sale, execution and issuance of any of the bonds of said town, the provisions of general law with reference to similar bonds shall supply said omission.

(e) Any bonds issued by the town under this act shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk under the seal of the town, and shall be made payable in the office of the town treasurer or such other place in or out of the State as the council may provide in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the particular bonds. Such bonds shall be advertised by the mayor and sold by the town treasurer, or by the town manager as may be provided in such ordinance, under supervision of the mayor, town manager and clerk, and the sale reported to and approved by the council, and the proceeds from said sale shall be paid to the town treasurer. (1937, c. 44)

§ 43. The town council shall grant and pay to all town officers and employees such salaries or compensation, if any, as the said council may from time to time deem just and proper, or which shall be fixed by this act, except as such salaries or compensation may be fixed by general law. (1937, c. 44)

§ 44. If any person, having been an officer of such town, shall not within ten days after he shall have vacated, or removed from office, and upon notification or request of the clerk of the council, or within such time thereafter as the town council shall allow, deliver over to his successor in office all property, books, and papers belonging to the town, or appertaining to such office in his possession or under his control, he shall forfeit and pay to the town the sum of five hundred dollars, and may be sued therefor in the name of the town and recovered with costs; and all, records and documents used in any such office by virtue of any provision of this act, or of any ordinance or order of the town council, or any superior officer of the said town, shall be deemed the property of the said town and appertaining to said office, and the chief officer thereof shall be responsible therefor. (1937, c. 44; 2018, cc. 328, 329)

§ 45. All officers hereafter elected under this act, shall be elected at the times and for the terms, as hereinbefore provided, and shall enter upon the discharge of their duties, in accordance with the provisions of the general laws of this State concerning town officers. (1937, c. 44)

§ 46. The Town of Front Royal and the officers thereof, elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of this act, shall be clothed with all the powers, and be subject to all the provisions of law not in express conflict with the provisions of this act. (1937, c. 44)

§ 47. No member of the council of the Town of Front Royal shall be appointed or elected to any office under the jurisdiction of the council while he is a member of the council, or for one year thereafter, except that the council may appoint one of the members of the council as town treasurer with all or any part of the duties, powers, obligations and responsibilities of the town treasurer provided by this act. (1937, c. 44)

§ 48. The mayor, the town councilmen, the town manager, the chief of police and the members of the police force of the town shall have jurisdiction, power and authority in criminal and police matters for one mile from the corporate limits of the said town. (1937, c. 44)

Chapter VII. Town Treasurer.

§ 49. The town treasurer shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond with sufficient surety to be approved by the council, in a penalty of such amount as may be fixed by the council from time to time, payable to the Town of Front Royal, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of the duties of his office. The treasurer shall be responsible for the collection of all taxes, licenses and levies except charges for services furnished by the public utilities of the town. The council shall have authority to place in the hands of a town collector to be appointed by it the collection of any taxes, licenses and other levies at any time before they become delinquent, if in the discretion of the council it shall be proper so to do. (1937, c. 44)

§ 50. The town treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the town which it is his duty to collect from persons owing the same to the town, or which it is the duty of other officers of the town to collect and pay over to him, and pay the same out as the ordinances of the town may prescribe; to keep such moneys safely and account therefor, and to pay all drafts or orders made on him in conformity with the ordinances of the town. (1937, c. 44)

§ 51. The funds of the town shall be deposited by the treasurer in such bank or banks as the council may direct, and such bank or banks shall give bond in such sum or sums as the council shall fix. He shall keep books showing accurately the state of his accounts and the money of the town shall be kept distinct and separate from his own money and he is hereby expressly prohibited from using directly or indirectly the town's money, checks or warrants in his custody and keeping for his own use and benefit, or that of any person or persons whomsoever, and any violation of this provision shall subject him to immediate removal from office. (1937, c. 44)

§ 52. The books and accounts of the town treasurer and all papers relating to the accounts and transactions of the town, shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the mayor, the town council, and such other persons as the council may appoint, to examine the same, and all such books and accounts, together with any balance or moneys on hand, shall be transferred by the treasurer to his successor at every new appointment, or delivered up as the council may at any time require. (1937, c. 44)

§ 53. The town treasurer shall, on the first day of each month, render an account to the council showing the state of the treasury on the day previous and the balance of money on hand. He shall also, if required so to do by the council, accompany such account with a statement of all money received by him and on what account, with a list of all checks paid by him during the month then closed, and shall furnish such other information, accounts and statements as the town council may direct. (1937, c. 44)

§ 54. The town treasurer shall annually submit to the town council, within fifteen days after the close of the fiscal year, a full and detailed account of all receipts and disbursements made during the fiscal year just closed. (1937, c. 44)

(1937, c. 44)

§ 56. The treasurer shall keep a separate account of each fund and appropriation and the debits and credits belonging thereto; provided, however, that the council shall have the right to require all town funds to be deposited to the credit of the town and may prescribe by resolution or ordinance such other method of disbursement as it shall from time to time deem proper. (1937, c. 44)

§ 57. All moneys received on all special assessments shall be held by the treasurer as a special fund, to be applied to the payment of the matter for which the assessment was made and said moneys shall be used for no other purpose. (1937, c. 44)

§ 58. The treasurer shall perform such additional duties as may be required of him by the council not inconsistent with the laws of the State. (1937, c. 44)

§ 59. The town treasurer shall receive for his services such compensation, if any, as the council may deem proper. (1937, c. 44)

§ 60. The council may at any time in its discretion combine the duties of town treasurer, or any part of such duties, with those of the duties of town manager, or with the town's finance director, and if and when the council places the duties of the town treasurer, or any part of such duties, upon the town manager or with the finance director, the town manager, or the finance director, as the case may be, shall have all of the power, authority, duties, obligations and responsibilities which are set forth in this act for the town treasurer to the extent of the combination of the duties of town treasurer with the duties of town manager by the town council. (1937, c. 44; 2018, cc. 328, 329)

Chapter VIII. Town Planning.

§ 61. The council may adopt a town plan, showing the streets, highways, and parks heretofore laid out, adopted, and established, and such town plan shall be final with respect to the location, length, and width of such streets and highways, and the location and dimensions of such parks. Such town plan is hereby declared to be established for the promotion of the health, safety, and general welfare. Upon the adoption of the town plan, or any amendment thereto, a certificate to that effect, together with a plat, shall be filed immediately with the clerk of every county affected by such town plan or amendment. (1937, c. 44)

§ 62. The council is hereby authorized to appoint a town planning commission, fix the number and terms of members, remove any member for cause, fill any vacancies, which may occur, and provide for the powers and duties of such commission, not in conflict with the provisions of this act. (1937, c. 44)

§ 63. The council may at any time, after a public hearing, amend the town plan, including, but not limited to, widening, relocating, or closing existing streets and highways, and by altering any existing park or by laying out new streets and highways and establishing new parks. Before amending the town plan, the council shall refer the proposed amendment to the town planning commission for a report thereon, and shall not act on such amendment until a report has been received from said commission, unless a period of thirty days has elapsed after the date of reference to the commission. Any amendment of the town plan, upon its adoption by the council, shall be final unless changed as herein provided as to the location, length, and width of any street and highway, and the location and dimensions of any park. Any widening, relocating, closing or laying out of streets and highways proposed under the provisions of law other than those contained in this article shall be deemed an amendment of the town plan, and shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of this chapter. (1937, c. 44; 2018, cc. 328, 329)

§ 64. No plat showing a new street or highway within the town, shall be filed or recorded in the office of the clerk of the town or of any county until such plat has been approved by the council. Before giving any approval, the council shall refer every such plat to the town planning commission for a report, and shall not act on any plat so referred until a report has been received from the commission, unless a period of forty-five days has elapsed after the date of reference to the commission. Before reporting to the council on any plat, the commission shall hold a public hearing thereon. If any plat is disapproved by the commission, it shall report the reasons for such disapproval to the council. The council shall not approve any plat unless the streets and highways provided in such plats are of sufficient width, of proper grades, and suitably located to meet the probable traffic needs; to afford adequate light, air, and access of fire apparatus to such buildings as may be erected along the proposed streets and highways; and to insure healthful conditions on the land adjacent to such streets and highways. The council may, in appropriate cases, require that a plat, before being approved, shall provide adequate open spaces for parks, playgrounds or other recreational uses; but the inclusion of such open spaces upon a plat does not require their dedication to public use. After a plat has been approved by the council, the streets, highways, parks and other open spaces shall be a part of the town plan. The council, after a public hearing, may adopt general regulations in regard to the filing of plats. (1937, c. 44 )

§ 64. (a) Before approving such plat, and thereby accepting the dedication of the streets, alleys, parks and public places thereon, the council shall require that the streets and alleys thereon shall be properly laid out and located with reference to the topography of the land so platted and the adjoining lands, both as to connections and widths, which widths of such streets and alleys shall be plainly marked in figures or written on such plat, and which streets and alleys shall be laid out in harmony with the general plan of the town.

(b) Before approving such plat, and thereby accepting the dedication of the streets and alleys thereon, the council shall require the owner thereof to execute and deliver to the Town of Front Royal a release and waiver of any claim or claims for damages which such owner, his heirs, successors or assigns may have or acquire against the Town of Front Royal by reason of establishing proper grade lines on and along such streets and alleys and by reason of doing necessary grading or filling for the purpose of placing such streets and alleys upon the proper grade and releasing the Town of Front Royal from building any retaining wall or walls along the streets and alleys and property lines; and the council may require such release and waiver to be written and executed on said plat and recorded therewith or by an instrument of writing to be executed and recorded in the clerk's office of the circuit court of Warren County

The council may, in its discretion, require the owner of such platted lands to submit profiles of such streets and alleys, showing the contour thereof, together with proper grade lines laid thereon, and if and when the council is satisfied that the proper grade lines are laid on such profiles, the profiles shall be approved by the council and recorded by the owner or at his expense in the record of the profiles of the streets and alleys of the town, and the council may, in its discretion, require such release and waiver to be made with reference thereto.

(c) Before approving any such plat of any subdivision of lots or lands the town council may, at its discretion, require the owner of such lot or lands to grade the streets and alleys therein, according to grade lines approved and established by the council. (1937, c. 44; 2018, cc. 328, 329)

§ 65. For the purpose of preserving the integrity of the plan, no permit shall hereafter be issued for the construction of any building within the street lines of any mapped street or highway, as laid down in the town plan, within the town. (1937, c. 44; 2018, cc. 328, 329)

§ 66. If such town plan is adopted, no public sewer, water pipe, or other public utility shall be laid and no grading or paving shall be done by the town in any street or highway in the town, unless such street or highway has been placed upon the town plan by the council. No permit shall be issued for any building in the town unless such building is located adjacent to a street or highway which has been placed upon the town plan by the council. Provided, however, where the literal enforcement of the provisions of this section would result in practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship, or where the nature or use of the proposed building does not require its location to be adjacent to a street or highway, the board of appeals, by a majority vote of all its members, may issue a permit for a building, upon such condition as the board may deem necessary to preserve the integrity of the town plan and to insure the proper location of future streets and highways in the town and the surrounding area. Any decisions of the board of appeals, rendered under the provisions of this section, shall be subject to the same court review as provided for zoning decisions of the board. (1937, c. 44)

§ 3.07. Clerk to the council.

The council shall appoint a clerk to the council for an indefinite term. He shall keep the journal of the council's proceedings and shall record all ordinances in a book kept for that purpose and shall record same in the clerk's office of the circuit court of the city of Hampton. He shall be the custodian of the corporate seal of the city and shall be the officer authorized to use and authenticate it. He shall receive such compensation as clerk to the council as may be determined by the council. (1979, c. 167)

§ 3.08. Powers of city council.

All powers of the city of Hampton as a body politic and corporate shall be vested in the council except as otherwise provided in this charter. The council shall be the policy-determining body of the city and shall be vested with all the rights and powers conferred on councils in cities of the first class, not inconsistent with this charter. In addition to the foregoing, the council shall have the following powers:

A. To have full power to inquire into the official conduct of any office or officer under its control, and to investigate the accounts, receipts, disbursements, and expenses of any city officer; for these purposes it may subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, and require the production of books, papers, and other evidence; and in case any witness fails or refuses to obey any such lawful order of the council, he shall be deemed guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

B. To provide for the performance of all the governmental functions of the city and to that end to provide for and set up all departments and agencies of government that shall be necessary. Whenever it is not designated in this charter what officer or employee of the city shall exercise any power or perform any duty conferred upon or required of the city, or any officer thereof, by general law, then any such power shall be exercised or duly performed by that officer or employee of the city so designated by ordinance or resolution of the council. Any activity which is not assigned by the provisions of this charter to specific departments or agencies of the city government shall, upon recommendation of the city manager, be assigned by the council to the appropriate department or agency. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this charter, the council may, upon recommendation of the city manager, create, abolish, reassign, transfer, or combine any city functions, activities, or departments by ordinance.

C. After the close of each fiscal year the council shall cause to be made an independent audit of the accounts, books, records, and financial transactions of the city by the auditor of public accounts of the Commonwealth or by a firm of independent certified public accountants to be selected by the council. The report of such audit shall be filed within such time as the council shall specify and one copy thereof shall be always available for public inspection in the office of the clerk to the council during regular business hours.

D. Either the council or the city manager may at any time order an examination or audit of the accounts of any officer or department of the city government. Upon the retirement, death, resignation, removal, or expiration of the term of the city manager, director of finance, commissioner of revenue, or city treasurer, the director shall cause an audit and investigation of the accounts of such officer to be made and shall report the results thereof to the city manager and the council. If as a result of any such audit, an officer be found indebted to the city, the council shall proceed forthwith to collect such indebtedness.

E. The council shall by ordinance define and establish a classification plan and fix a schedule of compensation for all city officers and employees other than the constitutional officers, which shall provide uniform compensation for like services.

F. To prescribe the amount and condition of surety bonds to be required of such officers and employees of the city as the council may prescribe.

G. The council may request by resolution that the circuit court for the city order a referendum held on any question set forth in such resolution. The results of the vote on the referendum shall be binding on council and shall be final on the question. The referendum shall be held and the result ascertained in accordance with applicable general law. The council may instead request that a referendum be nonbinding on the council and for advisory purposes only. There shall be no recount of the results of an advisory referendum. (1979, c. 167; 1981, c. 617; 1996, c. 311)

§ 3.09. Redevelopment and Housing Authority.

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, there shall be seven commissioners of the Hampton Redevelopment and Housing Authority.

Commissioners shall hold their offices at the pleasure of the council for a term not to exceed four years; provided, however, the council may at any time, and from time to time, adopt an ordinance terminating the term of all the commissioners and designating itself the commissioners of the authority. In that event, notwithstanding the provisions of § 3.11 to the contrary, a council member shall receive no compensation for serving as a commissioner nor shall he continue to serve as a commissioner after he ceases to be a member of council.

The council may at any time repeal such ordinance designating itself the commissioners and appoint residents of the city to serve as the commissioners.

The establishment and organization of the Hampton Redevelopment and Housing Authority heretofore established under the provisions of this charter, together with all proceedings, acts, and things heretofore undertaken are hereby validated, ratified, and confirmed. (1979, c. 167)

§ 3.10. Compensation of members of any authority.

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the council of the city may authorize the compensation of each member of any authority, board, agency, or commission, including the housing authority or planning commission, created by the council of the city of Hampton and existing in the city to be compensated in an amount not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars per month and such amount shall be deemed to be a part of the operating expense of such authority, board, agency, or commission. (1979, c. 167)

§ 3.11. Appointment of civil service employees of federal government to boards, commissions, and authorities.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, civil service employees of the federal government, residing within the city, may be appointed to, and serve on, all boards, commissions, and authorities appointed by the city council. (1979, c. 167)

§ 3.12. Limitation of terms on certain appointments.

No person, except a member of council, officer, or employee of the city, who is to be appointed to a term exceeding one year by the city council shall be eligible to serve more than two complete terms in succession and the portion of an unexpired term occurring by reason of a vacancy. (1979, c. 167)

Chapter 3A. Recall, Initiative and Referendum.

Recall.

§ 3A-1. Procedure.

Any member of the council may be recalled and removed from office by the electors by the following procedure: A petition for the recall for the member or members designated, signed by electors equal in number to at least ten percent of the number of electors who cast their vote at the last preceding regular councilmanic election and containing a statement of factual reasons of not more than two hundred words of the grounds of the recall, shall be filed with the clerk to the council. Within fifteen days of the date such petition was filed the clerk shall have the general registrar of the city certify that the petition has the number of signatures of electors required to meet the above mentioned percentage. If the petition contains the required number of signatures, the clerk shall forthwith notify the member or members sought to be removed, and such member or members may, within ten days after such notice, file with the clerk a defensive statement of not more than two hundred words. The clerk shall, immediately upon the expiration of ten days, cause sufficient printed or typewritten copies of such petition, without the signatures, to be made, and to each of them he shall attach a printed or typewritten copy of such defensive statement or statements, if any such shall have been furnished him within the time provided. He shall preserve the original petition and any defensive statements in his office. He shall cause a copy of such petition with a copy of any defensive statement to be placed in the office of the general registrar of the city, who shall provide facilities for signing the petition and for the proper custody thereof. The clerk shall immediately cause notice to be published in some newspaper of general circulation in the city, of the place where the copies may be found, and of the time in which the same may be signed.

The petition shall remain on file in the place designated for a period of thirty days, during which time it may be signed by electors of the city, including those who signed the original petition.

At the expiration of said period of thirty days, the clerk shall assemble all of the copies, and shall file the same as one instrument with the clerk of the circuit court of the city, who shall examine the same and ascertain and certify thereon whether the persons whose names are signed thereto are electors of the city, equal in number of twenty-five percent of the number of electors who cast their vote at the last preceding regular councilmanic election; provided, however, the clerk of circuit court shall have the general registrar to certify which names on the petition are electors before certifying any petition himself. The general registrar and the clerk of the circuit court shall make their certifications within fifteen days of the date of filing. If such signatures do amount to such percentage, the clerk of the circuit court of the city shall at once serve notice of that fact upon the member or the members designated in the petition. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-2. Recall election.

If the member or members, or any of them, designated in such petition, file with the clerk to the council, within five days after the last mentioned notice from the clerk of the circuit court of the city, his or their written resignation or resignations, the clerk to the council shall at once notify the clerk of the circuit court of the city of that fact, and such resignation or resignations shall be irrevocable, and shall be filed and preserved in the offices of the clerk to the council, and the council shall proceed to fill the vacancy or vacancies, subject to the provisions of § 3.02 of this charter. In the absence of notice from the clerk to the council that such resignation or resignations have been filed, as aforesaid, the clerk of the circuit court of the city shall, upon the expiration of said period of five days, forthwith present to the court the copies with his certificate as to the percentage of electors whose names are signed thereto, and a certificate as to the date of the service of the notice given by him to the member or members designated in the petition, as above provided. And thereupon the court shall forthwith enter an order calling and fixing a date for holding a recall election for the removal of the member or members named in the petition, who have not resigned as aforesaid. Any such election shall be held in accordance with the provisions of § 24.1-165 of the Code of Virginia. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-3. Ballots and effect of voting.

The ballots of such recall election shall provide, with respect to each person whose removal is sought, the following question: "Shall (name of person) be removed from the office of councilman by recall?"

In all other respects the election shall be held in accordance with general law.

In any election if the majority of the votes cast on the question of the removal of any member are affirmative, such member shall be deemed removed from office upon the ascertainment and certification of the results of such election as in other special elections, and the vacancy or vacancies caused by such recall shall be filled by the remainder of the council, according to the provisions of § 3.02 of this charter. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-4. Effect of resignations pending proceedings for the recall of the whole council.

No proceedings for the recall of all of the members of the council at the same election shall be defeated in whole or in part by the resignation of any of them or all of them, but in any such case upon the resignation of any of them, the remaining members of council or if all members of council resign, then the judges of the circuit court, as provided for in § 3.02 of this charter, shall have the power, and it shall be their duty forthwith, to fill such vacancy or vacancies temporarily until successors are elected, and the proceedings for the recall and the election of successors shall continue and have the same effect as though there had been no resignation. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-5. Miscellaneous provisions.

No petition to recall any member shall be filed within one year after he assumes the duties of his office.

The method of removal herein provided shall not be deemed or held exclusive, but is in addition to such other methods as are now or may hereafter be provided by general law. (1981, c. 366)

Initiative.

§ 3A-6. Procedure.

Any proposed ordinance or ordinances, including ordinances for the repeal or amendment of an existing ordinance, may be submitted to the council by petition signed by electors equal in number to ten percent of the number of electors who cast their votes at the last preceding regular councilmanic election. Such petition shall contain the proposed ordinance in full, and shall have appended thereto or written thereon the names and addresses of at least five electors, who shall be officially regarded as filing the petition, and who shall constitute a committee of petitioners for the purposes hereinafter stated. An affidavit signed by the committee of petitioners shall be attached to the petition stating the date the petition was first circulated.

All papers comprising the petition shall be assembled and filed with the clerk of the council, as one instrument, within one hundred twenty days from the date stated in the affidavit that the petition was first circulated. Within fifteen days of the date the petition is filed, the clerk shall have the general registrar of the city certify that the petition has the number of signatures of electors required to meet the above mentioned percentage. After the general registrar has certified that the number of signatures of electors meets the required percentage, the clerk shall submit the petition to the council at its next regular meeting, and provisions shall be made for public hearings upon the proposed ordinance. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-7. Petition for election.

The council shall at once proceed to consider such petition and shall take final action thereon within sixty days from the date of the submission thereof. If the council rejects the proposed ordinance, or passes it in a form different from that set forth in the petition, or fails to act finally upon it within the time stated, the committee of the petitioners may require that it be submitted to a vote of the electors in its original form, or that it be submitted to a vote of the electors with any proposed change, addition or amendment, by the following procedure: The committee shall present to the clerk of the circuit court of the city a petition for such election, addressed to the court and signed by electors equal in number to twenty-five percent of the number of electors who cast their votes at the last preceding regular councilmanic election, but in no case signed by less than four thousand electors of the city. The petition shall contain the proposed ordinance in full in the form in which it is to be submitted to the electors. The petition and all copies thereof shall be filed with the clerk as one instrument. Within fifteen days after the filing thereof the clerk shall examine the same and ascertain and certify thereon whether the persons whose names are signed thereto are electors of the city, equal in number to twenty-five percent of the number of electors who cast their votes at the last preceding regular councilmanic election; provided, however, the clerk of the circuit court shall have the general registrar certify which names on a petition are electors before certifying any petition himself. The general registrar and the clerk of the circuit court shall make their certifications within fifteen days of the date of filing. If it be found that the required number of electors have signed the petition, then the petition, with the certificate of the clerk thereon, shall be presented by the committee to the circuit court of the city, and thereupon the court shall forthwith enter an order calling and fixing a date for holding an election for the purpose of submitting the proposed ordinance to the electors of the city. Any such election shall be in accordance with § 24.1-165 of the Code of Virginia. At least ten days before any such election, the clerk of the court shall cause such proposed ordinance to be published once in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the city. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-8. Ballots and effect of voting.

The ballots at such election shall conform to § 24.1-165 of the Code of Virginia. With respect to each ordinance whose adoption, amendment, or repeal is sought, the following question shall be submitted: "Shall the ordinance entitled (title of ordinance) be (either adopted, amended, or repealed, as appropriate)?"

If a majority of the electors voting on such proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, the proposed ordinance, upon the ascertainment and certification of the results of such election as in other special elections, shall become an ordinance of the city. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-9. Ordinances adopted by the electors; how amended or repealed.

No ordinance adopted by the vote of electors, as herein provided, shall be repealed or amended, except by vote of the electors; but the circuit court of the city may, on request of the council, by resolution, order that a proposed ordinance repealing or amending any ordinance so adopted be submitted to the electors at any election, or any special municipal election called for some other purpose, provided that the clerk of the court shall cause notice of the proposed submission of such proposed ordinance repealing or amending such ordinance, to be published once in one or more newspapers of the city not less than ten days prior to the election. If an amendment is proposed, the notice shall contain the proposed amendment in full, and the ballot shall be in the same form and the vote shall have the same effect as in the case of an ordinance submitted to election by popular petition. The ballots and effect of voting shall be as provided in § 3A-8 of this charter. (1981, c. 366)

Referendum.

§ 3A-10. Petition for referendum.

If at any time within a thirty-day period following the adoption of an ordinance, a petition, signed by electors equal in number to twenty-five percent of the number of electors who cast their votes at the last preceding regular councilmanic election, but in no case signed by less than four thousand electors of the city, be filed with the clerk to the council, requesting that any such ordinance be repealed, or amended, as stated in the petition, such ordinance shall not become operative until the steps indicated herein shall have been taken or the time allowed for taking such steps shall have elapsed without action. Such petition shall state therein the names and addresses of at least five electors, who shall be officially regarded as filing the petition, and who shall constitute a committee of petitioners for the purposes hereinafter stated. Referendum petitions shall contain the text of the ordinance or ordinances, the amendment or repeal of which is sought, and shall contain the proposed amendment, if an amendment is demanded. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-11. Procedures.

The clerk to the council shall present the petition to the council at its next regular meeting, and thereupon the council shall consider the ordinance. If, within sixty days after filing of such petition, the ordinance is not repealed or amended as requested in such petition, the clerk to the council shall, if so requested by a writing signed by a majority of the committee and presented to the clerk to the council within twenty days after the expiration of sixty days, present to the clerk of the circuit court of the city, the petition and all copies thereof as one instrument together with a copy of the ordinance the repeal or amendment of which is sought. The clerk of the circuit court of the city shall examine the petition and ascertain and certify thereon whether the persons whose names are signed thereto are electors of the city, equal in number to twenty-five percent of the number of electors who cast their votes at the last preceding regular councilmanic election; provided, however, the clerk of the circuit court shall have the general registrar to certify which names on a petition are electors before certifying any petition himself. The general registrar and the clerk of the circuit court shall make their certifications within fifteen days of the date of filing. If such signatures do amount to such percentage, the committee shall present the petition to the circuit court of the city, and thereupon the said court shall forthwith enter an order calling and fixing a date for holding an election for the purpose of submitting the ordinance to the electors of the city. Thereupon the ordinance shall ipso facto be further suspended from going into effect until such election shall have been held and shall then be deemed repealed or amended upon the approval by a majority of those voting thereon. Any such election shall be held in accordance with § 24.1-165 of the Code of Virginia. At least ten days before any such election the clerk of the court shall cause the ordinance to be published once in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the city.

The ballots used when voting upon such ordinance shall conform in all respects to the ballots required for an initiative election under § 3A-8 hereof, and the method of voting in any such election shall be as prescribed in said section.

If in any such election the ordinance so referred or submitted be approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, the said ordinance shall, upon the ascertainment and certification of the results of such election as in other special elections, go into effect as an ordinance of the city. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-12. Conflict of ordinances.

If two or more ordinances adopted or approved at the same election conflict in respect to any of their provisions, such ordinances shall go into effect in respect to such of their provisions as are not in conflict, and the one receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail insofar as their provisions conflict. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-13. Measures not subject to referendum.

Ordinances passed providing for any work, improvement or repair certified by the city manager to be immediately necessary to protect public safety, public property, health or morals from imminent danger or protect the city from imminent loss or liability, shall not be subject to referendum. The certificate of the city manager in any such case shall be conclusive. Any ordinance adopted to authorize revenue levies shall not be subject to referendum. All other ordinances unless exempted by law shall be subject to referendum. (1981, c. 366)

General Provisions Relating to Initiative, Referendum and Recall.

§ 3A-14. Elections.

All municipal elections shall be conducted and the results canvassed and certified by the regular election officials provided by the general election laws of the State; and, except as otherwise provided by this charter, all such elections shall be governed by the general election laws. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-15. Petitions.

All petitions referred to in this charter shall be signed in ink or indelible pencil by the elector in person and not by agent or attorney. Each person signing any such petition shall print opposite his signature his full name and his place of residence by street and number. The signatures to any such petition need not all be appended to one paper, but to each such paper (except in the case of copies of recall petitions, which may not be circulated) there shall be attached an affidavit by the circulator thereof stating that each signature appended thereto is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be and that it was made in the presence of the affiant. All copies of any such petition shall be treated as originals. No such petition shall be deemed invalid by reason of the fact that it is signed by one or more persons who are not electors, but the names of such persons shall not be counted. As used in this charter the terms "elector," "qualified elector," "registered voter," and "qualified voter" are synonymous. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-16. Presumptions.

All signatures to any petition referred to in this charter shall be accepted and treated as prima facie genuine. For the purpose of certifying the number of electors whose names are signed to any such petition the clerk of the circuit court of the city shall presume that any person whose name appears thereon is an elector if such person be an elector within the meaning of § 3A-13 hereof. All such petitions substantially complying with the requirements of this charter and certified by the clerk of the circuit court to bear the required number of signatures of electors shall be accepted and treated as prima facie sufficient. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-17. Qualifications of persons signing certain petitions.

Any person shall be deemed to be an elector for the purpose of signing any petition referred to in this charter if the name of such person is on the registration books maintained by the general registrar of the city on the date such petition is filed with the appropriate official. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-18. Duty of city attorney.

Before any ordinance or amendment proposed by popular petition shall be submitted to the council, it shall first be approved as to form, by the city attorney, whose duty it shall be to draft such proposed ordinance or amendment in proper legal language, and to render such other service to persons desiring to propose such ordinances or amendments as shall be necessary to make the same proper for consideration by the council. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-19. Offenses.

No person shall:

- A. Falsely impersonate another in the signing of any nominating petition or petition for the initiative, referendum or recall, or forge any name thereto or deface, destroy, or remove from any of the places designated in this charter, any copy of a petition for recall with intent to interfere with or defeat such recall;

B. Sign any nominating petition or petition for initiative, referendum with knowledge that he is not a qualified voter of the city; or purposely write his name or residence falsely in the signing of any such petition; sign or intentionally permit to be signed any petition for recall at any other place than one of the places hereinbefore designated for the signing of such petitions; employ or pay another or accept employment on the basis of the number of signatures subscribed thereto, for circulating any petition permitted by this charter to be circulated.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

The foregoing provisions shall not be deemed or held to be exclusive of, but in addition to, all laws of the State prescribing penalties for the same offenses, or for other offenses relating to the same matter. (1981, c. 366)

§ 3A-20. Compensation of clerk of the circuit court.

For his services in connection with any proceedings under the foregoing sections relating to the initiative, referendum and recall, the clerk of the circuit court of said city shall be paid by the city such reasonable fees as are now or may hereafter be provided by law for similar services in other cases. (1981, c. 366)

Chapter 4. City Manager.

§ 4.01. Appointment, tenure, compensation, and residence.

He shall be the chief administrative and executive officer of the city and shall devote his full time to the work of the city. No member of the council shall, during the time for which he has been elected, or for one year thereafter, be chosen city manager, nor shall the managerial powers be given to a person who at the same time is filling an elective office.

The city manager shall not be appointed for a definite tenure, but shall be removable at the pleasure of the council. The council may suspend him from office, provided that the period of suspension shall be limited to thirty days. The action of the council in suspending or removing the city manager shall not be subject to review.

In case of the absence or disability of the city manager, the council may designate some qualified person to perform the duties of the office. (1979, c. 167)

§ 4.02. Powers and duties.

The city manager shall be responsible to the council for the proper administration of all the affairs of the city which the council has authority to control. As the administrative and executive head of the city government, he shall be responsible to the council for guarding adequately all expenditures; securing proper accounting for all funds; looking after the physical property of the city; exercising general

- A. The city manager shall appoint heads of departments and all officers and employees in the administrative service of the city, except as otherwise provided in this charter, and shall appoint subordinates in such departments and agencies. All appointments shall be on the basis of ability, training and experience of the appointees which fit them for the work they are to perform. All appointments shall be without definite term. Any officer or employee of the city appointed by the city manager, or upon his authorization, may be laid off, suspended or removed from office or employment either by the manager or by the officer by whom he was appointed.
- B. The city manager may, with the consent of the council, act as the director or head of one or more departments of the city, provided he is otherwise eligible to head such department or departments, and, in the case of those officers whose appointments must be approved, his appointment is likewise approved.
- C. With the approval of the council the city manager shall, subject to the limitations of § 3.08 E, fix the compensation of all officers and employees whom he or a subordinate may appoint or employ.
- D. The city manager shall enforce all resolutions and orders of the council and see that all laws of the State required to be enforced through the council or other city officers subject to the control of the council are faithfully executed.
- E. He shall attend all meetings of the council and have the right to take part in all discussions, to present his views on all matters coming before the council, and to recommend such action as he may deem expedient. He shall have no vote.
- F. He shall submit to the council each year a proposed annual budget, with his recommendations and execute the budget as finally adopted.
- G. He shall make regular monthly reports to the council in regard to matters of administration and keep the council fully advised as to the financial condition of the city.
- H. He shall examine regularly the books and papers of every officer and department of the city and report to the council the condition in which he finds them. He may order an audit of any officer at any time.
- I. All fines and forfeitures, fees and costs, imposed, assessed or taxed by the courts of the said city, for violation of the city ordinances, may be collected by such members of the police department or other persons as may be designated by the city manager with the approval of the council to collect same, who shall furnish bond with surety as fixed and approved by the council.

J. The city manager shall perform such other duties as may be imposed upon him by the council.
(1979, c. 167)

§ 4.03. Absence.

To perform the duties of the city manager in the event of his temporary absence, disability, death, or resignation, the council may, by resolution, appoint an officer of the city or any person other than a member of council to perform the duties of manager until said manager returns to duty or his successor is duly appointed. (1979, c. 167)

Chapter 5. City Attorney.

§ 5.01. Establishment of legal department; qualifications; composition; terms; powers and duties, etc.

There shall be a legal department which shall be headed by the city attorney, who shall be an attorney at law licensed to practice under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. He shall be appointed by the council and shall serve at its pleasure. The legal department shall consist of the city attorney and such other employees as may be provided by ordinance.

The city attorney shall be the chief legal advisor of the council, the city manager and of all departments, boards, commissions and agencies of the city, including the school board, in all matters affecting the interests of the city. He shall represent the city in all legal proceedings including the prosecution of violations of city ordinances. He shall make such investigation into any affairs of the city as the city manager or council shall direct. It shall be his duty to perform all services incident to his position as may be required by the laws of the Commonwealth, this charter, or by ordinance. He shall have general management and control of the department. (1979, c. 167; 2007, cc. 244, 275)

Chapter 6. Financial Administration.

§ 6.01. Department of finance.

There shall be a department of finance which shall be under the supervision of a director of finance, appointed by the city manager, and which shall include the city treasurer and the city commissioner of the revenue and their respective offices, insofar as said inclusion is not inconsistent with the Constitution and general laws of this Commonwealth. (1979, c. 167)

§ 6.02. Director of finance; appointment and qualifications.

§ 6.06. Real estate assessment department; office of assessor of real estate; board of review of real estate assessments; real estate assessment and reassessment generally.

The city council may, in lieu of the method now prescribed by law, provide by ordinance for the annual assessment and reassessment and equalization of assessments of real estate for local taxation. To that end there may be established a city real estate assessment department to be known as the "office of the assessor of real estate" and the city manager shall appoint the head of such department and such department shall assess all such real estate for taxation and equalize such assessments. The budget for the city real estate assessment department shall be as provided by the city council.

All duties imposed and all powers conferred by law on the commissioner of the revenue with respect to the assessment of real estate, including but not limited to the preparation of the land book, shall be transferred to the assessment department established as herein provided. In the preparation of the tax bills, the assessment department and the city treasurer, respectively, may avail themselves of the services of the data processing department of the city.

Should it come to the knowledge of the city collector of taxes that any person, firm, or corporation owing taxes or levies to the city is moving or contemplating moving therefrom prior to the time said penalty must be added by the council, he shall have the right to collect taxes by distress, garnishment, suit, or action or otherwise at any time after such bills for taxes have come into his hands. or any of them, or any other property owned by the town, in the manner provided by law, whenever the council deems it expedient to do so.

He shall be entitled to a vote, but shall possess no veto power. He shall be recognized as the official head of the city for all ceremonial purposes, by the courts for the purpose of serving civil process, and by the Governor for military purposes. He may use the title of mayor in any case in which the execution of contracts or other legal instruments in writing, or other necessity arising from general laws of the Commonwealth may so require; but this shall not be construed as conferring upon him the administrative or judicial functions, or other powers or functions, of a mayor, under the general law of the Commonwealth. In time of public danger or emergency, he may, with the consent of the council, take command of the police and maintain order and enforce the laws, and for this purpose may deputize such special policemen as may be necessary. During his absence or disability his duties shall be performed by the vice-president of the council.

The powers and duties of the president of the council shall be such as are conferred upon him by this charter, and by general law, together with such others as may be conferred by the council in pursuance of the provisions of general law and of this charter. (1950, c. 431)

§ 6. The council shall have power, subject to the provisions of this charter, to adopt its own rules of procedure. Such rules shall provide for the time and place of holding regular meetings of the council, which shall not be less frequently than one in each month. They shall also provide for the calling of special meetings by the mayor, the city manager, or any member of the council, and shall prescribe the method of giving notice thereof, provided that the notice of each special meeting shall contain a statement of the specific item or items of business to be transacted and no other business shall be transacted at such meetings except by the unanimous consent of all members of the council.

No ordinance, resolution, motion or vote shall be adopted by the council except at a meeting open to the public, and except motions to adjourn, to fix the time and place of adjournments, and other motions of a purely procedural nature, and except where the public interests may require executive sessions.

No member of the council shall participate in the vote on any ordinance, resolution, motion or vote in which he, or any person, firm or corporation for which he is attorney, officer, director, or agent, has a financial interest other than as a minority stockholder of a corporation, or as a citizen of the city. (1950, c. 431)

§ 7. All ordinances and resolutions passed by the council shall be in effect from and after thirty days from the date of their passage, except that the council may by the affirmative vote of five of its members pass emergency measures to take effect at the time indicated therein. Ordinances appropriating money for any emergency may be passed as emergency measures, but no measure providing for the sale or lease of city property, or making a grant, renewal or extension of a franchise or other special privilege, or regulating the rates to be charged for any public utilities shall be so passed. (1950, c. 431; 2016, cc. 154, 313)

§ 8. Legislative procedure. Except in dealing with questions of parliamentary procedure the council shall act only by ordinance or resolution, and all ordinances except ordinances making appropriations, or authorizing the contracting of indebtedness or the issuance of bonds or other evidences of debt, shall be confined to one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title. Ordinances making appropriations or authorizing the contracting of indebtedness or the issuance of bonds or other obligations and appropriating the money to be raised thereby shall be confined to those subjects respectively.

The enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the council shall be, "Be it ordained by the council of the City of Hopewell." No ordinance unless it be an emergency measure, shall be passed until it has been read at two regular meetings not less than one week apart, or the requirement of such reading has been dispensed with by the affirmative vote of five of the members of the council. No ordinance or section thereof shall be revised or amended by its title or section number only, but the new ordinance shall contain the entire ordinance or section as revised or amended. The ayes and nays shall be taken upon the passage of all ordinances or resolutions and entered upon the journal of the proceedings of the council and every ordinance or resolution shall require, on final passage, the affirmative vote of at least four of the members. No member shall be excused from voting except on matters involving the consideration of his official conduct, or where his financial or personal interests are involved.

In authorizing the making of any public improvement, or the acquisition of real estate or any interest therein, or authorizing the contracting of indebtedness or the issuance of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness (except temporary loans in anticipation of taxes or revenues or of the sale of bonds lawfully authorized), or authorizing the sale of any property or rights in property of the City of Hopewell, or granting any public utility, franchise, privilege, lease or right of any kind to use public property or easement of any description or any renewal, amendment or extension thereof, the council shall act only by ordinance; provided, however, that after any such ordinance shall have taken effect, all subsequent proceedings incident thereto and providing for the carrying out of the purposes of such ordinance may, except as otherwise provided in this charter, be taken by resolution of the council. (1950, c. 431; 2016, cc. 154, 313)

§ 9. A record of all ordinances and resolutions shall be kept by the city clerk and authenticated by the signature of the presiding officer and of the said clerk, and when so made shall be prima facie evidence of the terms thereof and may be read as evidence in all legal and other proceedings in which the same shall be necessary. (1950, c. 431)

(10) The council may adopt rules for regulating its proceedings, but no tax shall be levied or corporate debt contracted except by a vote of two-thirds of the council, four votes being counted as two-thirds, which vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and recorded in the minute book. It may appoint such committees as may be deemed proper for the transaction of business, and may compel attendance of absent members.

(11) The council may require the mayor to communicate to it annually as soon after the close of the fiscal year, or oftener, if necessary, a general statement of the condition of the town in relation to its government, finances and improvements, with such recommendations as he or she may deem proper. He or she shall exercise a constant supervision over the conduct of all subordinate officers, have power and authority to investigate their acts, have access to all books and documents in their offices, and may examine such officer on oath. He or she shall have power to suspend all officers appointed by the council until the next regular meeting of the council, but such suspension shall in all cases be for misconduct in office or neglect of duty, to be specified in the order of suspension. In case of suspension of any officer the mayor shall submit a written report of the same to the council at its next regular meeting, or any meeting called for that purpose, specifically designating the charge against the officer and reasons for dismissal, and in case of suspension by the mayor, he or she shall have power to appoint some other person in his or her place to hold such office and perform the duties thereof until the next regular meeting of the council. Before entering upon the discharge of his or her duties the treasurer shall give bond with sufficient surety to be approved by the council, in the penalty of such amount as may be fixed by the council from time to time, payable to the town of Hurt, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of the duties of his or her office. The treasurer shall be responsible for the collection of all taxes, licenses, and levies and charges for services furnished by the public utilities of the town. The council shall have the authority to place in the hands of a town collector to be designated by it, the collection of any taxes, licenses and other levies at any time if in the discretion of the council it shall be proper so to do.

(2) The town treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to the town which it is his or her duty to collect from persons owing the same to the town, or which it is the duty of other officers of the town to collect and pay over to him or her, and pay the same out as ordinances of the town may prescribe; to keep all such moneys safely, and account therefor; and to pay all drafts and orders made on him or her in conformity with ordinances of the town.

(3) The funds of the town shall be deposited by the treasurer in such bank or banks as the council may direct, and such bank or banks may be required to give security in such sum or sums as the council shall fix. He or she shall keep books showing accurately the date of his or her accounts and the money of the town shall be kept distinct and separate from his or her own money, and he or she is prohibited expressly from using directly or indirectly the town's money for his or her own benefit, or the benefit of any other person or persons whomsoever, and any violation of this provision shall subject him or her to immediate removal from office and criminal prosecution.

He or she shall also, when required by the council, accompany such account with a statement of all moneys received by him or her on what account with a list of checks paid by him or her during the month closed, and shall furnish such other information as the council may direct, and at all times the accounts and books of the treasurer shall be open to inspection by the mayor and council, and to any other person or persons appointed by the council to inspect the same.

(5) All taxes, levies and other sums of money received by the town treasurer belonging to the town of Hurt, shall be credited on the books of the treasurer, and paid out by him or her only on a warrant of the clerk of the council, countersigned by the mayor, or vice mayor in absence of the mayor.

(6) The treasurer shall perform such other duties as may be required by the council, not inconsistent with the general laws of the State, and he or she shall receive for his or her services such compensation as the council may deem proper. (1966, c. 40; 2009, cc. 130, 155)

§ 7. The clerk of the council and the treasurer of the town may be one and the same person in the discretion of the council. (1966, c. 40)

(1) The council may provide for a sinking fund for the purpose of paying off as it matures any indebtedness of the town and may make an additional levy therefor, said sinking fund to be set aside and invested as provided for hereinafter.

(2) When taxes on real and personal property are collected for the year, the town treasurer shall take therefrom the necessary amount of any additional sum, if any, so set apart and deposit the same in a separate account to the credit of the sinking fund in such bank or banks as the council may designate. All sinking funds shall be used exclusively in the payment or purchase and redemption of outstanding bonds of the town, and when such funds are not required or may not within a reasonable time be required for payment of any bond of the town or cannot be used to advantage in purchasing and redemption of any bonds of the town which might at any time be outstanding, the same shall be securely invested in interest bearing municipal State or government bonds, or invested in any security approved by the general laws of the State of Virginia for investment of such funds, or deposited in bank on a reasonable rate of interest. Such sinking funds may be used in the payment or purchase and redemption of all bonds of the town at the discretion of the council.

(3) The town council shall act as the sinking fund commission or committee and shall provide for the investment, deposit and application of the funds in conformity to the provisions of this charter; and may require any bank or banks receiving on deposit its revenues or any of its sinking fund a fidelity bond or other security. (1966, c. 40)

§ 9. Taxes.

(1) In addition to all other powers mentioned in this charter and granted by general law, the town council shall have power to raise annually by taxes and assessments in the said town on all subjects of taxation which are not forbidden by general law to incorporated towns, such sums of money as the council may deem necessary for the purpose of the town, and in such manner as the council shall deem expedient, in accordance with the Constitution and laws of this State and of the United States.

(2) The town council may levy a tax or license on any person, firm or corporation pursuing or conducting any trade, business, profession, occupation, employment or calling whatsoever, within the boundaries of the town, whether a license may be required therefor by the State or not, and may exceed the State license, if any be required, except when prohibited by general law.

(3) Any payment of delinquent taxes made by the tenant, unless under express contract contained in his or her lease, shall be a credit against the person to whom he or she owes rent.

(4) The council may require owners of motor vehicles, trailers, semi-trailers, and other vehicles of any kind, residing in the town, licenses for the privilege of operating such vehicle in the town, such license to be issued and the fee therefor fixed by the town council.

(5) All goods and chattels found, may be distrained and sold for taxes assessed and due thereon, and no deed of trust or mortgage upon goods and chattels shall prevent the same from being distrained and sold for taxes.

(6) The council may add penalties for failure of any person or firm or corporation to pay taxes or licenses at the time provided for by ordinance of the council, and there shall be a lien for all taxes assessed which may be enforced as provided by general law of the State.

(7) The council may, by a two-thirds vote of the body, exempt real and personal property used for manufacturing purposes or other enterprises from all taxes for municipal purchases for a period not exceeding five years, if it deem it expedient to do so in order to encourage the establishment of such enterprise therein or thereon.

(8) The assessment of real and personal property in the town, for the purpose of municipal taxation, shall be the same as the assessment of such property for the purpose of county or State taxation, where there is a county or State assessment of such property.

(9) The council, in the name of and for the use of the town, may contract loans, incur indebtedness and cause certificates of debt or bonds to be issued, whenever two-thirds of its members by a recorded vote decide that it is to the interest of the town so to do, but such council may only borrow money to the extent prescribed by the Constitution and laws of this State. But the council shall issue no bonds or certificates of debt, except in anticipation of current revenue, until it shall have first submitted to the qualified voters of said town the question of whether or not such bonds shall be issued and a majority of the qualified voters voting at any election held for such purpose shall have voted for such issue. Such election shall be held under the provisions of the general laws of this State, except the council shall have power to call such election and fix the date thereof by ordinance, copy of which shall be published at least five days beforehand in some newspaper published in said town or having general circulation therein. The publisher of the newspaper shall certify to the publication thereof, which certification shall be recorded in the minute book of the town. The judges conducting any such election shall certify the returns to the clerk of the circuit court of Pittsylvania County and to the said council, not to the judge of the circuit court of said county.

(10) A lien shall exist on all real estate within the corporate limits for taxes, levies and assessments in favor of the town, assessed thereon from the commencement of the year for which the same were assessed and the procedure for collecting the said taxes, for selling of real estate for town taxes, and for the redemption of real estate sold for town taxes, shall be the same as provided in the general laws of the State, to the same extent as if herein fully set out. The said town and its treasurer shall have the benefit of all other additional remedies for the collection of town taxes which are now or hereafter may be granted or permitted by and under the general law. (1966, c. 40; 2009, cc. 130, 155)

§ 10. Actions against town for damages, etc.

(1) In any action against the town to recover damages against it for any negligence in the construction or maintenance of its streets, alleys, lanes, parks, public places, sewers, reservoirs, or water mains, where any person or corporation is liable with the town for such negligence, every such person or corporation shall be joined as defendant with the town in such action brought to recover damages for such negligence, and where there is a judgment or verdict against the town, as well as the other defendant, it shall be ascertained by the court or jury which of the defendants is primarily liable for the damages assessed.

(2) If it be ascertained by the judgment of the court that some person or corporation other than the town is primarily liable, there shall be a stay of execution against the town until execution against such person or persons or corporation or corporations shall have been returned without realizing the full amount of such judgment.

(3) If the town, when not primarily liable, shall pay the said judgment in whole or in part, the plaintiff shall, to the extent that the said judgment is paid by the town, assign the judgment to the town, without recourse on the plaintiff, and the town shall be entitled to have execution issued for its benefit against the other defendant or defendants who have been ascertained to be primarily liable, or may institute any suit to enforce the said judgment, or an action at law, or scire facias to revive the said judgment.

(4) No order shall be entered or made, and no injunction shall be awarded by any court or judge, to stay proceedings of the town in the prosecution of their works unless it be manifest that they, their officers, agents, or servants are transcending the authority given them in this charter, and that the interposition of the court is necessary to prevent injury that cannot be adequately compensated in damages.

(5) The council of said town is authorized and empowered to compromise any claim for damages or any suit or action brought against said town. (1966, c. 40; 2009, cc. 130, 155)

§ 11. Dedication of streets and plats thereof.

(1) No plat showing a new street or highway within the town shall be filed or recorded in the office of the clerk or of any county until such plat shall have been approved by the council or its designated agent. The council shall not approve any such plat unless the streets and highways provided for therein are of sufficient width, of proper grades and suitable located to meet the probable traffic needs, to afford adequate light, air, and access of the fire apparatus to such buildings as may be erected along the proposed streets and highways; and to insure healthful conditions on the land adjacent to such streets or highways. The council may, in appropriate cases, require that a plat before being approved shall provide adequate open space for parks, playgrounds, or other recreational uses; but the inclusion of such open spaces upon a plat does not require their dedication to public use.

(2) Before approving any such plot the town council may, at its discretion, require the owner of such land to grade the streets and alleys thereon, according to grade or grade lines approved by the council. By the acceptance of any such plat, street, alley or highway as above set out, there shall be no liability upon the town to surface such street, or to install any sewage, water, gas, lights or other improvements, until in the judgment of the council the same is required. (1966, c. 40; 2009, cc. 130, 155)

§ 12. (1) Whenever under the provisions of this charter any officer of the town or member of any board or commission is elected or appointed for a fixed term, except the mayor and vice mayor, such officer or member shall continue to hold office until his or her successor is appointed and qualified.

(2) All ordinances of the county of Pittsylvania, and all rules, regulations and orders legally made by any duly constituted authority empowered to pass such ordinances, and make such rules and regulations, insofar as they or any portion thereof are not inconsistent herewith, shall remain in force until amended or repealed in accordance with the provisions of this charter.

(3) The town of Hurt and all the officers thereof elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be clothed with all the powers and subject to all the provisions of general law not in express conflict with the provisions of this act. ### § 3. Mayor and president of council.

He shall preside over the meeting of the town council and shall have the same right to speak therein as a member of the council, but shall not vote except in the case of a tie vote. He shall have the power of veto over the ordinances and resolutions of the council, but such ordinances and resolutions may be passed over such veto by a two-thirds vote of the members of the town council present and voting. The person so elected shall possess the powers and discharge the duties of the mayor during such period of time. Whenever it is necessary to elect an acting mayor, pursuant to this section, in the absence of both the mayor and president of council, the town clerk or acting town clerk shall call the meeting of the council to order and shall preside until an acting mayor is elected. This shall not be construed to vest in the clerk any of the powers and duties of the mayor, except as expressly stated in this section. (2003, c. 867)

§ 5. Salaries of mayor, clerk-treasurer, town manager, chief of police, etc.

The council shall fix the salaries, which shall not be diminished during their terms of office, of the mayor, clerk-treasurer, town manager, chief of police and such other officers appointed or elected under this charter. (2003, c. 867)

§ 7. Compensation; expenses.

The council may determine the annual salary of its members by ordinance or resolution, but no ordinance or resolution increasing such salary shall become effective until the date of commencement of the terms of council members elected at the next regular election. Council members shall receive their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties of office. (2003, c. 867)

§ 8. Prohibitions.

(a) Holding other office. Except as otherwise authorized by law, a member of council shall not be eligible during his or her tenure of office as such member, or for one year thereafter, to any compensated town employment. If appointed by the council to a board or commission, he may be compensated as a member.

(b) Appointments and removals. The council shall not decide the appointment or removal of any administrative officials or employees whom the manager or his subordinates are empowered to appoint. The council may express its view and fully and freely discuss with the manager anything pertaining to the appointment and removal of such officials and employees. The following exceptions apply to this subsection:

1. The manager and the council's personnel committee shall constitute the hiring committee for any administrative officials or employees covered above who will have supervisory powers over other staff or will have access to town funds in cash or credit;
2. The manager shall submit to council for approval at a regular council meeting a job description, hiring timetable and draft public advertisement for any administrative official or employee covered above prior to advertising for such position;

3. Any member of council may submit a written request to remove any administrative official or employee covered above during the probationary period described in the town personnel manual. Such request must be delivered to the manager no later than one week prior to a regular council meeting. The subject administrative official or employee will have the right to speak publicly to council on such request at the next regular council meeting. Upon a majority vote of council the administrative official or employee covered above shall be removed.

(c) Interference with administration. Neither the council nor its members shall give public or private orders or directions to any administrative official or employee, except through the town manager. The following exceptions apply to this subsection:

1. Administrative officials and employees shall speak directly with council or any of its members for the purpose of discussion, informal reviews, inquiries or official investigations;
2. During the temporary absence of the manager, administrative officials and employees shall speak directly with council or any member thereof, in the event of a major housekeeping or maintenance situation. (2003, c. 867)

§ 9. Vacancies, forfeiture of office; suspension and removal; filling of vacancies.

The office of a council member shall become vacant upon his death, resignation, removal from office in any manner authorized by law or this charter, or forfeiture of his office.

A council member shall forfeit his office if he:

1. Violates any express prohibition of this charter; or
2. Fails to attend three consecutive regular scheduled meetings of the council without being excused by council.

The council members shall suspend or remove elected town officers for misconduct in office or neglect of duty, to be specified in the order of suspension or removal; but no removal shall be made without reasonable notice to the officer in question and an opportunity afforded him to be heard in his defense. Removal shall require an unanimous vote of the remaining members of the council.

A vacancy on the council shall be filled within 60 days, for the unexpired term, by a majority vote of the remaining members of council, if the vacancy occurs two years or less before the date of expiration of such term. If the vacancy occurs more than two years before the expiration of the term, the vacancy shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining members of council only until the next election of council, at which election the voters of the town shall elect a person to serve as council member for the remaining two years of the term.

Notwithstanding the requirements in § 11 hereof that a quorum of the council consists of four members, if at any time the membership of the council is reduced to less than four, the remaining members shall call for a special election to fill the vacancies for the unexpired term. (2003, c. 867)

§ 10. Procedures in case of forfeiture.

A council member charged with conduct constituting grounds for forfeiture of his office, as described in § 9 above, shall be entitled to a public hearing on demand, and notice of such hearing shall be published in one or more newspapers having general circulation in the town, at least two weeks in advance of the hearing. After such hearing, council, by a unanimous vote of the other members of council, shall declare the office of that council member forfeited and vacant. (2003, c. 867)

§ 11. Meeting procedures and rules.

The council shall meet regularly, at least once in every month, at such times and places as the council may prescribe by ordinance. Special meetings may be held on the call of the mayor or of any two members of council after not less than 24 hours notice to each member, except in case of extreme emergency when the time may be waived. No business, except as stated in the notice, shall be transacted by the council in such special meeting, unless all members of the council are present and give their unanimous consent to the consideration of such business, and such business is an emergency or of an unusual nature.

No vote shall be reconsidered or rescinded at any special meeting unless at such special meeting there are present as large a number of members as were present when such vote was taken.

The council shall determine its own rules and order of business and shall provide for keeping a journal of its proceedings. This journal shall be public record.

Voting, except on procedural motions, shall be by roll call and the ayes and nays shall be recorded in the journal. Four members of the council shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time. No action of the council, except as otherwise provided in the preceding sentence, shall be valid or binding unless adopted by the affirmative vote of four or more members of the council.

To adopt an ordinance or resolution having for its object the levying of taxes or contracting a debt, an affirmative recorded vote of five members of council is required. (2003, c. 867)

§ 12. Adoption of ordinances.

(a) In addition to other acts required by law or by specific provision of this charter to be enacted by ordinance, the following acts of the town council shall be by ordinances unless otherwise provided in this charter.

1. To adopt or amend an administrative code or establish, alter or abolish any town department, office or agency.
2. To provide for a fine or other penalty or establish a rule or regulation for violation of which a fine or other penalty is imposed.
3. To levy taxes, except as otherwise provided in § 25 with respect to the property tax levied by adoption of the budget.

4. To regulate the rate charged for its services by the town; however, the council may, by resolution, authorize the rates or fees charged by the department of parks and recreation for use of its facilities and authorize the rates and fees charged by other departments of the town for services pertaining to cutting grass on private properties, or making copies of printed or recorded matter.
5. To authorize the borrowing of money.
6. To convey or lease or authorize the conveyance or lease of any property owned by the town.

Acts other than those referred to in provision (a) 6 of this section, may be done either by ordinance or by resolution, if not in conflict with the law.

(b) Each proposed ordinance shall be introduced in writing and in the form required for adoption. No ordinance shall contain more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title. The enacting clause shall be "Be it ordained by the Council of the Town of La Crosse....."

(c) An ordinance may be introduced by any member at any regular or special meeting of the council. Upon introduction of any ordinance, the town clerk shall distribute a copy to each council member and to the manager. The town clerk shall also file a reasonable number of copies in the office of the town and shall publish the ordinance, together with a notice setting out the time and place for a public hearing thereon. The public hearing shall follow the publication by at least 12 days, may be held separately or in connection with a regular or special council meeting, and may be adjourned from time to time. All persons interested shall have an opportunity to be heard. After the hearing the council may adopt the ordinance with or without amendment or reject it but, if it is amended so as to materially change the purpose and character of the proposed ordinance, the council may not adopt it until the ordinance or its amended sections have been subjected to all the procedures hereinbefore required for a newly introduced ordinance.

In order to pass an ordinance, the council shall vote on the proposed ordinance two times: on first and second reading. If at any stage in this procedure the proposed ordinance fails to receive the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the council, the ordinance shall be declared defeated and removed from the calendar of ordinances. Any ordinance that is not passed at the same meeting at which the public hearing is held may not be passed at a subsequent meeting, unless the agenda for the meeting indicates that the ordinance will be removed from the calendar of ordinances for consideration at that meeting.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this charter, each adopted ordinance shall become effective on the date of its passage, or at such later date as it may specify.

(e) The ordinance or a brief summary thereof, together with the place where copies have been filed and when they are available for public inspection, shall be published in one or more newspapers having general circulation in the town. (2003, c. 867)

§ 13. Emergency ordinances.

In order to meet a public emergency affecting life, health, property or the public peace, the council may adopt one or more emergency ordinances, but such ordinances may not levy taxes or authorize the borrowing of money except as provided in § 12. An emergency ordinance shall be introduced in the form and manner prescribed for ordinances generally, except that it shall be plainly designated as an emergency ordinance and shall contain, after the enacting clause, a declaration stating that an emergency exists and describing it in clear and specific terms. An emergency ordinance may be adopted with or without amendment, or rejected at the meeting at which it is introduced. After its adoption, the ordinance shall be published and printed as prescribed for other adopted ordinances. It shall become effective upon adoption or at such later date as it may specify. Each emergency ordinance, except one made pursuant to § 12, shall automatically stand repealed as of the ninety-first day following the date on which it was adopted, but this shall not prevent reenactment of the ordinance in the manner specified in this section if the emergency still exists. An emergency ordinance may also be repealed by adoption of a repealing ordinance in the same manner specified in this section for adoption of emergency ordinances. (2003, c. 867)

§ 14. Codes of technical regulations.

The council may adopt any standard code of technical regulations, such as building, electrical and sanitary codes, by reference thereto in an adopting ordinance, if such codes are not in conflict with state law. § 15. Authentication and recording, codification and printing ordinances.

Upon its final passage, each ordinance or resolution shall be recorded by the town clerk in a properly indexed book designated for this purpose and shall be authenticated by the signature of the presiding officer and the town clerk.

Within three years after adoption of these charter changes and at least every 10 years thereafter, the council shall provide for the preparation of a general codification of all town ordinances and resolutions having the force and effect of law. The general codification shall be adopted by the council by ordinance and shall be published promptly in loose-leaf form, together with this charter and any amendments thereto, pertinent provisions of the Constitution of Virginia and other laws of the Commonwealth, and such codes of technical regulations and other rules and regulations as the council may specify. The compilation shall be noted and cited officially as the La Crosse Town Code. Copies of the code shall be furnished to town officials, placed in the town office for free public reference, and made available for purchase by the public at a reasonable price fixed by the council.

The council shall cause each ordinance and resolution having the force and effect of the law and each amendment to this charter to be printed or otherwise reproduced promptly following its adoption, and the printed ordinances, resolutions and charter amendments shall be distributed or sold to the public at a reasonable price to be fixed by the council. Following publication of the first La Crosse Town Code and at all times thereafter, the ordinances, resolutions and charter amendments shall be printed in substantially the same style as the code currently in effect and shall be in suitable form for integration therein. The council shall make such further arrangements as it deems desirable to the provisions of the Constitution and other laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, or the codes of technical regulations and other rules and regulations included in the town code. (2003, c. 867)

§ 17. Committees, boards and commissions.

The council may create committees, boards, and commissions to be composed of such number of citizens as the council may deem expedient as authorized by law. The council shall appoint the members, prescribe the compensation, if any, and the powers and duties of such committees, boards and commissions consistent with general law.

All members of committees, boards, and commissions appointed by the town council may be removed by the council unless otherwise provided by general law. (2003, c. 867)

§ 18. Town manager.

The town manager shall be appointed and serve at the pleasure of the council, which shall fix his compensation. The manager shall be appointed on the basis of his executive and administrative qualifications. He need not be a resident of the town or the Commonwealth at the time of his appointment, but may reside outside the town while in office only with the approval of the council. Within 90 days of beginning his term, the manager will join either the International City/County Management Association or the Virginia Local Government Managers Association, and shall ascribe to the respective organization's code of ethics. (2003, c. 867)

§ 19. Powers and duties of the town manager.

The town manager shall be the chief administrative officer of the town. He shall be responsible to the council for the administration of all town affairs placed in his charge by or under this charter. He shall act as an administrative representative of the town to area, state, and regional organizations and events. (2003, c. 867)

2. Within five days after a copy of the resolution is delivered to the manager, he may file with the council a written request for a public hearing. This hearing shall be held at a council meeting not earlier than 15 days nor later than 30 days after the request is filed. The manager may file with the council a written reply not later than five days before the hearing.
3. The council may adopt a final resolution of removal, which may be made effective immediately, by affirmative vote of a majority of all its members at any time after five days from the date when a copy of the preliminary resolution was delivered to the manager, if he has not requested a public hearing, or at any time after the public hearing if he has requested one.

The manager shall continue to receive his salary until the effective date of a final resolution of removal. (2003, c. 867)

§ 22. Creation of administrative department.

The council may establish all departments, offices and agencies it determines are necessary for the proper administration of the town with such powers and duties and subject to those regulations it deems proper, consistent with the provisions of this charter and the Constitution and general laws of the Commonwealth.

The budget shall provide a complete financial plan of all town funds and activities for the ensuing fiscal year and, except as required by law or this charter, shall be in such form as the manager deems desirable or the council may require. It shall indicate in separate sections:

1. Proposed expenditures for current operations during the ensuing fiscal year, detailed by offices, departments and agencies in terms of their respective work programs, and the method of financing such expenditures;
2. Proposed capital expenditures during the ensuing fiscal year, detailed by offices, departments and agencies when practicable, and the proposed method of financing each such capital expenditure; and
3. Anticipated net income or net loss for the ensuing fiscal year of each utility owned or operated by the town and the proposed method of its disposition; subsidiary budgets for each such utility giving detailed income and expenditure information shall be attached as appendices to the budget. The total of proposed expenditures shall not exceed the total of estimated available funds. (2003, c. 867)

After the public hearing, the council may adopt the budget with or without amendment. In amending the budget, it may add or increase programs or amounts and may delete or decrease any programs or amounts, except expenditures required by law or for debt service or for estimated cash deficit, provided that no amendment to the budget shall increase the authorized expenditures to an amount greater than the total of estimated available funds.

In the event of a public emergency affecting life, health, property or the public peace, the council may make emergency appropriations. Such appropriations may be made by emergency ordinance in accordance with the provisions of § 14 of this charter. § 7-A.3. Powers relating to architectural control districts; authority of town council to designate.

In order to protect and promote the general welfare, and to prevent deterioration of the appearance of the town that would tend to create hazards to public health, safety, and morals and destroy opportunity of the development of business and industry, the town council may, by ordinance, and after notice and public hearing pursuant to § 15.2-2204, designate architectural control districts. - (4) Whether or not proposed freestanding buildings use the same or architecturally harmonious materials, color, texture, and treatment for all exterior walls; and in the case of partially freestanding buildings, whether or not the same or architecturally harmonious materials, color, texture, and treatment are used on all portions of all exterior walls exposed to public view.
- (5) Whether or not the combination of architectural elements proposed for a structure, building, or improvement, in terms of design, line, massing, scale, proportion, dimension, color, material, texture, lighting, landscaping, roofline, and height conform to accepted architectural principles for permanent buildings as contrasted with engineering standards designed to satisfy safety requirements only; and exhibit external characteristics of demonstrated architectural and aesthetic durability and quality.

(6) Whether or not, in terms of design, material, texture, color, lighting, landscaping, dimension, line, massing, scale, proportion, roofline, and height, the proposed structure, building, or improvement that is designed to serve primarily as an advertisement or commercial display, exhibits exterior characteristics likely to deteriorate rapidly, would be of temporary or short-term architectural or aesthetic acceptability, would be plainly offensive to human sensibilities or would otherwise constitute a reasonable foreseeable detriment to the community.

§ 19.1. Procedure.

Subject to the exceptions set out hereinafter in § 19.8, any proposed ordinance or ordinances, including ordinances for the repeal or amendment of an existing ordinance, may be submitted to the council by petition signed by voters equal in number to ten percent of the number of voters duly registered on January 1 of the year of the petition.

The execution of the petition by a registered voter shall be acknowledged by him, or it may be proved by the oath of a witness who shall swear on information and belief that he knows the registered voter and that the petition was signed by the registered voter in the presence of the witness. The petition may be in the form of separate sheets, each sheet containing at the top thereof the petition as set forth above, and when bound together and offered for filing, shall be deemed to constitute one petition. Such petition shall contain the proposed ordinance in full, and shall have appended thereto or written thereon the names and addresses of at least five voters who shall be officially regarded as filing the petition, and who shall constitute a committee of petitioners for the purposes hereinafter stated. An affidavit signed by the committee of petitioners shall be attached to the petition stating the date the petition was first circulated.

All papers comprising the petition shall be assembled and filed with the clerk of the council, as one instrument, within 120 days from the date stated in the affidavit that the petition was first circulated. Within fifteen days of the date the petition is filed, the clerk shall have the general registrar of the city certify that the petition has the number of signatures of registered voters required to meet the above mentioned percentage. After the general registrar has certified that the number of signatures of registered voters meets the required percentage, the clerk shall submit the petition to the council at its next regular meeting, and provisions shall be made for public hearing upon the proposed ordinance. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.2. Petition for election.

The council shall at once proceed to consider such petition and shall take final action thereon within sixty days from the date of the submission thereof. If the council rejects the proposed ordinance, or passes it in a form different from that set forth in the petition, or fails to act finally upon it within the time stated, the committee of petitioners may require that it be submitted in its original form, or that it be submitted with any proposed change, addition, or amendment, to a vote of the voters by the following procedure: The committee shall present to the clerk of the circuit court of the city a petition for such election, addressed to the court and signed by voters equal in number to fifteen percent of the number of voters duly registered on January 1 of the year of the petition. The petition shall contain the proposed ordinance in full in the form in which it is to be submitted to the voters. The petition and all copies thereof shall be filed with the clerk as one instrument. Within fifteen days after the filing thereof, the clerk shall examine the same and ascertain and certify thereon whether the persons whose names are signed thereto are voters of the city, equal to the number required. However, the clerk of the circuit court shall have the general registrar certify which names on a petition are registered voters before certifying any petition himself. The general registrar and the clerk of the circuit court shall make their certifications within fifteen days of the date of filing. If it be found that the required number of voters have signed the petition, then the petition, with the certificate of the clerk thereon, shall be presented by the committee to the circuit court of the city, and thereupon the court shall forthwith enter an order calling and fixing a date for holding an election for the purpose of submitting the proposed ordinance to the voters of the city. Any such election shall be in accordance with § 24.1-165 of the Code of Virginia. At least ten days before any such election, the clerk of the circuit court shall cause such proposed ordinance to be published once in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the city. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.3. Ballots and effect of voting.

The ballots at such election shall conform to § 24.1-165 of the Code of Virginia. With respect to each ordinance whose adoption, amendment or repeal is sought, the following question shall be submitted: "Shall the ordinance entitled (title of ordinance) be (either adopted, amended or repealed, as appropriate)?" (1982, c. 398)

If a majority of the voters voting on such proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, the proposed ordinance shall, upon the ascertainment and certification of the results of such election as in other special elections, become an ordinance of the city. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.4. Ordinances adopted by the voters; how amended or repealed.

No ordinance adopted by a vote of the voters, as herein provided, shall be repealed or amended, except by a vote of the voters; but the circuit court of the city, on request of the council, by resolution, may order that a proposed ordinance repealing or amending any ordinance so adopted be submitted to the voters at any election, or any special municipal election called for some other purpose, if in accordance with the provisions of § 24.1-165 of the Code of Virginia, provided that the clerk of the circuit court shall cause notice of the submission of such proposed ordinance repealing or amending such ordinance to be published once in one or more newspapers of the city not less than ten days prior to the election. If an amendment is proposed, the notice shall contain the proposed amendment in full, and the ballot shall be in the same form and the vote shall have the same effect as in the case of an ordinance submitted to election by popular petition. The ballots and effect of voting shall be as provided in § 19.3 of this chapter. (1982, c. 398)

Referendum.

§ 19.5. Petition for referendum.

Subject to the exceptions set out hereinafter in § 19.8, if at any time within a thirty-day period following the adoption of an ordinance, a petition, signed by voters equal in number to fifteen percent of the number of voters duly registered on January 1 of the year of the petition, be filed with the clerk of the council, requesting that any such ordinance be repealed or amended as stated in the petition, such ordinance shall not become operative until the steps indicated herein shall have been taken or the time allowed for taking such steps shall have elapsed without action. Such petition shall state therein the names and addresses of at least five registered voters, who shall be officially regarded as filing the petition, and who shall constitute a committee of petitioners for the purposes hereinafter stated. Referendum petitions shall contain the text of the ordinance or ordinances, the amendment or repeal of which is sought, and shall contain the proposed amendment, if an amendment is demanded. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.6. Procedures.

The clerk of the council shall present the petition to the council at its next regular meeting, and thereupon the council shall consider the ordinance. If, within sixty days after the filing of such petition, the ordinance is not repealed or amended as requested in such petition, the clerk of the council, if so requested by a writing signed by a majority of the committee and presented to the clerk of the council within twenty days after the expiration of sixty days, shall present to the clerk of the circuit court of the city, the petition and all copies thereof as one instrument, together with a copy of the ordinance, the repeal or amendment of which is sought. The clerk of the circuit court of the city shall examine the petition and ascertain and certify thereon whether the persons whose names are signed thereto are registered voters of the city, equal in number to fifteen percent of the number of voters duly registered as of January 1 of the year of the petition; provided, however, the clerk of the circuit court shall have the general registrar certify which names on the petition are registered voters before certifying any petition himself. The general registrar and the clerk of the circuit court shall make their certifications within fifteen days of the date of filing. If such signatures do amount to such percentage, the committee shall present the petition to the circuit court of the city, and thereupon the court shall forthwith enter an order calling and fixing a date for holding an election for the purpose of submitting the ordinance to the voters of the city. Thereupon the ordinance shall ipso facto be further suspended from going into effect until the election shall have been held and shall then be deemed repealed or amended upon the approval by a majority of those voting thereon. Any such election shall be held in accordance with § 24.1-165 of the Code of Virginia. At least ten days before any such election, the clerk of the court shall cause the ordinance to be published once in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the city.

The ballots used when voting upon such ordinance shall conform in all respects to the ballots required for an initiative election under § 19.3 hereof, and the method of voting in any such election shall be as prescribed in that section.

If in any such election the ordinance so referred or submitted be approved by a majority of the voters voting thereon, the ordinance shall, upon the ascertainment and certification of the results of such election as in other special elections, go into effect as an ordinance of the city. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.7. Conflict of ordinances.

If two or more ordinances adopted or approved at the same election conflict in respect to any of their provisions, such ordinances shall go into effect in respect to such of their provisions as are not in conflict, and the one receiving the highest affirmative vote shall prevail insofar as their provisions conflict. (1982, c. 398)

§ 19.8. Measures not subject to initiative or referendum.

Ordinances passed providing for any work, improvement or repair certified by the city manager to be immediately necessary to protect public safety, public property, health or morals from imminent danger or protect the city from imminent loss or liability, shall not be subject to such referendum. The certificate of the city manager in any such case shall be conclusive. No ordinance concerning revenue levies, expenditures, zoning or any administrative act shall be subject to initiative or referendum. (1982, c. 398)

Recall.

§ 19.9. Procedure.

Any member of the council may be recalled and removed from office by the voters by the following procedure: A petition for the recall of the member or members designated, signed by voters equal in number to at least ten percent of the number of voters duly registered on January 1 of the year of the petition eligible to vote for the member or members sought to be recalled, and containing a statement of factual reasons of not more than 200 words of the grounds of the recall, shall be filed with the clerk of the council. Within fifteen days of the date such petition was filed, the clerk shall have the general registrar of the city certify that the petition has the number of signatures of voters required to meet the above mentioned percentage. If the petition contains the required number of signatures, the clerk shall forthwith notify the member or members sought to be removed, and such member or members may, within ten days after such notice, file with the clerk a defensive statement of not more than 200 words. The clerk shall, immediately upon the expiration of ten days, cause sufficient printed or typewritten copies of such petition, without the signatures, to be made, and to each of them he shall attach a printed or typewritten copy of such defensive statement or statements, if any such shall have been furnished him within the time provided. He shall preserve the original petition and any defensive statements in his office. He shall cause a copy of such petition, with a copy of any defensive statements, to be placed in the office of the general registrar of the city who shall provide facilities for signing the petition and for the proper custody thereof. The clerk shall immediately cause notice to be published in some newspaper of general circulation in the city of the place where the copies may be found and of the time in which the same may be signed.

The petition shall remain on file in the place designated for a period of thirty days, during which time it may be signed by voters of the city, including those who signed the original petition.

At the expiration of the period of thirty days, the clerk shall assemble all of the copies, and shall file the same as one instrument with the clerk of the circuit court of the city who shall examine the same and ascertain and certify thereon whether the persons whose names are signed thereto are voters of the city, equal in number to fifteen percent of the number of voters duly registered on January 1 of the year of the petition; however, the clerk of the circuit court shall have the general registrar certify which names on the petition are voters before certifying any petition himself. The general registrar and the clerk of the circuit court shall make their certifications within fifteen days of the date of filing. If such signatures do amount to such percentage, the clerk of the circuit court of the city shall at once serve notice of that fact upon the member or members designated in the petition. (1982, c. 398)
